Dedication

This year the 1995 PMBA Annual is dedicated in loving memory to a faithful servant, Bertha Sneed, who never missed an Annual Meeting for 59 years. Mrs. Sneed left with the PMBA a legacy of commitment and servitude.

James V. Hamblen
Director of Missions

Mrs. Bertha Sneed

It is only appropriate that we dedicate this annual to Mrs. Bertha Sneed, a beloved and faithful servant of Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. Mrs. Sneed was known throughout the association for her faithfulness in attending the annual meetings each year. Even in the later years of her life, while her health was failing, Mrs. Sneed still made her appearance at the annual meetings. For 59 years Bertha Sneed walked the isle of the host church to attend the annual meetings. How appropriate it was that the last annual meeting Mrs. Sneed was able to attend was at her home church, Antioch Baptist Church, on October 18, 1994.

Bertha Sneed, born April 5, 1901, was a member of Antioch Baptist Church since 1935. She was an invaluable asset to the church, and an example for all Southern Baptists. For several years, Mrs. Sneed taught the 12-13 year old children in Sunday School, later she began teaching an adult class. Mrs. Sneed organized the daytime Baptist Women's group for their retired ladies, and she was active in this group until her death on April 14, 1995.

PROCEEDINGS

1995 Spring Session
of the
Pilot Mountain Baptist Association

First Baptist Church
King, North Carolina
April 23, 1995

Theme: Challenged By the Vision

1. Vice Moderator Jim Baldwin, pastor of Quaker Gap Baptist Church convened the Spring Session of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association at 3:02 PM on Tuesday, April 23, 1995 at Union Cross Baptist Church.

2. David Lane, associational music director and minister of music at College Park, led the congregation in the hymn, "Lead On O King Eternal."

3. Pastor Steve Ayers, Union Cross Baptist Church, welcomed the association in session to Union Cross Baptist Church. Rev. Ayers stated that Union Cross has a great history. The church is a planned church.. Former director of missions, Lewis Ludlum, was meandering down Old High Point Road one day, when it came to his mind a vision for a church on Union Cross Road. His vision along with the vision of the mother church, Waughtown Baptist, brought about the establishing of Union Cross Baptist Church. Although Union Cross is 38 years old, it has many more years of history from people such as Lewis Ludlum who shared a vision so long ago.

   Rev. Ayers said that we come together because we are challenged by a vision...Yet not just a vision...But God's vision for the work that He has planned for us. We must look to a future where God leads...We live in a world that is divided at every turn...There are problems between races, problems between genders...Yet God tells us that there is "neither male nor female, neither Jew nor Greek"--we are one. As Baptists our vision should be to work together as one...Therefore our vision requires action...it requires that we, as God's people, are challenged by His vision. As Micah the great prophet said, "we are to do justice, to love kindness and to walk humbly with our God."

   When we see all these things that separate us as human beings, there is only one course of action, "to do justice, to love kindness, and to walk humbly with our God." Let us pray.

4. Karen Taylor, clerk for the association and member of Pfafftown Baptist Church, made the motion that those messengers already seated and those to be seated represent the 1995 Spring Session for the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. The motion was seconded by Levy Goodrich and carried.

5. Jim Baldwin recognized the Hispanic Baptist Church, a newly constituted church of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. The Hispanic Baptist Church was formed from a mission church of Union Grove Baptist Church. After 11 years as a mission, the mission came together with other churches to build the Hispanic Baptist Church located at Union Cross Road in Kernersville. We are proud to recognize them today.

6. Jim Hamblen announced that on May 1, at 7 PM, there would be a celebration at Galilee Baptist Church with three sister associations: Rowan, Guildford, and High Point, coming together in honor of 63 years of working to spread the good news of Jesus Christ. Mr. Hamblen mentioned that Mark Corts, pastor of Calvary, would be honored at this special event for being the pastor with the longest amount of tenure in our area.

7. Mr. Hamblen announced that the Key Leadership Conference would be held May 8-9 at Ridgecrest Conference Center. He asked that anyone who would like to represent the association at the conference in one of the unfilled vacancies should see him as soon as possible.

8. New pastors and additional church staff were recognized at the Spring Session by Jim Hamblen. Among those recognized were new pastors: Jarrett Banks, Fellowship Baptist Church, Todd Holt, Crestwood Baptist Church, and Paul Dean, Red Bank Baptist Church.

9. J.L. Wilson, pastor of Ardmore Baptist Church, brought greetings from the General Board of the Baptist State Convention. Mr. Wilson stated that he is grateful to serve on the General Board. At the first meeting Mr. Wilson attended, he received notice of Jim Lambert's upcoming retirement. Mr. Lambert's work with pastors has been outstanding and he will be missed.

   At the meeting he also receive a report regarding the World Hunger Funds. There were three PMBA churches in 1994 that received funds to assist them with ministry. These churches were Ardmore, working with the Samaritan Soup Kitchen; Knollwood, working with Crisis Control; and Forest Hill, working with the Prodigals Community.

   All funding was made possible through the World Hunger Relief Fund of the Baptist State Convention. Mr. Wilson stated that if anyone would like to learn how their church might receive such funds to work with World Hunger projects they should contact Mike Bradshaw in the associational office.

   He reported that giving to the Baptist State Convention during the quarter of January 1 thorugh April 6 was very positive. The Cooperative Program giving was up 4.93 percent; giving to the CBF was up over last year; gifts to Lottie Moon rose 10.04 percent, and State Missions was up 7.21 percent. The only giving that was down was to the Home Mission Board, 5.44 percent. Overall contributions have been very encouraging.

10. David Lane led the congregation in hymn, Forward Through the Ages.

11. Dr. Carlton Mitchell, chairperson for the Nominating Committee and pastor of Westview Baptist Church, brought two recommendations on behalf of the Nominating Committee. Due to ill health, Moderator Amis Daniel, must resigned. Mr. Mitchell recommended that Jim Baldwin, vice moderator, be elected to serve as Moderator, beginning his term effective immediately and that Ty Talton, associate pastor of Ardmore, be elected to serve as vice moderator to begin immediately. The motion was seconded by Jim Fowler and carried.

Dr. Mitchell made the motion that those submitted on the list by the Nominating Committee to serve as Mission Performance Council directors be accepted as given. There was a call for the question. No other names were submitted. The motion was seconded by Ira Tedder and it carried.

12. Jim Baldwin called discussion of any other business not listed on the program. There was none. Mr. Baldwin then asked that all registration cards be passed toward the center aisle.

13. Nathan Parrish, chairperson for the Constitution, recommended that the changes regarding the functions and objectives for the Student Ministries Council be approved as submitted. Ray Hamilton, pastor of Konnoak seconded the motion. There was a call for the question. A representative to the association in session questioned the reason for listing the Baptist Campus Minister of Wake Forest University as an ex-officio member. He asked whether this would in any way shift the focus of the Student Ministries Council or obligate the council in any particular way. Sam Sorrells, director of the Student Ministries Council, stated that having the Baptist Campus Minister to serve as an ex-officio member simply means he would serve in an advisory capacity and would in no way obligate the association to any particular agenda. The motion carried.

14. Special music was provided by the Association Quintet (consisting of David Hasker, Northwest; Robert Sparks, Old Town; Les Davis, Clemmons First; Rich Lowder, Pfafftown; and David Lane, College Park--all ministers of music) . Sandra Talton, minister of music at Ardmore, was the accompanist.

15. Irene Covington, associational leader and member of Kernersville First, spoke on, What I have seen and experienced in the PMBA. Miss Covington expressed her profound gratitude for the forty years serving on a church staff. She added that after forty years, God has given her four more years of serendipity since her retirement. Miss Covington spoke of the time when Amis Daniel reminded the association, Wherever we are is our mission field. She told that she has felt God's call to serve on the ASSISTeam and has been strengthened through the training opportunities where she participated.

    By helping Sunday School workers learn better techniques for reaching and teaching, she has felt a sense of the Great Commission. Miss Covington noted that while serving on the Nominating Committee she was able to witness the mass of people coming together to do the work of the association. She said, "Just think of how many, many people serve in our association! It is wonderful to see how God works through such a diversified people."

    In cleaning out her attic, Miss Covington realized how many, many things that she had saved over the years were no longer of benefit. She found she needed to clean them out, throw away that which could no longer benefit her. As the PMBA moves toward the 21st century, there are things that we no longer need to carry with us. We must learn to sort through our "savings" and realize the real treasures to take with us from the trash to leave behind.

16. Bill Norris, Assistant Treasurer for the association, gave a brief financial report. At the end of the quarter there were no outstanding bills. He noted a positive accounting in the General Funds but stated that the association is approximately $14,000 behind in contributions. Hopefully, this deficit will be somewhat smaller by the end of the month, if not altogether made up.

17. Larry Snyder, assistant chairperson of the Finance Committee, presented the Proposed Plan for Missions and Ministries for 1996. Mr. Snyder stated that this is a very preliminary proposal which has not been brought to the Finance Committee.

    Mr. Snyder reiterated the need for churches to go to giving on a percentage basis. He stated that the proposed budget of $684,602 will meet several needs. Yet, if churches will increase their giving by only ½ percent then the vision for the future will begin to really take shape. And, he stated, that if there is an increase in giving by churches by 3 percent then there is no telling what the churches could accomplish through the association in 1996. He encouraged everyone to examine the proposed plan, to notice some of the things that we can accomplish if the money is there. Then take back to the churches the proposed plan with your own plan for increasing your church's giving.

18. Dr. Tom Austin, pastor of Knollwood Baptist Church, rendered a sermon on stewardship. The following are excerpts from his sermon:

    "We humans breathe in oxygen and breathe out carbon dioxide. And plant life is designed to do just the opposite---breathe in carbon dioxide and give off oxygen. If humans were to do as plants, we would experience death.."" He spoke of the importance of living more in harmony with one another. He recounted the parable of the young son who wanted his inheritance before the designated time. In this parable, the younger son is caught up in all he can get. He cried to his father, "Give me my share of your inheritance." Such a request must have cut the Father to the quick..For, according to the standards of that day, a younger son could get one-third of the estate. The son's one conscious thought was for self....

    Going out on his own, the younger son soon wasted away all he had. He probably received all he needed from the school of hard knocks...For it soon became apparent that the hog pin was the young man's zip code! This young man quickly used up all he had. He became empty, broken, and frustrated as his community collapsed around him...He got to the place where no one none would give him anything...If you only take out and never put back in...such is the case...if you take in oxygen but refuse to give off carbon dioxide you will die..For only the person who is willing to lose his life can save it...What happens to a planet--an association--a congregation when it doesn't give back to the community is what happened to this son...

    This is not the end of the story...The young man started to remember home-father...In that moment the young son came to himself...He decided on an new course of action...to go home and be a part of the household...He was willing to go back even as a hired servant. He had found the burden of his much sought for freedom so complex that the thought of turning it over to someone else was a relief... His request to be as a hired servants was his baby-step from being a taker to a giver....In the process he stepped out to go home...And as you know, his father met him---not to remind him of all he had lost--No, for the father this was a time of celebration! For once his son was lost to him, but now he is found."...It is always a significant moment when a person awakens to the reality that he has something to give...

    I chose to handle my assignment in this way because PMBA suffers from two many takers. We need to realize a high commitment to one another...to our others...to our communities...The association cannot fulfill our dreams without the disciplined leadership and commitment of those who make up its membership. Your willingness to give out of your pocketbooks sets well....The law of prosperity can and does work in PMBA. However, the stewards of your resources is broader than your gifts...No congregation, no matter how large, how prosperous, can afford to go it alone...We need each other...we need the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association...Inhale...but don't hold your breathe...for your sakes as well as your neighbors in the PMBA...

And let those who have ears to hear...hear. Thanks be to God.!

19. Adjourned first session at 4:39 PM.

SESSION II

20. Moderator Baldwin convened the Second Session of the 1995 Spring Meeting at 7:04 P.M.

21. Charlie Martin recognized Mrs. Bertha Sneed as the longest standing member having attended over fifty consecutive Association in Session. Mrs. Sneed died earlier this year and Mr. Martin offered a prayer in her memory.

22. The congregation sang Hymn 451, O, Zion Haste.

23. Luther Osment, representative of the Baptist Retirement Homes, addressed the Spring Meeting. Mr. Osment stated that Brookridge is one of the loveliest retirement homes in our country. And the most delightful thing about Brookridge is its residents. They are living a 100 miles an hour! In all seriousness, the Brookridge residents are still a part of the Vision.

24. Ed Evans, member of the Evangelism Council, spoke of the work of the council. Mr. Evans stated that the primary function of the council is to keep encouraging the preaching of the e Gospel in our churches. Mr. Evans then introduced Harvey Owens, a new convert to the Christian faith.

    Mr. Owens told that he started out his life at a very early age with abusing drugs and alcohol. He was on the road to total ruin, but was fortunate to have some Christians to love him enough to share Jesus Christ with him. He gave his life to the Lord one and one-half years ago. Mr. Owens did not grow up in a Christian Home; however, he was blessed to see his Mother baptized just a week ago. He has been blessed to see his son and wife give their lives to the Lord and follow Him in Believer's Baptism.

    Mr. Owens recalled that while he was a drug addict, his young son said to him, "Dad, I want to be just like you." Even then, Mr. Owens knew that was not what he wanted for his son. But since being saved, it is a joy for his son to tell him that. Mr. Owens concluded by saying how wonderful it is to have Christian people care enough to share Jesus with him and his family.

25. Steve Pegram, chairperson of the Church Growth Council, introduced Gloria Cornell and Valjean Griggs, members of North Winston Baptist Church. The two ladies shared about their work in the multi-housing ministry of their church.

Mrs. Valjean Griggs said that North Winston is a little church with a BIG heart. Due to the vision of Rev. Gilliam and the congregations, her work in the Piedmont Projects got underway. Mrs. Griggs shared her concern in first going to the Piedmont Projects to work with children who might be undisciplined. She found that many of them had a problem with too short an attention span, but as time goes on she has found the children to become more attentive. Mrs. Griggs said that she has been teaching these children from a series entitled, God's Way Is My Way. Her emphasis has been on teaching the children to respect leaders in government and authority as well as to try an instill in them the love of God.

Mrs. Gloria Cornell spoke to the audience on her work in the Oak Grove Community. She said that she tries to emphasize God's Way Is My Way and at the same time open discussion for the children to share their experiences. Mrs. Cornell said that she loved to use modules in teaching the children for such techniques allow her to explore, strengthening the Bible stories. Mrs. Cornell expressed her gratitude for this opportunity, saying that she found her mission work very rewarding. Her working with the children has challenged her to rely more on God. Thru Him --not her or other volunteers--is the difference made.

One of the more impressionable moments is at the end of a teaching session when all the children are allowed to pray out loud. Not long ago a 10 year old girl prayed straight from her heart, touching everyone in the room. She asked for the elderly lady and her grandchildren. She ended her prayer by asking God to bless the community and the work of North Winston Baptist Church. Working in the Oak Grove Projects is carrying out the Great Commission. Mrs Cornell stated how thankful she was to be a part of this ministry.

26. Jim Fowler spoke on behalf of Hillsdale Community. Hillsdale Community Church began its ministry last December with 50 people in attendance. Now, they are in two worship services, averaging 100 people in attendance. Very soon you will notice that we have a new church admitted to our association. If you look at the financial reports, you will notice that the are already giving to the association. Mr. Fowler expressed his blessing from seeing church.

27. Charles Martin, chairperson of the Discipleship Training Council, reported on the work of this council. He said that about four years ago, as he was flipping through pages from the state promotions, he kept going back to the Discipleship Training Program opportunities. Mr. Martin grew up during the Training Union Era. And this material looked very appealing. Two things caught his attention: (1) new material filled with great ideas and (2) FREE. Nothing, he said, "excites pastors more than the "F" word!--FREE (unless it is the "F" word--FOOD!!) Not long after receiving the material he introduced it to his congregation. His church laity came back to him very excited. All these opportunities became more and more exciting to him as he thought about the training possibilities, such as Experiencing God and Master life. Mr. Martin then invited everyone to engage in these opportunities through the association to grow in Discipleship Training.

28. Collette Winkler, representative of the PMBA Baptist Toy Store, share regarding this vital ministry. Mrs. Winkler said the Toy Store allows us to give to those who have a need. By turning the association into a Toy Store during two days in December each year, we are allowing many churches to come together to share in "hands-on ministry."

Tony Brown, pastor of Griffith, related incidents of his involvement with the Baptist Toy Store for the past two years. He concluded by stating, "This is our opportunity to reach out to those less fortunate."

29. David Lane led the congregation in the offertory hymn, "Hark, the Voice of Jesus Calling"

30. Wade Dellinger, coordinator for the Ukraine Partnership, announced the Ukraine Mission Trip. He said that they are in need of teams of pastors, music people, and construction teams. Also, the State Convention sponsors Construction Teams to the Ukraine every two weeks. The cost is to be paid by the individuals going or their church.

    Mr. Dellinger announced that 25-30 volunteers are needed to help with Backyard Bible Clubs in Detroit for the upcoming summer. Housing is available at the Baptist Center if you don't mind sleeping on Army cots.

31. Joyce Love brought a report on the Belarussian Children's Project . This program began last summer. The PMBA got involved after searching for possibilities. Mrs. Love shared excerpts from letters that she had received from Isha, a Belarussian child who stayed in her home last summer. She spoke of the appreciation his family had for the opportunity to send their son to American for six weeks in order to help him strengthen his immune system. Mrs. Love invited everyone to consider the opportunity of being a host family.

32. Mike Bradshaw presented two plaques as a result of the Training Extravaganza. Mr. Bradshaw explained that the Training Extravaganza was the association's way of trying to offer training in a variety of areas for church laity. He recognized North Winston Baptist Church as the Church With the Highest Percentage of Church Participation. Pastor Reuban Gilliam accepted the award. The second plaque was presented to Robinhood Road Baptist Church as the Church With the Highest Number of Participants at the Training Extravaganza. Pastor Levy Goodrich accepted the award.

33. Bess Hollingsworth, director of the Literacy Council, was recognized for her many years as an advocate of the Literacy Program., and was awarded a plaque. Bess worked as a Literacy Tutor and Trainer of Tutors from 1966 - 1994. Having conducted training sessions all over the state, Mrs. Hollingsworth has been responsible for over 300 people to become Literacy Tutors.

34. Bill Yates, on behalf of the Personnel Committee, recommended that the association in session accept the resignation of Mike Bradshaw, Ministries Development Director of the association. James Hamblen then read Mr. Bradshaw's letter of resignation. Mr. Hamblen stated that he personally struggled with the way in which to communicate this resignation. He said that Mike perceives that God is leading him in a different direction of service. Mr. Hamblen thanked Mike for eight years of dedicated service and shared what a tremendous help Mike was during his (Mr. Hamblen's) two heart attacks in recent years. The resignation was seconded by James Garrison and the motion carried.

    Tripp May affirmed Mike Bradshaw's ministry with personal thanks for all that he had stood for and accomplished. The audience stood and applauded.

35. The meeting was adjourned at 9:03 P.M.

PROCEEDINGS
of the
110TH ANNUAL SESSION

Pilot Mountain Baptist Association

Oaklawn Baptist Church
Tuesday, October 17, 1995

Theme: Challenged by the Vision

1. The 110th Annual Session of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association was held on Tuesday, October 17, 1995 at Oaklawn Baptist Church. Jim Baldwin, moderator and pastor of Quaker Gap Baptist Church, convened the afternoon session at 3:03 PM.

2. David Lane, PMBA music director and minister of music at College Park, led the congregation in singing, "Praise the Lord, Ye Heavens Adore Him."

3. Pastor Kevin Kilbreath, on behalf of the congregation of Oaklawn, extended a warm welcome to those present. During Pastor Kilbreath's devotion, he reminded the congregation of the scriptures of Proverbs 29, "Without a vision people perish. He said that everyone should have a vision...not just any vision...but God's vision for his people. People Kilbreath asked that everyone remember the theme of the 110th annual session, Challenged by the Vision. He led in prayer.

4. The Creative Ministries Council of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association offered a theme interpretation in dramatic form.

5. Karen Taylor, clerk of the association, made the motion that those messengers already registered and those to be registered constitute the body of the 110th annual session. Levy Goodrich, Robinhood Road, seconded the motion and it carried. There were 168 registered messengers, 14 officers and leaders, and 23 visitors for a total of 249 in attendance representing 49 churches.

6. Ann McKenzie, Red Bank, presented the association with a framed print of Red Bank in honor of the place where the association was founded.

7. Jim Fowler, coordinator of the Training Extravaganza and minister of education at Ardmore, presented two plaques to Robinhood Road as follows:

   - To the congregation with the highest number of participants at the PMBA Training Extravaganza

   - To the congregation with the highest percentage of participants at the PMBA Training Extravaganza

8. Jim Hamblen, Executive Director, recognized Michael Blackwell, president of the Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina.

Mr. Blackwell brought greetings to the association from the staff of the Baptist Children's Homes. He announced that the Baptist Children's Homes would celebrate their 110th anniversary in 1995. Mr. Blackwell said that the situations have changed today. Originally a child-centered agency, the Baptist Children's Homes today are now a child-centered and family focused agency.

After giving a brief history of the Baptist Children's Homes, Mr. Blackwell reported that the Children's Homes offered more specialized family care. He stated that October 18 would be the 25th anniversary of the Maternity Center, and told how improved the daycare program is today. Mr. Blackwell gave reference to the great work of the Cameron Boys Camp, a therapeutic program for boys. Mr. Blackwell closed by saying that 90 percent of all offerings go toward the care of the children. He challenged those present to be generous with their gifts.

9. Jim Hamblen recognized new ministers in the Association: Scott Courtney, Rural Hall First; Paul Dean, Red Bank; Paul Norman, Macedonia; David Walker, Leak Memorial.

10. Mr. Hamblen recognized Peggy Hall, having retired in 1994 after serving the association for over twenty years. Upon her retirement, Mrs. Hall was the administrative assistant. Mr. Hamblen announced that the 1994 Annual Minutes would be dedicated to Peggy Hall as an expression of our deep appreciation for her dedicated service to the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association.

Dr. Carlton Mitchell, chairperson of the Nominating Committee and pastor, Westview Baptist Church, recognized Dr. Walter Harrelson, here in Winston-Salem to help with the Wake Forest Divinity School.

Daryl Hairston, pastor of the St. Andrew Community Baptist Church was introduced to the association in session. Mr. Hamblen announced that in June 1994 Rev. Hairston and his family left the church where they were attending, asking God to help them establish a church. During that same month Ardmore Baptist Church sought God's help in finding a black congregation to work with. By God's direction, Rev. Hairston founded the St. Andrew Community Baptist Church and entered into a partnership with Ardmore Baptist Church. With Ardmore's help, St. Andrew was able to secure a loan and purchase Temple Baptist Church on Melody Lane.

11. J.L. Wilson, pastor of Ardmore, brought greetings from the General Board of the Baptist State Convention. He related Peggy Conrad's regrets for not being able to be at the session to represent the General Board; however, her father is gravely ill.

Rev. Wilson announced that the Baptist State Convention will be held in Winston-Salem, November 13-15. He encouraged everyone to be a part of the convention this year. He reported that there will be a new emphasis on the North Carolina Missions Offering.

He reported that the funding of the Woman's Missionary Union and the Baptist Commission comes entirely from this offering. The people were reminded that 10 percent of the offering goes back to the association.

Mr. Wilson reported that the General Board staff travel across the state to hear the need of Baptists throughout the state. Wayne Oates and Jerry McGehee work very closely to meet the needs of pastors in the state. Ed Bullock, Evangelism Division, works to promote evangelism throughout the state. Mr. Bullock is thrilled with the many partnerships over the last few years. The General Board announces the new partnership with Togo. This is a very appropriate partnership.

Rev. Wilson ended by saying that giving to the work of the Baptist State Convention has been very good and the General Board is very thankful for the churches' continued faithfulness.

12. David Lane led the congregation in the hymn, Great Is Thy Faithfulness.

13. Jim Hamblen, on behalf of the Constitution Committee, made the recommendation that the changes to the Constitution as represented by the shaded areas be approved as printed.

Jim Baldwin asked if there was any discussion pertaining to the proposed amendments. Mr. Baldwin reminded everyone that there must be a two-thirds majority for the motion to be approved. The motion carried.

The motion was made that the proposed amendments to the By-laws be approved as indicated by the shaded areas as printed. Mr. Hamblen then referred those present to the shaded areas in the By-Laws Section. One particular change has to do with disbanding of particular councils (refer to page 3 of By-Laws Section). He referenced to the proposed changes of the Mission Partnerships Council, the Student Ministries Council, the WMU Council, the proposed changes of Communications Committee to Communications Coordinator. Mr. Hamblen stated that the Constitution Committee, Finance Committee, and Personnel Committee are asking for a four year rotation, instead of a three-year rotation. The recommendation was approved as given.

Mr. Hamblen reported that the Policies and Procedures will be examined by the Constitution Committee next. He then encouraged every church to actively participate in the processes of the association by sending representatives to the Executive Board Meetings.

14. Larry Snyder, assistant chairperson for the Finance Committee, gave the Financial Report to the association in session. Mr. Snyder brought attention to the Auditor's Report in the Book of Reports (pages 11-12). He stated that a copy of the Auditor's Report in its entirety is in the associational office for those interested in reading it.

Mr. Snyder presented the 1996 Plan for Missions and Ministries. He said that as we look at the Proposed 1996 Plan for Mission and Ministries we can see how our dreams are brought into place. He stated that if we work at it, our dream, our plan can become a reality.

In conclusion Mr. Snyder said, " I would like to say once again that if our churches will give on a percentage basis we could go beyond our expectations. If our pastors say, 'Yes, we should be giving on a percentage basis but fail to take this idea before the churches, we will kill our dream. These plans can become a reality if you will help."

15. Jim Baldwin, on behalf of the Coordinating Council, made the motion that we adopt the 1996 Calendar of Events as printed for next year. The motion carried.

16. David Hasker, minister of music at Northwest Baptist Church, and David Lane, minister of music at College Park Baptist Church, blessed the congregation with the songs, Now Sing We Joyfully Unto God and Jesus Paid It all.

17. Marj Bennett, director of the Language Missions Council gave a report on the work of the council. Mrs. Bennett said that we have several difficult situations when working with Language Missions. There are the legal and illegal aliens, the educated and non-educated, those with families to care for and those with no one. The PMBA Language Missions Council tries to meet these needs. We offer training to our churches to reach cross cultures. We try to educate our churches on how to be good friends, good neighbors, and loving Christians. Mrs. Bennett asked for our continued support as they try to reach across the boundaries of language and cultures.

18. Virginia Highfill, retired missionary and leader of the Japanese Mission at Northwest Baptist Church, introduced Rev. Yasushi Tomono, pastor of the Japanese Mission of the First Baptist Church of Raleigh, North Carolina. Ms. Highfill stated that Rev. Tomono began his studies at Southeastern in June 1990. Not long afterwards he felt God's call to a full time ministry to the North Carolina Japanese. Rev. Tomono travels to Fayetteville and Winston-Salem each month, reaching out to as many Japanese as possible. He's a tireless worker, deeply consecrated to the work God has for him to do.

    Rev. Yasushi Tomono recognized Virginia Highfill as our leading guardian angel. He stated that since Ms. Highfill had served in Japan for over 32 years, she probably knows Japanese better than him. Rev. Tomono asked, "Why is it we have enmity between nations, differences among races?" My imperfect vision is given by our Lord Jesus Christ...He has told me to break down the wall of enmity...to make others realize we are one in Christ. In Ephesians 4:1-6 Paul said, "Make every effort to keep unity with the body."...Even though the marriage between a Japanese couple or an American couple should be made easier because the couples are of one race, the truth of the matter is both couples can have difficulties in marriage. If it is hard for people who love each other and are of the same race to stay united, then how much more difficult it is to unit people who have deem divided by cultural differences.

    "Has the wall of hostility broken down between Japan and the United States since the end of World War II?" asked Rev. Tomono. He stated that he can say yes to that question simply because the hostility was broken down by our Savior Jesus Christ. Rev. Tomono referred to the scriptures of Luke, chapter 10, where the Good Samaritan was the only one to respond to the needs of a stranger. Rev. Tomono said that he believes that the messages for our churches should be to go and do the work of Jesus Christ.

    Rev. Tomono concluded his message by saying, "In Christ there is no wall between us. There can still be peace and hope among men."

19. The first session ended with the benediction being given by Mr. Dale Hancock. A meal was provided in the fellowship hall for those that had purchased a ticket.

SESSION II

20. Moderator Baldwin called the second session of the Spring Meeting to order at 7:01 PM.

21. David Lane led the congregation in, "Stand Up, Stand Up for Jesus."

22. Mrs. Bertha Sneed was recognized for sixty (60) years of faithful service to the association. Mrs. Sneed has been present at every associational meeting for the last 59 years. She died on April 14, 1995.

23. Levy Goodrich brought five recommendations on behalf of the Credentials Committee:

    (1) The Credentials Committee recommends that Northridge Baptist Church be received into full fellowship of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. The motion carried.
    (2) The Credentials Committee recommends that New Beginning Baptist Church be received into full fellowship of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. The motion carried.
    (3) The Credentials Committee recommends that the Hispanic Baptist Church be received into full fellowship of the association, eliminating the year of watchcare due to the 11 years that the Hispanic Baptist Church has been in existence and overseen by Union Grove Baptist Church. The recommendation was approved.
    (4) The Credentials Committee recommends that Christian Faith Baptist Church be allowed to continue under the new name of Lakewood Baptist Church. The motion was approved.
    (5) The Credentials Committee recommended that the Guidelines for Receiving Churches Under Watchcare, the Guidelines for Receiving Churches Into Full Fellowship, and The Guidelines for Dismissal of Churches From Membership be approved as submitted. The motion was approved as read. (Copies of these guidelines are available in the associational office.)

24. Mark Harris, assistant director of the Evangelism Council, reported that many churches participated in the Here's Hope Revival. Rev. Harris stated that one of the objectives for 1996 is to have an Evangelistic Conference next Spring. Dr. Ken Hemphill, and Dr. Carlton Hayes will be the keynote speakers. The main focus will be, Developing the Climate for an Evangelistic Church. Rev. Harris stated that the morning session will be primarily aimed at vital training for church staff and laity leadership.

25. Jim Hamblen spoke on behalf of the Organizational/Staff Redesign Team. Mr. Hamblen explained that this Task Force came into existence as a result of discussions in the Associational Coordinating Council. He said that they have a three-fold assignment. The first meeting was discussion about the direction of the association. At the last meeting Jack Gentry shared with the O/SRT his vision for PMBA. At the next meeting Jim Hamblen will be prepared to share his vision.

    Mr. Hamblen stated that it will be the responsibility of O/SRT to take information, give it shape, take it to the local congregation, and then shape into direction and implementation. He said, "We are eager to be a part of what is happening at PMBA. This will give us a single opportunity to look at where we are and see where we are going and then look at staff to fulfill those needs."

Jack Gentry, interim assistant director, was introduced by Jim Hamblen and asked to share the work that he has been doing for the association.

Mr. Gentry gave an account of the work that he has been doing since becoming part of the staff of the association in July, 1995. As of October 3 he has visited 43 of our congregations. He had hoped to be in all 83 churches by January 31, but is not sure that he will meet his imposed deadline.

26. Sandra Sewell, member of the Associational WMU Council, reported that a lot of work had been completed to make the Redwine Missionary Residence livable and ready for occupancy. She stated that the association's dream is to make it possible for congregations to personnally meet missionaries who are in town on furlough. Mrs. Sewell invited everyone to the Missionary Residence Open House on Sunday, October 22, 1995.

27. David Lane led the congregation in the offertory, "Lord, Here Am I."

28. Before the offering was taken, Vice Moderator Talton spoke of the contribution of Lewis Ludlum, stating that we have named his legacy after him, the Lewis Ludlum Resource Center. We have paid for our building and provided for its operations through the budget. But there are needs still not being met. The third floor is unfinished. The Plan and Dream is to finish this floor as a place for resources and study for ministers and laity. He concluded by asking that all remember these dreams as they give. His challenge was to keep the vision alive.

29. Ed Evans, member of the Evangelism Council and representative of the SBC Mission Board, shared his testimony. He said that he could remember many times as a young boy being convicted by the Holy Spirit, yet it was not until a Billy Graham Crusade some 15 years later that he finally surrendered his life to Jesus Christ. He said that he is amazed that in those 15 years not one person ever confronted him and share the love of Jesus with him.

    Mr. Evans said that he wants to go into the presence of Jesus just having told someone about Him. He challenged the pastors, the ministerial staff , and the laity of the PMBA congregations to make certain that they share the Gospel with the lost and dying world.

30. College Winkler, member of the Church & Community Ministries Council, encouraged the churches to support and promote the upcoming Baptist Toy Store. She noted that last year we provided toys for 650 children representing 240 families. She said that the success of the Toy Store lies on the commitment of the churches to fund the project by providing toys, monetary gifts, and volunteers to work during the Toy Store.

31. Joyce Love, member of the Missions Partnership Council, spoke on behalf of the Belarussian Children's Project. She shared letters from the two boys she had in her home during the summer. Mrs. Love stated that these letters are thank-yous to all those who made the Belarussian Children's Project possible. Mrs. Love reported that this year was very different from the first year. This year there were four children with leukemia. One of the children had problems with her leg due to radiation treatments. Medical attention was provided for these children. Thanks to the generosity of Baptist Hospital, the children received physical exams and where medical attention was needed, it was provided.

The greatest highlight of the project was the salvation of doctor who accompanied the children to America. He stated with a local family in Winston-Salem, and through their testimony and ministry he came to know the Lord as Savior.

32. Carlton Mitchell, chairperson of the Nominating Committee, submitted the 1995-1996 PMBA Leaders. Ty Talton, vice-moderator then submitted the name of Peggy Neal as chairperson for the Nominating Committee. Mr. Talton stated that in order to keep the Nominating Committee from being a perpetuating Committee, any positions to fill on the Nominating Committee, is submitted by the Coordinating Council. All leaders were approved as listed.

33. Gloria Griffith, chairperson of the World Mission Conference, expressed her excitement over the upcoming World Missions Conference. Mrs. Griffith told of the rally that was held just recently with Mildred McWhorter, retired home missionary, as a kick-off for the World Missions Conference which is scheduled for October 1996. The theme of the conference will be, magnify Your Mission Vision. She asked that all churches seriously consider being a part of the World Missions Conference in 1996.

34. David Lane led the congregation in the hymn, "High And Lifted Up."

35. J.L. Wilson, pastor of Ardmore Baptist Church, brought the evening message. His sermon, entitled Forward in Faith was taken from the text from Hebrews 10:3-39. The following are excerpts from his sermon:

We are so thankful for those who have gone before us. We have certainly had the vision put before us...To work out God's will is not going to be thwarted or squelched by any singular or collective failure on our part. God always moves forward to see the future...This does not mean He is throwing away our past...but rather that he thrusts us forward to see the vision for the future...Even so, what I find is a lot of ear...Lots of doubts about what the future is going to bring.

When we think of where we are going, we begin to worry over bonds of unity that can no longer hold us together. Sometimes we just want to take fears and distrust for the future and hunker down, build a cocoon, and escape from what is affection our situation....

What do we do when we are afraid? Whistle in the dark?...No good. Recreate the past? Can't be done...Reread the script and, as men of God, think, "Those were the days!" That kind of nostalgia brings the conviction that God cannot work as good in our days as He did once....What then do we do with our doubts and fears?

In 1953 I was appointed to Taiwan. I looked forward to a life time of serving oversees...During preparation time I had a dream. In the dream I was in the city of Bangkok. I could see a Buddhist Temple...Dark...Could actually hear the lonesome whistle of the train...No dialogue...just pictures...I awoke and was so confused that I immediately had to put this dream in God's hands.

Weeks later I was in a small mission in Bankok. I had never been there before. It was very dark...I was very alone...I heart the whistle of the train...and remembered my fears...remembered my dream....However, the fear was no longer with me...I had left it with God...

We take our fears with us as we step with God into His future....Those who please Him are those who are always dependable because they are seeking to follow Him in everything...When we put our faith in God we moved ahead and please Him...So don't look as one who shrinks back...You cannot do this and please Him...we are not among those who shrink back...We are part of those who move forward...

We go with God forward in Faith. This recounting in Hebrews calls upon those who follow God to look to Him. God is not in Heaven, wringing His hands...God is not wasting time...What we are to do in PMBA, in our local church, etc. is to know He has plans for us and to follow Him...

William Carey, often despised by the church, had a dream for the people. He thought the Great Commission was not just the responsibility of the apostles...Pay attention to that promise of Jesus Christ being with us always is coupled with us to be faithful in sharing the Gospel....

God is doing great things in this world...When it seems the world is falling apart, quiet often it is God, the great cultivator, shaking us up! I did not have to worry about Bankok...God was already there...We are with those who go forward.

Let me close with the simple yet profound prayer of Avery Brooke:

> God, I don't kow what to do. Obviously whatever I decide, it will make a great difference. I have gathered all the information I need. I have weighed those things for and against. I have asked the advice of experts and friends, and I still don't know what to do.
> Help me, God, to choose wisely. And once I have chosen, help me to go forward in faith.

36. The 1995-1996 Slate of Officers for the PMBA were installed as follows:

    James Baldwin, Quaker Gap - Moderator; Ty Talton, Ardmore, Vice Moderator
    Karen Taylor, Pfafftown, Clerk; John Woodard, Germanton - Assistant Clerk & Historian
    Carl Christensen, United - Treasurer; Bill Norris, Griffith - Assistant Treasurer

37. The 110th Annual Session of the PMBA was adjourned with prayer at 8:58 P.M.

MISSION PERFORMANCE COUNCILS:

CHAPLAINCY MINISTRIES COUNCIL

Ministry to international students at Wake Forest University has been a primary focus of the Chaplaincy Ministries Council in 1994-95. In November, students and their families enjoyed a traditional Thanksgiving meal at Wake Forest Baptist Church and heard Dr. Richard Groves speak about the history and customs of Thanksgiving. Other events during the year included picnics in the spring and fall and an ice cream social in the summer. Approximately 75 students from a variety of countries have been touched by these fellowship events. In addition, several students have been involved in host family relationships with members of area churches.

The council has continued to coordinate an Adopt-A-Resident program with local nursing home residents.

This summer, Elizabeth Jones, a student at Princeton Theological Seminary, served as Summer Chaplain to special populations. Among other duties, she compiled a list of needs expressed by area nursing homes. Congregations are being challenged to address these needs as part of their outreach to the community. Elizabeth also coordinated an appreciation luncheon for nursing home social workers and activity directors. The goal of these activities is to strengthen the relationship between churches and nursing homes as both attempt to provide care and support for nursing home residents.

As the Council looks ahead, there is an ongoing need for members of our congregations to volunteer as host families for international students or as adoptive friends for nursing home residents. These and other needs will be addressed in the year to come.

LINDA LEWIS, Member of Council

CHURCH & COMMUNITY MINISTRIES COUNCIL

The Church and Community Ministries Council had a wonderful time representing the Lord's work along with our PMBA churches.

The Baptist Toy Store helped 240 families representing 610 children. There were nine professions of faith and eleven rededications. Each family received a Bible, some fruit, and a time of spiritual guidance with one of our many volunteers.

Our Literacy Work this year featured two workshops with twelve participants. Refreshments were provided by volunteers from our churches. The retirement of Bess Hollingsworth left a vacancy that has not been filled. We thank God for Bess' many faithful years of service.

Summer Celebration is our association's work with the mentally challenged individuals in this area. We had a wonderful time with 60 day campers and 25 volunteers. The youth from Quaker Gap once again led in the recreation and under the leadership of Elizabeth Jones (our summer intern). Volunteers helped with devotions and crafts. BECK'S Baptist Church once again made their facilities available to us. Events for the visually impaired are being planned by the Red Bank Baptist and the First Baptist Church of Clemmons. These churches have taken this ministry to be an outreach from their churches.

The Third World Crafts event took place at the S.E.C.C.A. facility. The amount of sales were less this past year due to smaller inventory which was due to lack of space. There will not be a Third World Craft event this fall. We are hopeful to offer this ministry again in 1996.

The resignation of our staff leader, Mike Bradshaw, was noted with sadness. Many of these ministries lived first in Mike's heart. It is our prayer that they will all continue to live in ours.

WADE DELLINGER, Director

COOPERATIVE MINISTRIES COUNCIL

The Cooperative Ministries Council serves as a liaison between the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association and the Rowan Association. The Council seeks ways to share in cooperative fellowship and ministry among the pastors and churches of the two associations.

In December the ministers and spouses of both associations came together for a joint worship service and lunch at the Ardmore Baptist Church. The message was delivered by Dr. Clifford Jones of Charlotte, North Carolina. Dr. Jones is the President of the General Baptist State Convention of North Carolina. Dr. J. Ray Butler, a member of the State Joint Committee on Cooperative Ministries, introduced Dr. Jones to the gathering.

The Reverend Joseph Jones, Dr. J. Ray Butler, and Dr. Cecil Cave, who serve as the State Joint Committee on Cooperative Ministries of the General Baptist State Convention of North Carolina and the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, were to have attended a meeting of the Joint Committee on April 27, 1995, which was to have been held in Burlington, North Carolina, at the Holiday Inn. The meeting was rescheduled for October 5, 1995 due to the death of the wife of a former officer in the General Baptist State Convention of North Carolina. Dr. Corbin Cooper convenes this meeting annually.

As time permits, the Council works with other groups who are endeavoring to develop relationships across racial lines. The Director participates in the Ministers' Conference of Winston-Salem and vicinity, Religious Leaders for Reconciliation, Crossing 52 Initiative and Visions of Hope.

The Reverend Reuben J. Gilliam, Sr., pastor of North Winston Baptist Church; the Reverend Todd Holt, pastor of Crestwood Baptist Church; the Reverend David Wooten, pastor of Forest Hill Baptist Church; and Dr. Cecil Cave, Director of the Council and pastor of Mineral Springs Baptist Church, worked together on Operation Lunchbox 1995 which provided meals for children in public housing.

The Reverend James V. Hamblen, the Reverend Reuben J. Gilliam, Sr., the Reverend Joseph Jones, and Dr. Cecil Cave have been actively involved in the Religious Leaders for Reconciliation. The Cooperative Ministries Council is seeking workable suggestions from all participants from all gatherings so as to continue to contribute to better relations among all people.

CECIL CAVE, Director

CREATIVE MINISTRIES COUNCIL

The Creative Ministries Council is committed to assisting churches in their mission of reaching persons with the Good News that Jesus Christ is Lord. In a world that is increasingly secular, it is important that the Gospel be brought to the people (as fewer are coming to churches to find it for themselves). In addition, our world is very right-brained. Our world reads, understands, primarily through artistic, visual, media.

The church is here to proclaim God's Word. For the Gospel to be received, we need to speak in a language that is understood by the people of God's world. Creative Ministries is a language for today's spiritual needs. Be bold to use it in witnessing and ministering.

The Creative Ministries Council is available for consultation with your church on more effective ways to use drama, storytelling, clowning, puppetry, interpretative movement, mime and more in your ministry.

TRIPP MAY, Director

DISCIPLESHIP TRAINING COUNCIL

The Discipleship Training Council continued to work toward its objective of supporting local churches in our association in their efforts to provide meaningful, practical and effective discipling opportunities. This was accomplished in 1994-1995 through the following events:

1. (2) Discipleship Training Strategy Meetings
2. Associational Children's Bible Drill
3. Workshops in both the Spring and Fall Training Extravaganzas
4. A program for the Ministers Conference, focusing on Discipleship Training
5. Consultation sessions with individual readers.
6. Consultation sessions with individual church leaders.

As we plan towards 1995-1996 we look forward to developing the relationships we currently enjoy with local church leaders, forming new relationships with others, and praying that the Lord will use us to enhance the vital ministry of discipling believers in our association.

CHARLES MARTIN, Director

LANGUAGE MINISTRIES COUNCIL

The Language Ministries Council, meeting bi-monthly, reports good work being done in five areas.

- The International Community Church (Asian Indian) continues to meet at Calvary Baptist Church on Saturday afternoon with the ownership being in English. The pastor, Joseph Jesudason, stresses that this is still a small congregation. But, with the awareness that the number of Asian Indians is second only to Hispanics in the Triad, the need and prospects for this outreach cannot be ignored. More interest and support by concerned people from other churches in the area is welcomed since the pastor lives in Raleigh.

- The Korean Mission meets at First Baptist Church of Winston-Salem under the leadership of Rev. Peter Cho with the continuing assistance of Charles and Ellen Tabor. Pastor Cho was a part-time student this past year at Southeastern Seminary, graduating in May. Three persons have been baptized and four families joined recently. During the year the Mission had a revival and an active ministry at a local nursing home. Additional training is needed for the pastor and members. Pastor Cho hopes for growth in number and Christian character.

- The Japanese Mission, meeting at Northwest Baptist Church under the direction of Virginia Highfill, continues to reach out to their community even as far as Statesville. Pastor Yasushi Tomono comes once a month from Raleigh to lead in worship and discussion about problems they face as Christians.

  From this group, 12 attended the ninth annual Japanese Baptist Retreat at Caraway in June. One man made a profession of faith and two women rededicated their lives to be more faithful witnesses for Christ.

  The relationship with the mother church continues to be strengthened and blesses all concerned.

- This has been a banner year for Hispanic work under Larry Doyle. The Iglesia Bautista Hispana was constituted as a church and is now seeking affiliation with the PMBA. Their building has been completed with good support from other churches, businesses and many individuals.

  The Triad Hispanic Ministries is organized and functioning. Their activities of the year include: VBS, summer camps for children, pediatric clinics, youth retreat, family retreat, a visit of the medical/dental van in August, a drug prevention program, and seminary training classes.

  Needs at this time include:

  - more building space and land
  - deacon training
  - additional staff to ease work load
  - volunteers for child care
  - videos, games, toys

  The number of Hispanics in Winston-Salem increased 58% this past year. The possibilities for ministry are many.

- Mike and Ethel Ledbetter are finding many contacts with Hispanics and we hope to see another Hispanic Mission started on the north side of town soon.

- A Chinese ministry is in the initial stages at Calvary Baptist Church in Winston-Salem under the leadership of Dr. and Mrs. Tan.

We urge all of our churches to seek ways to become vitally involved in this foreign mission work at home. The Language Missions Council workshop at the Fall Training Extravaganza introduced ideas for this work. Materials are available at the PMBA office and members of the Language Missions Council will be happy to serve as consultants, if requested.

MUSIC MINISTRY COUNCIL

The greatest accomplishment for this year's Music Ministry Council was the successful launch of the PMBA Music Discovery. Almost 100 children attended this music camp which was conducted at Oldtown Baptist Church, July 31-August 4, 1995. The council hopes to make this an annual event.

The schedule for the children entering grades 1-6 included worship, snacks, recreation, and classes in choral singing, hymnology, hand bells, and rhythm instruments. As their mission offering, the children collected money to purchase 190 hymnals to be sent to the Ukrainian Baptist Mission. The children performed a concert for parents and friends on the last day.

The Music Ministry Council provided pre-service and special music for the 1995 Spring Meeting at Union Cross Baptist Church.

The council also booked a concert by the King's Brass for June 28, 1996.

RECREATIONAL MINISTRY COUNCIL

The Recreational Council of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association sponsored two major events this year. The Basketball Leagues for students from fourth through twelve grades and a Youth Co-ed Fourth through Sixth grade, Boys seventh through ninth grades, Boys tenth through twelfth grades, Boys seventh through twelfth grades and Girls seventh through twelfth grades. The leagues involved some 45 different teams representing twenty-four churches. The Youth Co-ed Softball involved two leagues with a total of thirteen teams representing ten churches.

SEMINARY EXTENSION COUNCIL

During 1995 the Seminary Extension Council conducted five (5) courses. Two were at Mount Olive - 1 Corinthians and Romans; two were at Walnut Cove First - Acts and Pastoral Care; and one, on Evangelism, was held at the PMBA Resource Center. In addition, General Epistles, Job, and Hebrews were offered through the Prison Ministry.

The council remains quite excited about Walnut Cove as our newest site for seminary extension classes. At the end of each course this group had a fellowship meal and a time of worship. All were keenly aware of the presence of the Holy Spirit during these class meetings. The class studied how the barriers facing the early church were overcome by the Spirit in the book of Acts and then watched the same Spirit create the unity of fellowship among them as they came to the study as men and women, black and white, young and old.

During this year the Council also implemented a new resource program for scholarships that were made available to those wishing to attend class, but who found the increasing cost prohibitive. We have seen this policy open many new doors for us. We look forward to new opportunities in 1996 with joy and anticipation.

SENIOR ADULT MINISTRIES

The Senior Adult Ministries Council sponsored their eighth annual senior adult luncheon at Calvary Baptist Church on May 4, 1995 with approximately 400 people in attendance, representing about 29 churches in the association. The meal was prepared by Marie Vaughan and her staff. Entertainment was provided by the College Park Senior Adult Ladies Chorus directed by David Lane, accompanist Kate Pool.

The council has planned and completed arrangements for a bus/train trip this fall.

The senior adult luncheon for 1996 will be held at Ardmore Baptist Church on May 2, 1996.

STUDENT MINISTRIES

During the last year the Student Ministries Council has focused its attention at the work at Salem College. The Baptist Work at Salem has been going on for many years; however, this was the first year that the work was coordinated through the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association.

The 1994-1995 school year was a good year for the Baptist Student Union at Salem College. Students were contacted and a core group emerged that participated in weekly Bible studies, retreats, mission projects, and fellowships.

Now, at the start of the 1995-1996 school year 25 students out of about 500 traditional students are participating in Baptist Student Union activities. The Baptist Student Union is one of the largest groups of students on campus. We are excited about the progress being made on campus and the desire of students to grow on their Spiritual journeys.

SUNDAY SCHOOL COUNCIL/ASSISTeam

The Sunday School emphasis Breakthrough concluded this year with the focus being on Witness to Win. Outreach through the Sunday School continues to be a major thrust for out work. Sunday School is the outreach arm of the church. It is Plan A for church growth. There is no Plan B. Your Sunday School council is making every effort to help our churches develop and train Sunday School workers for this task.

Our main project for the year was Together In God's Work. Churches were invited to meet with the ASSISTeam and learn how we could help them with a customized planning/training event for their Sunday School leadership. Only four churches took advantage of the project.

We assisted our churches through the following events:

1. Spring Training Extravaganza
2. Fall Training Extravaganza
3. Early Bird VBS Directors Clinic
4. Two VBS Workshops
5. Personal Consultations with Pastors/SS Directors
6. Conferences with individual churches

We will continue with large training events throughout the year. Churches are encouraged to use these events to train workers in general and specific areas of Sunday School work. Our new emphasis for the next five years is Carry the Light. Our teaching and training will focus on teaching God's Word to make a difference.

The main goal of the ASSISTeam this year is to get into all the churches and offer individual consultation to pastors and Sunday School directors.

You have elected us. You have trained us. We are ready to serve you. Call us and set up an appointment with a member of the Sunday School ASSISTeam. We can help you have the best Sunday School ever. Remember, there is no Plan B.

JIM FOWLER, ASSISTeam Director

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION

The emphasis reflects the intent of making the year a Time to Grow as individuals and as an association. To discover gifts given to us by the Holy Spirit, accept our spiritual gifts, and use our gifts as we grow and as we help others to grow. We prayed for each other and for members of WMU organizations in churches within our association.

WMU Leadership Conference was September 12, 1994, at Old Town Baptist Church with 37 churches represented. Those attending brought shower gifts for the Hispanic Baptist Church and gave $553.00 for the purchase of a kitchen appliance.

Baptist Women's Day of Prayer, Together in Christ We Worship and Serve, was November 7, 1994. Two prayer sessions were offered, the AM service at Kernersville First and the PM service at Center Grove with an attendance of 157 from 28 churches and an offering of $563.56 going to Baptist World Alliance Women's Department.

Pastors Appreciation Dinner at Oaklawn Baptist Church was held on January 19, 1995 with 121 attending from 23 churches. Patricia Frazier spoke on the new and old WMU concept.

WMU Salad Supper and Annual Meeting was held at Ardmore on March 28, 1995 with 450 making reservations from 39 churches. Irma Duke, Executive Director of North Carolina WMU spoke abut the changes for WMU in 1995/96. An offering was collected for Mundo Vista in the amount of $589.28. The theme was Planting for Your Future in WMU and Mundo Vista.

Acteens Awareness Night with Director of Missions Jim Hamblen was on May 25 at Pilot Mountain Baptist Association with 13 attending from six churches. The cost to attend was a box of Band-Aids for Dr. Ellen Tabor to take to the 17th Baptist World Congress in Argentina. You helped to fill Ellen's suitcases with band-aids and Neosporin!

Project HELP: Hunger was the National Ministry Project for the year. On February 12, 1995 you gave 3133 cans of food.

Mission Action is reaching out and touching those around us in need. You gave over 200 health care kits and party goodies for the Christmas Party at the Forsyth Jail and Prison. Birthday parties are held every month at Goodwill Industries. Work is in progress for the Redwine Missionary Residence to be furnished by next year with missionaries coming to Winston-Salem on furlough having a place to live. This is a joint agreement with Pilot Mountain Baptist Association WMU and the North Carolina Baptist Foundation.

YOUTH MINISTRY COUNCIL

The 1994-95 church year has been a great one for the Youth Ministry Council. We have examined how effective past special events and training have been, and looked closely at local church participation. The council also helped restructure the Youth Ministers Conference that meets monthly for fellowship and information. All Youth Ministers (full-time, part-time, and volunteer) on file with the PMBA office were contacted personally by a member of the Council, and encouraged to participate in Associational events. Other activities are outlined below:

1994 Associational Fall Youth Retreat

This was held November 18-20 at Blowing Rock Assembly Grounds with 204 youth and leaders in attendance. The theme was The True Test, and focused on family relation-ships. Twelve churches were represented, and the group times were led by BSU students from Appalachian State University.

Spring Associational Youth G.A.G. Nite!

The annual Spring event was changed in format, thanks to some helpful input received during the phone conversations with all of our local youth ministers and leaders. This was a special night of Games & Activities Galore at Speas Elementary School gymnasium, on April 7, 1995. There were 217 youth and leaders from 17 different churches in attendance, and it was a great time of Christian fun and fellowship led by Michael Capps.

Fall Associational Training Extravaganza

Youth Ministry 101 was the title of the course offered by the Youth Ministry Council for this event. The course featured a calendar of events for youth ministry on the local church level. This calendar included fellowships, creative mission service projects, parent/youth activities, outreach events, and Associational events!

1995 Fall Associational Youth Retreat

The Retreat will take place November 17-19, at Blowing Rock Assembly Grounds, and the theme this year is Growing in Godliness, with emphasis on moral purity. The group times will be led by BSU students at Mars Hill College, and they are looking forward to sharing this experience with us. Members of the Youth Ministry Council will be traveling to Mars Hill to lead this team in training sessions in preparation for the retreat.

RAMON SMITH, Director

ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES COMMITTEE

COMMUNICATIONS (Coordinator's Report)

The main project this year was the promotion of the Associational Missions Emphasis in May. Approximately 40 individuals spoke in 80% of our churches. Thanks to the willingness of the churches to plan for speakers during their worship services, many individuals heard about the PMBA ministries. Karen Taylor produced an informational tri-fold brochure about the association, which was used in several churches who did not request a speaker.

Hopefully, emphasis on the association will continue throughout the year in various Associational publications and meetings.

JIM SAUL, Coordinator

CREDENTIALS COMMITTEE

Following a year of watch care and after careful deliberation, the Credentials Committee recommends that New Beginning Baptist Church of King, North Carolina, and Northridge Baptist Church of Rural Hall, North Carolina, be received into full fellowship with the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association.

The Hispanic Baptist Church of Kernersville, North Carolina, evolved from several years of mission sponsorship of Union Grove Baptist Church. During this time the association became actively involved in a co-sponsorship, especially through the Language Missions Council and the Church Growth Council. The Credentials Committee feels that watch care requirement be waived and that the Hispanic Baptist Church be received into full fellowship with the association.

Christian Faith Baptist Church of Belews Creek, North Carolina, has reorganized and changed its name. Since the church is already affiliated with the association, the Credentials Committee recommends that the church be recognized to continue its fellowship with the association under its new name, Lakewood Baptist Church.

The committee is now awaiting Request for Affiliation applications from three additional churches.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Finance Committee
Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, Inc.
Winston-Salem, North Carolina

We have audited the accompanying statements of assets and fund balances - modified cash basis of Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, Inc. (a nonprofit organization) as of December 31, 1994 and 1993, and the related statements of revenue, expenses, and fund balances - modified cash basis for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Association's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

As described in Note A, the Association prepares its financial statements on the basis of cash receipts and disbursements except that the statements include a provision for depreciation of buildings and equipment. This basis is a comprehensive basis of accounting other than generally accepted accounting principles.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the assets and fund balances of Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, Inc., as of December 31, 1994 and 1993, and its revenue, expenses, and changes in its fund balances for the years then ended, on the basis of accounting described in Note A.

Our audits were conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The information contained in the accompanying schedules is presented for the purpose of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audits of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

Gray, Callison & Co., P.A.

FINANCE COMMITTEE

1994 Audit Report

The 1994 Audit Report has been completed by Gray, Callison and Company, P.A., Certified Public Accountants. The Audit Report was presented to the Finance Committee by Norman White on September 14, 1995. We received a favorable report and what would amount to an unqualified opinion for a non-profit organization. In presenting his report, Mr. White stated that the PMBA records were in a very high quality condition which he contributed to the outstanding work performed by the PMBA Financial Secretary, Sandra Hall, and Staff.

The Finance Committee is responsible for securing the outside audit for the Association and recommends that Gray, Callison and Company, P.A. be secured for next year's audit. The Finance Committee would also like to commend the PMBA Staff for their outstanding work.

A copy of the opinion letter from Gray, Callison and Company, P.A. is on the page preceding this report. The full Audit Report is available in the Associational Office.

The proposed 1996 Plan for Missions and Ministries is on the pages following the Audit Report Opinion Letter.

ORDER OF BUSINESS COMMITTEE

The Order of Business Committee met once each month during the past year to plan our Spring and Fall Meetings. In the Spring meeting we encouraged each speaker and reporter to utilize a show and tell format in order to communicate more visually our PMBA ministries. Your positive and encouraging comments about the Spring Meeting have been well received by our committee. In planning for our Fall Meeting we are continuing to encourage this show and tell format. We are also continuing our focus on the theme from the Spring Meeting of our vision for the future.

As chairman, I am deeply indebted to our faithful committee members, our staff liaison, Jim Hamblen, and our moderator for the first half of the year, Amis Daniel, and for the second half, Jim Baldwin. Special thanks to all those who have participated in our Spring and Fall meetings. We covet your comments and suggestions to further enhance our meetings together.

DAVE TURNER, Chairman

PERSONNEL COMMITTEE

The Personnel Committee has held five regular meetings with set agendas during the past year. The Committee has worked closely with the Executive Director in the correlation of job descriptions, staff evaluation, and budgetary issues.

This past year has brought significant shifts and transitions for the PMBA staff with the resignation of two of our executive ministers. On December 30, 1994, Dr. John Saunders resigned as Congregational Development Director to take the position of Executive Director for Yates Baptist Association. The spring brought the resignation of Reverend Michael Bradshaw as Ministries Development Director. The effective date of Mike's resignation was August 31, 1995. On August 20, 1995 a reception was held at the PMBA Resource Center honoring the eight and one-half years of Mike's ministry in our Associational family.

Dr. Jack Gentry accepted the position of Interim Assistant Executive Director effective July 1, 1995. Beverly Hamblen was hired as part-time staff member to minister in the areas of secretarial and clerical support. The additions of Jack and Beverly made an immediate impact and we are grateful for their new ministry in our midst.

In light of the duel executive staff changes the Organization/Staff Redesign Team was formulated for the purpose of addressing our immediate and future staff needs, the nature of Baptist associations as we move into the twenty-first century, and what PMBA's response will be to the changing ministry milieu.

The Personnel Committee joins with the entire PMBA family in affirming both our executive and support staff ministers. We are acutely aware of their giftedness, commitment, a call to ministry, and diligence in carrying out their tasks. We are blessed to have them as our servant leaders, and we give God thanks for them.

REPORT BY THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF MISSIONS

During this past year the primary focus of my attention has been directed toward our staff. In January John Saunders, Congregational Development Director, resigned in order to accept the responsibility as Executive Director of the Yates Baptist Association in Durham, North Carolina. Then in August Mike Bradshaw, Ministries Development Director, resigned in order to pursue other vocational interests. Between these two departures we attempted to continue our work with the churches by adding a part-time secretary and by calling Jack Gentry as the Interim Assistant Executive Director. It is difficult to lose and add one staff member in a given year...but to lose two persons and add two others places extreme hardships on the work flow.

However, we have discovered new talents and gifts of ministry in these two additions. Jack Gentry has been asked to visit as many ministers (for personal interviews) and as many congregations as possible. As of the fall meeting, he has far exceeded our expectations and is providing excellent material for the decisions about the future directions of our association. We will realize the benefits of Jack's work as we move through the calling process of our future staff members.

During this past year the Order of Business Committee asked me to present the closing message at our Spring Meeting at Union cross Baptist Church. I counted this a great honor and privilege. Many suggested that I should give stronger direction and to suggest the priorities for PMBA at this time...and...for the future. For your recollection, I summarize those priorities I offered in April:

1. Clearer sense of our mission and purpose in this ever changing context...
2. Stronger vision..and..hope for the future by all associational and congregational leaders...
   We should not be about personal empire building
   ...but...
   We should be about eternal Kingdom building...
3. Balanced participation on all levels of associational life...

   - Clergy and laity...
   - Men and women...
   - Intergenerational (wider age representation)...
   - Smaller and larger congregations...
   - Rural...suburban...inner city...
   - Multi-ethnic...multi-cultural...multi-lingual...

4. Refined organizational structures in direct response to the needs and expectations of congregations...

   - Not expanding or downsizing...but...fine tuning...
   - PMBA is a dynamic organism that lives and breathes...

5. Designated arena (group) for deliberation, decision-making and coordination of mission and purpose into faithful, effective and efficient ministries...

6. Strengthened financial base for all PMBA missions and ministries...

- Move from: donors to contributors to investors...
- Reaching toward ownership and involvement by every congregation...
- Goals for giving to missions through PMBA:

  1.) Total participation (all congregations)
  2.) Percentage giving (all congregations)
  3.) Endowments and memorials...
  4.) Targeted giving (project centered)
  5.) Estate planning...
  6.) Mission partners...

7. Improved communication which is...

- More than hi-tech equipment on the information highway...
- More than slick publicity and high pressure marketing techniques...
- More than highly-skilled and charismatic (employed) staff...
- But effective interpersonal communications by you, the satisfied clients and consumers...

Thank you for all that you are doing...and will be doing in the near future to make this association one of the most exciting parts of God's Kingdom work.

JAMES V. HAMBLEN, Director of Missions

- The 1996 Plan for Missions/Ministries was submitted for Executive Board's perusal. The Finance Committee stressed two real pressures: (1) Not wanting to present a plan more than the churches feel they can handle, and (2) the appeal from PMBA program leaders for more monies to support programs/ministries for the next year.

- Ubi Tsychovsky, spokesman for the Belarussian Children's Project, spoke to the March Executive Board regarding the needs of the Belarussian people. He expressed their concern for their children who were contaminated from the radiation spillout from the Cherynobyl incident several years ago. He stated that it was the desire of the Belarussian Children's Organization to send as many children to the United States during the summer as possible; however, their emphasis was on the children whose parents could not afford to send them. He challenged the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association to respond to this need.

- Larry Snyder, Assistant Chairperson of the Finance Committee, reported that the association is approximately $3600 below the budget. He stated that we appear to have a surplus but this is due to our not being fully staffed. Mr. Snyder stated that if our current giving level remains the same, then the proposed 1996 Plan will have to be cut..

- The motion was made that the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association authorize the WMU Council to enter into an agreement with the Baptist Foundation to manage the Redwine Missionary Residence.

- The Mission Study Group made the following recommendations that were approved:
  (1) The establishment of cluster groups comprised of PMBA pastors to encourage relationship building; to meet on a regular and scheduled basis; to listen and respond to the needs of pastors; to communicate crucial information; and to be directed by the PMBA executive staff.

  (2) That the Director of Missions, as the primary administrative officer, lead the Executive Staff in being pro-active in seeking specific levels of financial support from the churches of the PMBA and that this leadership occur before the time of budget development to communicate the "heart" of the PMBA ministries for the upcoming year and to help the pastors with mission dollar budget questions.

  (3) That the Personnel Committee and the Coordinating Council, along with the other councils, committees and groups, include and support the new direction of the executive staff in their administrative decisions and plans.

- The Personnel Committee made the recommendation that Jack Gentry be hired as Interim Assistant Director. The motion was approved.

- The Personnel Committee recommended that a Study Committee be formed at the discretion of the Executive Director to define the direction of the association and its staffing needs.

Dedication

The 1996 PMBA Annual is dedicated in loving memory to seven faithful servants: Thurman Lee Fox, W.R. Grigg, Benjamin Clayton Lamb, Velma Preslar McGee, , Louise Noffsinger, James Ralph Scales, and J.L. Wilson. These Saints have gone home but will be remembered for their dedication and service to the Kingdom work. These tributes were first published in The Pilot, our Associational newsletter.

THURMAN LEE FOX

- Superintendent of Missions, Cumberland Baptist Association (Tennessee), 1967-1973
- Superintendent of Missions, Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, 1973-1982
- Consultant to the Sunday School Board, Church Administration and Stewardship Department on State and Convention levels
- Husband of Minerva and father of Steven, David and Michael

"Hey, Preacher! Where's the ping pong ball? This'n's busted!" In his loveable Tennessee drawl, those were the words with which Thurman Fox challenged me during my ordination. This was his way of helping me to understand the ministering role of a pastor. Briefly, he said that pastoring is more than preaching and equipping, but also helping to meet the needs of people no matter how trivial those needs may seem to be.

Thurman came to our Association at the beginning of his sixth year in the ministry. He said it was "most rewarding to me to be able to sit with folks in this Association and be the beneficiary of their long years of preparation and service."

But that process reversed itself during his nine years with us, and it became our good fortune and privilege to reap the benefits of his wisdom and ministry. He was a confidant to those who would trust, a mentor to those who would listen, and a friend to all who knew him.

Thurman's final act of ministry (on earth) took place as he donated his body to the Bowman Gray School of Medicine for research in hopes of helping others.

"Hey, Preacher! Where's the ping pong ball?" Words spoken by Thurman Fox 23 years ago...words by which I shall always remember him.

W.R. GRIGG

Sooner or later we all say farewell to those who we love when they must make that inevitable journey to be with the Father. Such was the case on Tuesday, December 12, 1995, as my friend, W.R. Grigg, completed his faith pilgrimage here on earth.

A graduate of Wofford College in Spartanburg, South Carolina, and the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville, Kentucky, Grigg devoted more than half his life in interracial issues and was often referred to as a pioneer in racial relations.

In 1954 W.R. Grigg began his work for the Home Mission Board in black and white race relations. He conducted conferences and gave scholarships to African Americans in religious vocations. Rev. Grigg also worked long and hard to get blacks and whites together in worship. After 21 years with the HMB, Grigg retired and became professor of missions and director of development at Shaw University.

W.R. never retired really. He came back to Winston-Salem and served in churches throughout the Association as an interim pastor. He served several leadership capacities at the PMBA. And he always promoted strong racial relations among Southern Baptists.

To some he was pastor as he led congregations in North Carolina, Illinois, Georgia, and especially at Southside Baptist Church in Winston-Salem. To others he was denominational leader in Louisiana, North Carolina, and the Home Mission Board in Cooperative Ministries work with National Baptists. To most who followed his teachings, he was prophet as he pushed us toward the teachings of Jesus in the area of healthy race relations in the midst of prejudice and bigotry. To many colleagues he was statesman in the development of Baptist churches and institutional work across this nation. To his family he was a loving husband and benevolent father to his children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren.

But to me he was counselor, fellow servant, and most of all friend...

BENJAMIN CLAYTON LAMB

On Sunday, March 10, Heaven was made an even happier place with the arrival of Benjamin Clayton Lamb. The Lord shared Ben with this world for ninety-five years, starting June 14, 1901. In their retirement years, Ben and Margaret have been favorite residents of Brookridge Retirement Community.

The rich qualities that Ben gave to the churches he pastored in North Carolina and Florida in earlier years continued to characterize his life in the later years. Never did he lose his love for the church. On retiring to Winston-Salem he brought his membership and his heart to Calvary Baptist Church.

The strong athletic body that enabled him to play semi-professional baseball in early years served him well until problems with his knees slowed him down in very recent years. The rich voice that blessed churches as he blended in duets with Margaret, his wife of 68 years, continued to bless in recent years as he blended with the Brookridge choir. The warm personality that brought about Ben Lamb's election as President of the first Baptist Student Union at Buies Creek Academy (now Campbell University) continued to bless the Brookridge residents as he shared words of gentle humor and kindness and a spirit that said, "I find joy in being with you."

Ben Lamb's love for his Lord continued to be the foundation of his life. His commitment to his Savior was shown in earlier years as he responded to the call to the Gospel ministry by moving his wife and three children to the mountains of Western North Carolina. There he entered Mars Hill College and worked at three part-time jobs to support his family, even as he studied to serve. His love for his Lord continued to be seen in the closing years simply by the way he talked to his Lord and talked about his Lord and participated in the things of the Lord. Not only was he faithful at Calvary Baptist Church, Ben was also a regular at the Brookridge Sunday vesper service, the Wednesday prayer service, and the Saturday Bible study.

The residents of Brookridge feel that Ben Lamb's homegoing could not have come in a more appropriate manner. He was in his usual second row place for the Brookridge vesper service. The pianist had just concluded the final hymn of the prelude to the service, a song Ben Lamb had sung as a solo many times before: Precious Lord, take my hand, Lead me on, help me stand--I am tired, I am weak, I am worn; Thro' the storm, thro' the night, Lead me on to the Light--Take my hand, precious Lord, lead me home.

At that point Ben lost consciousness and slumped over in his chair. Within a few minutes he was home with the Lord.

VELMA PRESLAR MCGEE

Velma Preslar McGee, who died June 20, 1996, was one about whom and from whom I never heard a negative word. She was characterized by optimism and affirmation, qualities which grew out of her genuine Christian faith.

Widow of Dr. W.K. McGee and mother of four daughters, she was greatly admired and loved as a homemaker. She was also widely known and appreciated for her varied ministries in the church and community. In addition to filling numerous roles in College Park Baptist Church, she also served as State President of the Woman's Missionary Union, as First Vice President of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, as a teacher with the Laubach Literacy International, and as a member of the Winton-Salem School Board. In 1989 she received the Distinguished Alumna Award from her Alma Mater, Meredith College.

Velma is remembered most throughout the PMBA for her service as the first woman Moderator. She guided PMBA through the Centennial Celebration in 1985. Also, she served as President of the Ministers' Wives Conference. She was a true pioneer in her leadership in the association.

She is survived by four daughters, and sons-in-law: Betsy Brooks and Joe McLean, Kay and William Phillips, Joy and Don Jacobs, Velma and Lyman Ferrell; seven grandchildren; and three great-grandchildren.

"And I heard a voice from Heaven saying, 'Write this: Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord henceforth.' Blessed indeed, says the Spirit, 'that they may rest from their labors, for their deeds do follow them." [Revelation 14:13]

LOUISE NOFFSINGER

It was Spring 1978. I met Louise Noffsinger for the first time at Ridgecrest. We both had come for a Christian Drama Conference. When we go to know each other we found we had so much in common. We both saw drama as a means of sharing Christ with the world; drama is a language for speaking to people who aren't easily reached through conventional evangelism. Lulu had a dream for an annual Christian Drama Festival, just for North Carolinians. It would be a way to train lay people and ministers to use drama in their churches. With the additional leadership of John Fulcher (then Minister of Music and Youth at Mineral Springs Baptist Church) and Davis Bowen (then Youth Ministries Coordinator at the Baptist State Convention), Curtain Call Drama Conference was born November 17, 1978, at Knollwood Baptist Church, where Louise's husband, Dr. Jack Noffsinger, was pastor. Curtain Call celebrated its 19th year on October 11-13, 1996. Louise was making plans to be present for it when Jesus called her home October 8, 1996.

Louise never stopped planting drama before the churches. In 1988 Louise shared with PMBA Director, Jim Hamblen, a vision for extending drama ministry through the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. From that dream the Creative Ministries Council of the PMBA was born. And within that council, Louise took on the specific task of doing good church drama in the churches and taking drama to those who need to hear its message most (such as the residents of the Forsyth Correctional Center). This council has been a model for similar ones in Mecklenburg Association and others throughout our convention. The plays she has written have served as a constant reminder of our need to cross society's boundaries of race, generation, prison, and one's attitude with the gospel.

And the legacy of her giftedness continues with The Gift of Christmas, a play written by Louise and being presented by members of the PMBA churches just before Christmas in 1996. South Fork, Konnoak, New Beginning, Pfafftown, and the Forsyth Correctional Center will host the play.

If I were to summarize Louise Noffsinger's ministry it would be to say that God gifted her to remind us. He gifted her to remind us in the churches of the need to cross out of our safe zone with the gospel, plant both feet in the world and love it with the love of Christ. He gifted her to remind us that there are tools for ministry available to do this job, and drama is one of them.

JAMES RALPH SCALES

He would be amused at the avalanche of accolades now tumbling into the space left in the wake of his death. By means of an agile self-awareness, he would know that he was not as bad as his detractors averred, while he was still among us, nor as good as his admirers have avowed now that he has gone. I must assert that James Ralph Scales was one of the grandest persons I have ever known, which being translated means that he was great on a grand scale.

We were friends despite a context making for difficult relationships. I was his minister. He was President of Wake Forest University wherein our church worshiped and worked, in cavernous Wait Chapel, by virtue of the gratuitous invitation and permission of the University. Our friendship had to survive the sometimes tumultuous relationship between the University and the North Carolina Baptist State Convention. Although we sometimes were on opposite sides of a question, never once in our sixteen year relationship did Dr. Scales attempt to curtail the freedom of the pulpit of the Church. We both enjoyed a more relaxed atmosphere for congenial exchange after our retirement.

Dr. Scales was most probably on the last list of distinguished presidents who believed that a comprehensive education was best assured by an information highway connecting Athens and Jerusalem. Faith seeking understanding were both the overt and tacit expressions of his educational philosophy. He knew that all of us are forced to make choices affected by faith and reason throughout our lives and therefore he was admirably suited for the presidency of a church-related institution. In his latter years, as the distance between WFC and the NCBSC continued to widen, Dr. Scales was less comfortable in his administration. He was so dedicated to church-related higher education that the University was denied grants from secular sources because of his tenacity in this respect. His ultimate commitment was to humanistic universities rather than tribalistic multiversities which are now rending campus after campus across our nation.

Although he was extraordinary in many ways, James Ralph Scales was a devout believer in salvation by grace through faith. He would want no one to assume that heaven would be his reward by virtue of his moral and ethical meritocracy. When he was in town, he was in church, a vital member of a community of confession, praise, and thanksgiving. He told me once that if my sermon bored him, he would simply plan his work for the following week. I replied that he never had planned a week's work in his entire life. I think we will laugh about that exchange when next we see one another.

Warren T. Carr, Pastor Emeritus
Wake Forest Baptist Church

[Note: Dr. Scales was active in the PMBA for several years and served as Moderator 1971-1972.]

J. L. WILSON

My life...and maybe your life, as well, has been shaped by the influences of good friends through the years. It is sad and unfortunate that separation by death causes me to reflect on these individuals and the blessing they were to me.

Over the past few months I have tried to express these feelings about the homegoing of W.R. Grigg and James Ralph Scales. By far the most difficult task I have faced recently is the passing of J.L. Wilson. I did all the things friends do at such a time. I visited Alice, Beth and Debbie in their home. I met with a few pastors to talk about J.L. and his impact in all of our lives. I attended the memorial services at Ardmore Baptist Church. But all these do not seem to deal with the sense of grief and loss that I feel.

For lack of any better solution, please allow me the privilege of publishing the following:

Dear J.L.,

You left too soon and I was not ready no matter how much I tried. I wanted to tell you goodbye. I wanted to express how much you meant to me and how much I learned from you. I wanted to thank you for your forthright honesty which was present in all our meetings. I wanted to indicate how many lives and congregations you touched in God's Kingdom work. But I didn't get the chance... Because you left too soon!

I discovered some joy in knowing where you are...and...you wait for all of us who love you. Please keep watch over us with all the saints. We miss you!

Maybe this doesn't help you as it helps me. Thank you for reading this and caring about all of us who are hurting at this time.

Proceedings
1996 SPRING SESSION
Pilot Mountain Baptist Association
Beck's Baptist Church
Winston-Salem, NC
Tuesday, April 23, 1995
Theme: Called to be God's People

1. Moderator Jim Baldwin, Pastor of Quaker Gap Baptist Church, convened the 1996 Spring Session of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, at 3:01 PM on Tuesday, April 23, 1996, at 3:01 PM at Beck's Baptist Church, Winston-Salem, North Carolina.

2. David Lane, Associational Music Director and Minister of Music at College Park, led the congregation in the hymn, We Are Called to be God's People.

3. Pastor Jim Nelson welcomed those present to Beck's Baptist Church. He stated that this was their first opportunity to show-off their new facilities. Last September the church completed a new wing, which includes office space, Sunday School rooms, and a new fellowship hall.

   Cyrus Bush, Minister of Music at Beck's, celebrated our calling as Christians with the song, I'm a Child of the King."

   Jim Nelson led the congregation in a devotional time with the text taken from I Peter 2:4-10. Pastor Nelson said that we are much like the early Christians. We have the same purposes, we are a chosen people. Children of the King. We are a Holy nation for we are set apart from others. Today we can celebrate our common identity as Children of God.

   Peter also states that we are connected by a common task -- worshiping Almighty God. He also said that we are to share our testimonies with others. I suggest to you that God has called us to be His people. What an incredible fact this is...Benjamin Franklin said, "We must all hang together or we will all die separately--alone." Let us worship our Lord.

4. Hymn 385 was sung by the congregation: "In Christ There Is No East or West."

5. Karen Taylor, Clerk for the Association and member of Pfafftown Baptist Church, made the motion that those messengers already seated and those to be seated represent the 1995 Spring Session of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. The motion was seconded and carried.

REPORTS & RECOMMENDATIONS

6. O/SRT - Ty Talton directed everyone's attention to the report from the O/SRT (Organizational Staff Redesign Team). He explained why the O/SRT has contemplated changes for the association. When they began this process they soon realized that they needed to ask such questions as: Who are we? Where are we going? This report is a cohesive effort to answer these questions...The Association's heart is based on Missions and Ministries. The consensus of the report moves us from being program-focused to relationships-focused. Underlying this foundation is the assumption that missions and ministries will not get lost.

Who are we? A family of churches striving together in meaningful Christian fellowship through shared mission endeavors.

Jim Hamblen stated that when he first addressed the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association 13 years ago he said, "I'm going to give the Association back to the churches. We do not all have the same task. We have a unique mission...If we are in competition with one another we cannot work together...and working together gives us strength as to who we are.

It is the mission of the PMBA to be a catalyst in helping our churches to discover what they are to do. This is what we can take back to our churches...a message...a redefining of who we are.

The Primary function of all staff members reflects the relational focus...to build relationships that allow us to grow and minister together.

Jack Gentry has done some wonderful work, interviewing church leaders as well as church laity. He has a clear consensus from those interviews that we need more staff but we recognize that our churches are not ready for full staffing. So, this is our proposal...to bring us out of corporate world into ministry.

On behalf of the Organization/Staff Redesign Team, Mr. Talton made the motion that the recommendations of the O/SRT be approved for implementation (see report). The motion, seconded by Jim Nelson, was approved.

7. Finance Committee - Paul Edmond, Chairperson, presented the 1996 Plan for Missions and Ministries.(See attachments) The basic plan totals $376,886 with the monies derived from a survey of churches. The Plan has been approved by the Executive Board and Coordinating Council.

   Ray Hamilton made the motion that the 1996 Plan for Missions and Ministries be approved as submitted; Bill Fryar seconded the motion, and it carried.

8. Nominating Committee - On behalf of the Nominating Committee, Chairperson Peggy Neal presented the PMBA leadership as submitted. (See attached). Paul Edmond made the motion to accept the new slate of officers as submitted. Ray Hamilton seconded the motion and it carried.

   Peggy Neal submitted the name of Jack Hoyle to serve a 1998 term on the Credentials Committee. Jim Saul made the motion to accept Jack Hoyle as a member of the Credentials Committee and Ray Davis seconded the motion. The motion carried.

9. Personnel Committee - Bill Yates presented a report on behalf of the Personnel Committee. Mr. Yates complimented the PMBA staff on their hard work and dedication. He stated that a smart employer knows to hire competent, trustworthy employees. Today we extend a tangible expression to one of our employees to show our deep appreciation for 10 years of faithful service. Jim Hamblen will present this token of appreciation.

   Jim Hamblen stated that Peggy Hall set for the Associational Office a standard of excellence for the support staff. Mr. Hamblen said that many employees have come and gone since he first became Director of Missions. In 1986 Sandra Hall was hired as Financial Secretary. Mr. Hamblen knew Sandra Hall from her work with the Home Mission Board. He described Mrs. Hall as a West Carolina Mountain Woman with a tap root that goes to the core of the earth. Mr. Hamblen praised Sandra Hall for her competence and integrity and awarded her a $1,000 bonus for ten years of service to the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association.

10. Miscellaneous Business

An announcement was made about the PMBA Evangelism Conference to be held on Monday, May 6-7. Charles Page and Ken Hemphill will be the Keynote Speakers. The event will be held at College Park Baptist Church. For all pastors who pre-register there will be a free copy of the book, The Antioch Effect.

11. Thanksgiving Celebration - Jim Baldwin led the congregation in a time of thanksgiving and praise for those who have passed away in the last year. Mr. Baldwin stated, "Let us celebrate those who have walked the journey before us; who have cast shadows and left footprints." Mr. Baldwin stated that Christ had cast His shadow and touched lives. He asked us to recall those who might have cast shadows in lives or have left footprints in their willingness to follow Jesus. Mr. Baldwin then read a list of those who have recently died: Cliff Holland, W.R. Grigg, Ralph Ferguson, Mae Madison, James Ralph Scales, David Southern, Mrs. Bush, Ben Lamb, Allen Stevens, Thurman Fox, Bertha Sneed, Vaughn and Lois Sumner, Nettie Allen, and Raymond Brooks. He closed with a prayer of thanksgiving for their lives and work.

12. In closing David Lane led the congregation in Hymn 355, For All the Saints".

13. Adjournment: The first session of the 1996 Spring Meeting of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association was adjourned at 4:36 PM.

Spring Session - Tuesday, April 23, 1996

SECOND SESSION

1. Thirteen bell ringers led by Deborah Rice in a medley of music touched the hearts of all who were present, preparing them for worship.

2, Jim Baldwin called the Second Session of the 1996 Spring Meeting to order at 7:12 PM. Everyone was welcomed and a prayer was rendered.

3. David Lane led the congregation in the Hymn, God, the Father of Your People."

4. Congregational Development Council: A report was given by Director Randy Godwin. He stated that the Congregational Development Council has three responsibilities: 1) Assist established churches; (be a clearing house for our churches); 2) Encourage and assist with new church starts; and 3) Begin new work in multi-housing ministries. Mr. Godwin stated that he sees the Association expanding its role as a resource pool--to talk to churches and be available...be able to meet with congregational development leaders in a church to assist them with their goals.

   David Turner, Pastor of New Beginning Baptist Church reported that the Congregational Development Council had helped them in their new church start. New Beginning was built by approximately 300 individuals who volunteered their time and talents. He thanked the volunteers and many churches who helped make their vision a reality.

5. Volunteers: Partners in Ministry. Marjorie Turner, a PMBA office volunteers who serves as a receptionist on Thursday afternoons from 1PM - 5PM spoke of the rich rewards in being an active participant in the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. Mrs. Turner stated that without volunteers, associations and community agencies could not operate effectively. She said that she approached volunteering from a different perspective. She feels that God wants us to always be productive. Mature living brings great healing benefits to those who volunteer. Mrs. Turner stated that volunteering helps her physically, mentally, and spiritually. ..So often others see potential in us that we don't see...She went on to say that the greatest benefit in volunteering is meeting people. Mrs. Turner stated that she enjoyed working with the PMBA staff and thanked them for the opportunity to be a part of their lives. She concluded by encouraging others to become involved in some form of volunteer service. She told the audience that if they did not know where to begin, to contact the associational office and ask for a WMU Resource Booklet.

Jim Hamblen came forward to present Marjorie Turner with a lovely clock for 20 years of service as a volunteer of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. He told Mrs. Turner that she has served as a model for all volunteers and expressed his deep gratitude for her faithfulness and willingness to serve.

6. The Rejoice Ringers blessed the congregation with their arrangement of the song, On Eagles Wings. A memorial offering was taken for the Lewis Ludlum Resource Center.

7. Credentials Committee - Chairperson Herman Kitchen recommended one church for full membership and presented another that was approved by Executive Board for Watchcare.

   - Green Meadows Baptist Church was recommended by the Credentials Committee for full fellowship into the Association with the one year of Watchcare being waived due to their good standing with the Yadkin Association. Green Meadows is an established church in the Yadkin Association and comes to the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association with Yadkin's blessing. The congregation feel that they have more in common with the PMBA since many of their members live and work in our area of the state.

     Ty Talton seconded the motion and it carried.

   - St. Andrew Community Baptist Church was presented by Credentials Committee as being received under Watchcare by the Executive Board at their March meeting. St. Andrew, an African American congregation is in close covenant with Ardmore Baptist Church.

8. Associational Missions Emphasis Week - Wade Tucker, Stewardship Coordinator, spoke on behalf of the Associational Missions Emphasis Week. He announced that the Emphasis Week will be held in July instead of in the Spring this year. The highlight of the Emphasis Week will be the Associational Missions Banquet and Ministries Fair, which will be held at Calvary Baptist Church, on Thursday, July 25, beginning at 6:30 PM. The theme of the banquet will be Dream Something New and tickets will be $5.00 per person. Mr. Tucker explained that this will be a wonderful meal with a menu consisting of : prime rib, baked stuff potato, green beans almandine, salad, rolls, cheesecake, and tea or coffee. He announced that the goal of the Stewardship Task Force is to have 501 people at the banquet. At that time Mr. Tucker began to give away tickets through a drawing process. In conclusion, he encouraged the rest of the congregation to purchase their tickets as soon as possible.

9. Church & Community Ministries Council - Jim Nelson, Co-Director of the Council, reported that the Baptist Toy Store in 1995 was able to provide toys for 120 families representing 325 children. The toys left over from the Toy Store were given to Reuban Gilliam for his multi-housing ministry.

Mr. Nelson appealed for help with the Church & Community Ministries Council. He asked that those interested in serving on this council contact Peggy Neal, Chairperson of the Nominating Committee.

Mr. Nelson announced the Summer Celebration scheduled in June for the developmentally handicapped. The Council will hold the event at Beck's. They anticipate a good turn out.

The Church and Community Ministries Council will no longer be involved in the Self-Help Crafts Store. This decision was made due to inadequate space and the amount of time required to keep this ministry going. Mr. Nelson mentioned that several places in town have such a store year round.

Mr. Nelson noted the loss of the Association's Literacy Director, Bess Hollingsworth, who recently retired. He stated that the Council was interested in keeping this ministry going and are in the process of looking for a resource person to assist with this ministry.

10. Representatives of N.C. Baptist Hospitals, Inc.: Bill Yates, Vice President in charge of Pastoral Care, expressed gratitude for the support of the PMBA throughout the years. He stated that the "Vision of Pastoral Care is to provide the ministry of Hope and Healing through Jesus Christ." Mr. Yates spoke of the many ways in which the Pastoral Care Department of NC Baptist Hospitals, Inc. ministers to the people of North Carolina.

    Mr. Yates introduced Jim Murphy, Director of Church & Community Relations at Baptist Hospital. Mr. Murphy served three pastorates, pastoring in Durham for over 20 years. Mr. Yates referred to Mr. Murphy as our liaison in marketing, public relations, and missions.

    Jim Murphy spoke on the work before him. He said that brother and sisters like ourselves prayers together to make it possible for people who have no healthcare to receive medical attention by some of the most professional people and caring people in the world. Mr. Murphy expressed his gratitude to God for touching people throughout North Carolina to give of their resources to help those in need.

    Mr. Murphy expressed his appreciation for the opportunity to work with Lynn Presslar, President of NC Baptist Hospitals, Inc and Bill Yates, Vice President. He said that it was a privilege to work with such fine and caring Christians.

11. Richard Groves, Order of Business Committee, introduced David Odom, Director of the Center of Congregational Health at Baptist Hospital. Dave Odom came to Baptist Hospital in 1992 to organization the Center for Congregational Health. Mr. Odom has served as a Minister of Youth and as Minister of Education. He is a graduate of Furman University in Greenville, South Carolina.

12. David Lane led the congregation in the hymn, "Holy Is He".

13. David Odom's sermon title was A Good Report. He said that it is much better to share with friends than with strangers. He likes to listen to chatter in the hallways. Mr. Odom said that a lot of times he hears people talk about other churches. The definition of a good church is often varied with such verbage as Steps on toes...Makes you think...

    A healthy church will ask Who are we? How do we relate to one another? What do we believe? A healthy church has the spirit of Koinea with them--in the way they handle their differences...in the way members relate to each other.

The good thing about the Center for Congregational Health is that it only helps those churches who want help...We only have to work with those who really want help...

What is beyond good health? What does it mean to be vital...as an association...as a church? I found one story in the Scriptures that really turn me on to this--Matthew 25:14-30. Everybody who has ever taught Sunday School has taught this story. This story is about scarcity and abundance. There is the scarce spirit of Joseph who says, "We need to store up the grains"...A scarce Spirit will ask the question, Why?

The Spirit of abundance asks us, Why not? The Spirit of Abundance says, "I've got plenty. God has plenty to give away. I don't have to worry about it.

Another indication of a healthy church is the willingness to change...My dad gave my kids a CD Rom for Christmas. Now, it took me twice as long to learn to use it. But I did. I've got a fax, a car phone, desk phone, etc. How many of us want things to remain the same?...Yet we say, "If you want Jesus then come to our church the same way they did in 1955." If we want people in the nineties to come to our church, then we must find a way to attract them.

Jim Hamblen and I have a running debate about whether or not I am a member of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. Even so, I have noticed a certain spirit around here. It began with John Saunders and Mike Bradshaw leaving. It is called "change." Now, Jim Hamblen probably looked around and said, "Things are going ok, but maybe it is time for change." I'm not talking about the decisions that the Organization/Staff Redesign Team talked about, but about the Spirit of how they made those recommendations...

How do we know if we have the right Spirit? How do we know when we are not acting like the Spirit of Scarcity? My dad said that an important part of maturing is to join the Stock Market. I immediately put my money in a C.D. and promptly lost 10%...I had trouble with this parable...Jesus probably never knew the Dow Jones...This parable is concerned with God's economy and not the economy of the USA...Jesus said "Those who will lose His life for my sake...In the economy I grew up in a person never borrowed...In God's economy you must give it away to receive it. You must believe in your heart that God has blessings to shower on you. And then believe that because you are His child, you are worthy in His eyes to receive those blessings.

14. David Lane led the congregation in the hymn of benediction, To Worship, Work and Witness."

15. Ty Talton adjourned the meeting at 8:57 PM with prayer.

111TH ANNUAL MEETING
Old Town Baptist Church

1. Moderator Jim Baldwin called the 111th Annual Session of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association to order at 6:32 PM on Tuesday, October 23, 1996 at Old Town Baptist Church. Mr. Baldwin thanked Old Town for having the Annual Session in their new Christian Life Center. Prayer Requests were then given and Mr. Baldwin led the congregation in prayer.

2. Robert Sparks, Minister of Music at Old Town, led the congregation in a time of devotions and praise. Mr. Sparks told those present to listen carefully as he sang the first stanza of a song depicting Psalms 23. He asked everyone to picture the Palestine Hills--a shepherd watching over the flock. As one sheep goes astray and is lost, the shepherd becomes concern and goes in search of that one sheep. He shows his concern just as God shows His concern for us. To know that our loving Lord knows us so intimately!...

   Lord, is serving you here not enough?...Do we have to go to China? Japan? Surely not...And then we hear the Lord saying 99 plus 1 is what our Lord is concerned with...Lord, is not 99 enough? Must we continually go out to find that 1?... And the answer is YES!...If He is concerned how can we be unconcerned...We are thankful for what we have...We must show our concern so that they will now that we care...

   No one may ever know how dark is the valley which we have recently passed through...No matter what the rough place may be we know God is there...God's time is not our time... Patience... Endurance...Longsuffering...When we have come to that point, then we can rejoice in Jesus Christ...Do not be discouraged...the Lord brings back those who have been lost...Make it personal... Let God speak to us this night...And I guarantee you will leave this place better because we have been in the house of the Lord.

3. Jim Baldwin collected registration cards and recognized Glenn Murphy, Parker McClendon, Diane Robertson, and Patricia Flynn, members of Century Park Baptist Church. Century Park Baptist Church was formerly known as Sprague Street Baptist Church. The members sold that building, moved across town and purchased a new facility for worship. They named their new church Century Park.

REPORTS & RECOMMENDATIONS:

4. Personnel Committee: Bill Yates, Chairperson, led the congregation in a Commissioning Service for Charles Fox, the new Missionary Associate of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association.

   Mr. Yates stated that across the state the PMBA is known for a quality staff and a harmonious association...Churches and people get along well together here...Ministers continue to want to come to Winston-Salem because of this...We are also known as a Protégé Association. We are an association that responds to challenges...We had a challenge sometime ago when we found out that John Saunders would be leaving after a very short interval with us...We had to begin the process over again. The Organization/ Staff Redesign Team was formed to help us in our process. A part of that process brought us Jack Gentry. Jim Hamblen spoke up to say that Jack Gentry is the second cousin to everyone in Yadkin County. God sent Jack and Ruby to Taiwan for 31 years. Each time they came home on furlough they came back our way and Jack would begin a new study.

Jack brought many gifts when he came to Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. One thing He did do he brought to us a Spirit--the Spirit of God. He never let us off the hook... So, we thank Jack and Ruby for his time with the Association and wish them the very best that God has to offer.

David Hughes, Pastor of Winston-Salem First and member of the Personnel Committee, described the process which led to the calling of Charles Fox as Missionary Associate...The process began with the O/SRT, which Jack Gentry so aptly led...The Association felt it was time we made some changes... The O/SRT did some fantastic work...Led the Personnel Committee to the conclusion of the real Personnel needs...Realized that if the PMBA had to be reorganized, then so would the staff...We looked for a new breed--a person with outstanding relational skills...Wanted him to be up to speed on shifting landscape of churches as we entered the 21st Century. Jim Hamblen worked with us and offered many resumes...We went through the list of resumes...got it down to one list of three candidates...All three were outstanding...Jim Hamblen's first choice was Charles Fox...

Charles has spent time in the secular world as a City Planner...His most immediate position was with the Baptist State Convention...We received many letters...Glowing letters...And we decided to make phone calls. The Personnel Committee divided up the list of references and got more references from those we talked with...The Profile of Charles Fox matched the profile of the person we needed...He was asked to come to a two hour interview...The ease with which he answered our questions and the answers he gave convinced us that he would compliment the spiritual gifts of Jim Hamblen...In July the Associational Board voted to call Charles Fox as Missionary Associate...

Dr. Hughes stated that he feels that Charles Fox will be a benefit to Winston-Salem First--to any church in the association. Mr. Hughes then welcomed Charles to the association.

Bill Yates recognized Charles and Janet Fox. He challenged Charles to maximize his gifts--to take his created juices and go into the churches that they may see the new visions...He told them that we challenged them to grow with us...to weep with us...to be a part of PMBA in all that it can be...We are confident that you will do just that...

Bill Yates, Jim Baldwin, Wade Tucker, Al Fausch, Ty Talton, Wade Tucker, and Jim Hamblen proceeded to lay hands on Charles and pray for his time with PMBA. After a congregational prayer, Charles and Janet were presented to the PMBA.

5. Finance Committee: Chairperson Paul Edmond reported on the financial status of the PMBA. He thanked the churches for their generosity, stating that as of September there has been a 16% increase in giving...This is the third consecutive month for our churches to give beyond their pledge...Thank you for your generosity.

   He reported that the 1997 Plan for Missions and Ministries should be finished by the end of November and presented to the Associational Board in December.

   Mr. Edmond reported that the Audit Report, in its entirety, is available in the Associational Office for those interested in reading it. He was glad to report that everything appeared to be in order, referring everyone to the letter from the auditor. Mr. Edmond made the motion that the Audit Report as submitted by Gray, Callison & Associates be accepted as submitted. Wade Tucker seconded the motion and it carried.

6. Credentials Committee: Herman Kitchen, Chairperson, made the motion to accept St. Andrew Community Baptist Church into full fellowship of the Association. He explained that at the Spring Meeting on March 26, St. Andrew was placed under the watchcare of the Association for a period of one year; however, since there will be no Spring Meeting in 1997, the Credentials Committee is recommending that the remaining Watchcare be waived and that St. Andrew Community Baptist Church be brought into the Association with full fellowship. Jim Fowler seconded the motion and it carried.

   Nine members of St. Andrew Community Baptist Church came forward to be received into full fellowship and be presented to the congregation.

7. Nominating Committee: Chairperson Peggy Neal referred those present to the Nominee List as presented. Mrs. Neal made a correction under Order of Business Committee, Louis Hill is a member of Union Grove; under Nominating Committee James Garrison's term will end in 1999; there is a 1998 open slot to be filled on the Nominating Committee.

   Mrs. Neal mentioned that this is a big responsibility...She asked that if anyone was interested in serving or knew of a good candidate to serve where there is a slot open, to please contact her or Jim Hamblen.

   Mrs. Neal made the motion to accept the Leadership List of Nominees for 1996-1997 with corrections as mentioned. Ray Benfield seconded the motion, and it carried. She challenged everyone to be a doer and not a sitter...She also cautioned that if a person feels he cannot serve after being voted on, to please let the chairperson of that committee or council know as soon as possible.

8. Constitution Committee: Nathan Parrish, on behalf of the Constitution Committee, presented the revised edition of the Constitution and Bylaws to be voted on. James Garrison seconded the motion and it carried. Mr. Parrish then told how important it is for the Constitution Committee to hear from the Councils and Committees of the Association. He said that it is time that all work units rethink their purpose.

9. Robert Sparks led the Old Town Baptist Church Choir in a choral arrangement.

10. Belarussian Children's Project: Joyce Love shared from letters that she had received over the past several months from a family in Belarus. Misha, a little boy that Joyce has had in her home for three summers, has kept a correspondence going with her over the past two years.

    Mrs. Love said that because of the gifts and generosity of our churches and individuals children from Belarus have been able to come to the United States for the past three years. On June 8, 1997 the Association will once again be involved in the Belarussian Children's Project with 15 youth and their chaperons coming to the Winston-Salem area for a six weeks recuperation period from the radiation exposure caused by the Cherynobl disaster.

    Mrs. Love told how the children who have come each summer have been influenced by the Christian homes they have been a part of. She read letters from Misha's mother, who told Joyce that she had come to know Jesus Christ through America and the love extended by the PMBA family...It is not just for dollars or health but for salvation for others...

    Jim Hamblen noted that the Association has been caught on the horns of a dilemma. The Belarussian Children's Project was funded only 60% last summer. The cost for the airfare alone has risen from $220 to $600 per child...The Finance Committed wrestled with a dilemma...not wanting to go to the churches for specific fundraising...So, the Finance Committee gave Jim Hamblen the responsibility to find the monies within the budget. With creativity Mr. Hamblen was able to find the necessary monies and therefore the project will be fully funded in 1997.

11. Language Missions: Ethel Ledbetter reported on the new work of Beck's Baptist Church with the Hispanics in their area. Ethel said that she and her husband Mike had always noticed the Hispanics on the balcony of an apartment building--laughing, drinking, etc...She told how they were led to bring them to the Lord...Foreign missions have come to Winston-Salem, there is no escaping that reality...Christians must decide what we are going to do about all these foreign people in our midst...We can reach out to them...You don't have to know their language!

    How do we begin this ministry?" she asked. By meeting their needs...Take them to get their driver's license, to buy a car, to find a job, etc...It's time consuming, but oh so worth it! One lady from Beck's tutored small children last year. Another lady taught an adult English-as-a-second-language class...How about reaching the lost and needy right here in Winston-Salem for the Lord?" she asked. Too many of us have no contact or fellowship with the lost. For centuries it seems that we have been asleep...Is this the generation that will wake up?" she asked. When you see people from other worlds, do you think "God has sent these people to us that they might come to know him?" If so, join with Beck's and other churches who are trying to reach the flood of immigrants who have come to our land.

12. Discipleship Training: Charles Martin, Chairperson of this Council, came forward to report on the work of the Discipleship Training Council. After hearing the testimony of Ethel Ledbetter, Charles told the congregation that the Holy Spirit had told him to only offer a prayer. Then Mr. Martin led the congregation in a prayer of praise and thanksgiving, beseeching the Lord for His wisdom and help as we try to reach others with the Gospel.

    At the close of his prayer, Mr. Martin reported that the Leadership Development Team of the Association was ready to assist churches in areas of Sunday School, mission endeavors, Discipleship Training, etc. He encouraged churches needing assistance to call the Association Office requesting the assistance of specific groups.

13. Christian Life: Director Steve Ayers reported that the Christian Life Council was once again at work and meeting on a regular basis. He expressed the hope of the council to have a Child Advocacy Conference in the spring. Then on a personal note, Mr. Ayers asked everyone to pause and remember a special person, Louise Noffsinger, who had recently passed away. Mr. Ayers spoke of Mrs. Noffsinger's dedication and commitment to the association...He said that she possessed a feisty exuberance for life and shared that exuberance with all who came near her...He asked for those present to bow their heads in a time of remembrance for what she was, indeed, a Christian life.

14. Church & Community Ministries: Jim Nelson shared with the congregation the work of the Church & Community Ministries Council, stating that one of their main projects each year was the Baptist Toy Store. He reminded the audience that the Baptist Toy Store would once again take place during the first week of December. Mr. Nelson told that last year 150 families, representing approximately 400 children were assisted with toys. He made an appeal for volunteers to help this year with setting up the Toy Store and helping in the Toy Store. He asked that churches promote this event throughout their church and appealed for toys from all sources.

15. Robert Sparks led the congregation in singing.

16. Jim Baldwin introduced Richard Groves, Pastor of Wake Forest Baptist Church, who would be delivering the sermon, All In the Family, from scriptures in Luke 15-25-32..

17. Highlights from Richard Groves' sermon:

The confrontation between father and son took place out of doors for the plain and simple reason that the son refused to set foot inside his father's house. Shortly before, the son, who had been in the field supervising the laborers, had heard sounds strange for midday--laughter, music, singing--coming from his father's house, the hub of life on the arm. He had asked a servant why such festivities were going on when there was still plenty of sun left in the workday. The servant had answered...His master's younger brother--gone these...months...years--had come home and their father had been so elated by his son's safe return that he had thrown an impromptu celebration...

> "How could he welcome home that son of his after he disgraced us all?" Said the older brother to no one in particular. "Under no circumstances will I attend his party."
> The father...went outside to talk with his son, explain to him that it was because of his great love for his other son, the one he thought was dead, that he could celebrate the fact that he had returned home, safe and sound...
> .... "It isn't fair," said the son... "All these years I have worked for you. I have done everything you have asked me to do. And never, not once, have you thrown me a party in my honor..."
> Fairness was what the older son was concerned about. And he may have had a point, at least from one way of looking at things. Some time earlier, at the request of the younger son, the father had given each of his sons his inheritance. In our reading of this parable we usually focus so tightly on the affairs of the younger son that we overlook the fact that the older son also was given his inheritance. Each got what he had coming. The father must have figured that it would not have been right to give his younger son his inheritance and not give his older son his. It would not have been fair. The father treated each of his sons exactly the same way.
> Maybe that is where the older son go the idea that fairness and equality were the dominant concerns in the way their family was run...one in which all parties are treated in exactly the same way in order that there is no hint of favoritism. "We spent exactly as much on one child as we spend on the other. If one gets a new coat for winter, the other gets a new coat for winter.".. It was an arrangement that made sense to the older son...Life made sense to him when things were neat and orderly...
> ...When given the choice, he had chosen to stay home...learn about the family business...No doubt, he had invested his inheritance. His younger brother...had "wasted his substance on riotous living,"....All was going well, as planned, until the day little brother came home...
> It seemed to the older son that his father hand changed the rules on him. "What happened to treating us in exactly the same way?" he demanded. "Hey, I'm sorry about little brother, but he brought it on himself...I had no problems with it...It isn't fair."
> Ok, that is not exactly what he said, but that is what he meant. I have taken some liberty with the text in order to bring out what I consider to be the underlying issue in the conflict between the father and his son. The son fundamentally misunderstood his father and the way their family worked. He thought that fairness and equality, understood with mathematical exactness, was the model for life in the family. He did not understand that sometimes in families you do things that seem unfair in order to do what is right...

In order to do what is right by your children, sometimes you do what to an outside observer might seem unfair. In love you treat them unequally. It's called grace. That is what the older son did not understand about his father...He did not understand about grace.

I should stop and clarify one important point. When Jesus first told this parable, he was not giving lessons on parenting or talking about the dangers of sibling rivalries. He was talking about our relationship with God and with one another as a result of our common relationship with God...Picking up on that image, the apostle Paul said, "We are no longer strangers and sojourners, but we are fellow citizens with all the saints and members of the household of God." (Ephesians 2:19) That image, that we are all in the family of God, is at the very heart of what makes the church the church...

We are good Baptists, so it's "Brother So and So" and maybe even "Sister So and So," though we don't do that much anymore because it sounds a little Pentecostal. Generally speaking, we still use family of God language in the church. The question is, 'How large is God's extended family? '...I remind you that Jesus told the parable of the prodigal son when some religious leaders noticed that "tax collectors and sinners were coming near to listen to Jesus." The Pharisees and scribes grumbled, saying, "He welcomes sinners and eats with them." Who are those people? Jesus said, 'Think family.' ...Who are those people to us? What shall we call them?--because what we name other people influences how we think about them and how we think about them influences how we treat them...

In the 1920s a young, desperate mother brought her son to Boys Town, the home for boys that was founded at the turn of the century by Father Flanagan. She told the priest that she was single parent and very poor and that she had no way of caring for her son...The child wore heavy braces..and moved only with great difficulty. Father Flanagan explained that Boys Town was not set up to care for children with special needs. There were no elevators...and the dormitory was on the second floor. But the mother persisted, saying that she would be back in a day or two with her son's clothes and would be grateful if Father Flanagan would take care of young Harold until she got back on her feet. The priest gave in and said that Harold Loomis could stay temporarily. The young mother left her son...and never came back.

Harold spent his childhood and youth there. No elevator was ever installed. Every time he needed to go upstairs one of the other boys had to hoist him on his back and carry him. The first time Father Flanagan saw that happen he said, "Isn't he a bit big for you to carry?" The boy replied in words that became the motto for Boys Town, "He ain't heavy, Father, he's my brother."

If he's my brother, he ain't heavy. I do things for people who are related to me and who mean something to me...If she's my sister, my mother, or my grandmother, she ain't heavy. I will go the extra mile and never complain. If he's my father or my cousin, he ain't heavy. If he's family, then, "I'm strong, strong enough to carry him. He ain't heavy, he's my brother. But if he's my equal, he can get down and walk. You see the difference? It makes a difference what we call people, the names we give them, how we think about them.

Who are all those people out there?...We have a lot of names for them. Illegitimate children...Illegal aliens...We have a lot of names for them....

I believe that what the church is being called on to do in our time is to proclaim and model for our country a new way of naming one another, thinking about one another, treating one another. Not the way of the older brother, a way that pits people against one another, a way of judgment and condemnation. His shrill voice is being heard throughout the land. His conception of cold fairness and his legalistic ideas about equality have been elevated to the status of a moral category...What is missing is a sense of community, a sense of "We, the people," a sense of belonging to one another...regardless of our race, ethnicity, gender, financial status or any of the other myriad of ways we have devised to be ahead of one another...

We are being called to proclaim the way of the father of the prodigal son, which is to say, the way of God, a way that brings people together, a way of grace, healing, forgiveness, and redemption; a way that begins with the twin assumptions that we are all children of God and that Christ died for us all, therefore we are all elated to one another by creation, redemption and regeneration; a way that demands accountability and responsibility...that says to the young man trying hard to stay in school..., "I can help you. You aren't heavy, you're my brother"....a way that says to the single mother, struggling to rear her child, hold on to a low-paying job and further her education, "You aren't heavy, you're my sister," a way that says to the elderly woman sitting in a nursing home along with the terrors of Alzheimer's Disease, "You aren't heavy, you're my grandmother;" a way that says to the one who is HIV positive and lives daily with the agonizing fear of AIDS, "You aren't heavy, you're my son;" a way that says to the kids on the streets, with no sense of direction or meaning in their lives, "You aren't heavy, you're my children;" a way that looks across highway 52, where thousands upon thousands of God's children gather week by week to praise God and minister in Christ's name, people who experience life differently that we whites experience it, even now, people from whom we are separated by more than a four-lane highway, a way that looks across the city and says, "We are brothers and sisters, aunts and uncles, grandmothers and grandfathers in the faith, long lost cousins in Christ, too long separated by arrogance, ignorance, stupidity and fear."

May that be our clear message to our world as we minister in Christ's name, as churches and as an association: "We re all in the family, the family of God."

MISSION PERFORMANCE COUNCILS

CHURCH & COMMUNITY MINISTRIES COUNCIL

The associational year of 1995-96 was marked by three events: 1) the Christmas Toy Store; 2) Summer Celebration; and 3) the ice cream and cake social for the visually impaired.

The Toy store was the zenith of our associational year because almost every church in the PMBA took part. We were able to help one hundred and twenty-five families representing more than three hundred children. Each child received at least two new toys and a stocking stuffer. Every family received a Bible and food items including a turkey for Christmas dinner.

Summer Celebration is our day camp for the mentally handicapped. During the summer of 1996 we were able to minister to fifty individuals with the help of twenty wonderful members of the PMBA churches. Summer Celebration is a day of crafts, fellowship, food, recreation, and a talent show given by the campers.

The activities with the visually impaired are now being conducted under the leadership of the First Baptist Church of Clemmons. This past year an ice cream and cake social was given with thirty individuals taking part.

Our council will serve as a resource group to aid churches in ministry. If your congregation wishes to minister to the needs of any special group, please feel free to call on us.

WADE DELLINGER, Co-Director

CREATIVE MINISTRIES COUNCIL

The Creative Ministries Council was involved in two major productions for the Association:

- Let's Have an Old-Fashioned Christmas, a contemporary drama written by Louise Noffsinger. The drama was performed four (4) times at two different churches and once at the Forsyth Correctional Center. It was the first tiem two churches had offered their facilities, and, in addtion, each church had two performances!
- The Cross Bearer, an original Easter drama, written by Louise Noffsinger, based on the story of Simon of Cyrene, the unknown man who was forced to carry Jesus' cross. This drama was performed at four (4) PMBA congregations plus the Forsyth Correctional Center.

We continue to be amazed at the talent in our local churches. We encourge everyone to make a special effort to support our drama team by attending these productions.

LOUISE NOFFSINGER, Director

NOTE: We deeply regret the passing of Louise Noffsinger. She was a dedicated and creative individuals who shared her gifts of ministry whenever and wherever possible. She shall be greatly missed.

COOPERATIVE MINISTRIES COUNCIL

The Cooperative Ministries Council serves as a liaison between the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association and the Rowan Association. The Council seeks ways to share in cooperative fellowship and ministry among the pastors and churches of the two associations.

In December the ministers and spouses of both associations came together for a joint worship service and lunch at the Ardmore baptist Church on December 11, 1995. The message was delivered by Dr. Willie James Jennings, Assistant Professor of Systematic Theology in Black church Studies of Duke University. The Reverend Glenn Pettiford, pastor of the First Baptist church of Lexington, introduces Dr. Jennings to the gathering.

The Reverend Joseph Jones, Dr. J. Ray Butler, and Dr. Cecil Cave, who serve on the State Joint Committee on cooperative Ministries of the General Baptist State Convention of North Carolina and the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, attended a meeting of the Joint Committee on October 5, 1995, which was held in Burlington, North Carolina, at the Holiday Inn. The meeting was rescheduled from April 27, 1995, due to the death of the wife of a former officer in the general Baptist State Convention of North Carolina. Dr. Corbin Cooper convenes this meeting annually.

As time permits, the Council works with other groups who are endeavoring to develop relationships across racial lines. The Director participates in the Ministers Conference of Winston-Salem and Vicinity, Religious Leaders for Reconciliation, Crossing 52 Initiative and Visions of Hope.

The Reverend Reuban J. Gilliam, Sr., pastor of North Winston Baptist Church; the Reverend Todd Holt, pastor of Crestwood Baptist Church; the Reverend David Wooten, pastor of Forest Hill Baptist Church; and Dr. Cecil Cave, Director of the Council and pastor of Mineral Springs Baptist Church, worked together on Operation Lunchbox 1996 which provided meals for children in public housing.

The Reverend James V. Hamblen, the Reverend Reuban J. Gilliam, Sr., the Reverend Joseph Jones, and Dr. Cecil Cave have been actively involved in the Religious Leaders for Reconciliation. The Cooperative Ministries Council is seeking workable suggestions from all participants from all gatherings so as to continue to contribute to better relations among all people.

DISCIPLESHIP TRAINING COUNCIL

"If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, take up his cross daily, and follow me. Luke 9:23

In this brief, yet powerful, mandate we discover the Lord's call to discipleship, a process that includes every Christian and involves a lifetime. It is to this highest call that your Discipleship Training Council commits itself. Our primary goal is to engage and encourage all of our Association's churches to actively and consistently implement the process of discipling its members to become mature and fruitful disciples of Jesus Christ.

Through the sponsoring of two Discipleship Strategy meetings, the Council was able to establish working relationships with a targeted group of discipleship leaders and pastors in some of our churches. New ideas, resources, and trends in discipleship were introduced and discussed openly in these forums. Through future strategy meetings, it is hoped that more churches will be come aware of the support and information available to them through the Discipleship Training Council.

This year the Council also sponsored the PMBA Children's Bible Drill, with 23 children: grades 4-6, participating, representing three churches. We were proud to report that 22 qualified to compete in the state-level Bible drills.

Recognizing the importance of resources to the discipling process, the Discipleship Training Council invested a portion of its budget in the purchases of many of the most current discipleship training resources. These are kept at the Resource Center and are available for local church leaders to review.

The Discipleship Training Council looks forward to serving on our newly formed Leadership Development Team, alongside of representatives from the Sunday School Council, Brotherhood Council, WMU Council, and Seminary Extension Council. It is our desire to work together as a team in leading our churches in the ongoing process of identifying, equipping, and encouraging leaders (and potential leaders) in the fine churches of our Pilot Mountain Baptist Association.

CHARLES MARTIN, Director

EVANGELISM COUNCIL

The Evangelism Council's two main thrust for 1995-1996 associational year was the "Here's Hope" Rally held at Ardmore Baptist Church on Sunday afternoon, March 26, 1995, and the Evangelism Conference held in May 1996. The purpose of the rally was to kick off the simultaneous Here's Hope revivals.

- There was a short charge given by Dr. Michael Barrett, pastor of Pleasant Garden Baptist Church, Greensboro.
- Music was provided by participating churches under the direction of Scott Peters, Center Grove Baptist Church, Clemmons.
- There was testimonies from people who had received Christ during the sixty (60) days of sharing Jesus leading up to the revivals.
- There were approximately 500 people n attendance.

The Associational Evangelism Conference was held May 6-7, 1996 at College Park Baptist Church, Winston-Salem.

- ☐ The keynote speakers for each night were Dr. Kenneth Hemphill, President of Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, and Dr. Charles Page, Pastor of First Baptist Church, Charlotte.
- ☐ The theme of the conference was High and Lifted Up, with the focus on Developing the Climate for an Evangelistic Church.
- ☐ Tuesday morning Dr. Hemphill led two seminars built around the themes, Building Character in Your Church, and Discovering and Using Your Spiritual Gifts.

The latter part of 1996 was a transitional period when Rev. Mark Harris had to resign his position as Chairman of the Council because of a heavy work load in the building of a new church building. Rev. Carl Childs agreed to fill the position. The remainder of 1996 and the early part of 1997 was taken up with plans for the second Associational Evangelism Conference, scheduled for April 7-8, 1997 at Beck's Baptist Church in Winston-Salem.

CARL CHILDS, Director

LANGUAGE MISSIONS COUNCIL

Foreign Missions comes to Pilot Mountain Baptist Association

During the past year the members of the Language Missions Council have been assisting our local churches in responding to needs of the various language and ethnic groups in our community. These groups include Japanese at Northwest Baptist, Korean at Winston-Salem First Baptist, Hispanic - now in their own church and Hispanic at Beck's Baptist, Asian Indian at Calvary Baptist, and Vietnamese at Ardmore Baptist.

A new group of Hispanics is gathering for worship, Bible study, tutoring and fellowship at Beck's Baptist Church. We all need to pray for this group and the people of Beck's as they work out the logistics of this arrangement.

Another exciting activity is the ministry to the International Students in our own area. These are students from many different countries. It is a pleasure to get to know them and watch them get to know one another and compare notes about their experience here. We would like to broaden this ministry to include visits in homes of Baptist families. If some in your church are interested, talk with one of the members of the Language Missions Council and learn what is involved in this very exciting opportunity.

Most of the members of the Language Missions Council have had experience in other cultures and all have a deep interest in helping these who have brought the foreign mission field to us. Let us help you as you reach out in your community.

MISSION PARTNERSHIPS COUNCIL

Belarussian Children's Project:

The Mission Partnerships Council serves to look at domestic and international partnership ministries in which the local congregations can be involved. Several avenues were explored in both areas and congregations were encouraged to link together.

The greatest accomplishment for this year was the Belarussian Children's Project. Because of the April 1986 Chernobyl Nuclear Plant explosion and the spewing of radiation into the atmosphere of the small country, Belarus, 16 children came to our association. In bringing these children you offered them HOPE. This is more than a summer program for six weeks; it is the heart of Christian love.

A special thanks goes to the host families and because of the generous gifts of the local congregations in the family of churches were able to bring these children to our association. Thank you on behalf of the children and their parents.

MUSIC MINISTRIES COUNCIL

The PMBA Music Council sponsored a concert by the King's brass on Friday, June 28 at Calvary Baptist Church at 7:30 PM. This concert was open to all churches in our association and to the public at large. The King's Brass is composed of professional musicians who use their talents for the Lord, touring each summer to give sacred concerts around the United States.

On September 8, the Council hosted a keyboard workshop for all organist and pianists in our association. Nancy Lyons Smith of Greenville, South Carolina, was the guest clinician and dealt primarily with hymn playing and using instruments to lead in worship. The workshop was held at Ardmore from 2:00 - 4:00 PM and approximately 30 musicians attended. On September 19, the Council sponsored a children's choir workshop from 7:00 to 9:00 PM at Oldtown. Susan Ward of Florida Street Baptist Church in Greensboro led the workshop and approximately 10 children's choir workers attended.

Beginning in September, the Council changed the Ministers of Music Fellowship meeting from a lunch to breakfast meeting, in the hopes of encouraging more ministers of music to participate. In September, October, and November we met at Shoney's on University Parkway at 7 AM on the fourth Monday to share ideas and fellowship.

SEMINARY EXTENSION COUNCIL

In the past year the Seminary Extension Council has sponsored eight different courses. Three of these courses were given at the Forsyth Prison: The Gospel of John, Isaiah, and Ephesians and Philippians. One course was offered in Walnut Cove; Teaching the Bible to Adults; and four were taught at the PMBA Resource Center. These included: New Testament Survey I & II, Developing Leaders for Ministry, and Contemporary Christian Preaching. The preaching class was especially significant in that this group opted to meet on a monthly basis during the year in order to provide not only a learning experience but also a time of fellowship and support among several bi-vocational ministers participating in the course.

The Lord has blessed the work of this council during the past year and we look forward with anticipation to what He will do through us in the future.

SENIOR ADULT MINISTRIES COUNCIL

The Senior Adult Ministries Council sponsored their ninth annual adult luncheon at Ardmore Baptist Church on May 2, 1996 with approximately 364 people in attendance, representing about 27 churches in the Association. The meal was prepared by LaVerna Clapp and her staff. Entertainment was provided by the Joy Singers from First Baptist Church, Kernersville, under the direction of Joel Settle.

The Council has planned and completed arrangements with Fiesta Tours for a trip to the Smoky Mountains September 27-29, 1996.

The Senior Adult Luncheon for 1997 will be held at the Christian Life Center of Oldtown Baptist Church on May 1, 1997.

STUDENT MINISTRIES COUNCIL

This was a very good year for the Baptist Student Union at Salem College. The group continued to grow from the foundation laid last year. Most of the students from 1994-95 school year returned for the 1995-96 school year. One graduate served as a residence hall director and continued to be a part of the group.

There were weekly Bible studies, fellowships, and mission projects. There were many more opportunities to counsel or talk to students about their faith this year. The Baptist Student Union participated in the Religious Life Council. These members represent all religious groups on campus. This gave us additional opportunities to lead in chapel and to participate in conferences. They are eager to grow spiritually and use their gifts. All of our seniors won honors and awards for their commitment to their education and to the campus community. They have provided good student leadership.

SUNDAY SCHOOL COUNCIL

Carry the Light - Share God's Love has been the theme for this year's Sunday School work. An outstanding team of leaders have come together to ASSIST your church in the work of Bible Teaching, Reaching, and Ministry. This is our purpose.

Members of the team take advantage of a training opportunity in the Spring to be updated concerning the latest resources, changes taking place, and improving our conference leading and consultation skills. We thank you for this opportunity.

During this year we have spent time in getting to know one another through team meetings. Conferences were held at the Fall Training Extravaganza; a VBS Early Bird Clinic was held at Ardmore Baptist Church; 2 VBS clinics - one at King First and one at Konnoak. Spring consultation/workshops were held at Bethany and Union Cross in lieu of participating in the Spring Training Extravaganza.

We as a team stand ready to serve. Call us!

YOUTH MINISTRY COUNCIL

The Youth Ministry Council enjoyed another exciting year in 1995-96. We continued our trend toward actively involving more local churches in our PMBA decisions and events. We updated our mailing list to include churches where part-time youth workers were not receiving associational mailings. As a result, we feel like communication is continually getting better between our churches' youth ministries, and the youth will be the real winners as this grows. Specific activities are outlined below:

1995 Associational Fall Youth Retreat

This was held at Blowing Rock Assembly Grounds, November 17-19, with 261 youth and leaders in attendance. The theme for the weekend was Growing in Godliness, with an emphasis on moral purity. The group was led by BSU students from Mars Hill College.

1996 Spring Associational Youth G.A.G. Nite!

Michael Capps returned to lead this event, Saturday, April 13, and the response was huge! We filled the Polo Road Recreation Center gymnasium with 239 youth from 19 different churches. It was a fast-paced exciting event that left the youth ready for the fellowship and refreshment time that closed out the evening!

1996 Associational Fall Retreat

Based on the feed back we received from the youth and leaders who attended the 1995 retreat, we plan to make several changes for the 1996 retreat. We will meet at Ridgecrest Conference center on Friday evening, November 15 to begin our Mountain Movers experience! Youth leaders from our association will lead the small groups, and there will be a special track for high school seniors. A concert will open the retreat, and a variety show will feature young people from our association's churches!

ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES COMMITTEES

CONSTITUTION COMMITTEE

The principal responsibility of the Constitution Committee is to review and make recommendations with respect to the Constitution, By-Laws, and Policies & Procedures of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. These documents reflect our identity, aims, and methods as an Association. In a technical sense, these three documents state who we are, what we are about, and how we intend to achieve those ministry and mission goals that reflect our identity and commitments as an Association. The year 1995-1996 was one of transition and redefinition for the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. Following the adoption of the recommendations from the Organizational/Staff Redesign Team (OSRT), the task of the Constitution Committee was to examine our primary documents in the light of this report and recommend Constitutional changes that would reflect these new commitments. The Constitution Committee also requested that each council, Committee, and Conference within the PMBA examine its purpose, objectives, and methods in the light of the OSRT report and submit any necessary changes to the Constitution Committee for review and recommendation to the Association at large. A series of constitutional changes were reported and approved at the 111th Annual Meeting of the PMBA at Old Town Baptist Church on October 29, 1996. Since the Constitution of the PMBA is a living document and not a static fixture, the overall process of review and revision is on going and will continue throughout the upcoming year. Our aim and hope as a committee is to maintain a Constitution that accurately reflects our character and commitments as an Association. We welcome the suggestions of others in this process and we are grateful for the opportunity to serve the PMBA family through this work.

NATHAN E. PARRISH, Chairman

CREDENTIALS COMMITTEE

What we do: The Credentials Committee acts for the association in determining the credibility of churches seeking membership in the association.

How we do it: After examining a petitioning church's application, constitution, manner and motive of organization, fellowship and purpose of seeking affiliation, the committee meets for an interview with the pastor and representatives of the church to ascertain if the church's faith, polity, and practice are in harmony with the purpose of the association. Following this interview, the committee reports to the Associational Board and Association-in-session with recommendations according to its findings.

The results: this year the association accepted the transfer of Green Meadows Baptist Church, Mocksville, from the Yadkin Association and received Saint Andrew Community Baptist Church, Winston-Salem, under watchcare.

Since Saint Andrew is in a covenant relationship with Ardmore, the committee will recommend that the remaining five months of watchcare requirement be waived and that the church be received into full fellowship with the association at the 1996 Fall Session.

R. HERMAN KITCHEN, Chairperson

FINANCE COMMITTEE

The Finance committee met monthly in 1996. Along with developing the Plan for Missions and Ministries, the following issues were among items addressed:

1) Additional funding for moving expense and office equipment for Charles Fox, Missionary Associate
2) Funding scholarships for the Congregational Development Council and pastors to attend a Percept Workshop.
3) Recommended and established an Endowment Fund to provide the means by which gifts in Memory Of, in Honor Of, or by individuals may benefit the work of the PMBA

Perhaps the most significant activity of the committee was the sponsorship of the Missions Banquet/ Ministries Fair. The purpose of this event was to inform members of the many ministries performed by the PMBA and to promote fellowship and coordination between member churches. The Finance Committee believes this to be an excellent means to promote percentage giving to the PMBA. We further ask that those individual churches not giving on a percentage basis give prayerful consideration to the method in order for the PMBA to be all that it could and should be as witnesses for Christ in our realm of influence.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Finance Committee
Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, Inc.
Winston-Salem, North Carolina

We have audited the accompanying statements of assets and fund balances - modified cash basis of Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, Inc. (a nonprofit organization) as of December 31, 1994 and 1993, and the related statements of revenue, expenses, and fund balances - modified cash basis for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Association's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

As described in Note A, the Association prepares its financial statements on the basis of cash receipts and disbursements except that the statements include a provision for depreciation of buildings and equipment. This basis is a comprehensive basis of accounting other than generally accepted accounting principles.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the assets and fund balances of Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, Inc., as of December 31, 1994 and 1993, and its revenue, expenses, and changes in its fund balances for the years then ended, on the basis of accounting described in Note A.

Our audits were conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The information contained in the accompanying schedules is presented for the purpose of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audits of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

NOMINATING COMMITTEE

The Nominating Committee met monthly to select and enlist those persons who would be willing to serve as Associational officers and to serve on the committees and councils of the Association.

Through the Coordinating Council, the chairpersons of the various organizations were asked to examine carefully the membership of their groups. Those who had been inactive in participation were asked to reconsider their place of service. The groups were asked to consider carefully the number of people necessary for the effective work of the committee or council.

Following the enlistment of qualified persons, the names were presented to the Association in session for election.

CONFERENCES & FELLOWSHIPS

MINISTERS CONFERENCE

The primary aim of the PMBA Ministers Conference is to promote fellowship and mutual care among the ministers and congregations of our Association. The Conference meets on a monthly basis and primarily in churches throughout the Association. Each meeting begins with an informal time of fellowship, is followed by a structured program, and concludes with a meal provided by the host church. Our scheduled meetings and program leaders for 1995-1996 were as follows:

September 1995 - Prodigals Community - Speaker: Jeff Coppage
October 1995 - Griffith - Speaker: Jack Gentry
November 1995 - Mineral Springs - Speaker: Cecil Cave
December 1995 - Ardmore - Joint Worship with Baptist Ministers Conference of Winston-Salem
January 1996 - Canceled due to inclement weather
February 1996 - Old Town - Forum on PMBA Ministers Conference
March 1996 - Unity Baptist - Speaker: Todd Holt
April 1996 - Friends - Speaker: Dale Harland
May 1996 - College Park - Speaker: Charles Page
June 1996 - Mt. Olive - Speaker: Daryl Hairston
July 1996 - Golf Outing at Long Creek Golf Course
August 1996 - Knollwood - Table Talk - Discussion of Books
September 1996 - Hispanic - Speaker: Mike Willard

The PMBA Ministers Conference extends its thanks to those who hosted our meetings throughout the preceding year, provided us with program leadership, and prepared meals for our gatherings. As a Conference, our hope is that these monthly meetings will continue to strengthen and support our life and work together as an Associational family.

NATHAN E. PARRISH, President

MINISTERS' WIVES FELLOWSHIP

The Ministers' Wives Fellowship met five times in 1996 in the homes of Marian Mitchell and Etta Stokes and at the Resource Center. We suffered the loss of two of our long-time members, Velma McGee and Louise Noffsinger. Memorials were given in their honor to Mundo Vista and the PMBA Creative Ministries Council. We supported the Belarussian Children's project with a substantial donation. We joined with the Ministers Conference for a Valentine Day celebration and banquet at Winston-Salem First, where we were responsible for the table decorations. Our handbook contains information on all ministers' wives even though attendance only averages around ten members. We have kept faith with our stated purpose.

GEORGIE KITCHEN, President

PMBA SECRETARIES CONFERENCE

The primary functions of the PMBA Secretaries Conference may be found in the By-Laws, Article I. It includes: the encouragement of individual growth and professional excellence; to provide support and fellowship for it s members; to develop a better understanding of the duties and responsibilities of a church secretary; to encourage and support each other in our unique fields; offer continuing educational opportunities that will enhance job skills; and do all we can to deepen the spiritual enrichment of our members.

I feel the organization can assist churches in the PMBA by getting to know the secretaries and the unique services/resources their churches have to share with others in the association; and by developing a closer relationship to the secretary and the church...therefore, being aware of specific needs that we could help meet.

Our programs provide information and education on a wide variety of subjects that will encourage growth, maturity, awareness, responsibility and fellowship with each other.

HONEY HUMPHREY, President

REPORT BY THE ASSOCIATIONAL MISSIONARY

In 1996 our association faced some major issues and made some historic decisions which will shape our future for years to come. In August of 1995 a special task group, the Organizational Staff Redesign Team (O/SRT) began work. Based upon extensive research and data-gathering by Jack Gentry, Interim Associate, the O/SRT brought recommendations to the PMBA Board in March of 1996. (Please note: I have attached the full copy of this recommendation for your information following this report.)

The unanimous adoption of these recommendations has redirected our attention, energies, resources, and our decisions. For example,

- We stated that the local Baptist congregation is the primary client in all of our associational relationships.
- I received a new title, the Associational Missionary. This terminology was used several decades ago...but it is the clear description of what the congregations wanted and expected from their staff.
- All PMBA work units are attempting to define and describe their function in relation to our new Mission Statement and Primary Objectives.

In a very significant way all the good efforts of Jack Gentry paved the way for the new Missionary Associate, Charles Fox. Out of forty two candidates, Charles was the best fit for this new position. Our support staff stretched themselves during this period of transition; have exceeded expectations and thus deserve a good deal of the credit for the successes last year. Thank you Karen Taylor, Sandra Hall, and Beverly Hamblen.

The large number of volunteers (over sixty) make it possible to fulfill a large number of tasks requested by the congregations at a tremendous cost savings to the association.

At the close of this decade, this century and this millennium the PMBA is poised on the threshold of a new future with the classic foundations of the earliest Baptist associations of the seventeenth century. Thank you for the privilege of serving you in the past and for the future...

JAMES V. HAMBLEN, Associational Missionary

Pilot Mountain Baptist Association

ORGANIZATIONAL /STAFF REDESIGN TEAM
REPORT AND RECOMMENDATIONS
March 5, 1996

The Pilot Mountain Baptist Association has a strong heritage of mission centered ministry. The Organization Staff Redesign Team reaffirms this heritage and is committed to preserving this essential approach as we move forward into the future. In response to concerns expressed by local congregations, we recommend a new focus: that our approach to mission ministries shift form being program-centered to being relationship-centered. This relational focus calls for adapting our foundational understandings of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association which lead to proposals for reshaping staff and organization.

FAITH FOUNDATIONS: WHAT WE STAND FOR

We recognize that as a family of churches we are brought together by the ties that bind us in the faith, given by the grace of God. We proclaim that we have "one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all, who is over all and through all in all "
(Eph.4:5-6).

We therefore confess the Lordship of Jesus Christ and the Authority of Scripture in the lives of our churches and in the ministry of our association. We seek to encourage the growth of the Missionary Spirit and development of an Evangelistic Climate in the kingdom work of our congregations. We affirm the historic Baptist principles of the Autonomy of the Local Church and the Freedom of Affiliation. We are further committed to laboring on in the field of souls that the Kingdom might be built up, and our Lord and Savior might be glorified.

These concepts represent the faith parameters, held in common, that guided the formulation of this report. This statement is not an exhaustive listing of our faith foundations, but rather is representative of the theological underpinnings that undergirded this redesign work.

CORE VALUES: WHY WE EXIST

1. The local congregation is the heart of our existence as an association.
2. Each congregation responds uniquely to God's direction and call to mission.
3. The association is an extension of the local church.
   The association serves to assist local congregations by: collective representation to the community and denomination, channeling communication, and speaking the prophetic word when needed.
4. The challenge of missions is our primary motivation.
   Commitment to active support and involvement in local, home and foreign mission is central.
5. Our collective mission and ministries emerge form the individual mission and ministries of the member congregations.
   Churches on mission give shape to the focus of the association.
6. Mutual care and support are essential to meaningful fellowship.
7. Our greatest strength comes through working together.

DEFINITION: WHO WE ARE

PMBA is a family of churches serving together in meaningful Christian fellowship through shared mission endeavors.

MISSION: WHAT WE DO

The mission of the PMBA is to partner with local congregations in doing missions and ministry.

OBJECTIVES: WHAT WE HOPE TO ACCOMPLISH

PMBA serves as a catalyst to:

1) Equip churches for fulfilling their unique missions.
Discover what local congregations are trying to accomplish. PMBA's task is to offer customized responses to help churches determine what it takes to meet their goals.

2) Nurture congregational health.
Support church leadership, staff and laity; assist with staff transitions, intentional interims, filing staff needs, and conflict management.

3) Encourage cooperation among churches.
Identify common threads of mission and encourage congregations to move from competition to partnership.

4) Channel mission service.
Connect churches around common mission interests.

1996 ANNUAL REPORTS

Submitted by Baptist Boards & Agencies

Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina - 1996

Evelyn Alexander, Chairman of the Board

Primed for excitement after three hours waiting under a bright summer sky, hundreds of spectators craned their necks and peered toward downtown Asheville June 26 when Michael Owen jogged into view - carrying the Olympic Torch on outstretched arm. Michael, one of 1,422 children Baptist Children's Homes served in 1995-96, lives at Broyhill Home in Clyde, one of 12 facilities BCH operates in North Carolina.

Smiling and waving to the crowds holding aloft tiny flags and cameras, Michael lifted the symbol of international unity and pointed to friends among those who lined the parade route.

The entire Broyhill Home campus showed up, cheering wildly. They ate picnics at the end of Michael's route, and swarmed him when he passed the flame to the next carrier - a bicycle rider.

It could have been a family reunion, or a school scene, or a re-creation for a movie on family support. But Michael, and most of his supporters, are children who have suffered unspeakable abuses at the hands of adults they trusted to care for them.

And the adults who waded into that mob scene of joy at the end of Michael's run are called of God to help young people like Michael and those who surrounded him deal with those issues, and to overcome them.

As a boy, Michael was so ashamed of his clothes he ran home from school, never stopping to make friends. Worse, he endured almost nightly beatings from his father. He was 11 years old before he realized other boys weren't beaten every night. Four years later he found the courage to tell his father he was leaving.

"Go ahead, call someone," he yelled. "Leave."

Michael left. After six months in emergency care at Mills Home in Thomasville, he established a more permanent residence at Broyhill Home. Slowly, quietly his emotions mounted within him until one night he erupted and spilled forth his story, the years of secrets and lies, to his child are worker, Betty Porter. "She stayed up with me and we talked a long time," Michael said. That was his first lesson in trust and unconditional love.

"Broyhill has changed my life so much," Michael said. "For almost a year I didn't trust anybody, but finally I felt a calmness I know was the Lord. Here I found the Lord and now I try to live every day for Him."

Michael's story is repeated hundreds of times each year at Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina. Not all are as dramatic as a boy who grew from a punching bag to a torch bearer.

But at four residential campuses, six emergency care cottages, two homes for behaviorally troubled girls, a maternity home, a home for teenage mothers and their babies, therapeutic camping and model day care, more than 1,400 children and their families find help in a troubled time.

During the past year BCH received almost $1.5 million through the Cooperative Program, and $663,00 through the Thanksgiving Offering. Total church gifts of almost $3 million comprised 26.2 percent of BCH operating revenue.

BCH is in the midst of a $10.1 "Light Their Way" Campaign to raise money for operations, capital needs and endowment. At the halfway point in June, more than $5.4 million had been committed to BCH through the campaign.

Videos of the children's presentation at the 1995 State Baptist Convention are available by calling the communications office at (800) 476-3669. You can also ask for the latest videos to tell you about your ministry to children and families through Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina.

Although Michael carries many fond memories of Baptist Children's Homes with him as he heads for college this Fall, his earliest amazements were the secure sleep he got when he laid his head down, and of receiving his first pair of Nikes so he didn't have to be embarrassed by his appearance.

From head to toe BCH cares for children and families. Thank you for helping to Light Their Way.

Michael C. Blackwell
President since 1983

BAPTIST COLLEGE/UNIVERSITY REPORT
1996

Since 1834 North Carolina Baptist Colleges and Universities have been privileged to have many splendid presidents. The current presidents are listed on this page. They were elected to take the lead in dreaming, shaping and managing Baptist higher education in North Carolina.

Two colleges, Mars Hill and Chowan, have new presidents. Let us introduce them to you.

Dr. A. Max Lennon was named president of Mars Hill College, effective March 1. Both he and Mrs. Lennon (Ruth Ann) are graduates of Mars Hill. Dr. Lennon brings a rich background in business and higher education to his new task. After earning the B.S. and Ph.D. degrees at North Carolina State University, he served in the administration of Texas Tech University, the University of Missouri, Ohio State University and Clemson University, where he was the president. He comes to Mars Hill from the presidency of Eastern Foods, Inc. in Atlanta, Georgia. Dr. Lennon, an active Baptist churchman, has been a member of the National Fellowship of Baptist Men. In Atlanta they were members of the First Baptist Church in Peachtree City, where he taught Sunday School and was a member of the strategic planning committee. He is on the board of directors of numerous corporations and foundations, among them First Union Corporation and Duke Power. In accepting the presidency of Mars Hill he said, "This is a wonderful opportunity to provide leadership for this college and boldly proclaim our faith in Jesus Christ."

Dr. Stanley G. Lott moved to North Carolina in July to become president of Chowan College. He comes from Louisiana College, a Baptist school, where he was vice president for academic affairs for 15 years. Earlier he has been a faculty member at Tift College in Georgia. Dr. Lott earned two doctorates, one in systematic theology from New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary, and the other in higher education administration from the University of Georgia. An ordained Baptist minister, he has held two pastorates in Louisiana. Mercer University president Kirby Godsey said, "Stanley Lott is one of the finest educators and leaders in higher education today." Dr. and Mrs. Lott (Johnnye) were long-time, active members of Emmanuel Baptist Church, near Louisiana College. Upon his election the new president said, "I look forward to joining hands with all who are part of Chowan College. I am also eager to join North Carolina Baptists in their efforts to spread the gospel and to preserve historic Baptist principles."

Making Life for Older Adults... The Best of Times

The continuing goal of Baptist Retirement Homes is to provide more and better services for Older Adults. During 1996 several developments have moved us toward this goal.

> Some new staff members have been added to help provide the kind of total care which residents need and deserve. Tanja Keay has been employed as Vice President of the Health Services Division. Paulette Richmond came as the new manager of the Hamilton Baptist Home. Carla Hyde was named director of the small group program for residents with dementia, a program designed to enhance their quality of life. Patricia Fling is the director of the In Home Care program which began a few months ago. Dr. Earl Watts, an Associate Professor at the Bowman Gray School of Medicine, is serving as the medical director for In Home Care.
> Early in the year, renovation of the Hamilton Baptist Home was completed providing a more attractive and comfortable place for residents in that facility. The new Cecil and Gertrue Young Solarium at the Rickman Nursing Center in Asheville will provide space for the small group program for residents with dementia. At Brookridge, renovated space in the Assisted Living section, and named "Stokes Court", will house the new Assisted Independent Living Unit. A new passenger van will facilitate transportation for residents at the Taylor House in Albemarle as they attend church, keep appointments, go shopping, or participate in social/recreational events.
> During the year, Baptist Retirement Homes has provided assistance in the planning for Cliffwood, a new continuing care retirement community being built in Fayetteville. Two Fayetteville churches, First Baptist and Snyder Memorial Baptist, have formed a non-profit corporation to lead this project. A 27 acre site has been selected. Plans call for 105 Independent Living units, 20 beds in Assisted Living, and 20 beds in a nursing care unit. All units will be available on a rental basis with no entrance fees.
> The James M. Hayes Society has been formed to recognize and thank those persons who remember the Baptist Retirement Homes in their estate planning. Thirty-three charter members constitute this group named in honor of the "Homes" founding superintendent.
> Finally, we recognize with deep gratitude those North Carolina Baptists who gave through their churches to support the ministry during the past year. Through the cooperative program, the special February Offering, and other church gifts, the "Homes" received a total of $1,030,052 during the 12 month period ending September 30, 1995.

The trustees and staff are grateful to North Carolina Baptists for helping us to make life for Older Adults...The Best of Times!

REPORT TO THE ASSOCIATION--1996

The headlines each day--Bosnia, Belfast, Saudi Arabia, taxes, school funding, presidential elections, etc.--often include Southern Baptists. The secular media show special interest in our conflicts but all too often do not tell the whole story of the good things Baptists are doing.

The Biblical Recorder attempts to tell the whole story--the many positive things people are doing in their churches along with the negative issues which cannot be concealed and ignored if we honor our heritage from yesterday and fulfill our mission for tomorrow.

There is no way to address these issues without correct and reliable information. The Biblical Recorder was born and continues to serve for that purpose. In the 163 years of state Baptist papers in North Carolina, never was the Recorder more needed than now for people to have the truth. We live in an electronic media age where many think they have the answers to the issues but they do not because they do not read, only look and listen!

An informed Baptist is a better Baptist; an uninformed Baptist may be an uninvolved or disruptive Baptist. No democracy, including our local churches, can survive long without an informed, involved constituency which makes decisions based upon accurate information from reliable sources.

The Biblical Recorder should be in every Baptist home in North Carolina. Your support as a subscriber and reader, coupled with your encouragement to others, will enable the paper to better serve the constituency with accurate and helpful information.

In order to save churches large amounts of money and to increase the readership of the Recorder, Church News Service (CNS) was launched in 1990. This system lets any congregation have their church news incorporated into the Biblical Recorder which saves staff time, postage and printing costs. Usually, for less than what it costs to produce the church newsletter, CNS gives the entire Baptist communication package to each family in the congregation. Recent and anticipated increases in mailing costs make CNS a greater value in 1996-97 than when it was started in 1990.

The paper focuses more and more attention on North Carolina Baptists with news, features and inspirational articles which will encourage individuals and churches in their witness and ministry. One sure way to conquer problems and overcome the barriers to effective witness and ministry is to have the facts, know the issues and be adequately informed.

That is why the Recorder was born; that is why it serves today. For more information on how your church can subscribe or use CNS, contact:

Christian Action League of North Carolina, Inc

ANNUAL REPORT TO THE ASSOCIATIONS

In a recent survey released by the Family Research Council, 66% of those polled said that our country was headed down "the wrong track". When asked whether the nation's wrong direction could be attributed to the lack of jobs and economic health or a decline in moral values and family breakdown, over 60% indicated the latter. We at the Christian Action League agree that our state and nation need a restoration of biblical, moral and family values. In 1996 we were honored to assist communities in their battles for civic and moral righteousness and to promote laws in the General Assembly that have helped to restore family values to the State of North Carolina.

A. Christian Values

The Christian Action League joined with other Christian organizations to promote Christian Heritage Week in North Carolina, March 17-23. We experienced a wonderful week as presentations and commemorations were held in many churches, schools and communities across our state. The week culminated with an awards ceremony and reception for the winners of the state-wide essay contest and their families. The League provided decorations and programs for the event and hosted the reception at the State Archives and History Building in Raleigh..

The League undertook a project in association with the American Rights Coalition to distribute thousands of copies of the Ten Commandments throughout North Carolina. To date, over 5,000 copies of the 11 X 14 prints have been distributed throughout the state to individuals and churches.

B. Lottery

We saw renewed efforts to push a lottery bill through the General Assembly for a state-wide referendum. Representative Fitch introduced two lottery bills: HB 6060 (Rules Committee) and HB 838 (JII Committee). The League actively lobbied against these bills and both bills died in their respective committees. North Carolina continues to be the largest state in the nation and the only state in the Bible belt with no state-sponsored gambling. Please keep us in prayer as the League faces this battle each year.

C. Sex Education

CAL actively lobbied for HB 834, Abstinence Until Marriage, a law that mandated that abstinence until marriage be the focus in sex education in North Carolina schools and was passed in the 1995 session.. CAL and other pro-family, Christian organizations have been working with the Dept. of Public Instruction and State Board of Education in 1996 encouraging them to implement the law through abstinence-based curricula. We have also assisted communities in seeing that this law is properly implemented at the local level.

D. Homosexuality

CAL participated in efforts to get SB 1487 (No Same-Sex Marriage) passed during the short session of the General Assembly. The bill passed both houses and became law.

Alerted our members in the Winston-Salem area about the Family March on June 30 and encouraged them to notify their churches to participate. This march was in response to the homosexual community march held in that city. The Family March attendance was estimated at 8,000.

E. Abortion

The League actively supported Representative Decker's HB 624, a Woman's Right to Know. This bill would have required the doctor to share vital information with the patient about the risks of abortion and would require a 24-hour waiting period. We were disappointed that the bill did not pass this session; however, we will work for its passage again next session.

F. Alcohol

CAL assisted several communities in setting up an organization to combat liquor referendums.

My friends, we are living in times when the Christian community needs to exercise spiritual discernment and stand strong for Biblical principles that further righteousness, strengthen families and bless our state and nation. We are grateful to God for the prayer and financial support that the League receives from the churches of your association that allow us to be on the front lines in this spiritual warfare.

Meeting the Challenges of Health Care

Report to the Association

"Touching Lives With Hope"

HOSPITAL HIGHLIGHTS FOR 1996

DIVISION OF PASTORAL CARE

During this year the 18 to 40 Chaplains present at various times at the Hospital made over 55,000 pastoral contacts.

As of July 1, 1996, the counseling centers will be called CareNet, Inc., of The North Carolina Baptist Hospitals, Inc. Over 26,000 hours of counseling were provided through the eleven centers across the state of North Carolina. Two additional centers will open in the fall of this year.

The Center for Congregational Health has, since inception in 1992, provided ministry at some level to over 225 North Carolina Baptist Churches.

Mission dollars from the Cooperative Program enabled the above ministries to be carried out and to touch thousands of lives.

BAPTIST BENEVOLENT CARE FUND

North Carolina Baptists joined us in a mutual mission through the Mother's Day Offering. We channeled every penny of the MDO, which amounted to $461,647, to help patients who had no health-care insurance and no financial means to pay their hospital bills. We are grateful to everyone who made this ministry possible.

POINTS OF EMPHASIS AND PROGRESS

Financial Stewardship - The Medical Center is constantly seeking ways to lighten the financial burden of those who are ill. Recently the room rates were reduced by $50 per day.

Aegis - This is an alliance of primary-care clinicians who serve patients regardless of their medical plans or HMO/PPO affiliated. "Aegis" means protection or sponsorship: Aegis Family Health Centers is a network of primary care physicians affiliated with The Medical Center. It now has 33 providers in 10 practice sites.

QualChoice of North Carolina - QualChoice is The Medical Center's managed care company. Eighteen months old, it serves approximately 30,500 enrollees, giving quality health-care and patient/physician choice.

Regional Integrated Information Network - RIDS is a regional computer network now in the pilot phases. The network allows providers in the region to exchange patient information electronically, saving time and money. RIDS is a plan which assists communities in our service area to develop a coordinated continuum of care. In this plan, primary care physicians, community hospitals, nursing homes and other patient care providers link their services with those of The Medical Center. The desired outcome is improved patient care and cost-effective services.

The J. Paul Sticht Center on Aging - The Center devotes itself to the special problems of older adults. When the center moves to its new home in 1996, its services will not only provide specialized health care but will also include a day care program for the elderly that will serve as a link between hospital and home, helping to reduce rates of rehospitalization and premature placement in nursing homes.

A CLOSING WORD

Since its founding in 1922, the Hospital has taken pride in our ministry of service. In doing so, we seek to make tomorrow's patient care and tomorrow's workplace constantly better. That has been our mission historically, and it continues to this day. I firmly believe that our best lies yet ahead, and I am committed to that reality.

I Dream of A Church...

I dream of a Church in which love prevails - for the poor and needy, the sick and lonely - for the spiritual giants and lost sinners as well.

I dream of a Church in which its light is gleaned from the Word, our direction and guide
For the day to day journey and for the long term of light.

I dream of a Church in which salt is its flavor for the task God has called it to perform
A task that no force, no power not even Satan's gates can sever.

I dream of a Church who has no fear to speak of His Crown of Thorns, His Pierced Side
From which cleansing blood flowed for which He was born - for which He died.

I dream of a Church who in gratitude and praise receives with power both the bread and wine
Assuring victory over every stronghold for the now and the duration of times.

I dream of a Church filled with joy and laughter where every man's a son, every woman's a daughter,
Every child a benefactor of the grace of our Eternal Father.

If today on my journey I met Jesus in the flesh about which we hope -- about which we sing
I pray he could visit my church with me and feel pleasure on the scheme of things.

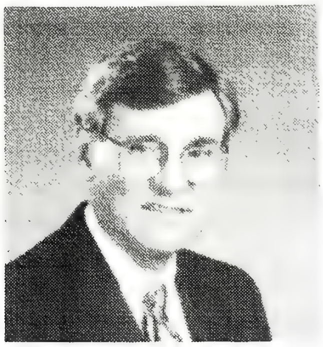
IN MEMORY OF. . .



Thomas David Austin
Clergyman

His impeccable dress was not a facade. I do not mean that Tom Austin had nothing to hide. As is the case with all of us, he must have had at least a trifle, like a soup's splash on a tie, asking to be tucked between the buttons of one's shirt. But unlike some of us, Tom never tucked. He was remarkably what he appeared to be.

The jut of his jaw, composure in his carriage, and the piercing focus of his eyes correctly identified him as a prophet. But the length of his reach and the width of his embrace were characteristic of a priest. Tom had the nervy knack of cutting ever so quickly to the heart of a matter. But his blade came to an abrupt stop, instantaneously becoming too dull to cut oleo, if and when the heart of the person was involved.

He did not dodge the most egregious social issues. I doubt that he knew how to spell cowardice. Racism, poverty, homelessness, and the exploitation of ethnics invariably got his attention but without the affectation of bravura. They mattered in the circle of his concern and were often the stuff of his sermons. What struck so many of us was that he managed to ward off the pout of pessimistic proheticism even when he was shooting through the stickiest of wickets. The glint in his eyes when he was tackling a formidable social problem was never without its twinkle. Although he was not skittish when offering criticism, Austin watched the human drama with overall optimism.

He loved profoundly his wife, Edna, and their children. Although his professionalism was beyond question, he was nonetheless a family man. His family's well being and its concerns determined his actions--past, present, and future. At the same time, his familial relationships were not freely offered topics of general conversation. He was not one to boast about his loved ones so as to be a consummate bore to others. However, one only had to observe Edna and Tom together to be warmed by their devotion and respect for one another. They epitomized a regal presence which was utterly without pretense.

Tom continued to join the Wednesday noon lunch bunch, a less than holy hodgepodge of contumacious clerics, long after he first became ill. We exchanged jokes around that table, some that we night not share with all our parishioners. We engaged in gossip, mostly inspired by Baptist boondoggles and peccadilloes, with which we were not in sympathy. At the same time, I cannot recall that we used spite with which to spice our conversations. Although we spared few if any, including ourselves, we chatted voluminously but with malice toward none. Tom was a main source of an incredible amount of information. His grapevine seemed endless and yet strong enough for him to swing from one information tree after another. However, he seemed more bemused than angry or upset by the unseemly and ungainly news that was often tossed on his front stoop.

My favorite times were those committed to theological debate. We were far from enjoying--or should I say being bored by--doctrine accord. We covered a waterfront which was housed with the inflexible architecture of Calvinism alongside the flimsy structures of post modern relativism. And there were always some who simply kept on eating with the fervent wish that all the heavy stuff being offered might possibly be digested without too many difficult swallows and gulps. Tom neither asked for nor gave any quarter in these doctrinal affrays. He argued in the style of a chess player always on the offensive. He seldom retreated but if check mate seemed inevitable, he gave up without a whisper. Speaking of whimpering, Tom Austin was invariably upbeat about his medical condition. We sometimes saw him sweat but never heard him whine. Some of us suspect that his demeanor was a combination of a denial of his true condition and downright stubbornness in which he was anything but a novice. Tom Austin knotted with his comrades as carefully as he knotted his ties. He knew how to be a friend and he was.

Quite worthy of remark is the fact that Austin gave liberally of his time and services to the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. During my many years among the Baptists of Winston-Salem, I was distressingly impressed with how few of the ministers of the more prestigious churches actively participated in Associational affairs. Not so with Tom; he worked diligently to serve other churches than Knollwood through the channels afforded by PMBA.

And now to close with these observations about the Austins and Knollwood Baptist Church. Knollwood Baptist Church was the last place on earth Tom Austin ever wanted to be. Pardon the double-entendre. Sometimes the "last place on earth we want to be" may mean that we desperately prefer any other locale that might be available. This was not the case with Tom. Knollwood was east of Eden but somewhat remote from the land of Nod. He once voiced the conviction that all of his former places of services were, by the Lord's will, preparing him for his ministry at Knollwood Baptist. It was his penultimate place, only a step short of the Holy City, the New Jerusalem, the ultimate. I have never known two people to be more at peace with a site than were Tom and Edna at Knollwood Baptist Church. This is not to say that his other places of service were easily forgotten. He loved them all. But Knollwood was the last place on earth that Tom Austin wanted to be. And it was. Indeed!

We Give Thanks for Such Wonderful Volunteers

We take this opportunity to salute the fantastic volunteers who serve the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association so faithfully. We thank God for their generous gift of time and talents. They are the embodiment of who the Association really is--the people who make up our 86 congregations!

The staff of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association would like to pay tribute to the following volunteers: Carlene Sheets, Mary Ray, and Alene Redding. These three volunteers, who served so faithfully and loving, went home to be with our Lord during the 1996/1997 Associational year. They will be missed, but never forgotten!

In Memory of...
Mary Ray

"This is the day that the Lord has made. We will be glad and rejoice in it." These are the words that Mary Ray often spoke, regardless of the obstacles and sorrows that she faced.

Mary Ray, a member of Kernersville First and a volunteer for over two years at the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, went home to be with her Lord in August, after a three year battle with cancer. Life was a gift and Mary celebrated that life each day that she lived. It was her desire for others to celebrate life also.

In the end, Mary was ready to go home. She planned her funeral and gave final instructions to her two sons and her friends. In planning her funeral, Mary did not want anyone to boast of her life. She wanted her funeral to be a testimony of God's love and sustaining provision throughout her life.

During the two years that Mary served as a volunteer at PMBA, I suppose I came to know and love her for all the qualities that her friends at Kernersville First had already known. She was dedicated and loyal. She served with a purpose. Without a doubt, I could give Mary a task to complete and she would do so with all her power. Her contributions were always wrapped up and tied with love.

In my memory book of Mary Ray, I will always think of her love for her church and the association. When she became ill with cancer and could not longer volunteer, I missed her. We often talked as she seemed to get stronger, and I looked forward to the time when she might be able to once again be a part of our office volunteer team. Although that never happened, I know that we remained in her prayers and thoughts, as she did in ours.

At Kernersville First she had served as WMU Director, Historical Room Chairperson, member of the Joy Singers and the Adult Choir. As a community leader in Kernersville, she served in Crisis Control, the Samaritan Ministries, the Arts and Crafts Guild, the Sugar Sticks (a multi-denominational ensemble). In the PMBA she served on the WMU Council as co-director of the Baptist Women. She helped with the Baptist Toy Store and as an office volunteer.

Irene Covington, a dear friend of Mary's, shared at her funeral what Mary considered her greatest joy in life:

Living for the Lord
Striving to help others
And seeing her children grow in their faith

Lives were touched by Mary Ray. She has left us a legacy of courage, strength, and faith. She embodied God's love for His children and served Him as faithfully as any beloved Child. And I shall miss her.

Karen Taylor,
Volunteer Coordinator

In Memory of....
Elizabeth Alene Green Redding

Elizabeth Alene Green Redding was born in Wilkes County, August 15, 1921, to Richard Harvey and Nettie Calloway Green of the Clingman Community. She had a sister, Lucille, and two brothers, Thomas and Edward.

On January 1, 1945, she married D.J. Redding Jr., also of the Clingman Community. They had two children, Donna Jo and Herschel. In 1956 the family moved to Rural Hall. The family grew, adding a son-in-law, David Abernethy, and a daughter-in-law, Judy Redding, and four grandchildren, Jason and Cody Abernethy and Rachel and Amanda Redding.

Alene was involved with rearing her family, supporting her husband's custom home building business, participating in community activities, and supporting her church. She was a member of the Rural Hall Garden Club, worked the polls during the elections, and volunteered with the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association and Meals on Wheels. She was an active member of First Baptist Church in Rural Hall for 40 years, was a member of the Sanctuary Choir, the WMU, taught Sunday School and Vacation Bible School. Perhaps one of the greatest joys in her latter years was her work with the GA's, watching them grow in their awareness of local and foreign mission work.. She rejoiced in cooking and sharing her table with pastors and friends. Her family gathered each Sunday after church to share her lovingly prepared meals and family fellowship.

Although a rare illness gradually caused the loss of her ability to be active, Alene never lost her sense of humor, her strong spirit, or her gift of love for each of us.

We will remember her
We can never forget that she died,
But we will always remember that she lived!

A tribute written by the Redding children

Note: Alene served as one of the PMBA kitchen/hostess volunteers since 1990. She helped with preparation of food and serving of many meals and receptions during those years. Due to a rare illness Alene was unable to volunteer, beginning the later part of 1995. Her warm smile and great sense of humor was enjoyed by all who came to know her. She was a wonderful example of God's love in action. And we miss her!--the PMBA Staff

In Memory of...

Carlene Sheets

Proverbs 17:17 A friend loves at all times (NIV)
A true friend is always loyal (LB)
Provers 18:24 There are 'many' friends who pretend to be 'friends', but there is one who sticks closer than a brother/a sister (LB)

So it was with our friend Carlene Sheets. She was a loving and loyal friend who touched the lives of so many people.

Carlene was a loving and devoted friend to her husband, Bobby, and to her daughter, Kaye. To be with the three of them was an experience of love, laughter, and life.

Carlene was a loving and devoted daughter and friend to her mother, especially during the last 26 years Carlene had her mother in her home. Carlene was also a loving and caring friend to her sister Pauline. She not only cared for Pauline, but cared for Pauline's children as though they were her own.

She was a special friend to several exchange students. Sharing love, laughter, life, and Jesus Christ with them. These students became a special part of her circle of friends.

Carlene was a loving and faithful friend to her friends. And her friends were many. It is a true saying, "a person has many friends, because he or she is a friend to many people."

Carlene was a loving and compassionate friend to the friendless. She was a friend to those without a friend--giving without expecting anything in return. She was also looking for opportunities to share God's love and her life and means with those who needed all three.

Carlene was a loving and passionate friend of the children. She spent many hours in prayer for the children and the workers at our Baptist Children's Homes. She was an advocate for this ministry within her church, her Baptist Association, and across the state. She invested many hours and money in their ministry of love, healing, and reconciliation.

Carlene was a loving, committed friend in Friends Baptist Church. She spoken when necessary. She led when called upon, but most of the time she gave herself to prayer and personal ministry. She loved her church and had a burning passion for the future of Friends. She loved her Pastor. She prayed daily for me. She had many names for me. Pastor, Bishop, Reverend, Wade, and Friend. Often I would hear her come in and ask the secretary, "Is the bishop in?" I shall miss all that implied and all that it meant to the both of us.

Lastly, Carlene was all the above because she had discovered and developed a dynamic friendship with the greatest Friend of all, Jesus Christ, who said "you are my friends if you do what I command you." (John 15:14). Carlene and I enjoyed the beauty and the symbolic meaning of butterflies. To see the butterfly symbolized the resurrection of the believer in eternity and the potential of the believer in time.

Amen! Amen!
Wade D. Tucker, Sr., Pastor
Friends Baptist Church

PMBA FAMILY GATHERING

112th Annual Meeting
Tuesday, October 14, 1997
College Park Baptist Church, Winston-Salem, NC

Theme: Our Mission Tapestry: Woven together in God's Kingdom Work

REPORT

The 112 Annual Meeting was held at College Park Baptist Church Tuesday, October 14, 1998 beginning with a dinner at 5 PM. During the dinner time the Children's Choir from Ardmore Baptist Church performed. Following their performance, messengers and friends of PMBA were blessed by Efrin Caberara with his Spanish Guitar. To conclude the dinner time performances, the Korean Choir, dressed in native costume, sang "It is Well With My Soul," and "This Is My Story." One of the Korean ladies sang, "Jerusalem" in closing.

Ty Talton, moderator of PMBA, convened the meeting at 6:35 PM. Rev. Talton read, "The Weaver," a poem he used to introduce the Annual Meeting theme: Our Mission Tapestry: Woven together in God's Kingdom. Rev. Talton reported that we have grown to 86 churches in our extended family -- young and old, many colors and languages -- ours is a rich heritage. . .a tapestry woven by the Master Weaver. . .

Rev. Talton introduced Gloria Griffin, the weaver, who explained that as the evening progressed she would weave at different intervals until, at the end, the weaver's loom would reveal a picture for all to see. . .

Rev. Talton emphasized that an important aspect of the evening was the prayer time. . .He said that we need to pray--not just once--but many times throughout the gathering. . .

Pastor Charles Edwards extended a warm welcome to College Park Baptist Church. He then introduced Jeff Parker, minister of music at College Park. Mr. Parker led the Channels Ensemble in music entitled, "My Life is Life a Weaver's."

DEVOTION :

Concluding the special music, Dr. Edwards led in a devotional time. The following are excerpts from his devotion:

. . .I grew up in the town of Elkin, North Carolina, where my father labored in a woolen mill known as Chatham Industries for most of his adult life. Once my father decided that I needed to visit the mill where he worked. . .He showed me the woolen vats and then we proceeded to visit the weaver's room. . .The last loom to see was the Jacquard Loom. It wove an intricate pattern onto the loom. The Jacquard Loom was named after its creator, and he was the master of the loom.

Our Master weaves a picture through our churches. . . In Acts 2:5 the miracle of Pentecost was not so much a miracle of seeing as one of hearing. . .as each person heard the message in their own language. . .God is no respecter of persons, but I believe He is of personality. . .He comes to us where we are . . .

The vertical lines in a weaving can easily represent God speaking to us in our own language, our own personality. . .We have a Creator who has established with each of us in our own language a relationship. . .

The woof (known as the cross threads) is that which God brought to us through his disciples' teachings..Sometimes it may seem we are traveling in a wrong direction. . .It is like moving as part of a bicycle. . .Our objective is not independence but dependence upon God.

. . . An old man was once asked by a young man, "What are you doing?" The old man's response was, "Wrestling with God." Which made the young man ask, "Surely, you don't expect to win?" "No, Son," said the old man, "I hope to lose!"

An interesting phrase in the New Testament is one another. There are numerous times this phrase is found in Paul's writings. . ."Let no debt remain outstanding. . .Accept one another. . .do not judge one another. . .In Galatians, Chapter 6: "Bear you one another's burdens". . .

Pastor Edwards concluded his devotion by asking us to review the scriptures regarding the Pentecost in Acts . . .Look at how many mixtures of color and class God brought together and sent them out that the Good News might be shared. . .and that is what God has for us!. . .

ITEMS OF BUSINESS:

Ty Talton brought two items of business before the Association-in-Session:

He recognized all the workers who helped build the three houses on Carolyn Lane. This was a joint Habitat Venture among Rowan Baptist Association, the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, the General Baptist Convention, and the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina. Mr. Talton announced that the homes will be dedicated following the Baptist State Convention at the sites on Carolyn Lane. He encouraged everyone to attend.

Crestwood Baptist Church asked that we endorse their application with the Baptist State Convention for a church loan. The motion was made by Boyce Wilson to endorse their loan and Levy Goodrich seconded the motion. The motion carried.

NOMINATING COMMITTEE:

Peggy Neal, chairperson, presented the nominees for the 1997-1998 PMBA Leadership List. Mrs. Neal asked all council directors and committee chairpersons to stand. She took the opportunity to thank those willing to serve for the upcoming year and those who will be rotating off.

Jim Hamblen gave the charge to the new leaders. The officers were asked to come forward. Mr. Hamblen charged them to undertake their duties to the best of their abilities and to hold true to the core values of the PMBA mission statement.

On behalf of the new leaders, Wade Tucker, former vice moderator and upcoming moderator, accepted Jim's challenge to keep the core values in place.

Mr. Tucker stated, "It is a privilege to serve with the best Association in our Convention. . .the best staff. . .the best models and mentors. . .I have often thought what a privilege it is to be in God's grace. . .to be a part of this fruition. . ."

Jeff Parker led the congregation in two hymns: "O God Our Help In Ages Past," and "Glorious

TESTIMONY:

Mike Willard, pastor of Main Street Baptist Church and director of the PMBA Congregational Development Council, gave a brief testimony. He told the congregation that the people and churches of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association are woven into his very being. . .but more important, he was reborn at Waughtown Baptist Church. Rev. Willard related how , after contracting polio, he experienced first-hand love and concern by the many who served at Baptist Hospital. . .

Mr. Willard responded to a call to vocational ministries at Calvary Baptist Church. . . He later served at Southside Baptist Church. . . Mike and his family moved away to Kentucky for a brief time, but moved back to Winston-Salem to accept a call to pastor at Griffith Baptist Church for nine glorious years. . .

For the past four years Mike Willard has served as pastor of Main Street Baptist Church. . . He told that just a few years ago Main Street Baptist Church was dying with only a handful of members. . .But thanks to many faithful people throughout the churches in the association who decided to join Main Street to give it a second chance, the church is alive today and thriving. . .

. . . We serve a resurrected Lord. . .Two years ago Mike and Myra Willard received a phone call that all parents dread. . .They learned that their daughter, Melissa, had been in an automobile accident. . .When they got to the scene of the accident the sense of dread started to rise in their throats. . .

. . .As they were ushered into the family room at Baptist Hospital their hopes were very low. . .but she was alive! The first few days as she lay in a comma, the Willards were sustained by the prayers, calls, and visits of so many people throughout the association. . .

During and since her recovering, Melissa has often looked over the list we compiled of all who inquired about her. . .She would ask who someone was; and I would invariably say, "That is a friend from the PMBA."

. . .One night I was alone in intensive care, and I felt shattered. . .through my tears I talked with Melissa. . .saying, "Please wake up, please come alive." Right in the midst I felt a presence behind me. . .I look around to see no one there. . .Yet I realized He was there! I heard Him clearly speak, "Mike, I know how you feel for that is how I feel about my church. . ."

-Later I experienced the joy of seeing my daughter open her eyes. . ..speak again. . .walk again. . .run again. . .Yesterday, two years after her anniversary, I experienced the joy of her sharing her testimony. . .And I remember, "Mike that is how I feel about my church." What love!

TESTIMONY:

Evelyn Parks, wife and partner with the Rev. Joseph Parks, pastor of St. Andrew Community Church, shared a testimony with the congregation. Here are a few excerpts from her testimony:

First of all I give honor to God, to our new leaders, to James Hamblen and to my pastor. . .We have not been a part of the PMBA for 46 years. . .not even a year. . .but I am so thankful that the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association is like our Lord, "takes us as we come." . . .

It is impossible for me to give a testimony without connecting to something. . .that connecting link is God. . .About six years ago I decided to get married. . .And I proceeded to ask the Lord for a good man. . .As he walked down the aisle on our wedding day, I realized I was marrying a pastor, and I immediately thought, "Lord, I would have settled for a good deacon!"

. . .While the years have not been a "a fly on a bed of ease" those years have developed in me something that is different. . .I realize that God is everywhere. . .I asked God to make me the kind of Christian He wants me to be. . .I stand shell shocked and amazed that He is working a work in me. . .

When St. Andrew moved to Melody Lane we shared in the vision with David and Karen Hairston..when my husband accepted the call to Zion Hill one of the first people to welcome us was Jim Hamblen. . .Ty Talton and Jim Hamblen have been there to encourage us as Zion Hill and St. Andrew Community decided to merge. . . Many times I have wanted to throw in the towel because of the nayers. But I realize that God is preparing us for a mighty work. . .If we open ourselves up to the weavings of God, we can be excited. . .And we are excited. . .about our partnership with Pilot Mountain Baptist Association . . .Chance made us sisters but choice is weaving us together. . .

A few weeks ago I lost my sister, my best friend. . .It was so comforting to receive a call from Jim Hamblen back hear in North Carolina. . .to receive calls from friends in churches throughout the association. . .

I am excited about the possibilities as we are woven closely together in the work of St. Andrew Community Baptist Church. . .We are excited about the ministry opportunities on Melody Lane. . .We love you and thank you for the work already done and that which we shall partner together. . .

SPECIAL PERFORMANCE:

The congregation was blessed by a stirring worshipful experience from the World Changers, a youth musical ensemble from Calvary Baptist Church. Their selection of songs beautifully added to the weavings of our tapestry.

TESTIMONY:

The following excerpts come from the testimony given by Richard and Lisa James, members of Center Grove Baptist Church:

Lisa said, "I only attended church in my early years. . .God led me to Him through the birth of my son in 1986. . .He has been leading me ever since."

We heard of the Belarussian Children's Project, funded through the PMBA. . .Richard and I both thought it would be a wonderful experience . . . God sent us Rachel, age 12. . .who drank straight from the pickle jar. . .just as I did as a small child!

God sent us Sergei, age 10. . .Vlav, age 11, and Nasha, age 10. . .We hated to have them leave us . . .But in December of 1996 we had the opportunity to visit Belarus and decided to take our son Eric with us. . .trusting God all the way.

. . .You can put on a Band-Aid and help these children for a little while. . .or you can continue to try to make it last. . .This year we invited four children from Belarus to stay with us.. . All four children accepted Jesus as Lord and were baptized. . .We have no idea what God has in store for us in 1998. . .but we are looking forward to the opportunity. . .

Richard James concluded their testimony by stating, "God brought me back into His fold and I thank Him."

TESTIMONY:

Beverly Landreth, who serves on staff at Ardmore Baptist Church and as the director of the PMBA Seminary Extension Council, shared a brief testimony. The following are excerpts:

Two years ago our youngest child was about to start kindergarten.. . . During the years while my children were being born and before they began school I had stayed primarily at home. . .When my daughter started school the Lord began dealing with me regarding full time ministry. . .

One night as I lay sleeping an angel appeared to me. .. I noticed that her hands were very dirty and I asked, "Why are your hands dirty?" She held her hands out to me and said, "I have been working.". . .I went to my pastor, J.L. Wilson, who told me that the Lord is stirring me up for a special ministry. . .

. . .So here I serve at Ardmore. . .Ministry at Ardmore involves Pastoral Care. . .And I realize I am here because J.L. Wilson is no longer here to walk this road. . .

Last week I held sadness in my hand again as I held the body of a seven and one-half month old baby who had died. . .there is much sadness in doing the Kingdom's work. . . Jesus touched the dirty. . .the unclean. . .the discarded. . .and He lifted them up.

Today we are called to do the sowing, reaping, and harvesting. . .Mother Teresa once prayed this prayer "Let me hold the hand of Jesus so tightly that I cannot help but do His ministry. . ."

VIDEO PRESENTATION:

A special video presentation depicting the association at work through its 86 churches was shown at the Annual Meeting. The tape will be available for checkout purposes for those who would like to show it.

CHALLENGE OF MISSIONS:

Larry Snyder, chairperson of the PMBA Finance Committee, challenged the churches in the area of stewardship. He stated that his task was to encourage everyone present to go back to their churches and urge their congregation to consider giving to the association on a percentage basis. . .

Mr. Snyder said that the warp threads on the tapestry represented to him the money that the churches give to the association. . .Those fill threads represent our time. . .and the loom represents the Weaver. . .When we turn our lives over to the Weaver, He can and will work through us. . .

"The Pilot Mountain Baptist Association has done a lot this year, but I cannot help but wonder, 'What if.'" said Mr. Snyder. "What if all our churches had given to the association on a percentage basis. . .what could we have done. . .What if all our churches were to go to a percentage basis giving and increased their giving to five percent. . .instead of building three houses through Habitat for Humanity, we might have built 15 houses. . .What if all the churches increased their giving. . .what if. . .

Larry stated that he wanted the churches to focus on what they are doing in partnership with the association and to ask, "Why aren't we doing all we can?"..Maybe subconsciously we have become paralyzed by all the possibilities. . .

Three years ago I shared a dream with many of you. . .that all our churches would give on a percentage basis. . .Then only 20 churches gave on a percentage basis; today 44 churches now give on a percentage basis. . .When you get to that point, we can look to our Great Weaver and sing, "To God Be the Glory," as we look at all that He has accomplished in and through the PMBA.

MUSIC ENSEMBLE:

A musical ensemble from St. Andrew Community Church rendered a melody of testimonies in song.

SENDING FORTH:

Gloria Griffin, the weaver who worked the tapestry loom tonight, gave a challenge to the association. . .She stated that it was a privilege to share what has been taking shape for the past several months. . .The following are excerpts from her challenge:

God permeates our tapestry. . .Warp threads do not stand along but must be filled by fill threads. . .The circles in the tapestry represent our children's faces. . .Colors represent the many different faces. . .As you can see, no two are alike.

A weaving has two sides. The front side came easy but it takes some time to come up with what will turn up on the backside. . .Best thing we could do was circle the world with men and women. . .The gold cross reminds us that we are a part of God's kingdom, still being refined. . .the green background represents our little corner of the world. . .I hope that as you have listened and shared tonight, you will have caught our vision. . .If you will look between the arms of each person in the circle you will see a heart. . .sent by God. . .

ADJOURNMENT

Wade Tucker thanked Dr. Edwards and College Park for hosting the Annual Meeting. He recognized all who had a part in the planning and implementation of the Annual Meeting by having them stand. Pastor Tucker challenged, "Who will be the weavers in the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association 20 - 25 years from now? As you return to your churches would you ask God to give you two or three people who might be here in 25 years? Would you mentor those people? The Kingdom of God is without calendars. . .Go with the Grace of God. . .And make sure your church is represented in the work at PMBA for the Kingdom. . .

The meeting was adjourned with prayer from Sheree Jones, vice moderator and associate pastor at Konnoak.

Revised OCTOBER 1996

Pilot Mountain Baptist Association
MISSION PERFORMANCE COUNCILS REPORTS

BROTHERHOOD COUNCIL

1996-1997 witnessed a newfound excitement in the PMBA Brotherhood Council. It was a year of new departures and modest successes. High notes included:

- ☐ Active participation in the Habitat venture, in planning, in the workday at the Cherry Street Jail (88 laymen, 55 inmates) and on the Saturdays where on-site construction took place.
- ☐ Accepting the gift of a mobile home from an anonymous donor, which will be a part of the disaster relief fleet as the command center vehicle.
- ☐ Collecting $2,300 towards the purchase, modification, and supply of towable disaster recovery trailer.
- ☐ The first PMBA Men's Rally held in many years at Bethany.
- ☐ The RA Racer Day at Old Town. One of our RA's, Trace Clowney of Germanton, won at the state level.
- ☐ The first associational workday to help winterize the cabins at Camp Mundo Vista. Brim's Grove, Green Meadows, and Griffith assisted in this work.
- ☐ The planning of the second RA activity sponsored by PMBA: an overnight retreat to be held at the Vineyard in Stokes County.
- ☐ Men from our churches journeyed to eastern North Carolina to help in the Fran rebuilding, assisted churches on the home and foreign mission fields in construction projects.

I would like to express my appreciation to the PMBA Brotherhood Council for their hard work and support, and to the many who aided in these efforts. At present we may be few, but the hand of God is on this work.

CHURCH & COMMUNITY MINISTRIES

The Church and Community Ministries Council sponsored two events during the past year: the Christmas Toy Store and Summer Celebration.

The Christmas Toy Store was able to help 134 families representing 346 children. Reverend Reuban Gilliam was able to assist an additional fifteen families (15) and numerous children with items left over from the Toy store event. Our counselors reported 18 rededications and 1 profession of faith. We referred 26 families to area churches for follow-up on these decisions and other needs.

The Summer Celebration event reaches out to mentally and physically challenged individuals. This year our event was at Old Town Baptist Church with 75 individuals in attendance. We learned that a new date needed to be chosen, because the group homes of Forsyth County plan a fund raising event on our annual date.

South Fork Baptist Church is planning a workshop for literacy training in November of 1997 and all of our churches are invited to be a part of this new program.

We are in need of a new church to sponsor the work with the visually impaired. If your church would like to sponsor a wonderful ministry, please contact our council and we would be more than happy to share with you the details of this ministry.

CHURCH-MINISTER RELATIONS COUNCIL

The Church-Minister Relations Council seeks to offer to congregations of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association assistance in resolving conflicts that may arise within the congregation and/or between the congregation and its church staff. The goal of the council is to provide a process which is redemptive to all parties concerned and will direct the congregation toward greater health. In addition, the council is available to provide training opportunities for staff, and relevant committees, in the areas of conflict resolution, church/staff relations and personnel matters.

By its very nature, the work of the council is held in strictest confidence.

DAVID WILSON, Director

CREATIVE MINISTRIES COUNCIL

The Creative Ministries Council met five times during the year. The members reviewed the duties and responsibilities of the Council during the first meeting.

Beginning with the second meeting the members reviewed scripts of plays. During the selection process the members decided to offer a play during the month of October and the first two weeks of November. In prior years, the play had been presented during November and early December. The Council did not want to interfere with the local churches as they prepare to celebrate the birth of Jesus.

"God Appoint a Worm," a humorous story about Jonah and forgiveness, was chosen. The schedule of performances are listed below:

Oct. 4	7:00 PM	South Fork
11	6:00 PM	New Beginning
18	6:00 PM	Kernersville/FBC
19	7:00 PM	Forsyth County Corrections Facility
26	6:30 PM	Konnoak
Nov. 2	6:00 PM	Friends
9	6:00 PM	Pfafftown

The Creative Ministries Council has had an excellent year. In addition to the preparation and presentation of the play, two members of the Council, Debbie Joyner and Debbi Patterson, attended Curtain Call, a drama workshop sponsored by the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina.

CONGREGATIONAL DEVELOPMENT COUNCIL

The Congregational Development Council of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association is being restructured to channel resources to all our churches in a more effective manner:

1) The New Work Group of the CDC will continue to assist new churches in our area (such as Hillsdale, St. Andrew Community, and North Winston). We are positioning ourselves to channel assistance from the restructured Home Mission Board of the SBC and the NC Baptist State Convention. We are also preparing to assist our local churches who have an interest in beginning new work.

2) The Research & Planning Group of the CDC will seek to be a proactive group that identifies areas in need of new churches and ministries. We will be utilizing such excellent resources as the PERCEPT Congregational Development Materials to survey communities and churches in our area.

3) The Consultative Group of the CDC will be trained to assist local congregations in using such resources as: COMPASS Ministry Area Profiles, Neighbor Area Analysis, Revision, NeighborLink, Percept Net, Community Vision, and First View. We will seek to utilize one of our greatest PMBA resources - Charles Fox, who has extensive background and expertise in the area of Congregational Development.

Your CDC will seek to serve ALL churches in the PMBA:

1) Healthy churches that are interested in starting new missions or new ministry projects.

2) Existing churches that need renewal and revisioning.
3) New churches that need nurturing and guidance.

DISCIPLESHIP TRAINING COUNCIL

"You cannot be my disciple unless you carry your own cross and come after me." (Luke 14:27)

Our Lord Jesus Christ challenges each of us as believers with these powerful words. He knew the great temptation that we all would face was that of setting in, becoming comfortable and complacent with our salvation and not being motivated to actively engage in His Kingdom work. He didn't call us to comfort but rather to commitment and that is what is at the heart of the process of discipleship.

Over the past year, your Discipleship Training Council met eight times to review our objective of assisting the churches in our association in starting new discipleship opportunities or evaluating and enhancing current ones.

Members of our Discipleship Training Council made contact with thirty churches in an effort to foster an ongoing supportive relationship with those persons in the local church responsible for promoting and supervising Discipleship Training. We enjoy the opportunities we have to discover the variety of ways that the different churches are carrying on the vital work of discipling believers.

Your council again sponsored the PMBA children's Bible Drill event this Spring, with 31 participants representing five of our churches. Twenty-nine of these qualified to move on to the state level competition.

In addition to working directly with local church leaders, your D.T. Council functioned as a part of our newly-formed PMBA Leadership Development Team. Together we are working towards the goal of assisting our churches in identifying, training, and utilizing leaders in the local congregations. The team divided our association into four quadrants and plan to hold leadership Strategy Meetings in each geographical quadrant once a year. Our first strategy meeting was held at Cornerstone Baptist Church in May. The team also sponsored a pilot group using the new Sunday School Board study, Jesus on Leadership. We look forward to continuing to work together in the PMBA in the ministry of developing disciples and leaders.

EVANGELISM COUNCIL

The Evangelism Council met 14 times during the 1996-1997 associational year for planning and communication purposes. An Evangelism Conference and Workshop was held April 7-8 at Beck's Baptist Church. Average attendance for both days was approximately 90, representing 12 churches.

Plans for 1998 Evangelism Conference are already underway. Calvary Baptist Church will host the conference September 10 -11, 1998. Calvin Miller will be our keynote speaker and workshop leader.

The regular monthly meeting dates have been changed from the fourth Wednesday at 12:30 to the fourth Thursday at 7 PM in order to accommodate some members who cannot make day meetings.

The council joined with the State Convention and the Home Mission Board to host a "People Sharing Jesus Workshop at the PMBA Resource Center October 24-25, 1997. Our churches were encouraged to purchase and distribute copies of the "Jesus" film as a witness tool. The Evangelism Council assisted 34 churches in the area of Evangelism this year in some way.

MISSION PERFORMANCE COUNCILS REPORTS

LANGUAGE MISSIONS COUNCIL

The Language Missions Council consists of representatives from each of the seven ministries to ethnic/culture groups in this area. These include:

Korean Mission - Winston-Salem/FBC
Japanese Fellowship - Northwest
Hispanic Baptist Church of Union Cross
Hispanic Mission at Beck's
Vietnamese S.S. class - Ardmore
International Student Ministry

There is also a representative from Calvary Baptist Church with their outreach in English as a Second Language, a Chinese Bible Study, a monthly international family meal. The Asian Indian group which was meeting on Saturday afternoons has disbanded. All of the active participants are members of English-language churches.

During this past year we are rejoicing that Galo Maldonado has come to serve as pastor of the Hispanic Mission at Beck's. He was ordained to the ministry on September 21. It is very encouraging to see the different Hispanic groups working together to strengthen each other. And it is good to see the progress of the new work at Beck's.

The Korean Mission with Peter Cho as pastor has become even more active and is developing good leadership. The congregation is looking forward to a time when they will have their own place of ministry.

There have been several conversions followed by baptism during this year in the Korean, Japanese, and Hispanic groups.

One of the highlights of the year was the Celebration of Cultural Diversity at Northwest Baptist Church on June 8th, when participants from all of the ethnic groups came together for worship and fellowship.

New items included in the budget for 1997-98 are for publicity of worship services and other activities and a scholarship fund for leadership training.

MISSION PARTNERSHIPS COUNCIL:
Belarussian Children's Project:

Offering Hope and because of His great love we brought 15 Belarussian children to our association in the summer of 1997. PMBA has been generous in the support of this life changing ministry with these children. Our committee met several times during the year in preparation for the children and with the host families. After the children returned home another meeting was held for evaluation. One response from the evaluation: "It is the hardest, best thing I have ever done."

Ura Tchekhovsky, Director of ABRO Belarus, would like to thank you personally. Ura said, "Your kind people have given our children hope. Thank you very much for your attention to our kids. You have helped strengthen their bodies physically, taught them to laugh which as given them emotional stability, and touched their spiritual lives. Maybe this way, Christ can come into their home."

A very special thank you to the 12 hosts families for opening their homes and hearts. These families are members of Bethany, Center Grove, Clemmons First, Green Meadows, Oaklawn, Rural Hall First and Walnut Cove First. This was a wonderful group of families and the love between children and families will continue to grow across many miles. Love is the same in any language.

All the children were able to be seen by dentists, doctors, and had needed medical help which was provided by generous medical professionals. The children were given Bibles. Several group activities were planned during their stay.

ORDINATION COUNCIL

The Ordination Council serves in an advisory capacity to any church in the association which seeks help. During the past year three churches have asked us to examine candidates for ordination to the Gospel ministry. Members from each candidate's church were added for purposes of the examination. All three were enthusiastically recommended for ordination by their respective churches and later ordained by the church. The three newly-ordained ministers were: Jo Bjorling, Pfafftown Baptist Church; Beverly Isley-Landreth, Ardmore Baptist Church; and Brad Davis, Danbury Baptist Church.

CARLTON MITCHELL, Director

RECREATIONAL MINISTRIES COUNCIL

Our Association sponsors Youth Basketball and Softball. We had fifteen churches and youth organizations involved in basketball this year. We held five leagues at four church locations from December to March. This involved 44 teens which included Junior Co-ed, Intermediate Boys, Girls and two Senior High Boys Leagues.

In softball we had ten teams representing eight churches involved in this ministry from April until June.

These programs provide a Christian atmosphere and recreational outlet for our PMBA youth.

STEVE WARE, Director

SEMINARY EXTENSION COUNCIL

From the Fall Semester of 1996 to the Fall Semester of 1997, Seminary Extension has enjoyed growth and increasing support from people in our churches as they have dedicated themselves to becoming better trained servants in God's Kingdom work.

In the Fall of 1996, we were able to offer Teaching the Bible to Adults at Walnut Cove First Baptist Church, New Testament Survey II at the PMBA Resource Center, and Ephesians and Philippians through the Forsyth Prison Ministries. We had a total enrollment of 34 in these classes.

In the Spring of 1997, New Testament Survey III and How to Understand the Bible met at the PMBA office, Public Worship class met at Walnut Cove First Baptist and the chaplains at Forsyth Prison taught Exodus and Mark. We had a total of 62 enrolled. Acts and The History of Christianity met at the PMBA Resource Center, and a class in Pastoral Care met at Walnut Cove First. We had a registration of 22 for this semester.

BEVERLY LANDRETH, Director

SENIOR ADULT MINISTRIES COUNCIL

The Senior Adult Ministries Council held seven meetings in the calendar year 1997. This includes the one we will have October 16, 1997 and the one on November 20, 1997.

The Senior Adult Ministries Council sponsored their tenth annual adult luncheon on May 1, 1997 at Oldtown Baptist Church in their new Christian Life Center with approximately 400 people in attendance, representing 32 churches in the association. The meal was prepared by Betty Huff and the kitchen staff at Old Town Baptist Church. Entertainment was provided by the Snappy Tappers from Little Creek Recreation Center under the direction of Mitzi Griffin.

The Council has discussed plans for a bus trip in the Spring or early Summer of 1998.

On October 1, 1997 the Reverend Tom Southern from Mount Calvary Baptist Church will become the Director of the Senior Adult Ministries Council. It has indeed been a pleasure, privilege and honor to have served as director.

ARTHUR WETZEL, Director

SINGLE ADULT MINISTRIES COUNCIL
1995-1996

The Single Adult Ministries Council met six times during the 1996-1997 associational year.

The Single Council held four events at local churches: Beck's Baptist Church - January 11; Old Town Baptist Church - March 1; Bethany Baptist Church - May 5; and Ardmore Baptist Church - September 19.

Assistance was given to five churches by telephone. The Council met with five members of Quaker Gap Baptist Church to offer assistance.

David Thomas, the 1997-1998 director for the Singles Council, attended the Singles Leadership Workshop at Ridgecrest the weekend of Labor Day.

LOUISE VENABLE, Director

STUDENT MINISTRIES COUNCIL

The Primary focus of the Student Ministries Council continues to be the campus ministry at Salem College. During the 1996-97 school year the council sponsored weekly Bible studies and sponsored fellowship events. The Baptist Student Union worked with the Religious Life Council. This council is made up of all campus ministries that work with Salem students. The council plans and conducts chapel and other events related to religious faith of students.

This ministry has many opportunities to grow in the 1997-1998 school year. The freshmen enrollment is the highest in years.

SAM SORRELLS, Director

SUNDAY SCHOOL COUNCIL

The PMBA Sunday School Council and ACTeam members participated in a Mini Metro Sunday School Clinic in High Point, March 24-25, 1997. More than 52 persons from PMBA attended this regional event. Approximately 400 people attended throughout the region..

The ACTeam attended the Spring Training Institute, sponsored by First Baptist Church of Black Mountain April 11-12.

Our association held two VBS Training Clinics in 1997. Over 95 people, representing 13 churches, attended these clinics. The first clinic was held on May 6 at Beck's Baptist Church and the second clinic was held at Konnoak Baptist Church on May 8.

JOHN STOKER, Director

WMU COUNCIL

The WMU Council of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association held the annual Leadership Training Conference September 9, 1997 with 71 attending, representing 31 churches.

This year has been a busy one with the WMU Council heading up the responsibility of coordinating food for our three Habitat homes with our Baptist Women of the Rowan Association.

Ladies from several of our churches volunteered each Saturday to prepare and serve food. This was all done with much love, not knowing the exact number of people who would be there. Amazingly, there was more than enough food each week, and the "leftovers" were distributed to several of our community agencies (i.e., Samaritan Soup Kitchen, Rescue Mission, King Outreach, etc.)

Mary Ella Barefoot, PMBA Mission Involvement Consultant, coordinates a birthday party each month at Goodwill Industries for their residents. In December, Mary Ella coordinated the annual Christmas party for the Forsyth Jail and Prison at the Cherry Street extension.

The WMU annual Salad Supper held at Old Town Baptist Church in March was a BIG success, with over 500 people attending. Leslie Boney from the North Carolina governor's office spoke on Child Advocacy, the WMU theme for last year.

As the last project for 1997, the WMU and Brotherhood joined together to purchase several new flags. An inventory will be made of all flags and they will be maintained by the WMU Council in cooperation with the PMBA office staff.

We are looking forward to a new year of service.

GLENDORA EPPERSON, Director

YOUTH MINISTRY COUNCIL

1996-97 has been a great year for the Youth Ministry in our Association. We continue to evaluate the needs of our churches, based on input from our youth leaders. We provided several opportunities for young people to have training and fellowship, and offered new events to provide for specific needs. The events are outlined below:

1996 Associational Fall Youth Retreat:

This annual event was held at a new location, with fantastic results! We took 364 youth and chaperones to Ridgecrest Conference Center the weekend of November 15-17, to learn how to be Mountain Movers. Our young people learned how loving, living, and leading are all part of how we learn to move mountains in Jesus' name! A concert on Friday night by recording artists John Cox, Nouveaux, and Code of Ethics, kicked off the weekend, and a variety show on Saturday night gave everyone a chance to celebrate their talents and have a great time. The weekend included participation from eighteen different churches, and everyone left ready to have a reunion of the groups!

1997 Mountain Movers Reunion/True Love Waits Rally:

The Youth Ministry Council heard the requests for a reunion of the Fall Retreat church groups, so we sponsored a combined event at Old Town Baptist Church on Saturday evening, February 1, 1997. The event was to give the youth a chance to catch up, as well as an invitation to all PMBA youth to hear about the "True Love Waits Goes Campus" emphasis. There were 227 youth and adult sponsors who gathered, despite bad weather, to hear how God is using "True Love Waits" to change lives. The youth were divided according to their schools, and each group elected a student leader who would coordinate the effort to bring a "True Love Waits" display to their school on February 14th. Each young person was provided TLW personal commitment cards for their own use and for distribution to their friends at school.

1997 "That Spring Thing":

On Friday evening, April 25, 1997, we introduced a new event for our youth. Three hundred and two youth representing twenty-one different churches took a chance on a new event, and were instantly rewarded when they walked into the gym at First Baptist Church of Winston-Salem to see the Inflated Giant Obstacle Course, Bungee Run, Gladiator Pedestal Joust, and Sumo Wrestling! OOOrah!! These games provided such entertainment, and the youth also enjoyed refreshments and Karaoke at The Hangout. It was a tremendous time of fellowship, and the feedback was overwhelming to "please do this again!" We might just do that!

RAMON SMITH, Director

CONSTITUTION COMMITTEE

The principal responsibility of the Constitution Committee is to review and make recommendations with respect to the Constitution, By-Laws, and Policies and Procedures of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. These documents reflect our identity, aims, and methods as an Association. In a technical sense, these three documents state who we are, what we are about, and how we intend to achieve those ministry and mission goals that reflect our identity and commitments as an Association.

In 1996-1997, the Constitution Committee focussed its attention on possible changes in the Policies and Procedures of the PMBA. The Committee continues to request that all Councils, Committees, Conferences, and Coordinators within the PMBA examine their purpose, objectives, and methods in the light of the Association's mission purpose and core values and submit any changes to the Constitution Committee for review and recommendation to the Association at large.

Since the Constitution of the PMBA is a living document and not a static fixture, the overall process of review and revision is ongoing and will continue throughout the upcoming year. Our aim and hope as a committee is to maintain a Constitution that accurately reflects our character and commitment as an Association. We welcome the suggestions of others in this process and we are grateful for the opportunity to serve the PMBA family through this work.

NATHAN E. PARRISH, Chairman

CREDENTIALS COMMITTEE

The Credentials Committee meets as needed to examine the progress of churches under the watchcare of the association and to interview applicant churches for affiliation with the association.

Since there were no churches under watchcare or applications for affiliation to be considered, the Credentials Committee was inactive during 1997.

R. HERMAN KITCHEN, Chairperson

FINANCE COMMITTEE

The Finance committee met monthly in 1997. Some of the tasks the committee were involved in are as follows:

1) Developed and recommended the budget to the Association
2) Selected the independent auditor for the annual audit.
3) Reviewed expenditures of the Association and the findings of the auditor and submitted timely reports to the Associational Board.
4) Developed plans to fund special events such as the Habitat for Humanity and St. Andrew Community Baptist Church projects.
5) Provided funds to produce the video for the Associational Meeting in order to enhance the Associational Stewardship.

LARRY SNYDER, Chairperson

[The 1997 Audit Report is on file at the PMBA Resource Center. You are welcome to come by the associational office to review it at any time.]

NOMINATING COMMITTEE

The Nominating Committee met monthly to select those people who felt led to serve on the committees and councils of the Association. The names of people who were contacted came not only from the Nominating Committee members, but also through the requests from nominations and from the chairpersons of the councils and committees.

A great sense of appreciation and gratitude is expressed by the Nominating Committee to those who have agreed to share their time and talents for the advancement of God's Kingdom through the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association.

PEGGY NEAL, Chairperson

[The list of the 1997-1998 PMBA Leadership Team was presented to and approved by the Association-in-Session at College Park on October 14, 1997. Please refer to pages 3-14 for those approved to serve.]

ORDER OF BUSINESS COMMITTEE

For the past two seasons the Order of Business Committee (soon to be called the Annual Meeting Committee) has been guided by one desire. That desire has been to better serve our Lord and Master through bringing the many diverse congregations together once a year in an atmosphere of Family Reunion. That desire has been to seek to perpetuate a more caring and loving spirit among our eighty-six church families. This bold objective has been directly related to the vision of our Associational Missionary, Jim Hamblen. We all realize very quickly after meeting Jim that he promotes a more loving and accepting atmosphere for all Christians everywhere.

In my opinion, this work unit has accomplished its objective. This year's Annual Meeting will be one of the most ambitious we have ever endeavored to carry out. The plans have been completed. We truly feel we have followed the leading of the Holy Spirit in developing an annual program that is representative of the times in which we live. The focus this year is on "God's Mission Tapestry."

This course of action could not have taken place without the unrestricted and abundant generosity of the many individuals that serve on your Annual Meeting Committee and also those people who became ad hoc members of the Committee by reason of their particular talent. Committee members such as Mrs. Gloria Griffin, Rev. Wilson Harmon, Rev. Paul Dean, Mrs. Helen Nelson, and Mr. Ed Ross have faithfully fulfilled their duty to the Association. Additional individuals such as Rev. Ty Talton, Rev. Jim Saul, and Mr. Wayne Thompson have generously offered their talents to the 1997 Annual Meeting. They have been a part of the instrument that God has used to bring us together with a common purpose and love.

To all who have served on the Annual Meeting Committee, I wish to express my heartfelt gratitude for you allowing me to again be among the gifted of God's Kingdom. I am sure your future Annual Meeting Committees will build upon this Solid Rock, the foundation of Family Reunion and the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association will continue to serve this community in the manner in which our Lord Jesus Christ intended.

DELBERT LAUTEN, Chairperson

PERSONNEL COMMITTEE

The Personnel Committee has held six regular meetings with set agendas during the past year. The Committee had worked closely with the Executive Staff in the correlation of job descriptions, staff evaluations, and budgetary issues.

Last year, the Personnel Committee worked delightedly and prayerfully in the search and selection process of filling the position of Missionary Associate on Executive Staff. Charles Fox accepted the position of Missionary Associate with PMBA effective August 15, 1996. The impact of Charles' ministry in our Association is a true blessing and we are grateful for his ministry gifts.

The Personnel Committee continues to be involved with the Organizational/Staff Redesign Team as we plan toward the twenty-first century for our Associational needs.

The Personnel Committee joins with the entire PMBA family in affirming our executive and support staff ministry teams. We are aware of their call to ministry, their gifts, and commitment to the team in carrying out their tasks. We give God thanks for each of them.

AL FAUSCH, Chairperson

PROPERTIES COMMITTEE

1996-1997 Properties Committee Report

In trying to follow good stewardship practices, the Property Committee has attempted to maintain upkeep of our building, both interior and exterior, to the best of our ability and keeping within our budget. We are grateful for the volunteer who did some touch up painting on the exterior.

The following equipment was purchased either as needed new items or to replace worn out items: 1 color monitor (Hyundai), 2 CD ROM drives for computers, 4 McAfee Virus Scan Software, 1 secretarial chair to replace a broken chair, Cass It software to comply with postal regulations for bulk mail, and 1 Kodak Ektagraphic IHA slide projector. Also purchased were 1 walnut lateral file cabinet and 1 walnut keyboard for the Missionary Associate.

A portion of the driveway and rear parking lot was repaired and resurfaced and the remaining area was sealed along with a ramp for handicap needs at the front porch entrance. All parking spaces were remarked. This was needed to prevent more serious breakdown of the parking lot and should give added years to its usefulness.

I wish to thank the committee members, staff, and others who helped to attain these accomplishments.

D.J. REDDING, Chairperson

COMMUNICATION

In 1997 the Communications Coordinators assisted the churches in promoting Habitat for Humanity project. This work was in conjunction with the Habitat for Humanity Staff.

News releases were issued regarding the Saturday wall building day at the Cherry Street Prison, the Habitat Blitz on August 9, where over 300 volunteers came together to work on the three houses, and the day of Dedication on November 11.

The communication coordinators worked with the Order of Business Committee to develop a 19 minute video on the association, which was shown at the Annual Meeting at College Park on October 14. Planning is in process for reviewing/evaluating the PMBA print media as well as communication equipment (i..e., phone, computers, etc.), distribution of information, and cost effectiveness.

COOPERATIVE MINISTRIES

The Cooperative Ministries Council serves as a liaison between the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association and the Rowan Baptist Association. The Council seeks ways to share in cooperative fellowship and ministry among the pastors and churches of the two associations.

The ministers and their spouses of both associations came together for a joint worship service and lunch at the Ardmore Baptist Church on December 9, 1996. The message was delivered by Dr. Corbin Cooper, director of the Cooperative Ministries Department of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina. The Rev. Charles Fox, Missionary Associate of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, introduced Dr. Cooper to the gathering. The Rev. Reuban Gilliam, Sr., and Dr. Cecil Cave presented a plaque of appreciation from the two associations due to Dr. Cooper's forthcoming retirement in April of 1997.

The Reverend Gilliam and Dr. Cave drafted "A Covenant for Racial and Ethnic Justice" for an individual and a congregation, which may be used in the churches of our two associations. The Covenant was presented at a regular meeting of the Associational Board.

The Cooperative Ministries Council through the Coordinating Council recommended to the Associational Board on March 18, 1997 that we officially go on record to participate with the Rowan Baptist Association in the building of three Habitat for Humanity Houses; that we commit the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association to raise $45,000; and that we name the Reverend James V. Hamblen as the Project Director. The Reverend Gilliam made the recommendation as a motion, the Reverend David Coburn seconded the motion, and the motion was approved.

A kick-off meeting for the Habitat for Humanity joint venture was held at Union Baptist Church on Northwest Boulevard on April 9 at which time Mr. Roger Jones of College Park Baptist Church was named Construction Overseer. A Victory Celebration was held at Mineral Springs Baptist Church on August 1. The goal was to have the three houses built and all expenses paid by the meeting of the Baptist State Convention November 10-12 at the Lawrence Joel Veterans Memorial Coliseum in Winston-Salem.

MEDIA RESOURCE LIBRARY

I have taken the following steps in attempting to form a Media Resource Council for the Associational Media Library:

1) Contacted people to serve on such a council. I got three people to agree to meet with me and assist in formulating a mission statement, setting forth objectives, establishing lending and retrieval methodology, developing guidelines for acquisition of new materials, and establishing criteria for weeding out inappropriate or outdated materials. However, none of these three people were willing to commit to serve on such a council.

2) Published a notice in The Pilot asking for volunteers to help with this project. There was no response to this appeal.

3) Budget considerations: In order to justify the budget requirements, I estimated the current use of resources available. The usage is very low..

I have been involved in the following activities to learn more about the work and to discover what is essential in order to begin this project:

1) Attended the TACMO workshop at the Key Leadership conference at Ridgecrest. I realized the magnitude of developing a Media Resource Library.

2) Gathered materials on how to establish a Media Resource Library. All the materials assume that the Media Resource Library has a full time employee who has other help available to him/her. The task is impossible for a ½ day a week volunteer.

3) Learned that a major requirement is adequate space which is easily accessible to the users. We don't have enough space for current materials much less for planned growth!

4) Considered budget requirements for the acquisition of new materials, new equipment, and a computer program for cataloging the materials

Questions to be answered

1) Is there a real need for an associational library? If so, what are the indicators of such a need?

2) Is it feasible to maintain videos which have not been used for 4 to 5 years?

3) Of what value to the churches or association is the vast shipment of Sunday School Literature which is rarely used and must be discarded each quarter ?

4) Is there available space to house a media resource library? Current space is cramped, not conducive for creating interest, and is used as a catch all storage closet.

Time for a reality check

The job cannot be accomplished without a staff person! It will take daily effort on an on-going basis to establish a media resource library of any quality, and the work doesn't decrease after being established--it increases!

Adequate space is a MUST if a resource media library is to be functional, accessible, and inviting to potential users.

Involvement, support and interest on the part of staff members is essential if the project is to succeed.

Indications of a substantive need are not evident, but perhaps a more thorough study should be pursued by more knowledgeable persons in order to verify this conclusion.

INEZ WHITE, Media Volunteer Coordinator

CHRISTIAN EDUCATORS

The Christian Educators Conference meets on the third Tuesday of each month for a time of fellowship and support for one another. It is open to anyone who has a responsibility of Education in their church.

As we meet we also look a new ways to help meet the education demands of the local church. This conference ca also be a resource o the churches of our association when they need help in the area of education. If this service is needed, feel free to call on us and we can direct you to someone who can help you.

One event that has come out of the conference is what we call a Round Table Discussion Group. We decide on a current book to read and we gather together and discuss the book and how we can apply it in the local church. This helps us to learn new concepts and how to use them to better do the job of education.

SCOTT POND, President

MINISTERS' WIVES FELLOWSHIP

The Ministers' Wives Fellowship met five times in 1997 in the homes of Miriam Mitchell and Etta Stokes, at Brookridge, and at the PMBA Resource Center. We lost one of our faithful members, Katherine Green, and a memorial was given in her honor to Mundo Vista. We joined with the Ministers Conference for a Valentine Day celebration and banquet at Old Town Baptist Church where we were responsible for the table decorations. Our handbook contains information on all ministers' wives even though our attendance only averages ten members.

The purpose of our fellowship is to provide fun, fellowship, spiritual support, inspiration and an opportunity for us to become all that God wants us to be as we share together. We have kept faith with this purpose to the best of our ability.

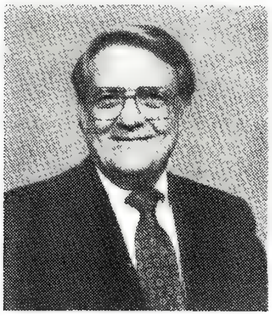
Pilot Mountain Baptist Association
OTHER REPORTS



For several years I have written a column in The Pilot, entitled As I See It. My intention in writing these articles is to share with the readers my observations and perspectives on issues relating to individuals, churches, and the Association. In a similar way, I offer the following comments about the year just past as my annual report to you.

There were many activities, projects, and programs that highlight our collective memory of our journey together as an association. Most of us will easily remember:

☐ The Belarussian children among us...

☐ The three Habitat for Humanity houses built on Caroline Drive (including the work with the inmates at the Cherry Street Prison)...

☐ The functioning of the ministers cluster group meetings in various parts of our association...

☐ The changes in our organizational structure and function which were the result of the recommendations from the Organization/Staff Redesign Team (O/SRT)...

☐ The impact of our newest staff member, Charles Fox, who brings many gifts of ministry to his position of Missionary Associate...

☐ The growing need and successes of the Baptist Toy Store, which provides a witness and gifts both from the PMBA Resource Center and through the ministries in the neighborhoods coordinated by Reuban Gilliam...

Many other worthy projects come to mind, and I fear I may overlook some significant accomplishments by focusing your attention on the few just mentioned. However, I am prepared to risk even more by sharing some very personal feelings about 1997.

The most important achievement was the common bond and joint commitment among the PMBA leaders and staff to move closer to the churches in our interest and our efforts. White there may be confusion in other places about the purpose of our work together as Baptists. The central focus in this association has been upon missions and ministries, especially in this area of the Western Piedmont.

My highest satisfaction has come from working with such a wonderful staff team. Each one is a minister in his or her place of responsibility. I have been blessed to serve with them and you in this family of Baptists called the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association.

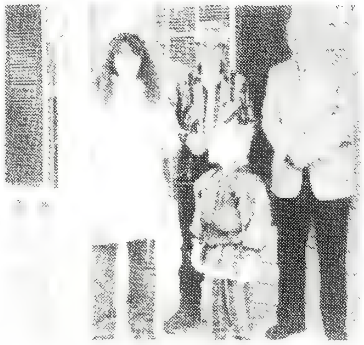
In July 1997 the Baptist State Convention, the General Baptist Convention, the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, and the Rowan Baptist Association came together to build three houses through Habitat for Humanity. From July through September over 500 individuals worked to make this happen. The three homes are now built and ready to be dedicated.

Introducting:



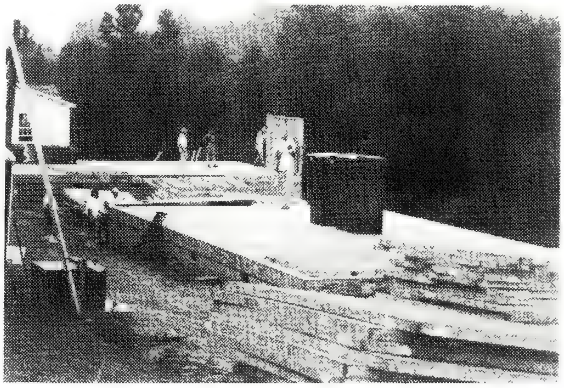
Angela and Albert Masker, an Anglo couple with two children; Victoria, age 5, and Timothy, 18 months. Timothy has Walker Warburg Syndrome and requires constant care. He is on partial life support and requires the use of a respirator. The Masker family has a nurse that works with Timothy full time. Currently they live in High Point but the High Point hospital does not have the capabilities to assist Timothy in an emergency. Their Habitat home will provide the family with easier access to the medical faciltiies that Timothy needs. Both Angela and Albert feel extremely blessed to have been given this opportunity to own their own home. They were very dedicated and had a schedule that they adhered to while earning their sweat equity hours.

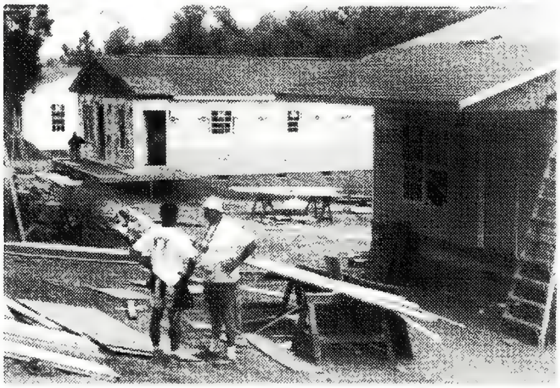
Antonio and Marta Matias, a Hispanic couple that has been married for four years. They have two sons, Elisandro (age six) and Antonio, Jr. (age four) and a daughter, Marta (age one). The Matias family has lived in the United States for 10 years, and Antonio works for Thomasville Furniture Company as a wiping/glazing operator. They have worked hard on their sweat equity hours and were always there when needed.

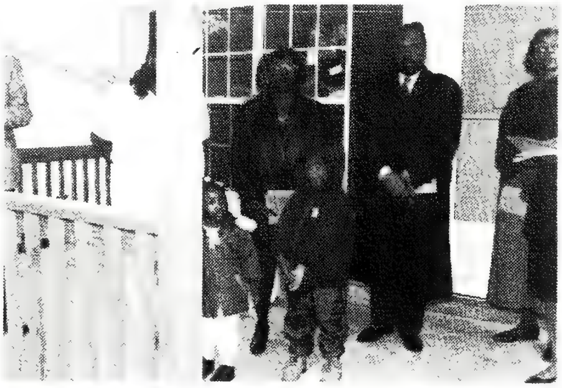
Heather Fant, an African-American mother with two children. Tyrecca is her four-year-old son, and her 19th month-old daugther is Tiara Fant. Heather works for Forsyth Memorial Hospital as a distribution clerk and is employed as a housekeeper and babysitter. Her children currently share a room and have no safe place to play. Heather is also working towards a degree at a junior college. She is a conscientious woman and has worked hard at earning sweat equity hours for her Habitat home.

Habitat for Humanity

We did it! We are very proud of all the volunteers from Pilot Mountain Baptist Association and the Rowan Baptist Association (as well as many others) who participated in building the three houses for Habitat for Humanity Three families are very happy because of the effort of all the people who Helped make this project become a reality. Thank you!







1996-1997 was truly a transitional year for the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. As the O/SRT recommendations began to be fleshed out administratively, implementation moved toward impacting mission and ministry endeavors.
By year-end, measurable progress had occurred. PMBA began to reflect projects rather than programs; and, partnership was becoming the operative word among our churches.

Groundwork was established during 1996-1997 for several new associational ventures. Many of these will be birthed and actually bear fruit in 1997-1998. These include: Networking of electronic data gathering and dissemination; an associational web page; multi-church mission partnerships for new ministries and redevelopment of existing congregations for contextual ministries; the deployment of a newly structured and focused congregational development council; and improved communication techniques and procedures between PMBA and member churches.

By now you have noted it's an exciting time for associational ministry. The heightened level of support from our churches, both participatory and financial, creates an environment where 21st century mission is not just a possibility, but rather a reality and an imperative. May God continue to keep us on transition; we must never think we have arrived when it comes to mission and ministry.

HIGHLIGHTS OF ASSOCIATIONAL BOARD MEETINGS FOR 1996/1997

1. The Finance Committee reported that 62.8% of the churches increased their giving to the association this year. They reported that they had agreed to transfer $10,000 from Contingency Fund #890100 to the Missons Development Fund #800000. Anything over 12% of the Basic Plan for Missions and Ministries will be transferred to the fund(s) as described by Properties Committee.

2. The 1997 Plan for Missions and Ministries, totaling $350,000, was approved as submitted.

3. A list of nominees as submitted by the Nominating Committee to serve in leadership positions for 1996-1997 were approved.

4. Church and Community Ministries reported that the Baptist Toy Store was a great success with toys being provided to 346 children representing 134 families. One profession of faith and 10 rededications were made.

5. The Evangelism Conference date was announces for April 7-8 with Milton Hollifield as the keynote speaker.

6. The Cooperative Ministries Coordinators provided forms for associational board members to take back to their churches regarding ways to become involved in better relations among the races.

MARCH 18, 1997

1. The Cooperative Ministries Coordinators recommended that PMBA commit to raising $45,000 to build a Habitat for Humanity House and join with Rowan Baptist Association to build additional houses as money permits. Jim Hamblen was named as Project Director.

2. The Finance Committee made the motion to increase the 1997 Basic Plan for Missions and Ministries by $45,000 to cover the amount needed to build the first Habitat House, and that a letter be sent to all the PMBA churches requesting their increased support.

5. The Properties Committee made the motion and it was approved to enter an agreement with First Assembly for their use of our parking facilities during their 11 AM Sunday Worship and have them add a codicil to their insurance to cover the liability.

JULY 15, 1997

1. The Congregational Development Council recommended that the Associational Board endorse North Winston Baptist Church's desire to purchase land adjacent to their property. While our endorsement does not commit any monies from PMBA for this purchase, it will enable North Winston to secure a low interest loan through the Baptist State Convention. The motion carried.

2. The Congregational Development Council recommended that the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association endorse the transfer of pastoral assistance from Daryl Hairston, former pastor of St. Andrew Community Baptist Church, to the new pastor, Joseph Parks. The motion carried.

3. The Coordinating Council made the motion for the Associational Board to give authorization to the Finance Committee to spend up to $67,500 as the association's part of the joint Habitat venture with the Rowan Baptist Association. The motion carried.

4. David Coburn moved that the Associational Board endorse the work of the Committee for the Establishment of Christian Group Homes in North Carolina through a petition to the Baptist State Convention for a feasibility study requesting the establishment of such homes in North Carolina. The motion carried.

5. The motion was made and carried to allow First Assembly to use our parking facility during their morning worship service and having them add a codicil to their insurance to cover the liability here.

Baptist Children's Homes of NC
1997 Book of Reports

James D. Goldston, III Trustee Chair
Michael C. Blackwell, President

At the sound of a car in his grandmother's carport, Jason looked out the window, and was shocked to see his mother striding toward the house.

She was angry, and Jason shouted, "Lordy, it's momma," as he ran to the back bedroom to call the police.

Just 12 years old, Jason had lived in seven foster care homes and with his grandmother on and off since his father died seven years earlier. His mother's addictions cost her custody of her only son. For whatever reason, tonight she wanted him back.

Out of control, Jason's mother broke open the door and kicked grandmother to the floor. She grabbed her by the hair and "slung me around by the hair of my head," grandmother says, remembering.

Mother shouted for Jason to come out of hiding, and threatened to kill his grandmother. She grabbed a bottle, broke it, and held the jagged edge to grandma's throat, shouting that she would kill her if Jason didn't come out of hiding.

Just then Jason's aunt arrived from a house next door, and held his mother's arms until the police arrived.

Six years later, grandmother beams with pride for Jason, who overcame that tragic, traumatic start in life. Jason garnered academic, athletic and leadership honors in a steady stream at Tuscola High School in Haywood County and is starting college in August 1997 as a freshman at The Citadel.

At Tuscola, he was captain and MVP of the track and cross country teams and a conference champion, vice president for his senior class, Cadet Colonel and ROTC commander in a group of 115 cadets, in National Honor Society, in the top 10 percent of his class, attended leadership events at Western Carolina University and Washington, D.C., and was a peer helper and peer counselor.

At The Citadel he will study political science with a minor in military history and international affairs. He wants a military career as a fighter pilot, then to enter politics after retirement.

Jason credits Broyhill Home, his home since that traumatic night in his grandma's house.

"All the accomplishments of my life have been made possible by Baptist Children's Homes," Jason said at his final awards banquet at Broyhill Home, where he received top honors for the second year.

"Broyhill has made me into a young man with a future, who knows now where he is going and what he wants to do. They've opened the doors to enable me to do that."

As for grandmother, who was desperate to find a place for Jason after the incident in her house, she prays "every night and I thank God every night that we have a place like Broyhill Home and Baptist Children's Homes."

Jason's story is repeated hundreds of times each year at Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina. Not all are as dramatic but every one tells of a young person and a family at the end of an unraveling rope, and of BCH tying a knot in that rope and helping them to hold on.

At four residential campuses, six emergency care cottages, two homes for behaviorally troubled girls, a maternity home, a home for teenage mothers and their babies, therapeutic camping and model day care, 1,398 young people found help in troubled times last year.

During the past year BCH received $1.5 million through the Cooperative Program, and $724,000 through the Thanksgiving Offering. Total church gifts of $3.05 million comprised 25 percent of the BCH budget.

In June 1997 BCH successfully completed the $10.1 million "Light Their Way" Campaign to raise money for operations, capital needs and endowment. Two major priorities of the campaign will be completed in earlyh 1998; the Winifred Lindsay Education/ Administrative Center at Odum Home in Pembroke, and the John D. and Amelia W. Johnson Cottage at Mills Home. A third priority, the Hubert M. Craig Lodge at Cameron Boys Camp, has been completed.

A new video, "Families Under Construction" is available to promote the 1997 Thanksgiving offering, which has a statewide goal of $750,000, the largest ever.

A model program for family preservation has been initiated at Mills Home in Thomasville. Two social workers are on staff to work intensively with families which are at risk of being separated, but who, with help, can overcome their issues and stay together.

Thomasville Area Director Bill Scarlett also is initiating ways for churches and their members to be directly involved on campus, from tutoring, to cooking, to spending early evenings giving personal attention to residents to free staff for more intensive counseling.

Baptist Children's Homes' work was featured in November on "The 700 Club" and in December on CNN. BCH also adopted a missions statement this year, which is "helping hurting children, healing broken families."

Wherever children are hurting and families are strained, BCH strives to heal.

THE BIBLICAL RECORDER

Associational Report--1997

These are "watershed years" for Baptists! Analysts almost daily remind us that the radical changes in society and the erosion of so much that has been precious to us in our religious life is creating a time of major "transition" as we Baptists and other church groups face the 21st century.

The Biblical Recorder tries to tell the whole story with a focus on the many positive things people are doing in their churches and world missions, along with the crucial issues which cannot be concealed and ignored if we honor our heritage from yesterday and fulfill our mission for tomorrow.

There is no way to address these issues without correct and reliable information. The Biblical Recorder was born and continues to serve for that purpose. In the 164 years of state Baptist papers in North Carolina, never was the Recorder more needed than now for people to have the truth.

People are reading less than any time in recent history at the very time there is an increased number of publications and periodicals. It is true of secular publications, it is true of wholesome books from respected libraries, it is true of religious publications. We live in an electronic age, what some have described as an "information glut."

An informed Baptist is a better Baptist; no democracy, including our local churches, can survive long without an informed, involved constituency which makes decisions based upon accurate information from reliable sources.

The Biblical Recorder should be in every Baptist home in North Carolina. Your support as a subscriber and reader, coupled with your encouragement to others, will enable the paper to better serve the constituency with accurate and helpful information.

In order to save churches large amounts of money and to increase the readership of the Recorder, Church News Service (CNS) was launched in 1990. This system lets any congregation have their church news incorporated into the Biblical Recorder which saves staff time, postage and printing costs. Usually, for less than what it costs to produce the church newsletter, CNS gives the entire Baptist communication package to each family in the congregation. Recent and anticipated increases in mailing costs makes CNS a greater value now than ever before.

The paper deliberately focuses more attention on North Carolina Baptists with news, features and inspirational articles which will encourage individuals and churches in their witness and ministry. One sure way to conquer problems and overcome the barriers to effective witness and ministry is to have the facts, know the issues and be adequately informed.

That is why the Recorder was born; that is why it serves today. For more information on how your church can subscribe or use CNS, contact:

Report to the Associations

"Touching Lives With Hope"

HOSPITAL HIGHLIGHTS

Since opening its doors in 1923, The North Carolina Baptist Hospitals, Incorporated has remained fully committed to the purpose of carrying out a ministry of healing as taught by Jesus Christ. It is this Christ-like spirit that has led patients such as Helen Keller to write: "When I was coming out from under surgery, they treated me with fine love, and I could feel it. I have been in places where it didn't matter how many times you pressed the call button, you would just lie there and wait, but the nurses at Baptist Hospital always came right away. If I ever have to go back to a hospital, this is where I would come."

Baptist Benevolent Care Fund

Baptist Churches from all across North Carolina joined us in mutual mission through the Mother's Day Offering. This annual ingathering of love was approved by the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina in 1924. In 1996 the MDO amounted to $456,497.00. It was used exclusively to help patients who had little or no health care insurance or other financial means to pay their hospital bills. From this past year's offering, over $200,000 was used to assist members of our Baptist Churches. May God bless all those who gave so generously.

Division of Pastoral Care

During the year the Chaplains and Staff of the Pastoral Care Department provide worship services in Davis Chapel on Monday, Wednesday, Friday and Sunday for patients and family members. The Pastoral Care Department staff supervised 65 students during the year. They made more than 50,000 ministry contacts, an increase of 10% over the previous year.

CareNet, Inc. continues to grow. There are now 13 counseling centers located in strategic areas across the state. During the year these centers will provide over 26,000 hours of counseling.

The Center for Congregational Health, Inc., continues to expand its assistance to ministers and churches. Programs and assistance offered to churches include Consultants and Intentional Interims working with churches as they face the challenges of today. The Young Leader's Program helps in leadership development, and the Clergy Wellness Program, Turning Point, is designed to foster a holistic growth-approach to the individual minister's life calling.

Points of Emphasis and Progress

J. PAUL STICHT CENTER - In April the J. Paul Sticht Center on Aging and Rehabilitation opened the doors of a new 240,000 square foot state-of-the-arts building. Here services are provided to older adults. These services include a geriatric assessment clinic, Acute Care for the Elderly clinic, Alzheimer's disease and memory disorders clinic, osteoporosis clinic, geriatric gynecology clinic, a women's health center, education services, and a legal clinic for seniors. It houses a true "Day Hospital" for seniors - the first in the state - which provides therapy, examinations and rehabilitation as day-time treatment, eliminating costly overnight stays.

COMPREHAB - On November 4, 1996, the doors were opened to The Medical Center's new CompRehab Center. The 70,000 square-foot building houses a full spectrum of physical rehabilitation and related clinical services, including a Sports Medicine Center, Foot and Ankle Center, The Hand Center, Outpatient Physical Therapy Center, Spine Center, and the Neurorehabilitation Center.

TRAUMA CENTER - The Medical Center has the only designated Level I trauma center in Northwest North Carolina. In the trauma center our goal is for the patient to be in an operating room 10 minutes after arriving at the Emergency Department. Surgeons, anesthesiologists and staff remain on duty 24 hours a day to handle such emergencies.

TOPS IN RESEARCH - According to a report in the February issue of Applied Clinical Trials, Bowman Gray School of Medicine ranked in the top 10 U.S. clinical research institutions.

QUALCHOICE - Established by The North Carolina Baptist Hospitals, Incorporated, The Bowman Gray School of Medicine, and Wake Forest University, this managed care plan provides quality health care and patient physician choice. QualChoice is now able to offer coverage to ministers and church staffs.

WEB SITE - You can learn more about The North Carolina Baptist Hospitals, Incorporated by checking us out on our Web site at: http://www.bgsm.edu. Here you can find helpful information about nutrition, research, and the division of Pastoral Care.

HEALTH ON-CALL ™ - Need a physician or answers to questions about health topics? Dial (800) 446-2255. A registered nurse will take your call and help you select the right physician, answer your questions, provide information or mail printed material to you.

SWITCHBOARD - Assistance and information can be obtained by contacting one of our helpful and courteous switchboard operators at (910) 716-2011.

A CLOSING WORD

In the midst of changing health-care norms, we will not deviate from the mission entrusted to us by the Baptist people of North Carolina. We stand fully committed to excellence and compassion, and remain visionary as we face the demands of the health care market. Under the providence of God, we will continue to find the ways and means to be successful without compromise.

PMBA FAMILY GATHERING

113th Annual Meeting
Tuesday, October 15, 1998
First Baptist Church of Kernersville, NC

Theme: God's Mission Tapestry: Meeting Needs, Touching Lives

REPORT

Prior to the meeting, the Exalt Him Quartet from Kernersville/FBC provided special music.

The meeting was called to order by Wade Tucker at 6:31 PM. Messengers were recognized by Karen Taylor, Associational Clerk, and were respectfully seated.

Host Pastor, Sam Murphy, welcomed those present. He acknowledge the hard work of the church staff as well as all volunteers.

The Sanctuary Choir of Kernersville/FBC sang, "Lord of All."

Gloria Griffin, member of Ardmore and member of the Annual Meeting Committee, wove the theme, "God's Mission Tapestry - Meeting Needs, Touching Lives." She stated that the woven tapestry on display told a story of how the 88 congregations of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association are woven together.

Gloria stated that tonight we are talking about partnerships. We are talking about churches. We are talking about people. She said that the colors (red, yellow, black and white) of the tapestry remind us of the different people groups who serve.

Sam Murphy gave the evening's devotion. The scripture was taken from Acts 10: 9-16.

Sam stated that we have a tapestry of missions before us. It is a piece of art that is formed by the material hung. Intricate design and detail was made to send a message to others.

Apostle Peter recognized the vision of a tapestry coming down from God...God said, "Go, kill, eat..." Three times he repeated his command. This had everything to do with remembrance. Even to the time the tapestry was torn...That veil was torn from top to bottom...God was the only one who could tear His own tapestry from top to bottom. He stated that he was so glad that God was willing to sacrifice himself for our salvation.

Peter was called to use color and design for God's work. If we call ourselves His people then each of us is to be used.

He closed by saying, "The Spirit of God speaks to us. There are men looking at you. So get up and go."

Barbara Coe, Minister of Music of Kernersville/FBC, led the congregation in two songs: Wonderful Grace of Jesus, and Shine Jesus Shine.

Moderator Wade Tucker recognized all members of the Annual Meeting Committee.

Charles Fox, Missionary Associate for the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, spoke to the congregation regarding Associational partnerships. He stated that partnerships are not a new concept. He said that tonight we will hear about four partnerships. Two partnerships (not new) have grown--which is a great incentive for others.

He said that we would also hear about two partnerships that are just taking shape. Charles introduced Ron Hester, Ministries Coordinator, Southside Baptist Church. Ron spoke of a new, exciting partnership entitled, "The Southside Ministries Project."

He related the story about Gideon from the Bible. He stated that Gideon had an army of about 2,000 men. God told Gideon that he had too many men for the upcoming battle.

Finally, Gideon was allowed to proceed into battle, but not with 2,000 men. No, he had 300 men. The reason why... So that God's people would not confuse who had been in charge and who had delivered the people of Israel.

Ron related the story regarding God's promise to Abraham that he (Abraham) would be known as the father of many nations. But Abram and Sarah were getting old...God wanted to be glorified...But they felt He was taking too long.

Another story was about Jesus feeding the multitudes...He provided food for over 5,000 from a very small lunch consisting of bread and fish.

Ron Hester said that Jesus went to the cross for all of us. In our intelligence we believed Him to be dead...But Jesus died and went to the pit of hell to get back the key that the first Adam had lost.

He stated that his assignment for the Southside Ministries Project has not been easy... Regardless, God had prepared him. All He asked for Ron Hester to do was to show up. God said we could not please Him without faith.

He said, "Through the eye of faith, I see the multitude...I keep focusing on that...Now 12 people have committed to go out and win souls...Southside Ministries have ministered since the first of May through a Spanish class and an after- school program. God is using this ministry to make things happen in the Southside Community."

Ron said that if we would humble ourselves and let God work through us we can see mighty things...But when we try to get in there and "tell God how to do it," we will fail...

The corporate world has given this ministry computers. Tim Tremblay, a member of Calvary Baptist Church, has become a part of the Southside Ministries project, bringing his gifts to train people in computers.

This is not about growing a church--but about growing people and establishing relationships. When we take time to get to know God then assignments happen.

This has happened slowly, but for God's glory...What God has for the Southside Community will happen with or without Southside Baptist Church and those in partnership with this church.

Ron asked for the prayers of those present. He said this ministry is all about relationships. "Jesus will not come back while our churches are divided...He will not come back while our churches remain segregated...God wants to show the world that He is always in control...He's coming back for his people...Keep this ministry in your prayers."

Galo Maldonado, pastor of the new Hispanic Mission of Beck's, brought greetings and shared testimony of the great things that God is doing with this mission.

He told of a recent trip he had taken to Duffield, Virginia. He said he went to hear how some people were reaching out to the different ethnic groups in their communities. He said their story reminded him that Jesus told his disciples not to go to certain towns/people. Why? Because they were not prepared and Jesus knew that.

The way to equip us is with brokenness...Once He equips us with His love, He can empower us. PMBA is reaching out to all people to the end of the earth.

In April 1997 there were five members of the Hispanic Mission of Beck's. Today there are 25, with 16 of these members being new believers. The average attendance is 44. The difference with Hispanic churches is that the attendance is always higher than the actual membership.

Galo stated, "To really minister to the Hispanics in our communities we cannot just preach The Word. We must put The Word into action...we must work with those people around us...My job is to teach through my life about Jesus Christ... The Lord taught me I should not trust in my own understanding."

He told how he had been blessed through their ministry to an apartment complex on Motor Road. There are 18 children coming faithfully to hear stories from God's Word. Satan is getting to children before his workers can. He stated that we need to work harder to lead our children to Christ.

He told that 22 children attended a Bible Club in September. One teenage girl accepted Christ. The Hispanic Mission has a free clinic the second Saturday of every month. Since September 103 Hispanics have participated in this clinic.

Galo reported that he had requested materials written in Spanish to use in this ministry from the Baptist State Convention. They did not have any materials written in Spanish.

Last year he said they gave $75 to the PMBA. This year they give thanks for they gave $242. Little is much. God is using every bit for His glory.

Barbara Coe led the congregation in, Majesty. She stated that God only sees one color. "Love." God only hears one language, "Prayer and Praise."

Reuban Gilliam, pastor of North Winston Baptist Church, reported on the ministry of the Kids' Cafe. He stated this was one of the many areas that North Winston acknowledges as a great need in their community. In the process they found out that many children were in need of tutoring, but were also hungry. He reported that through this outreach ministry of North Winston, they feed over 300 children three days per week. The church partners with the Second Harvest Food Bank, churches in the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association and the Baptist State Convention to provide the resources for this ministry.

A brown ribbon was given to every one present. Rev. Gilliam stated that this ribbon is to remind us that we live in a land of abundance. He then appealed for us to share our abundance.

Jim Nelson, chair of the Community Partnerships Team and pastor of Beck's Baptist Church, promoted the Baptist Toy Store. He stated that Christmas is only ten weeks away. The Toy Store will be operating seven weeks from this date. Last year the PMBA serviced over 600 children... However, more important than that, we were able to witness to parents. More than 24 people made professions of Faith...Having been involved in the Toy Store for the last two years, Jim stated that he has come to realize there are many who need help...We are one of a kind...We share one-on-one with parents about the love of Jesus Christ.

The Toy Store will be held on December 1 and 2, from 9 AM - 6 PM, at the PMBA Resource Center this year. He made his appeal for toys, money and volunteers. He encouraged everyone who could to participate in this rewarding ministry. He closed by saying, "As we give, we can touch the love of Christ as we reach out to others."

Jim Hamblen, Associational Missionary, presented Paul Hooker with a certificate for completing 16 plus courses in Seminary Extension. He introduced Paul and his family. Jim stated that Paul Hooker has been a leader in the Association for several years as well as an active member of Oak Grove Baptist Church. He has continued being active as he serves at New Vision Fellowship, a new church that will be presented for Watchcare tonight.

Herman Kitchen, chair of the Membership Committee, recommended that New Vision Fellowship be received under Watchcare for one year. The motion carried.

Ty Talton, chair of the Transition Advisory Team and past moderator for the Association, gave the following report from the Transition Monitoring Team.

Ty stated that we want to be a mighty hand of God...working together across this state...We don't want to be just friends...but partners in God's Kingdom work...

He referred everyone to the report and recommendations as given by the Transition Monitoring Team. He asked everyone to take this report home to share. He said that it is the Association's vision to equip churches for unique mission. If we are going to help you we must serve as consultants. We can also help through the Support Networks.

The logo of a church within a heart represents the 88 congregations beating the pulse of God's work.

Ty Talton reported that the Associational Board had already approved the section entitled, Recommendations - Part 1. He said that the TMT recommended that we re-enstate the past moderator as chair of the Transition Advisory Team. He referred to Number 7: Redefine Roles.

He then took us through Recommendations - Part 2. He said, "If the local congregation is the heart of our association, then we must be about helping our congregations."

He recognized Jack Gentry and Mary Berridge for their sacrifice of time and effort in interiewing members of the congregations of the PMBA.

Recommendations - Part 2 were approved by the Association-in-Session with one opposing vote.

Larry Snyder, chair of the Funding Development Committee and member of Union Cross Baptist Church, challenged those present to the work at hand and the vision for the future. He stated that all the projects mentioned tonight by various people had something in common. Every mission started with someone's vision...

Each successful project has steps:
1) Someone has a dream
2) That dream is shared
3) Resources are needed--human resources and monetary resources. All these opportunities take resources.

We need to have a vision for what we can do as an Association. In a few days each church will receive a budget request asking them to share in the dreams of the churches of the PMBA...In no other year have we been in a better position...

David Hughes, chair of the Personnel Committee, made a special presentation to Jim Hamblen, Associational Missionary, for 15 years of faithful services to the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association.

He stated that fifteen years ago he had never used a touch-tone phone; only got mail by letter carrier. Fifteen years ago was a life time ago...Fifteen years ago Beverly and Jim Hamblen made their way to the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association...A whole lot has changed... In the life of the church... in the life of the Association.

David Hughes recognized Beverly Hamblen for her contribution as an Associational employee She serves as Communications Secretary as well as partnering with Jim in his lifetime ministry work.

In closing David stated his appreciation for all the staff, especially how they have pulled together during Jim's Sabbath Study Leave.

Jim received the monetary gift from the Association with great appreciation and thanksgiving for the support of all the churches and leaders of the PMBA. He stated that in 1983 he was called as the director for the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association...His primary purpose was to help turn this Association over to the churches. Tonight the Transition Monitoring Team has taken a giant step in making his dream come true. He thanked everyone for their love and commitment.

Joseph Parks, pastor of Grace United Community Church, presented Jim Hamblen with a plaque in honor of the commitment the staff and PMBA leaders have shown toward the ministry of Grace United Community Church.

Paul Dean, pastor of Red Bank Baptist Church and chair of the Enlistment Committee, presented the slate of officers and leaders for 1998-1999 Associational Year. He commended the Enlistment Committee for their hard work and diligence.

Paul referred everyone to the section, Sunday School. He stated that this team will be reorganizing and therefore only two positions will be filled for now. The recommendation to approve the 1998-1999 Leaders for the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association was approved as presented.

Jim Hamblen led the congregation in the installation of the 1998-1999 Officers. The towel of servanthood was passed to each officer. They were charged to uphold the duties and commitment of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association as it seeks to partner with and among its 88 congregations in doing missions and ministry for the Kingdom work.

The meeting adjourned at 9:15 PM. Glendora Epperson, Vice Moderator, led in the closing prayer.

KAREN TAYLOR, Clerk

Report of the Transition Monitoring Team

We have spent the past year reviewing the impact and progress of our Association's reorganization, which was begun in 1996. Our study has confirmed that the new concept of partnering with local congregations, the heart of our exsistence, is on target. We reaffirm this direction and realize that we need to be more diligent in communicating and implementing this idea to its fullest potential. We have a significant moment of opportunity before us through the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association.

This report refines and expands our original statements of identity and mission. It also proposes a reshaping of our organization to more accurately reflect the new direction. The central question for every work unit, staff member and member congregation is, "How am I strengthening this Kingdom partnership?"

Our recommendations move this association to the next stage of development, bringing our organization and staff in line without stated priorities. We are indebted to our listeners, Mary Berridge and Jack Gentry, and to the many interested persons who shared insights and thoughts which have guided this report. Our prayer is that God will be honored by the course we have set and that His Kingdom will grow stronger as a result.

Report of the Transition Monitoring Team

Who We Are: Definition

PMBA is a family of churches serving together in meaningful Christian fellowship through shared mission endeavors.

- Family of churches - local congregations related through the blood of Jesus Christ
- Serving together - unity centered in service to and with one another
- Meaningful Christian fellowship - the significance of our association is in Christ
- Shared mission endeavors - ventures achieved through working together

What We Do: Our Mission

The mission of the PMBA is to partner with and among local congregations in doing missions and ministry.

What We Hope to Accomplish: Our Objectives

PMBA serves as a catalyst to:

1. EQUIP churches for fulfilling their unique missions
   Facilitate discovery of the special calling of each congregation through customized response to help them determine what they want to accomplish and how to meet those goals.

2. NURTURE congregational health
   Support church leadership, staff and laity, through assistance with staff transitions, intentional interim, and conflict management.

3. ENCOURAGE cooperation among churches
   Move congregations from competition to partnership by identifying elements of common mission and distinctiveness of each setting.

4. CHANNEL mission service
   Build local mission networks by connecting churches around common mission interests.

What We Stand For: Our Faith Foundations

As a family of local congregations, we are brought together by the ties that bind us in faith given by the grace of God. We proclaim that we have “one Lord, one faith, one God and Father of all, who is over all and through all and in all.” (Ephesians 4:5-6)

- We confess the Lordship of Jesus Christ and the authority of scripture in the lives of our churches and in the ministry of our association.

- We seek to encourage the growth of the missionary spirit and the development of an evangelistic climate in the Kingdom work of our congregations to fulfill the commands of the Great Commission. (Matthew 28:19-20).

Report of the Transition Monitoring Team

- We are committed to laboring on in the lives of others that the Kingdom might be built up and our Lord and Savior might be glorified.

- We affirm historic Baptist principles of the autonomy of the local church and the freedom of affiliation.

While not an exhaustive listing of faith foundations, these statements represent the theological underpinnings that unite and undergird our work together.

Why We Exist: Our Core Values

1. The congregations are the heart of our existence.
2. Each member congregation responds uniquely to God's direction and call to mission.
3. The association is a servant extension of the local congregation.
4. The challenge of missions is our primary motivation.
5. Our collective mission and ministry emerge from the individual missions and ministries of the member congregations.
6. Mutual care, understanding and support are essential to our unity and meaningful fellowship.
7. Our greatest strength comes through working together amid our diversity.

We Channel Mission Service:

Eighty-eight congregations are called to unique mission in specific places and yet that mission service can be enhanced and expanded as churches join together.

We celebrate our oneness..

- Through the Annual Meeting
  Our annual gathering of the Associational family to deliberate and celebrate the joys of our partnerships.

- Through the Congregational Council (formerly known as the Associational Board)
  Composed of staff members and advocates from each congregation, the Congregational Council serves as the interim decision-making body for the association.

Report of the Transition Monitoring Team

Recommendations: Part 2

Having concluded our review of the interview reports from Mary Berridge and Jack Gentry, the Transition Monitoring Team brings the following additional recommendations for consideration of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association.

THAT:

1. The officers and staff of the association constantly look for new opportunities to be more intentional in helping local congregations better understand themselves: their destiny, their history, their personality and their missions.

2. A separate task force be formed to implement the Resource Directory for the PMBA detailing the churches and resources available through the PMBA.

3. The Personnel Committee consider adding a specialized communications person to the staff to lead in improving two-way communication between the Association and churches.

4. The Personnel Committee review the ministry description of every staff position in light of the priority tasks of the association, and what can be done to meet the needs of the churches more effectively.

5. A permanent network for continuing the listening process be developed to maintain a constant flow of information from the churches. This network needs to have a singular focus of building relationships which monitor the needs/expectations of the local congregations -- our heart.

A special word of thanks goes to all persons who invested themselves in the interview process which helped us gain a clearer understanding of our progress. A debt of gratitude is also owed to Mary Berridge and Jack Gentry for the effective listening they did. These efforts of self study will help us be more effective partners in doing the work of God's Kingdom.

All executive staff members should retain the "three-dimensional model" of minister, strategist and leader with different emphases among the dimensions as the particular area of work demands. All employed staff will be accountable, through the Associational Missionary and the Personnel Committee, to the Associational Board and to the Association-in-session. Job descriptions of all staff members are set forth in the PMBA Operations Manual.

B. Support Staff

The support staff is primarily clerical and serves the executive staff, the general officers, program organization councils and committees of the Association. Job descriptions are set forth in the PMBA Operations Manual.

C. Volunteer Staff

Since the work of the Association exceeds the ability or propriety of employing sufficient persons to accomplish all the tasks of the Association, volunteers will be enlisted, trained and utilized wherever feasible. Appropriate expressions of gratitude and recognition for such workers are the responsibility of the executive staff of the Association.

X. POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

The policies and procedures of the Association and the specific organizational units thereof will be proposed by those specific units affected. These policies and procedures will be considered by the Constitution Committee and approved by the Associational Board or the Association-in-session. These policies and procedures will become the PMBA Operations Manual.

XI. REVISIONS

The Bylaws may be revised by the Association-in-session by a simple majority vote of the messengers present and voting. Any changes not recommended by the Constitution Committee must first be referred to them for study and consideration. Proposed changes must be mailed to Associational Board members of the member churches at least thirty (30) days in advance of the meeting of the Association in which action on the change is proposed.

Revised OCTOBER 1996

BROTHERHOOD COUNCIL -

Steve Kiser, Director

1998 was a very good year seeing the culmination of three years of building a viable men's ministry in the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. Highlights of 1998 include the following:

- Responded with the Disaster Recovery Trailer when tornadoes struck Mayodan, Stoneville and Clemmons.
- Joined with the Piedmont and Dan Valley Associations in a Disaster Relief/Recovery Training Session. Originally scheduled for Mineral Springs Baptist Church, the training was held at Stoneville First Baptist Church eight days after the tornado struck.
- Coordinated by the PMBA Baptist Men, the Resource Center served as a collection point for the North Korea famine relief effort.
- Held the RA Racer Day at College Park.
- Held our annual PMBA Men's Rally at Kernersville/FBC. Guest speakers included Richard Brunson (NC Baptist Men's Director), Bob Wainwright (Camp Mundo Vista recruiter of work teams) and Paul Wilson (NCBM Disaster Relief Coordinator).
- Conducted our first Captive Nations Day of Prayer at Cornerstone, where intercessory prayers were voiced for the peoples of China, Cuba and North Korea.
- Coordinated the collection of relief items for the western Piedmont area for the relief of victims of Hurricane Mitch in Honduras.
- Purchased a second Disaster Recovery and Handyman's Trailer. This will be used in mud-outs, and construction projects.
- Assisted in placing vinyl siding on North Winston Baptist Church
- Participated in a workday at Camp Mundo Vista, clearing trees from trails with the new Disaster Recovery Trailer

I would like to express my appreciation to Scott Courtney, Charles Tabor, Broadus Melton, J.D. Bottoms, Jerry Gupton, Ronnie Cox, and Greg Quinn for serving on the PMBA Brotherhood Council. I'd also like to thank Bill Martin, D.K. Smith, David Thomas, Cecil Cave and the entire Mineral Springs fellowship for their role in the Disaster Recovery Trailers project. Please pray for our expanding ministries.

CHURCH & COMMUNITY MINISTRIES -

James Nelson, Director

The Church and Community Ministries Council sponsored two events during the past year: the Christmas Toy Store and Summer Celebration.

Thank you PMBA churches for another successful Baptist Toy Store. This year's Toy Store was the best one ever! We had 26 people come to a saving knowledge of Jesus Christ as their personal Savior. With the help of 50 volunteers and all the gifts from individuals and PMBA congregations, we were able to transform the lower level of the associational office into a Toy Store. Two hundred families came to your Toy Store and selected gifts for 596 children.

The Summer Celebration event reaches out to mentally and physically challenged individuals. This year our event was at Old Town Baptist Church with 75 individuals in attendance.

South Fork Baptist Church conducted a workshop for literacy training in November of 1997. Literacy training is provided by Calvary Baptist Church as an on-going ministry. This is a ministry where more church participation is needed.

CONGREGATIONAL DEVELOPMENT -

Mike Willard, Director

The Congregational Development Council of our Pilot Mountain Baptist Association seeks to serve all churches in our Association: (1) Healthy churches that are interested in starting new missions or new ministry projects, (2) Existing churches that need renewal and revisioning and (3) New churches that need nurturing and guidance.

Some of the highlights of our work this year include:

(1) A Training Session for Church Consultants on March 5. Approximately 30 people attended this five-hour workshop led by Bobby Stafford, Mike Eller and Charles Fox. In addition to many of the excellent resources presented, the unique, strategic role of our own association was emphasized.

(2) The Pine Knolls Community Ministry was developed as a partnership project of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, the NC Baptist State Convention (Resort and Leisure Ministries, Christian Golfers Ministry and three churches: Main Street, Kernersville First Baptist and Guilford Baptist. Some of our activities included a Backyard Bible Club, Sunrise Services, Golf Outings, Community Thanksgiving Dinner and Support Groups.

(3) The Southside Multi-cultural Ministry Project is also a partnership with the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, the NC Baptist State Convention and several local churches (Ardmore, Calvary and Southside). Some of the multi-cultural activities included: a Hispanic revival, before school childcare, block parties, Spanish classes and a computer lab.

(4) We have represented the Association in Cooperative Agreements that assist new ministries: Grace, Grace United Community, Hillsdale, North Winston, Japanese, Korean, and two Hispanic churches (Hispanic Mission at Beck's and the Hispanic Church at Union Cross.)

The Council also consulted with Calvary Baptist Church regarding their new satellite church in the Sandy Ridge area.

5) We have supported the Leadership Forum that has met twice each month to discover leadership issues with pastors in our Association.

COOPERATIVE MINISTRIES -

Cecil Cave & Reuban Gilliam, Consultants

The Cooperative Ministries Council serves as a liaison between the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association and the Rowan Baptist Association. The Council seeks ways to share in cooperative fellowship and ministry among the pastors and churches of the two associations.

The ministers and spouses of both Associations came together for a joint worship service and lunch at the Ardmore Baptist Church on December 8, 1997. The message was delivered by Robert L. McGowens, pastor of the Galilee Baptist Church of Winston-Salem, North Carolina.

James V. Hamblen, Reuban J. Gilliam, Sr., and Cecil Cave represented the Associations at the National Day of Commitment to Eliminate Racism, which was held at the YWCA of Winston-Salem on Thursday, April 30, 1998 (Noon - 1:30 PM). John Hope Franklin, the chairman of the Advisory Board for the President's Initiative on Race, was the speaker.

In cooperation with Steve Kiser, the Brotherhood Director for the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, several churches in the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association joined North Winston Baptist Church in covering their entire wood-frame sanctuary with vinyl siding and aluminum trim. This project was completed after several Saturday mornings of work and fellowship.

Reuban J. Gilliam, Sr., and the North Winston Baptist Church have founded the North Winston Community Development Corporation, based in the facilities for the North Winston Baptist Church, which seeks to meet the physical and spiritual needs of the economically disadvantaged in Northeast Winston-Salem.

CREATIVE MINISTRIES COUNCIL-

Debbie Joyner, Director

The Creative Ministry Council of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association began in the Fall of 1993 as the brainchild of Louise Noffsinger. There are many creative ways of teaching those around us of God's love. Louise wanted to take that message to other churches. The PMBA saw the need of ministry in the area and supported the Creative Ministry Council in their endeavors. A drama team, Players of the Way, began under the direction of Louise. This team has performed a Christmas play every year since 1993 and has also performed four Easter plays. This ministry has encompassed many churches within the Association as well as the Forsyth County Correctional Facility.

In 1997-1998 the Creative Ministries Council had to major productions:

- In March the Players of the Way performed a short Easter drama, "The Garden." This is a powerful play that depicts the last hours of Jesus' life as seen through the people he visited.
- The Council presented a play in October and November entitled, "God Appointed a Worm," a humorous story about Jonah which answers some serious questions regarding attitudes that stand in the way of ministering to people.

MISSION PERFORMANCE COUNCILS & CONSULTANTS REPORTS

DISCIPLESHIP TRAINING -
Charles Martin, Director

"A pupil is not above his teacher; but everyone after he has been fully trained, will be like his teacher." Luke 6:40

The goal of discipleship embodied in this passage of scripture is to multiply disciples (of Jesus Christ) who will be trained and equipped to be "like the Master." Encouraging, assisting our local churches to embark upon this life-long process of discipling their members continues to be the goal of the Discipleship Training Council.

In carrying out its objectives of assisting and encouraging the churches in starting and/or improving existing discipleship ministries, the council continues to build relationships with pastors and Discipleship Training leaders in the churches. This is being done by dividing the geographical area of the PMBA congregations into quadrants with a member of the council assigned to each quadrant as a Discipleship Supporter.

Over the past year the Discipleship Training Council has participated in the following activities:

1. Sponsored a Leadership Team Strategy Meeting at Pfafftown Baptist Church for the Southwest quadrant leaders in Discipleship, Sunday School, Brotherhood, and WMU.
2. Sponsored the Small Group Facilitators Training Worship, led by Rev. Ralph Haliwill from Belmont, North Carolina. This proved to be a very practical and informative training event that proved to be quite helpful for those in attendance.
3. In March the Discipleship Training Council held the Associational Children's Bible Drill. There were forty children representing seven churches, and all participants qualified to advance to the State Children's Bible Drills.
4. Charles Martin, representative of the PMBA Discipleship Training Council, attended the Discipleship Training Week at Ridgecrest Conference Center. There he gathered information which will be put to effective use in the future.
5. The Discipleship Training Council sponsored two training workshop events at Ardmore and King/FBC in August. The Council later sponsored a follow-up strategy meeting for the participants of those workshops on November 19th at PMBA Resource Center.

EVANGELISM COUNCIL -
Carl Childs, Director

The Evangelism Council hosted a training seminar for People Sharing Jesus on October 24 and 25 at College Park Baptist Church.

Friday and Saturday, September 10 and 11, the Council hosted a special seminar at Calvary Baptist Church. The keynote speaker was Calvin Miller, author, speaker, and professor at Southwestern Theological Seminary.

CARL CHILDS, Director

LANGUAGE MISSIONS -
Marj Bennett, Director

The Language Missions Council consists of representatives from each of the eight ministries to ethnic/cultural groups in this area. These include:

- ✞ Korean Mission - Winston-Salem/FBC
- ✞ Japanese Fellowship - Northwest
- ✞ Iglesia Bautista Hispana - Union Cross Road
- ✞ Hispanic Baptist Mission - Beck's
- ✞ Hispanic Baptist Mission - Oak Grove
- ✞ Vietnamese Sunday School class - Ardmore
- ✞ Multi-cultural Ministry - Southside
- ✞ International Student Ministry

REPORTS:

1. The Council submitted proposed changes to the PMBA Constitution for their work unit.

2. A multi-cultural center on the southside of Winston-Salem was established. This is a partnership effort in ministry with Calvary, Ardmore, Beck's Hispanic Mission and PMBA. The plan is to give instruction in the areas of job skills, parenting, English, prenatal care, etc.

3. St. Andrew Community Baptist Church merged with Zion Hill Baptist Church. The church officially changed its name to Grace United Community United Baptist Church.

4. The Hispanic Mission of Beck's Baptist Church met on a regular basis with the mother church on the fifth Sunday. The Mission began holding Sunday evening services. They offered assistance to families needing clothing, food, medical and dental assistance. Recently they began offering assistance with filling out income tax returns.

5. Iglesia Bautista Hispana continues to meet the needs of Hispanics in their area. Reaching new people for Christ is the primary thrust of their ministry. The Hispanic population of Forsyth and Guilford counties continues to explode. The last estimate is 20,000 for Forsyth and 12,000 for Guilford.

   The Triad Hispanic Ministries continues to offer services through their monthly Medical Clinic on the third Saturday of each month. The Hispanic Mission at Beck's also offers a clinic on the second Saturday of each month. Over 1200 people have been served through these two Hispanic churches.

   Dental clinics have also been established and both congregations are working with the Health Department to offer these services to their Hispanic community.

6. The Language Missions Council sponsored Spanish classes at Mineral Springs Baptist Church, Brim's Grove Baptist Church and the PMBA Resource Center.

7. The International Student Ministry continues to grow strong. A joint partnership between the Baptist State Convention, the Central Baptist Association and the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association is under consideration. The proposal will be to present a candidate for full time campus ministry to the international academic community.

   Continued efforts are being made to reach out to other internationals at Salem College, School of the Arts, Bowman Gray School of Medicine and the School of Pastoral Care.

There are many exciting and wonderful ministry opportunities opening up among the international community in the Triad. The Language Missions Council continues to look for ways to reach these diverse ethnic groups for Jesus Christ.

ORDINATION - Carlton Mitchell, Director

The Ordination Council serves in an advisory capacity to any church in the association which seeks help. During the past year three churches have asked us to examine candidates for ordination to the Gospel ministry. Members from each candidate's church were added for purposes of the examination. All were enthusiastically recommended for ordination by their respective churches and later ordained by the church.

The three newly-ordained ministers were:

1) Jo Bjorling, Pfafftown
2) Beverly Isley-Landreth, Ardmore
3) Brad Davis, Danbury

RECREATIONAL MINISTRIES -

Steve Ware, Director

Our Association sponsors Youth Basketball and Softball. We had fifteen churches and youth organizations involved in basketball this year. We held five leagues at four church locations from December to March. This involved 44 teens which included Junior Co-ed, Intermediate Boys, Girls and two Senior High Boys Leagues.

In softball we had 10 teams representing 8 churches involved in this ministry from April until June.

These programs provide a Christian atmosphere and recreational outlet for our PMBA youth.

SEMINARY EXTENSION -

Beverly Landreth, Director

From the Fall of 1997 to the Fall of 1998, the Seminary Extension Council has had continued support from people in our churches as they have dedicated themselves to becoming better trained servants in God's Kingdom work.

In the Fall of 1997, 13 people enrolled for Acts taught by Gerald Smith, and 4 enrolled for the History of Christianity taught by Mary Berridge at the PMBA Resource Center. Eugene Sherrill had 3 diligent students to complete Pastoral Care at Walnut Cove/FBC. Thirteen inmates enrolled in the class, How to Understand the Bible taught by Sandra Thigpen through the Forsyth Prison Ministries. We had a total enrollment of 34 in the Fall courses.

In the Spring of 1998, Gerald Smith led 8 people in the study of the Gospel of John at the PMBA Resource Center. Sandra Thigpen taught Hebrews to the 20 enrolled at the Forsyth Prison Ministries. We had a total of 28 for the Spring courses.

In the Fall of 1998, Gerald Smith taught 8 students the Gospel of Matthew held at the PMBA Resource Center, and 7 students completed the Pastoral Care in the Hospital Setting taught by Forsyth Hospital by James Garrison. We had a total of 15 for the Fall courses.

Tom Southern, Director

The Senior Adult Ministries Council met 6 times during the 1997-1998 calendar year.

The Council sponsored their 11th annual Senior Adult Luncheon on May 6, 1998 at Ardmore Baptist Church with approximately 386 people in attendance representing 36 churches in the Association.

The Council is available to assist churches in establishing a Senior Adult Ministry. There are plans underway to provide more informational programs that might help the senior adult community. With new insights as to the needs of senior adults, our direction has changed and plans are being developed for a new emphasis.

STUDENT MINISTRIES -

Sam Sorrells, Director

The primary focus of the Student Ministries Council continues to be the campus ministry at Salem College. During the 1997-1998 school year the council sponsored weekly Bible studies and fellowship events. The Baptist Student Union worked with the Religious Life Council. This council is made up of all campus ministries that work with Salem students. The council plans and conducts chapel and other events related to the religious faith of students.

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION -

Glendora Epperson, Director

As the year 1997-1998 comes to an end, the WMU Council focuses on the many changes within the WMU and the Baptist State Convention. These changes have brought about new structures on a state level, the setting of higher giving goals as a result of a deeper commitment to missions and a desire to be better Christians in today's world.

Each year the WMU carries on the tradition of the Baptist Women's World Day of Prayer which was first observed in 1948 when European Baptist women prayed for healing from the heartbreak of World War II. On Monday, November 3, 1997, approximately 100 women and men joined their hearts in prayer during a morning prayer service at Edgewood Baptist Church and then again at an evening service at Beck's Baptist Church. The women who participated in this day of prayer joined together with other women throughout the world in a concerted effort to lift up praises of thanksgiving to God by celebrating the peace of Christ through the Baptist Women's World Day of Prayer.

On November 12, 1997, the Habitat Joint Venture between the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association and the Rowan Baptist Association came to a close with the construction and dedication of three homes. Over 500 people were involved in the construction of these homes. WMU played an important role as ladies joined the men in doing construction work as well as providing hearty lunches for the many volunteers who showed up each Saturday to work.

This year the PMBA churches collected over 200 coats for the North Korean children. Several thousand dollars were also collected to help purchase new coats. This was a wonderful response, especially since there was such a short notice.

The 1997 Christmas party for the inmates at the Cherry Street Extension, chaired by Mary Ella Barefoot and Joyce Love, was a great success. Thanks to all the people who contributed food for this event.

February 8-14 was WMU Focus Week. Churches throughout the PMBA celebrated WMU and focused on the work at hand. Then on March 8th, we began our study and season of prayer for the North American Mission Board. This year's theme, "Start Something New," related to the ministry work being accomplished along the Mississippi River.

The PMBA WMU Salad Supper and Annual Meeting was held at Old Town Baptist Church on March 12 with over 500 ladies (and a few brave men) in attendance. Pastor Kim, from the Baptist State Convention, spoke on "Project Help! Cultural Diversity," which was the 1997-1998 focus.

Many leaders within our WMU groups among the churches responded to the needs of the Sprouse family, missionaries home on medical leave. In July 1998 they moved into the PMBA mis-sionary residence and WMU ladies responded with a heart-felt welcome and a desire to help.

The WMU and Brotherhood of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association held their Leadership Training Conference on August 3, 1998, at College Park Baptist Church. Twenty-five churches came together to learn techniques to better promote missions in their churches, community, state, nation and around the world.

In the month of September the WMU and Brotherhood helped promote the Week of Prayer for the North Carolina Missions Offering (September 12-19). The goal for this year was $2,261,747.

The WMU Council plans to partner with the 88 churches that make up the PMBA in providing mission and ministry opportunities. We look forward to the 1998-1999 WMU year.

YOUTH MINISTRY - Ramon Smith, Director

1997-1998 has been another great year for the Youth Ministry in our Association. Youth leaders in our churches have been helped in letting the Council know how we can best help them, and, hopefully, we have responded in an appropriate way. We provided several opportunities for young people to have training and fellowship; and we offered new events to provide specific needs. The events are outlined below:

1997 Associational Fall Youth Retreat

This annual event was held once again at Ridgecrest Conference Center the weekend of November 21-23, and we had a crowd of more than 365! The theme was "No Wall 2 High," and our young people learned how to break down some of the walls in their own lives that keep them from living the kind of lives that Jesus would have them to live. A concert on Friday night by recording artists, Shaded Red, kicked off the weekend. And a circuit-blowing variety show on Saturday night gave everyone a chance to celebrate their talents and have a great time! Hal Melton, Youth and Campus Consultant from the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, was our speaker for the weekend. Clemmons First Baptist youth led our worship times!

1998 "That Spring Thing"

On Saturday evening, May 9, 1998, we had our second annual "That Spring Thing" at First Baptist Church, Winston-Salem. Hurrah! Entertainment once again included huge inflatable games like the Giant obstacle Course, Bungee Run, Moon Walk, and Big Glove Boxing! The youth and adults also enjoyed refreshments and "The Best in Christian Videos" in The Hangout. It was a tremendous time of fellowship, but we were disappointed by the low attendance. Puzzled by the "rave reviews" from the year before and based on the cost of this event and the apparent lack of interest by the local church groups, the Council decided not to offer such an event in the Spring of 1999.

1998 See You at the Pole Organizational Rally

The Youth Ministry Council recognized a need for more organization of Christian young people on our middle and high school campuses. One effort to help them organize themselves was this rally. See You at the Pole is a student-led prayer effort that happens world-wide on the third Wednesday of September every year! The students meet about thirty minutes before classes around the flagpoles at their school. They pray for each other, their friends, their teachers, school administrators, government leaders and other special requests.

At our rally on Sunday, August 30, Jeff Allen, Minister of Youth at Clemmons First Baptist Church, led us in some praise and celebration. Then the youth were divided according to their schools and each group elected a student leader who would coordinate the effort to have a successful See You at the Pole at their school! Each group was given legal information that outlined their rights as students, as well as handouts that could be distributed to school principals. We had a great turnout, and schools from Davidson, Davie, Forsyth and Stokes counties were all represented!

Administrative Services Committees

CONSTITUTION COMMITTEE - Kenneth Wilson, Chair

The Constitution Committee worked diligently during 1998 under the typically efficient guidance of Jim Hamblen. Also, the committee is indebted to the Transition Monitoring Team for their input, including the consolidation work performed by Ty Talton, chairman. The committeed members haved been faithful to their task on behalf of the Association in every aspect, including regular attendance.

The Constitution has been worked and reworked in an attempt to maked certain that all aspects of the governing documents and policies were appropriately set forth within the historic framework established by PMBA member churches.

The Committee's final work-product will be presented to the Congregational Council at the December 15, 1998 meeting. Several work units will be asked to clarify functions and objectives of their respectived units. Additional opportunities to offer corrections, revisions and/or recommendations will be provided again to the Coordinating Council and the Congre-gatonal Council in the 1998-1999Associational Year.

The Constitution & Bylaws will be presented at the PMBA Annual Meeting which is tentatively scheduled for July 27, 1999.

CREDENTIALS - Herman Kitchen, Chair

The Credentials Committee meets as needed to examine the progress of churches under the watchcare of the association and to interview applicant churches for affiliation with the association.

New Vision Fellowship and United Cornerstone Missionary Baptist were examined by the Credentials Committee for consideration under the watchcare of the Association. At the 113th Association-in-session, the PMBA messengers voted to approve these two congregations for watchcare.

FINANCE COMMITTEE - Larry Snyder, Chair

The committee assists the Association in securing, administering and reporting finances. The committee's duties are to develop and recommend the annual budget to the Associational Board; to conduct studies and make recommendations concerning proposed expenditures not included in the budget; to meet at regular intervals to review the financial condition of the Association and make regular reports to the Coordinating Council and the Associational Board; to develop financial policies and procedures of the Association; to select the independent auditor for the annual external audit; to review the results of the audit and submit the audit to the Associational Board; and to develop methods of encouraging growth in financial gifts from churches, individuals and other sources.

NOMINATING - Paul Dean, Chair

I want to say, "thank you," to all of the Nominating Committee for their hard work. Those who serve with me are:

Frank Johnson, Knollwood
Joanne Huddleston, United
Mitzi Moore, Winston-Salem First
Loudene Riggs, Kernersville First
Edith Simmons, College Park
Sara Wikle, United
Joyce Warren, Friends
Anita Gilliam, North Winston

The Nominating Committee met seven times during the 1997-1998 Associational year. From these meetings, we were able to submit our list of nominees to the Annual Meeting in October 1998 at First Baptist Church, Kernersville.

Administrative Services Committees

ORDER OF BUSINESS - Ed Ross, Chair

I wish to thank each and every member of this committee who actively participated throughout the year to make the 113th Annual Meeting an enjoyable and memorable experience for all who attended.

The program would not have been a success had it not been for the contribution of each active member throughout the year. Everything was accomplished through hard work, planning and prayer--from the selection of a theme, God's Mission Tapestry: Meeting Needs, Touching Lives, to program details (ie., meal, speakers, music presentations and general flow).

We especially appreciate the guidance provided by Charles Fox in the absence of Jim Hamblen (on Sabbatical) and although several members of the committee were inactive, the members that participated in the planning and presentation are to be commended for a splendid job.

I am grateful for all those who made my tenure on this committee most enjoyable, especially this year as I served as chairman. Additional thanks must go to Sam Murphy, the church and staff for providing the splendid facilities that made the Annual Meeting such a great event.

PERSONNEL - David Hughes, Chair

The Personnel Committee enjoyed another successful year working with the fine staff of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. It is a pleasure to work alongside Jim Hamblen, Charles Fox, Karen Taylor, Sandra Hall and Beverly Hamblen. They are a credit to our Association.

The Personnel Committee normally meets six times a year. In the course of last year, we formally evaluated each employee and recommended compensation packages to the Finance Committee. We also regularly review the progress each staff member is making in working in tandem with our new strategic priorities as an Association.

A highlight of the year was arranging the first Sabbath Study Leave for a PMBA employee. After fourteen years of service, Jim Hamblen, our Associational Missionary, was granted a four-month Sabbath Leave. It was a profitable experience for Jim that will no doubt prove to be beneficial to the PMBA over time. We also approved a Sabbath Leave policy that other professional staff for the PMBA will be eligible to receive.

The Personnel Committee is currently studying the structure of our staff, and may be recommending structural changes, depending upon the results of our study, in the coming year.

PROPERTIES - D.J. Redding, Chair

In trying to follow good stewardship practices, the Properties Committee maintained the upkeep of the PMBA property and Resource Center in keeping within our budget.

In the Fall of 1997, a subcommittee was appointed to determine the need and the best provider for networking the computers. March 1998 a lease of new computer equipment and service was made from Pomeroy Computer Resources. Three computer stations and a server plus wiring were a part of the equipment on the lease. Additional cables, modems, surge protectors and Automated Church Systems Network software were purchased in the process of the installation. PC Anywhere modem software was installed in the Fall of 1998 to improve troubleshooting with Automated Church Systems software for mailing directory, financial records, calendar and asset inventory records.

After lightening damage in the Spring of 1998, insurance covered most of the cost of repairing the telephone and the alarm system. Later, because of faulty parts due to age, the security system panel and keypads were upgraded.

MINISTERS' WIVES FELLOWSHIP

Our small organization became an even smaller fellowship before the year ended. Many of the younger ministers' wives are working daily and cannot attend during the day and choose not to attend an evening fellowship.

The events held were:

February 6, 1998 Valetine Banquet in joint cooperation with the Ministers Conference.

May 26, 1998 Catered deli tray luncheon

Due to widespread illness our planned October meeting was canceled. It is not certain what the future holds for this fellowship.

PMBA SECRETARIES

The PMBA Secretaries Conference meets every other month on the second Thursday of the month. Average attendance is 40. We have guest sperakers who give a 30-35 minute talk on subjects pertaining to work, religion and personal interest.

The PMBA Secretaries Conference tries to complete one mission project per year. This year we had a Kitchen Shower for the Kids' Cafe, a ministry of the North Winston Baptist Church.

The following programs were offered during the 1997-1998 Associational year:

1. September - Lewisville Baptist Church.
   Program: Window Treatments by Joanne Falls, Cooperative Extension Service.
2. January -Canceled due to Ice Storm
3. March - PMBA Resource Center.

A Personal Reflection of the 1997-1998 Associational Year

In preparation of this report to you read my statement to you in the 1997 Annual. I was surprised by the continuation of my personal assessment of the status of our work together. With the exception of the four-month Sabbath study leave, our work has continued to move in the direction set by the recommendations of the Organizational/Staff Redesign Team and move forward by the Transitional Monitoring Team. The work of the TMT was completed this fall and their recommendations were approved by the annual gathering (meeting) of messengers on October 14, 1998, at the First Baptist Church of Kernersville.

I have spoken to many of you about the greatest experience of my ministry since coming to PMBA fifteen years ago. Under the leadership of David Hughes, Chairman of the Personnel Committee, you granted me a four-month Sabbath study leave. On the pages following you will find my article from The Pilot, which sumarizes my experiences of growth during that time. I have not found the words to adequately express my deep gratitude and appreciation to you for this gift to me and my ministry with you.

Furthermore, I cannot describe my affection for the staff: Charles Fox, Sandra Hall, and Karen Taylor, for their contribution to the work while I was away. I have reserved a special thanks for my wife, Beverly, who also served in the office and kept the Sabbath with me regarding my disconnection with the daily affairs of the PMBA.

During the past year, I have observed...

- Some of the ministers cluster groups have dissolved...at their choosing...
- Another group, the Leadership Forum, has emerged. This is a group of individuals who have chosen to meet together for the discussion of a significant book while at the same time offering care and support.
- The hard work of the TMT (mentioned above) under the capable leadership of Ty Talton has offered us an even or simplified and congregational-centered organizational structure which intends to become even more responsive to the needs and expectations emerging from the churches.
- The successes of:
    - Belarussian Children's Ministry
    - New tri-cultural ministry at Southside Baptist Church
    - New ministry at the Pine Knolls Country Club
    - Christmas Toy Store (Note: There were applications for 670 children in 1998.)

When anyone thinks of the accomplishments of any association, it is obvious that the leaders, under the leadership of God, deserve most of the credit. The PMBA staff owes a great debt of gratitude to the PMBA officers:

Ty Talton, Past Moderator
Wade Tucker, Moderator
Sheree Jones, Vice Moderator
Karen Taylor, Clerk
Bill Norris, Treasurer
Carl Christensen, Assistant Treasurer
John Woodard, Asst. Clerk & Historian

These officers were joined by so many other leaders from many different congregations and gave their time and energy to God's Kingdom Work here in the PMBA. The words, thank you, seem so inadequate to express the appreciation from many of you for their sacrificial service.

Just one more personal word...Charles Fox has exceeded my highest dreams and expectations of a co-worker. He has become a close friend, an advisor, a trusted partner, and a true missionary in the highest sense of those descriptions. We all discovered his worth during my absence. I have returned to serve you beyond the normal retirement age...and...as long as it seems meaningful to you and the Father's Business in this association. Please pray for me as we move with confidence into the next millennium.

Grace and Peace,
James V. Hamblen
Associational Missionary

[The following is a special article Jim Hamblen wrote regarding his Sabbath Study Leave.]

AS I SEE IT...

The Sabbath Study Leave has ended and the next phase of my life and ministry is just beginning... the journey continues. There are many lessons I learned...many insights I gained...many changes I made...that I want to remember and apply as I return to serve with you in God's Kingdom Work. The words of T.S. Elliot describe my present feelings:

> We shall not cease from exploration
> And at the end of all our exploring
> Will be to arrive where we started
> And know the place for the first time.

In 1983 I answered God's call to serve with you as your missionary. In 1998 I spent four months revisiting God's Will for my life and, in T.S. Elliot's words, "I see this place in a new way"... for the first time. In my quest to discover the meaning of Spirituality and Leadership in the 21st Century.

I discovered the meaning of rest in my inner world...

There is so much noise and confusion all around us. There are pressures pulling and pushing us in so many different directions that we cannot hear that still small voice that comes to us in the quiet of solitude. I learned the faithful attentiveness to the Presence of God in the present moment.

I experience the awareness of some ancient truths regarding genuine spirituality through reading and talking with many individuals with a variety of viewpoints...

Although there are many attempts at describing or defining spirituality, it seemed to be a common thought that the real essence of spirituality cannot be captured or encased in a verbal box. It must be experienced and then it may be observed by others...but only from a distance.

I found no clear or complete understandings about what the circumstances will be in the next century...

Most of those with whom I met are not really prepared to describe the next decade or even the next year. I had heard about the next century looking more like the 1st century than the 20th century. I am familiar with the terms: the 'post-modern era'...and...the 'post-enlightenment' age.

When I asked Sister Ellen Morseth, at the worshipful Work Center, what she thought about these terms and the variety of generational perspectives in the churches of today, she answered,

> What a real difference will it > make to your practicre of your > faith/commitment before the > Presence of God in your life today?

What a beautiful and practical admonition!

We fret and worry about many circumstances over which we have little or no control. Some times we miss significant opportunities to find peace and contentment in the present moments and, thus, we fail to appreciate the real joy in life. Ron Rice would tell us in our state of confusion,

"We all need to savor the moment."

I learned to "savor the moment" in the midst of activities all around me. I learned to focus upon the more important issues of life through meditation and contemplation. I wondered why I used to be so pressured and frenetic in my behavior. I rediscovered Paul's central philosophy of life:

> "...in whatsoever state I am,
> therewith to be content..." (Phil. 4:11)

I discovered that the corporate world is very interested in those values which have been promoted by the church through the centuries, such as vision, mission and servant leaders...

Sometimes, in recent days, it seems that secular organizations and the religious systems have exchanged their values...and the church is less because of that transaction. We can claim our reason for being by finding our divine center in God's purpose for His world.

> What is your reason for being?
> What is in the center of your existence?
> Where is the Presence of God at work in your life?

I embraced the attitude taught by Brother David Steindl-Rast which is expressed in his book, Gratefulness, The Heart of Prayer: An Approach to Life in Fullness...

The life of prayer begins with a grateful heart and then all else falls into place around that perspective. Try it for awhile...you may find a whole new appreciation for the daily experiences that come your way.

As I mentioned before, I have changed. I know you have changed as well during my absence. Can we join together in a new venture to experience the work of the Holy Spirit through us and throughout our community?

I am grateful to all of you who made this Sabbath possible. I will not be able to thank each one of you, individually, for this gift beyond description. I intend to make each relationship more meaningful by the things that I have learned and the way that I live before you.

May God's ...peace...love...and...joy...be yours today!

As We Journey...

Pilot Mountain Baptist Association has again experienced a very successful year of missions and ministry. Member churches continued to place a high level of trust in their association. The challenge for PMBA leadership is not how to get churches to be on mission. Rather, our elected and staff leaders have our hands full coordinating the literally hundreds of individuals who desire mission and ministry involvement as their normal course of business. Many across our state and nation would be envious of such a challenge.

Our Associational Board and Coordinating Council both receive regular reports on PMBA mission opportunities and endeavors. However, I would like to just mention a few success stories from 1997-1998.

The Pine Knolls Ministry in Kernersville was directly responsible for both young and old decisions for Christ this past year. A teenager was led to the Lord by golf professional, Jimmy Sowers, and an elderly man heard the salvation message for the first time thanks to our volunteer on-site minister. Going to where people are truly does impact the Kingdom.

At least three new churches were either birthed or constituted in 1997. Church starting simply must remain one of our top priorities if we are to reach the unchurched in our area. The growth of our region mandates that we begin multiple, diverse, new congregations. Diversity is a 21st Century way of life, and we must respond accordingly.

Work has continued to establish a job-training center in Southside Winston-Salem. Partnerships were formed in 1997-1998, which will expand in 1999 so that employment skills can be greatly improved for a population desperately needing lifestyle adjustments.

Structurally, PMBA continues to be flexible and responsive to our church-driven purpose. Staff changes approved in 1998 will be implemented in early 1999 which will significantly impact our ministries.

Pilot Mountain Baptist Association is committed to necessary change as we strive to meet the full spectrum of human needs: Physically, emotionally, economically, socially and spiritually. Mission and ministry are not our destination; they are only the journey. Thanks for being part of our travels.

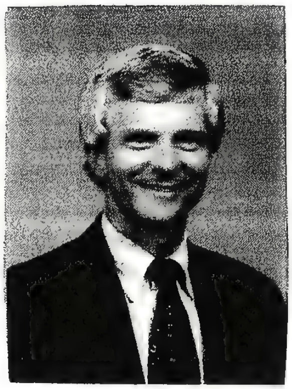
Partnering With Our Congregations



The Asociational year 1997-1998 was a year of transition for the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. These two years were spent in unpacking the concepts set forth by the Organization Staff Redesign Team, which was adopted in the Spring 1996. Learning how best to "partner with local congregations in mission and ministry" has been no small task. Exploration, education and implementation have been the operative words for our efforts.

Pioneering a new frontier in Associational life, we have been involved in exploring ways to shift from the traditional program promotion model toward a more intentional relational model which focuses on the local church. The member churches of Pilot Mountain are the reason we exist and our task is to guide and respond to their unique sense of mission.

Communicating the meaning and impact of this redesign for our congregations is an ongoing challenge. This year has focused upon educating churches of the changes and encouraging them to realize how the changes will benefit their ministries. Some progress has been made here, but continued efforts will strengthen support.

Implementing the recommendations of the redesign has been the slowest. For as we have moved into uncharted territories, we have had to make our map as we went. Helping work units adjust to the new focus of relational partnership has moved with care. The arrival of Charles Fox in the redefined role of Missionary Associate has also involved some adjustment.

Overall, the transition has been positive and progress has been made. The support of the churches and giving through the association has been at record levels. The building and dedication of three homes in 1997 through the joint Habitat project with the Rowan Association built significant bridges. The culmination of our 1997-1998 year was the family gathering at Kernersville/FBC. The program reflected the tapestry of the mission partnerships and ministries which comprise PMBA. Truly we are a family of churches "Woven together in God's Kingdom work."

Much has been done and much lies ahead. Through further development and refining of the Transition Monitoring Team, we will continue our journey into the future under God.

& Chair of the Transition Monitoring Team

REPORT OF THE TRANSITION MONITORING TEAM (as presented to the Associational Board on March 31, 1998)

The Transition Monitoring Team was given the responsibility of assessing the progress and effectiveness of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association since implementation of the Organizational/Staff Redesign Team in the Spring 1996. This team has spent time over the past several months reflecting upon and debating a variety of issues and concerns. This report summarizes the work of this group and sets forth numerous recommendations for further development of the new directions set forth by the O/SRT. Pilot Mountain Baptist Association is on the cutting edge of redefining Associational function and relationships. Our commitment is to move into the future with a clear sense of mission to enhance and strengthen the member congregations.

We began by examining the basic statements which define us as an association: What we are, what we stand for, why we exist, what we do and what we hope to accomplish. The consensus was that these statements provide solid foundations for our understanding of what PMBA should be about. The conclusion is that these principles stand and there was little need for change. The team proposed some minor revisions to help clarify and enhance.

Next, we took a hard look at the organizational structure to determine if we had really made the shift from program to relationships around mission and ministry. We asked the tough questions like: How are we different than before O/SRT? Which work units are not functioning well? Which work units have lost a sense of purpose? How does the work of the work units equip, nurture, support and channel mission service to our local congregations? We moved through a unit-by-unit analysis and agreed that the work of some units could best be handled by a consultant and others by councils, while some others may best be eliminated. Our conclusions were that this was the area most in need of updating.

We moved to give shape to a new structure and organizational chart which would more accurately reflect our stated mission. The chart begins with the local congregations on mission as the central image. The work units of the association surround those congregations in three clusters: (1) Ministry Consultants, (2) Mission Response Teams, (3) Support Networks. Supporting these relationships with local congregations in servant roles are the Officers, Coordinating Council, Congregational Council (Associational Board), and the Associational Missionary Staff and Organizational Support Committees. The team thinks that the such changes represent a more consistent image of our functioning.

PMBA - A Special Family...

The PMBA family is a special family committed to being on the cutting edge of missions and ministries in Stokes, Surry, Davie, Guilford and Forsyth counties. One family composed of 88 congregational families seeking to discover where the Lord is at work and joining Him in Worshipful Work.

I give thanks to God for the privilege you afforded me as I have served as your moderator during this past year. I give thanks to God for the support of the congregations, the pastors and staff, the other officers and program leaders and the PMBA staff. It will be a special year in my ministry memory book.

What will I be doing during the year ahead? I will be praying for our association--for the churches, pastors, staff--PMBA officers and leaders and our Associational staff. I will be serving in the newly re-instated position of past moderator, with major responsibilities in partnering with the other officers and staff in monitoring our transition process.

Wade Tucker, Moderator

Working Together to Impact the World for Christ...

Serving as your Vice Moderator has been an experience of growth and great blessing for me.

The staff, as always have been supportive and have given me their wisdom and guidance. And you, as leaders and volunteers, have also given me your wisdom and guidance as we have worked together in the Kingdom. I cannot fully express to you my thanks and appreciation for the work you continue to do and the way in which you minister through this association.

During the past year our Coordinating Council has moved to the model of worshipful work in our meetings. As we have shared together our reports and business, we have done so in the spirit of worship. Our meetings have been worship experiences, reminding us that this is not ordinary work assignment we have been given. We are working together to impact the world with the message of Jesus Christ. We have prayed together, raised our voices in song together, laughed together and experienced pain together. It has been a year of growth and change

I thank you again for the opportunity to serve you. And I look forward to the future as we move forward, staying centered and focused on God. There are great things ahead!

Baptist Children's Homes of NC 1998 Book of Reports

Sybil Stewart, Trustee Chair
Michael C. Blackwell, President

Her voice steady and quiet, Christy delivers her personal story like a letter dropped into an anonymous mailbox at a shuttered house on a nameless street.

Her grandparents' murder had unleashed memories of her own abuse. Family members encouraged her to leave her home and repeatedly told her she was worthless.

"I've had a rough life," she says. "I've been through about anything I can possibly go through."

Christy admits carrying a short fuse and outbursts, physical abuse and a dangerous living situation brought her to Mills Home in November 1997.

She continues her quiet story about coming to Mills Home, about doing well in school, and tutoring two residents in Alumni Cottage. She's glad she can help, because "learning comes easy to me, and I want to help someone if I can."

Julie, her first child care worker at Mills Home, became a real friend who "helped me turn my life around," Christy says, her face at last beginning to brighten. "She was there for me when I needed somebody. My parents weren't there. Nobody wanted me. It was fun being around Julie. She showed me she cared about me and that I could be loved."

She Didn't Plan to See 16

Julie couldn't realize how important her friendship was, or how close Christy came to giving up. Christy admits to two suicide attempts, and believed she would never see age 16.

"I used to dread getting up," she said. "I didn't know if I would get my mouth busted or my arm broke."

Even now, there are days Christy doesn't want to get out of bed. But she does, and she goes to school and earns mostly "A"s and stars on the varsity basketball team, and tutors other residents in math, and went to New York for a summer basketball tournament and is planning to attend college to study a helping profession.

Now she is planning to live, not planning to die. BCH is giving her opportunities to live for.

Christy's story is repeated hundreds of times each year at BCH. Not all are as dramatic but every one tells of a young person and a family at the end of an unraveling rope.

At four residential campuses, two homes for behaviorally troubled girls, a maternity home, a home for teenage mothers and their babies, therapeutic camping and model day care, 1,560 young people found help in troubled times last year.

During the past year BCH received $1.6 million through the Cooperative Program, and $752,000 through the Thanksgiving Offering. Total church gifts of $3.3 million comprised 18 percent of the nearly $18 million in revenue. Because of a positive investment environment, BCH investments of endowment funds provided 33 percent of revenue.

Buildings Dedicated

Two major priorities of the $10.1 million "Light Their Way" Campaign were dedicated: The Winifred Lindsay Education/ Administrative Center at Odum Home in Pembroke on Jan. 20, and the John D. and Amelia W. Johnson Cottage at Mills Home on May 12.

U.S. Congressman Mike McIntyre, co-chair of the Congressional Task Force for Responsible Fatherhood, spoke at the dedication of the Lindsay Center. He said BCH has the "purpose, people and passion" to successfully help children and families turn their lives around."

"When we reach out to our children we're making the best investment for tomorrow we could ever make for our country," he said.

Winifred Lee Herbert Lindsay, for whom the Lindsay Center is named, died Nov. 21, 1997.

Primary funds for building Johnson Cottage were given by Phil and Sharon Drake, of Franklin, in memory of Sharon's father and in honor of her mother, a BCH trustee.

"God has given me more than I deserve," Drake said in a brief, emotional address at the dedication. He said giving money to build the cottage was the "easy part" compared to the cottage worker's task of making a difference in children's lives.

Michael C. Blackwell celebrated his 15th anniversary as president of BCH on July 1, 1998.

The video, "A Long Walk Home" is available to promote the 1998 Thanksgiving Offering, which has a statewide goal of $800,000, the largest ever.

Wherever children are hurting and families are strained, BCH strives to heal. To secure a video, or a speaker for your church or civic group, or to access services, call (800) 476-3669.

Meeting the Challenges of Health Care

1998 Report to the Associations

"Touching Lives With Hope"

HOSPITAL CELEBRATES 75 YEARS OF SERVICE

In May 1998 the North Carolina Baptist Hospitals, Incorporated celebrated 75 years of service to the community and the region. During these years the hospital has been faithful to the vision of the North Carolina Baptist State Convention when the hospital was birthed: to extend the healing ministry which was demonstrated by Jesus Christ. Many challenges have been faced through these years, but the commitment to compassionately strive for innovative excellence has remained the same.

Baptist Benevolent Care Fund

Baptist Churches from all across North Carolina joined us in mutual mission through the Mother's Day Offering. This annual ingathering of love was approved by the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina in 1924. In 1997 the MDO amounted to $500,747. It was used exclusively to help patients who had little or no health care insurance or no other financial means to pay their hospital bills. From the offering this past year, well over $200,000 was used to assist members of our Baptist Churches in North Carolina. May God bless all those who supported us with prayers and gave so generously.

Division of Pastoral Care

During the year the chaplains and staff of the Pastoral Care Department provide worship services in Davis Memorial Chapel on Monday, Wednesday, Friday and Sunday for patients and family members. The Pastoral Care Department staff supervised 64 students during the year and made more than 53,000 ministry contacts.

The Department of Pastoral Counseling, CareNet, Inc. continues to expand its ministries. There are now 13 Christian counseling centers located in strategic areas across the state. During the year these professionally staffed centers will provide over 26,000 hours of counseling.

The Center for Congregational Health, Inc. continues to expand its mission of helping congregations become healthier communities of faith. Programs and assistance offered to churches include: Consultation, Intentional Interim Ministry, and Leadership development. Resources for ministers include: Young Leaders Program, Turning Point, Interim Ministry Training, Intentional Interim Ministry training.

Facts about Wake Forest University Baptist Medical Center

- With more than 10,000 employees, four restaurants, two banks and a post office that handles more mail than some towns, the Medical Center has been called a city-within-a-city.
- The Medical Center successfully proposed to Forsyth County Commissioners to purchase the county's indigent health care clinic, Reynolds Health Center. The Center also serves as a primary care training facility for our medical students and residents. Construction is expected to begin in the spring on a $5 million, state-of-the-art facility.
- Building strong relationships with community hospitals and other academic medical centers was a hallmark of the past year. Hospital and clinical affiliations grew to 22 by December '97.

Points of Emphasis and Progress

ALS CENTER - Wake Forest University Baptist Medical Center has opened a specialized center to provide coordinated care for patients with amyotrophic lateral sclerosis (ALS), often referred to as Lou Gehrig's disease. The Medical Center's ALS program is the only center in western North Carolina devoted to ALS patients.

TRAUMA CENTER - The Medical Center has the designated Level I trauma center for northwest North Carolina. In the trauma center our goal is for the patient who needs surgery to be in an operating room 10 minutes after arriving at the Emergency Department. Surgeons, anesthesiologists and staff remain on duty 24 hours a day to handle such emergencies.

TOPS IN RESEARCH - According to a report in the February 1997 issue of Applied Clinical Trials, Wake Forest University School of Medicine ranked in the top 10 U.S. clinical research institutions.

RANKED AMONG THE NATION'S BEST - The North Carolina Baptist Hospitals, Incorporated is among the nation's best hospitals in nine of 17 specialties, according to rankings published in the July 1998 issue of U.S. News & World Report.

NEW HEART VALVE - Wake Forest University Baptist Medical Center is one of the first centers in the country to offer a new "natural" valve replacement to patients with diseased or damaged aortic heart valves. The Freestyle valve was tested extensively in six centers — including Wake Forest University Baptist Medical Center - before being released for general use.

NEWEST TREATMENT FOR EPILEPSY - Wake Forest University Baptist Medical Center offers a new treatment for epilepsy — a "pacemaker for the brain" that can help control seizures in patients who are not helped by medication and are ineligible for surgery.

A CLOSING WORD

Seventy-five years ago the North Carolina Baptist State Convention gave us a directive to extend the healing ministry of Jesus Christ. For three-quarters of a century, we have sought to carry out this ministry of healing with compassion and integrity. Those who come here for care expect outcomes unachievable elsewhere. We must constantly rise to meet and exceed this expectation. Every patient and family member has a right to expect from us excellence in health care, delivered with compassion.

Respectfully submitted,

Making Life for Older Adults...

The Best of Times

Treasures Old and New

In concluding a series of parables related to the wise use of God's gifts, Jesus ended with these words, "Every scribe which is instructed unto the Kingdom of heaven, is like unto a man that is a householder, which bringeth forth out of his treasure things new and old," Matthew 13:52.

During this past year God has enriched Baptist Retirement Homes with special treasures.

Treasures Old

THE TREASURE OF OUR NORTH CAROLINA BAPTIST FAMILY - Our 500 residents plus all the staff who make up the Baptist Retirement Homes part of the family, say, "Thank You", to the rest of our North Carolina Baptist family.

Thank you for giving so generously through the Cooperative Program and through the North Carolina Offering for Older Adults enabling Baptist Retirement Homes to lead the way for the state of North Carolina in providing benevolent care for Older Adults. Every dollar that comes through these channels is designated to provide care for the "poor elderly."

THE TREASURE OF OUR BAPTIST VOLUNTEERS -These volunteers range from a W.M.U. group that provides regular monthly programs plus special activities such as ice-cream socials at The Taylor House in Albemarle, to a friend who spends hours each week giving manicures at The Hamilton Baptist Home in Hamilton, to a B.S.U. group that provides a weekly program at the Prince Nursing Care Center at the Brookridge Retirement Community in Winston Salem, to a preschool day care class that comes twice a month to visit their "grandfriends" at the Western North Carolina Baptist Home in Asheville.

Treasures New

TAYLOR GLEN RETIREMENT COMMUNITY IN CONCORD - For more than a decade Baptist Retirement Homes has been dreaming with North Carolina Baptists of the Cabarrus / Mecklenburg / Rowan / Stanly area about providing quality residential and health care living opportunities and services to Older Adults. Because of the encouragement given by Baptists of the area, and as a result of the philanthropy of Cabarrus County natives, Carrol and Geneva Taylor, this dream will soon be a reality.

FIVE NEW TWO BEDROOM APARTMENTS AT BROOKRIDGE - These apartments are nearing completion as an addition to the Main Building at the Brookridge Retirement Community in Winston Salem. Bringing the total number of independent living apartments to 146.

RESIDENTIAL UNITS FOR MEMORY IMPAIRED - Special units for those Older Adults dealing with dementia related conditions such as Alzheimer's Disease, will be developed at the Western North Carolina Baptist Home in Asheville and the Brookridge Retirement Community in Winston Salem. In Asheville the unit will be created via a significant renovation within the current home. In Winston Salem new construction will be required.

This report is sent with heartfelt gratitude for your prayers, your deeds of kindness and your gifts enabling us to make life for North Carolina Baptist Older Adults...The Best of Times!

THE BIBLICAL RECORDER

Associational Report--1998

"A democracy can only survive and flourish as a nation of readers," says Daniel J. Boorstin, a Pulitzer Prize-winning historian and former Librarian of Congress.

He is correct! Thomas Jefferson said the purest form of democracy he had ever seen was Baptist churches. We Baptists cherish our soul-liberty, and its corporate corollary--the autonomy of the local church.

But Baptists will never preserve their democratic form of decision-making if they are not properly informed. A democracy demands an informed constituency, whether they like the news or not!

The Biblical Recorder tries to tell the whole story with a focus on the many positive things people are doing in their churches and world missions, along with the crucial issues which cannot be concealed and ignored if we honor our heritage from yesterday and fulfill our mission for tomorrow.

There is no way to address these issues without correct and reliable information. The Biblical Recorder was born and continues to serve for that purpose. In the 165 years of state Baptist papers in North Carolina, never was the Recorder more needed than now for people to have the truth.

Because people are reading less than any time in recent history at the very time there is an increased number of publications and periodicals, the Recorder has kept pace with the state-of-the-art in print media, and entered the world of electronic communications with an attractive and effective Web site. The Web site address is: http://www.biblicalrecorder.org.

The Recorder Web site was officially launched in September 1997. The number of persons using the Web site has grown substantially. Each month there are 15-18,000 hits from around the world, literally--from Asia, Africa, Europe, South America, the Pacific Rim, even Australia! In the United States, people from several states regularly use the Recorder as their source of dependable Baptist information.

The Biblical Recorder should be in every Baptist home in North Carolina. Your support as a subscriber and reader, coupled with your encouragement to others, will enable the paper to better serve the constituency with accurate and helpful information.

In order to save churches large amounts of money and to increase the readership of the Recorder, Church News Service (CNS) was launched in 1990. This system lets any congregation have their church news incorporated into the Biblical Recorder which saves staff time, postage and printing costs. Usually, for less than what it costs to produce the church newsletter, CNS gives the entire Baptist communication package to each family in the congregation.

The paper deliberately focuses more attention on North Carolina Baptists with news, features and inspirational articles which will encourage individuals and churches in their witness and ministry.

That is why the Recorder was born; that is why it serves today. For more information on how your church can subscribe or use CNS, contact:

It is a joy for the Christian Action League of North Carolina to serve the churches of this great state. We continue to work to infon the Christian community about the moral issues that face our state and nation. Our goal is to address these issues with the principles of God Word, the cornerstone of all truth.

A. Christian Values

- It was the pleasure of the Christian Action League to be one of the sponsors of the Third Annual Christian Heritage Week of North Carolina held March 15-22. The League encouraged schools, churches and communities to recognize, commemorate and learn ab the Christian heritage and history of our nation. CAL sponsored a state-wide essay contest for high school students (public, private and home schools) and presented state winners with awards for excellence.
- Continued to promote Christian citizenship throughout the churches and communities of our state. CAL has distributed over 12,00 copies of the Ten Commandments to churches, businesses, schools and homes across North Carolina. Promoted Sanctity of Huma Life Sunday and the National Day of Prayer statewide.
- Held a Church Leadership Legislative Day on June 23. The purpose of this day was to have pastors and church leaders to come together and enjoy fellowship, meet and hear some of our legislators and become more aware of how state government and the legislative process works.

B. Gambling

Lottery proponents continue in their efforts to bring a state-sponsored lottery to North Carolina. CAL monitors these efforts and updates the Christian community on lottery information through letters, calls and our fax and electronic mail networks. Lawmakers have continued to receive a barrage of communications from across the state saying that the lottery is a bad bet for North Carolina.

CAL also monitored the work of the Legislative Study Committee on Bingo Regulations.

C. Sex Education

Worked with other Christian and pro-family groups to see that the state mandate for Abstinence Until Marriage education is implemented state-wide. Also, supported efforts to insure that federal grant money designated to promote abstinence education was used properly. Informed citizens and legislators concerning attempts to fund school-based clinics in North Carolina schools.

D. Abortion

CAL promoted HB 303 (Ban Partial Birth Abortion), HB 536 (Woman's Right to Know before Abortion) and HB 594 (Fetus Deat from Criminal Act). We also encouraged lawmakers to maintain funding reductions and restrictions on the state abortion fund. These actio have resulted in only two qualifying abortions being paid with taxpayer funds in the last two years.

E. Alcohol

CAL monitored all legislation concerning alcohol and other drugs. Successfully supported efforts to strengthen DWI laws. Assiste communities in organizing committees to fight alcohol and drug use. Worked to defeat legislation that would have approved alcohol sales without the vote of the people. Provided awareness, education and resource materials related to substance abuse problems to churches, communities, etc.

CAL will host a national conference in September of the American Council on Alcohol Problems.

F. Pornography

Promoted and saw ratified SB 452-Local Regulation of Adult Establishments. This legislation gives more authority to local communities to regulate and control adult entertainment establishments.

G. Homosexuality

CAL supports efforts to strengthen the traditional family and continues to monitor and inform the public about the activities of thos who promote the radical homosexual agenda. Successfully lobbied against legislation that would have made homosexuality legal in North Carolina. Offered the video "On Wings Like Eagles", the testimony of deliverance from homosexuality by Michael Johnston of Kerruso Ministries.

The Council on Christian Higher Education was founded by the Convention in 1944. It was established to assist colleges and churches within the Convention. The Council does not exercise any authority over the Baptist colleges. The competent leadership of trustees, administrators, and faculty guide them as they fulfill their missions. It does, however, study and recommend to the General Board in matters related to Baptist colleges and the Baptist State Convention.

Four men have led the Council as its Executive Director. Claude Gaddy served as the Council's founding leader. Harold Cole served briefly. Ben Fisher succeeded him. T. Robert Mullinax joined the Council in 1971. Mullinax retired this year from the post he has faithfully guided for 27 years.

The Council and Executive Committee of the General Board invited Wayne D. Wike to become the Council's fifth leader. Wike comes to his post from the pastorate. He has served four North Carolina churches as pastor.

He and his wife, Debbie, are alumni of Gardner-Webb University. In addition, he is a graduate of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary and Union Theological Seminary.

Wike has already served North Carolina Baptists in a number of ways. He served on the Committee on Committees, Chaired the Committee on Nominations, and Chaired the General Board Membership Study Committee.

Council members have greatly assisted each one of these leaders through the years. The college presidents, provosts, and chairmen of Boards of Trustees, along with an equal number of General Board members, serve as members of the Council.

The strength of the Council lies in its voluntary concept of community rather than competition. The Council has proven to be a mediating influence in relating the colleges to each other, to the church, and to the Convention.

The Council is currently involved in strategy planning. It is seeking to prepare for the new millenium. The future holds great promise. The Council and its member colleges want to be prepared for it. The Baptist churches in North Carolina will benefit as a result.

DEDICATION OF THE 1999 ANNUAL MINUTES

Dr. Cecil R. Cave, Jr. - In honor of 27 years of faithful service...

On April 16, 1972, Rev. Cecil R. Cave, Jr. was called as the seventh pastor of Mineral Springs Baptist Church. Dr. Cave accepted the call to come to Mineral Springs from the Ocean View Baptist Church in Myrtle Beach, South Carolina.

Under his ministry the church forged ahead enthusiastically with some innovative forms of ministry. One of Cecil Cave's first commitments was to spearhead the organization of the churches in the community into a Northeast Cooperative Ministries. This organization began with thirteen churches of different denominations coming together in cooperation to minister to the community as a whole. Since that day many years ago, many changes have taken place; however, Northeast Cooperative Ministries still exists today with eight churches participating on a regular basis. These churches come together for special worship services, cooperate with one another in filling the ministry needs of the community, etc.

Dr. Cave served faithfully for 27 years as pastor of Mineral Springs. He led his church in a successful bus ministry, daycare ministry, clothing closet and food pantry. He helped to established funds for providing emergency care for families in crisis, developed a strong radio ministry on WSJS, and became known throughout Winston-Salem for his ministry at the hospitals. As a pastor, he visited the sick, grieved with the bereaved and rejoiced with those who he had the privilege of uniting in marriage, the dedication of a baby, and (most important) the salvation of the lost.

As a religious leader in his community, Cecil Cave poured the same amount of energy and love into helping the less fortunate of our city, promoting racial harmony and serving as a strong and vital leader with the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, the General Baptist Convention and the Ministers Conference of Winston-Salem and Vicinity. Cecil served as president of the Northeast Cooperative Ministries, on the Board of the Kids Café of Winston-Salem, served as co-chair of the Revival Services for Reconciliation and Crossing 52 and served as a board member of the Second Harvest Food Bank. He was a strong participant in Visions of Hope, a group of downtown churches interested in getting more churches from the Westside of town involved in the city of Winston-Salem. And the list goes on and on.

In the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, Cecil Cave served as a consultant for Reconciliation Ministries, dealing with issues that might divide us on a racial/ethnic level. He served as vice moderator and moderator for this Association, as well as having served on several PMBA councils and committees.

Today, Cecil Cave is still a vital force in this community. He continues to serve on the Second Harvest Food Bank Board, as a member of InterFaith Partnership for Advocacy and Reconciliation (IPAR), as a board member of the North Winston Community Development Corporation, sings in the choir at Mineral Springs, serves on the Annual Meeting Committee for the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association and assists churches with supply and interim needs. On Sunday, September 26, 1999, Cecil Cave retired as pastor of Mineral Springs Baptist Church. In the May 2000 Business Meeting of the church, a unanimous vote recognized Dr. Cecil R. Cave, Jr., as Pastor Emeritus. This recognition was in response to Dr. Cave's many years of faithful service to his church and community, and in appreciation of the valuable contributions that he still performs for Mineral Springs Baptist Church.

It is with great admiration and awe that the 1999 Annual Minutes is dedicated in honor of one of God's most faithful servants, Dr. Cecil R. Cave, Jr.

A Tribute to Lib Brown

PMBA Volunteer & Friend

Tuesday, February 9, Elizabeth Morgan Brown (known to all her friends as Lib) left us to take up her rightful place in Heaven. As part of her Christian family, we found we could rejoice that she was home with the Father even as we shed tears over our loss of such a wonderful, loving friend.

It does not surprise us that Lib fought such a courageous battle against leukemia. She never did anything in half measures. For as long as she was a part of our lives, family and friends throughout the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association witnessed unbelievable courage and strength as she dealt with serious health problems. Never a complaint, never a question such as, "Why me, Lord?" Lib faced everything in her life with an unshakable faith that God was in control..

Lib lived her life probably more fully than most of us do. I was constantly amazed at the numerous interests she had. Her dedication to the ministries of Old Town Baptist Church and the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association was known by everyone who knew her. Her love for quilting and involvement in the Forsyth Piecers and Quilters Guild and the Forsyth Extension Home Makers revealed a woman who would not acknowledge the word disability for her life. In April 1999 Lib Brown would have served the association as an office volunteer for ten years. Every Tuesday morning, Lib greeted visitors, answered the phone, took messages and faithfully assisted with projects at hand. In her church, she revealed a love for the developmentally handicapped and for children's ministries.

Lib enjoyed her family. She spoke lovingly and loyally of her two sons, Tom and Phil. She had a special relationship with her daughters-in-law, Cameron and Marge, and was proud of her grandchildren: Morgan and Libby (Tom and Cameron's girls who were both named after their grandmother) and Michael, Sarah and Aaron (Phil's children). Lib Brown enjoyed living and her joy for life was contagious.

Saturday, February 13, family and numerous friends gathered together for a memorial service at Old Town Baptist Church. As I sat in the pew and listened to accolades from Jim Hamlen (Associational Missionary), Wade Dellinger (former pastor of Old Town Baptist Church) and Rick Speas, pastor of Old Town Baptist Church, I realized that this wonderful lady left the world a better place because of having lived in it. I can only hope that when my time here is up, I will leave such a witness of faith, hope and love.

114th Annual Meeting

A Homecoming of Heritage and Hope

Sunday, August 1, 1999 - 4:00 PM
Lewisville Baptist Church – Lewisville, NC

Pre-Session Music .... Martha Evans
Monte Tuttle & Lewisville Baptist Church Choir

Sheree Jones, moderator of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, called the 114th Session to order at 4:02 PM on Sunday, August 1, 1999, at Lewisville Baptist Church.

Paul Riggs, interim pastor of Lewisville, welcomed the people, and expressed his delight at the attendance. He stated that the Lewisville congregation had worked diligently in preparation for this occasion. Rev. Riggs asked everyone to take note of the historical display of their church, which is located in the fellowship hall.

Moderator Jones reminded everyone that we are present to celebrate our Creator...with the words we sing...the way in which we respond to His call and the generous spirit with which we give...all focuses on giving praise to our Father... Celebrating the past, remembering the roots/ heritage of our lives...This is a great time for us...God has reminded us to gather as His people and celebrate our "homecoming" as the Family of God.

We are here today to honor the One who has blessed us. We gather to thank our Lord for being a part of the Kingdom...We gather to reconnect with one another...to look forward to our future...It is our heart and hope that reconnects us...

Congregational Hymn 223 – "O God Our Help In Ages Past"

Mineral Springs Baptist Men's Ensemble led in a melody of gospel favorites from the 1920's and 1930's.

Jack Noffsinger and Miriam Burchette led the congregation in a "Memorial Moment of Prayer and Gratitude." Jack Noffsinger stated, "When we come like this ...when we remember our past...it is appropriate to have a silent word of prayer."

Jim Hamblen, Associational Missionary, was the keynote speaker. His sermon was entitled, "Let Us Rise Up and Build" [Nehemiah 2:18] The following are excerpts from his sermon:

Several months ago, the PMBA Annual Meeting Committee asked me to deliver the sermon at the 114th PMBA Annual Meeting. In the light of our theme, "Our Homecoming of Heritage and Hope, they suggested that this message should bridge from the past into the present with a view toward the future...into the next century...into the next millennium...

On a cold November evening in 1983, I was asked to address the leaders of the PMBA at their annual banquet for newly elected officers and workers. I was invited to present my vision for the future since I had recently been called to serve as the Executive Director of the PMBA. On that night I offered my sense of direction for this association and I believe that it is still appropriate for today.

Using a very familiar story about Nehemiah's return to rebuild the wall as well as his nation's self-esteem, we need to respond, as the people did to Nehemiah's challenge. As we face the "unknown" of the 21st Century...the new millennium...

Let Us Rise Up and Build on solid foundations...

- Foundations such as a Biblically-based Kingdom of God Theology...We need leaders with a Kingdom dream...a holy vision... and...who will put an end to selfish personal agendas. We need followers and workers in the Master's vineyard who are about His business and who are open to the movement of the Holy Spirit in their daily lives and in their personal relationships.

- Foundations such as the rich heritage of our Baptist history: For over three centuries Baptist congregations and Baptist Associations have come together in order to assist each other through mutual care; supportive fellowships; and channels of cooperation for missions, ministries and other benevolent activities...We were not always as strong or as large as we are now; nor, in total agreement in all things. But we did come together in The Father's Work and we need to realize and remember the rock from whence we were hewn...We need to understand...and...act out of our sense of history, heritage and destiny...

- Foundations such as an effective ecclesiology...that focuses upon the local congregation as the primary arena for evangelism and witnessing; missions and ministries; discipleship and spiritual development...We have focused upon the independence of local, autonomous congregations at the expense of the inter-dependence and voluntary cooperation specifically expressed in the book of Acts. As someone has said, "It is just as Baptistic to be cooperative...as it is to be contrary and contentious...

- Foundations such as the practical methodologies of being in fellowship and on mission in our own setting...If God's Kingdom Work, here on earth, ever accomplishes what we dreamed that it could do, would do and should do, it will be because all of us (together) have taken the best that each of us have to offer and focused it upon: personal witnessing; sacrificial stewardship; establishment of New Testament churches; development of obedient and faithful leaders; ministries to unmet human needs wherever they are...

Let Us Rise Up and Build within our contemporary context...

God is still at work here, among us. His Holy Spirit has not...and...will not leave us alone. Just as Our Lord, Jesus Christ promised. It is into the malaise, the confusion, and the conflict of this sin-sick world that we must go with the Word of Hope; the Message of Salvation; and the Good News that God loves us still...

This association can and must help to describe our situation; to identify the needs, opportunities and possible responses; to determine the appropriate strategies and actions; to gather the necessary resources; to become facilitators and enablers to our church leaders; to assist and support local congregations in doing that which the Father is calling His church to accomplish in His world...TODAY!

Let Us Rise Up and Re-build through authentic, inter-personal relationships....

From my readings and experiences during the Sabbath Study Leave, I discovered that many contemporary spiritual leaders are speaking of the post enlightenment age; the post modern era; or the post information society as they examine the impact of the coming millennium...

Sometimes, my i*dealism* gets in the way of my dealing, realistically, with the present...All too often, I view situations through rose-colored lens; however, we do need some hard-headed visionaries...some courageous dreamers...some pro-active risk-takers... especially now!

> Nehemiah 4:6 "...so we rebuilt the wall > til all of it reached half its height, for the > people worked with all their heart
> (for the people had a will to work - KJV)..."

The followers of Nehemiah succeeded in their task. They rebuilt the walls. And they rebuilt their nation...because they had a mind..and..a will...to work...

Do we have a mind...and a will to work?

- To continue to build this association on the intent that we will reach out to all peoples regardless of...their racial....ethnic...or...cultural backgrounds...their economic abilities...or...their social standing...or...their education...or vocational status...

- To establish ministries that will address those unmet, human needs in this community, such as...hunger and homelessness...illiteracy and ignorance... bigotry and hatred...or...all manner of injustices where ever they are...
- To witness to the saving Grace of God through your own personal faith-commitment in our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ...and ...the Presence of the Holy Spirit among us...daily...
- To develop obedient disciples through authentic and fruitful Bible study which is the foundation of all Christian missions and ministries...
- To become the people of God who have been led through a rich history and heritage to be open to the movement of Holy Spirit in every phase of your daily lives...

On another day...in another place...in another time...another writer said it in a very special way:

> Phillipians 3:13-14 "...this one thing I do...forgetting those things which are behind and reaching forth unto those things which are before...I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus..."

So, may it be with the PMBA...So, may it be with each one of us...Amen!

Gloria Gerald, pastor of Grace, voiced a prayer of commitment following Jim Hamblen's sermon.

Twyla Nelson, music director, led the congregation in the hymn, "Amazing Grace."

Larry Snyder, chair of the Finance Committee and treasurer of the Association, spoke on behalf of the Jim Hamblen Offering for Local Missions and Ministries, which goes into the Endowment Fund. Mr. Snyder encouraged everyone to give to this offering in order that the association might realize the means of providing more monies for local missions and ministries opportunities.

Kurtis Underwood, a member of Union Grove, sang "Farther Than Your Grace Can Reach."

Reports and Recommendations:

1. Baptist Toy Store..........................Jim Nelson
   Mr. Nelson reported that for the last 10 years the Baptist Toy Store has ministered to more than 4,600 children, representing 1900 families, and 50 professions of faith have been made. Mr. Nelson stated that the Baptist Toy Store has been a very effective ministry in providing God's love throughout the community in a very tangible way. He encouraged the churches to contribute toys and money for the upcoming Toy Store, which will be held December 7 and 8 at the PMBA Resource Center.

2. Constitution/Bylaws...........Charles Edwards
   Charles Edwards, on behalf of the Constitution Committee made the recommendation that the Constitution be approved as revised by the Constitution Committee. The motion carried.

   Mr. Edwards stated that the Bylaws and the Policies and Procedures Manual for the Association were in the process of revision. These revisions will be brought before the Association-in-Session next year for vote.

3. Spiritual Formations...........Beverly Landreth
   Beverly Landreth reported that there is a fresh spirit being poured out over the Association and that fresh spirit is called the Spiritual Formations Mission Response Team. Ms. Landreth recalled her beloved pastor, Dr. JL Wilson, speaking to her regarding spiritual formation.

   He said, "Spiritual discussions will carry us through those passages of life where faith grows thin. Perhaps you and your church have felt God call us to a deeper maturity.

The Spirit of God calls out to you...to all of us. If you feel that God is calling your church out for spiritual renewal, please call the Spiritual Formations Mission Response Team. We are ready to help you find that place...give those needed materials that might help you in your journey.

4. Ministry to Internationals............Scott Freese
   Scott Freese stated that as the new minister to internationals he is excited to be a part of the Associational family. He then introduced his wife, Syndie, sons: Matthew (age 12) and Stephen (age 10) as well as his mother, Mary Freese. Scott thanked everyone for trusting him with this special ministry.

   He stated that our purpose as a family of believers is to reach out to everyone in friendship and Christian love. It is our commitment to reach out to Christians and non-Christians alike that those who are lost may have the opportunity to accept Christ as Savior.

   Scott closed by asking everyone to please pray for the ministry to the internationals in the academic community. He said that he would share his time among the Baptist State Convention, the Central Baptist Association and the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. His desire is to make contact and establish viable ministries on the campus of colleges and universities throughout the Central and PMBA Associations.

5. Membership Committee.........Herman Kitchen

   C. The Membership Committee moves that the letter of withdrawal from Wake Forest Baptist Church be accepted without further discussion. [The motion carried.]

6. Mission Partnerships..................Jack Hutchins
   It is the main goal of the Missions Partnership Response Team to get churches/people who have never been involved in missions to get active. The entire book of Acts tells about equipping churches. We want our people to get excited about the possibility for missions and to get involved.

   We are not asking churches to finance anyone to go on a mission trip. We are simply asking churches to be available to help those who are interested in doing missions. We want to encourage our churches to partner with one another, enabling smaller churches to learn the ropes of how to get involved in planning mission trips, participating in mission partnerships, etc.

   Call me, if you are in need of assistance. Every member of the Missions Partnerships Team is willing and able to assist our 89 churches.

7. Enlistment Committee.......................Paul Dean
   Paul Dean, on behalf of the Enlistment Committee, made the recommendation that the officers and leaders for 1999-2000 be approved as submitted. [The motion carried.]

Congregational Hymn 33: “To God Be the Glory”

MINISTRY RESPONSE TEAMS & CONSULTANTS REPORTS

BELARUSSIAN CHILDREN'S MINISTRY

This was the sixth summer to host BELARUSSIAN children in the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. The summer of 1999 proved to be another great experience for 19 children and 17 host families in our association. These families represented eleven of our churches. We had eight new host families.

Big "Welcome Bags" were provided by Winston-Salem FBC for each child and these were given to them on the vans upon arrival in Washington. There was also a "welcome" party hosted by the Winston-Salem FBC Vacation Bible School children. The church also provided farewell food bags for each child and the chaperone.

The WMU Leadership Team had a farewell party at Miller Park with lots of American food and the flags of Belarus and the United States were displayed. At this gathering the following items were given: army duffle bags, care bags (lots of toothpaste and toothbrushes), small US flag, shirt, Russian leaflets, Bibles (total upon arrival and departure - 40), and $100 from the Association for each child.

The monies needed for this project are partially funded through the PMBA budget with a large percentage coming from contributions made by mission groups, VBS, Sunday school classes and individuals. All the vitamins, medicines, etc., are given in the same manner. The vans for the Washington, D.C. trip were made available by Green Meadows and Clemmons FBC.

2. An April Men's Rally held at Mount Olive, the first held in Stokes County
3. The formation of a Royal Ambassadors Council to improve the annual RA Missions Fair/Racer Day, to interact more with local RA leaders and to calendar more events for RA's at the associational level
4. The formation of a Disaster Recovery/Relief Team (DRT) to improve the response to natural disasters in the feeding unit ministry, the disaster recovery trailer ministry, and post-disaster recovery (construction)
5. Participation in the training extravaganzas held at Clemmons FBC and King FBC
6. The birth of the partnership between PMBA and the Eastern Baptist Association as part of the Baptist CARE (Churches Assisting Recovery Efforts) Plan. In November a survey team journeyed to Warsaw, Wallace, Chinquapin, and Beulahville to establish this partnership. In the last months of 1999 several PMBA churches assisted in construction projects in this area.
7. The annual chain saw training done at Edgewood
8. The ministry of the first Disaster Recovery Trailer in Elizabethtown, Kelly and Chinquapin
9. Five collections of relief supplies for victims of Hurricane Floyd throughout eastern North Carolina, ending with a Royal Ambassadors mission action project, collecting winter coats and toys for hurricane victims.

10. Completion of the second Disaster Recovery Trailer, that could both assist in mud-outs and serve as a construction trailer in both post-disaster recovery and local construction projects
11. Response of Disaster Recovery Trailer after Hurricane Dennis on the Outer Banks (Ocracoke Island)
12. Two collections of food and clothing for Hurricane Mitch victims in Honduras. Several PMBA churches took teams to Honduras, in some cases their first foreign missions team ever.
13. Extensive post-disaster recovery throughout eastern North Carolina. Although many served as part of the EBA-PMBA partnership, others served in Pinetops, Grifton, Princeville, Tarboro, Rocky Mount and sites too numerous to mention.
14. Four PMBA churches - Olive Grove, Pinnacle, Brown Mountain and Unity - began local Baptist Men units. Olive Grove also began a RA chapter.
15. The transport of nearly 70 mattresses, 2 hospital beds, and assorted furniture to Burgaw to assist flood victims. Barry West of Red Bank assisted in this as did Wilbert McBride of College Park, and others from College Park's Baptist Men.
16. The November Annual Planning Retreat of the PMBA Brotherhood Council where we set forth plans for: (1) Reorganization of the Brotherhood Council, (2) the role of the new RA Council, (3) setting up a Web Site for PMBA Brotherhood, (4) the formation of the Disaster Recovery/Relief Team (DRT), (5) more intentional mission projects with the joint participation of WMU and Brotherhood, and (6) the role of the Annual Men's Rally.

I would like to express thanks to the Brotherhood Council members for a job well done: Bill Bates, Bill Martin, Greg Quinn, Charles Tabor, J.D. Bottoms, David Poe and Scott Courtney. I would like to express thanks to the new RA Council: Greg Quinn, Andy Frye, Jeff McIntyre, J.D. Bottoms, Kathy Bottoms, Charlie Smith and Michael Brown. I would like to thank the WMU Council and the Mission Partnership Council for their invaluable assistance during the Hurricane Floyd crisis. I thank the Finance Committee for providing much needed financing to complete our second trailer. And I would like to express my deeply felt appreciation to the entire PMBA staff for their work, especially Karen Taylor and Scott Freese. Working together, pooling our resources and prompted by the Spirit, a miracle occurred whose total impact we will never know until we are in heaven.

CHURCH DEVELOPMENT

The Church Development Response Team continues to work with (1) healthy churches that are interested in starting new missions or new ministry projects, (2) existing churches that need renewal and revisioning, and (3) new churches that need nurturing and guidance. We have served as an "extension cord" connecting churches with PMBA resources, BSC resources, community resources and other churches. The team has sought to be proactive in building partnerships and cooperation for kingdom projects throughout our area.

In 1999, the Church Development Response Team worked with the following churches:

1. Grace Baptist Church
2. Grace United Community Church
3. Main Street Baptist Church, First Baptist of Kernersville and Guildford Baptist Church (Pine Knolls Community Ministry)
4. Southside Baptist Church, Ardmore Baptist Church and Calvary Baptist Church (Southside Multi-cultural Ministry)

6. Korean Mission
7. Japanese Mission
8. Hispanic Churches: Iglesia Bautista El Camino; Iglesia Bautista de Union Cross)

10. Summit Community Church (Kernersville)

Our Response Team also supported pastors through the Leadership Forum and scholarships to several leadership development seminars.

CHURCH-MINISTER RELATIONS

The Church-Minister Relations Team began to meet monthly in order to come up with a Purpose Statement and Objectives for the Constitution and Bylaws. The Team has been proactive in the planning and development of some seminars that might help PMBA churches to avoid problems.

The Church-Minister Relations Team also meets on a one-on-one basis with churches that are dealing with internal conflicts.

COMMUNITY PARTNERSHIPS

The Community Partnerships Response Team was active in 1998-1999. With its two annual events--the Spring Celebration for the Developmentally Disadvantaged and the Baptist Toy Store in December. Both events involved scores of volunteers and many churches. All of which partnered together to meet the needs of so many people in Forsyth and Stokes Counties.

The Spring Celebration was held in May at Old Town Baptist Church. Sixty-nine participants gathered for a morning of activities which included Bible stories, crafts, games, a talent show and a pizza party. Everyone enjoyed the day.

The Baptist Toy Store was also a wonderful experience for those who were served and for those who served. In 1998 you provided toys for 226 families, representing 593 children. Through the Toy Store, you also provided fruit for each family as well as Bibles, gospel tracts, Christian counseling and referrals. And most important, there were three decisions made for Christ.

Thank you for sharing your money, your time and yourselves. God bless you and thank you in advance for your participation and support of these events in the future.

COOPERATIVE MINISTRIES

The Cooperative Ministries Consultants serve as liaison between the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association and the Rowan Baptist Association. The Consultants seek ways to share in cooperative fellowship and ministry among the pastors and churches of the two Associations.

The ministers and spouses of both Associations came together for a joint service and lunch at the Ardmore Baptist Church on December 13, 1999. The message was delivered by the Reverend Doctor Sir Walter Mack, Jr., pastor of the Union Baptist Church of Winston-Salem, North Carolina. Dr. Mack is a native of Winston-Salem.

The Reverend Reuban Gilliam, Sr., and the North Winston Baptist Church have founded the North Winston Community Development Corporation, based in the facilities of the North Winston Baptist Church, which seeks to meet the physical and spiritual needs of the economically disadvantaged in Northeast Winston-Salem. The Reverend Gilliam serves as President of the Board of Directors. The Reverend Todd Holt, pastor of Crestwood Baptist Church and Dr. Cecil Cave, pastor of Mineral Springs Baptist Church, serve as members of the Board of Directors.

DISCIPLESHIP TRAINING

"So likewise, whoever of you does not forsake all that he has cannot be my disciple." (Luke 14:33)

Discipleship, following after Jesus Christ, not only involves commitment, but is costly. In fact, the Lord said it will cost us everything, that is if we are true disciples. Assisting and encouraging local churches to inspire their members to become faithful disciples of Jesus Christ is the mission of the PMBA Discipleship Leadership Team.

Meeting on a monthly basis, the Discipleship Training Team developed strategies to reach not only individual churches but also the association as a whole. We worked along with the WMU, Brotherhood and Sunday School Team in sponsoring two leadership training conferences in August (at Clemmons FBC and King FBC). The Discipleship Training Team also sponsored the Associational Children's Bible Drill in March with five local congrgations participating. Most of the children qualified to compete at the state level.

Members of the Discipleship Training Team have visited with local churches to share in their discipleship experiences when requested.

As we move into the next year, it is our intention to work more diligently in establishing relationships with more of the discipleship leaders in the local churches.

CHARLES MARTIN, Director

ORDINATION

The Ordination Ministries Response Team met four times during the association year to interview candidates for ordination at the request of the ordaining church and make an appropriate recommendation to the church. All of these candidates were subsequently ordained as follows:

- Forsyth Park - John N. Ridley
- Oaklawn - David Bruce
- Clemmons First Baptist - Daniel C. Musser
- Mineral Springs - James Cohn
- Germaton - Terry Ragsdale

The Ordination Team stresses the fact it is the local church which does the ordaining and the association assists only when requested to do so.

SEMINARY EXTENSION

From the Fall of 1998 to the Fall of 1999, the Seminary Extension Council has had continued support form local congregations as members seek to become better equipped for service in God's Kingdom work.

In the Spring of 1999, Beverly Isley-Landreth led five students in the study of Christian Ethics, and Gerald Smith led eight students in the study of Hebrews. Doug Jordan led a class of five students in the study of Systematic Theology. A

Winter Study of Hosea which began in January of 2000 and led by Gerald Smith will be completed in March. There were six students enrolled in this class. A total enrollment of 24 students participated in Seminary Extension classes taught at the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association.

The Seminary Extension Council will seek new and innovative methods for promoting these classes. We believe if we do a better job of informing the community of this unique opportunity for Biblical studies, enrollment will increase.

SENIOR ADULT MINISTRIES TEAM

The PMBA Senior Adult Ministries Team hosted their annual Senior Adult Luncheon on Friday, May 7, at 12 Noon at Ardmore Baptist Church. Approximately 385 senior adults attended.

Lois Horton, minister of music for Griffith Baptist Church, entertained everyone with several lovely songs. Lois, also a gifted speaker, gave a stirring testimony as a tribute of God's grace and love in her life. As usual, door prizes were a special highlight of the event. Over 150 door prizes were given out making many happy winners!

The Senior Adult Ministries Response Team hopes to be proactive in assisting churches who would like to begin a senior adult ministry. The Team is willing to travel to any church needing assistance in this area.

The Senior Adult Team plans to begin an annual Christmas Worship and Tea. The first "Christmas Tea" will be held at Ardmore Baptist Church on Thursday, December 9. Senior adults throughout the PMBA will be invited to participate in a very special worship service with a tea immediately following in the fellowship hall. This will be a wonderful way to welcome in the Holy Season!

LEVY GOODRICH, Director

SUNDAY SCHOOL

The Sunday School council has worked on a consulting basis this year. Request for help or consultations in Sunday School work were received from 15 churches.

The ACTeam conducted an age-level Teacher Training Conference in conjunction with the PMBA Training Extravaganza at Clemmons, FBC on Monday, August 2, and at King FBC on Thursday, August 5.

A VBS Clinic was held using Lifeway materials at Ardmore Baptist Church and at Walnut Cove FBC.

PMBA churches are encouraged to request help on an as-need basis from the Sunday School Council. Special training and consultations can be arranged.

JIM FOWLER, Director

WMU LEADERSHIP TEAM

The Pilot Mountain Baptist Association's 89 churches are all mission-minded. All but five of the 89 PMBA churches participate in some type of missions work in 1999.

Some of our churches do not have an organized WMU program. Even so, most do promote the State Missions offering, the Annie Armstrong Easter Offering, the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering, and several promote the Global Missions Offering for the Cooperative Baptist Fellowship,

Several PMBA congregations have been involved with "Operations-In-As-Much" to teach families to set aside a day to work with hands-on missions in their local communities. Even though this is a short-term mission project, it is very effective in making those involved aware of the needs that are in our own backyards.

More and more churches are becoming involved with the growing International population in our area.

For years the WMU Response Team of the PMBA has hosted a Christmas party at the Cherry Street Extension Prison Facilities. There were over 200 people present at this year's Christmas party for the inmates--the largest number ever to participate. More and more of our churches are becoming involved in this event each year. One church made over 300 cup cakes just so each guest could receive one.

With the flood disaster in the Eastern part of our state, a number of PMBA congregations in our association have paired with a sister church in the Eastern Baptist Association to work to help rebuild and promote love and concern for our neighbors. Over 40 congregations have sent supplies and/or teams to help with the relief/recovery efforts.

The World Day of Prayer was observed in two different locations, averaging 85 in attendance. We offer our gratitude to Grace United Community Church and Griffith Baptist Church for hosting the World Day of Prayer at their facilities. The music, praise, worship and prayers united us in a common goal to reach a lost and dying world for Jesus Christ and to share our abundance with those in need.

The WMU hosted their annual Salad Supper and Annual Meeting at Center Grove Baptist Church in March 1999. The former chief of police, George Sweat, was the guest speaker. Mr. Sweat is presently serving with the Governor's Office to try and combat violence within our state.

The ladies who planned to attend were asked to bring a salad and share their recipe with others. The recipes were collected and compiled for a booklet, which was given to WMU Directors within the PMBA churches during the Leadership Training Conference in August.

We have made it a tradition to host the Belarussian Children and their host families with a picnic the week before they depart for home. There is always plenty of food, fund and fellowship with last minute farewells to everyone!

A number of PMBA congregations joined with Habitat for Humanity to build houses in Winston-Salem, and some of our congregations traveled to other states to help build homes for needy families.

I truly believe God is at work in our Pilot Mountain Baptist Association even though our numbers on paper are lower than last year. More people are aware of the needs--both locally and globally. It is exciting to be a part of this great Kingdom work through the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association.

CONSTITUTION

The Constitution Committee continued it's work through 1999 in regularly scheduled meetings with the faithful attendance of the responsible committee members, and the capable guidance and assistance of our Associational Missionary. It is a privilege to serve with persons fo diverse talents who are committed to developing responsible documents for the operation of the Association.

With the basic CONSTITUTION and BY-LAWS completed, the Committee and Associational Work Units have continued the task of developing an "Operations Manual," which efforts will be continued during the coming year. The completed set of documents will be presented for adoption at the 115th Annual Session of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association to be held at Calvary Baptist Church on July 23, 2000.

As Chairman, I thank God for the dedicated seriousness of each committee member, the leadership and personnel of the associational office, as well as the in-put of a host of persons contributing to and producing this work effort. When approved and adopted by the Association, it is our prayer that God might use these documents within our cooperative ministries to His Glory as we labor together in harmony and united efforts to fulfill our Divine Call.

KENNETH B. WILSON, SR., Chair

FINANCE

The Finance Committee met regularly (usually once per month) during 1999. The committee members include pastors and lay people. Committee members bring expertise from their careers as entrepreneurs, accountants, bankers and other finance professionals.

In cooperation with the Coordinating Council and the Congregational Council, we developed the Plan for Missions and Ministries. We also sponsored a seminar on churches, ministers and taxes, which was attended by both ministers and lay leaders from many of our churches.

In order to achieve a higher rate of return on God's money, we moved most of the Association's designated funds out of low-yielding certificates of deposit into mutual funds managed by the North Carolina Baptist Foundation. These investments are very conservative fiscally, but are expected to generate significantly higher returns than the CD's in local banks.

The Finance Committee has established policies and procedures to protect your financial investment in God's Kingdom work here in the PMBA. We review and discuss the monthly financial reports prepared by the staff. We publish summaries of the monthly financial information, and we invite any concerned PMBA person to see the details during regular office hours, or by appointment.

The Association's financial statements for 1998 were audited by the independent CPA firm of Gray, Callison and Company, PA. Their report was presented to the Finance Committee on September 21, 1999; it did not indicate any problems or suggestions for improvement in our financial procedures. The complete report is available at the Resource Center.

DAVID COBURN, Chairperson

FACILITIES

The Properties Committee met three times in 1999. They were good stewards and stayed within the budget allowance. Some accomplishments for the year were:

FACILITIES (continued)

- Replaced furnace
- Installed a new gas hot water heater
- Installed guard rail around stairwell on north end of the building
- Repaired all damage to building and equipment following the break-in.

Salemtowne, Inc., the Moravian Retirement Community, provided parts and labor for routine maintenance at no cost to the PMBA.

BARRY WEST, Chair

MEMBERSHIP

The year began on a sad note as the committee struggled with the responsibility of recommending withdrawal or dismissal of Wake Forest Baptist Church from the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. The recommendation to permit a withdrawal, rather than dismissal, was approved unanimously by the Congregational Council.

Three new churches were recommended for affiliation with the association:

1. Hillsdale Baptist Church, Advance, was introduced for watchcare until the Associational Annual Meeting in July 2000 when it was received into full fellowship;

2. Family Faith Center, Lewisville, was presented for watchcare until the Associational Meeting in July 2000.

3. Grace Baptist Church, Winston-Salem, was presented for watchcare until the Associational Meeting in July 2000.

The Membership Committee extends its gratitude to Jim Hamblen, Charles Fox and Past Moderator Sheree Jones for their extensive time and invaluable guidance during a trying time in Associational Life.

PERSONNEL

At the August, 1998, bi-monthly meeting, all staff evaluations for the past year were discussed. Staff salaries, benefits and insurance coverage were reviewed for 1999. Financial support for the Sabbath Study Leave policy was discussed and a decision was made to ask the Finance Committee to place an amount in the annual budget to subsidize the volunteer support from individuals, churches or other sources.

During the October 14th regular meeting, Helen Johnson and Mark Jackson were welcomed as new Committee members. A "birthday holiday" for each staff member was approved. The Committee heard a report from the Finance Committee on the Sabbath Study Leave support question, and the Personnel Committee decided to leave that decision to them. Jim Hamblen shared his observations and reflections on his Sabbath Study Leave. The Committee approved moving forward with the process of searching for a full-time International Student Coordinator, which was already approved by the Baptist State Convention. Staff Christmas gifts for 1998 were approved for presentation at the December meeting.

On December 9, the Committee called all staff members into the meeting room to thank them for a good year of ministry and mission. Each was presented with a monetary Christmas gift as a token of appreciation. Jim Hamblen and Charles Fox updated the Committee on the progress of obtaining an International Student Minister, to be shared with the Central Baptist Association in High Point. Full salary and benefits funding had been approved by the State Convention at its November meeting for a period of three to five years. The Pilot Mountain Baptist Association will provide an office, and the new minister and his family will be allowed to live in the First Baptist Church's mission house for a period of up to two years. A Steering Committee, composed of members from both Associations, will select a candidate for this position for presentation to both Associations for final approval, and after approval serve as the Advisory Board for this new position. Jim Hamblen gave a final report of his Sabbath Study Leave, with $1,300 left in the account, from which $600 was awarded to Charles Fox for his extra duties in Hamblen's absence.

The new year of 1999 saw the first Committee meeting on February 10th, when Jim Hamblen asked for permission to attend the Academy of Spiritual Formation. The Committee supported this request, in view of preparing the Associational Missionary for additional spiritual leadership in the future. This series of sessions was to come once per quarter beginning in October 1999, and concluding in August 2001. Charles Fox shared that twelve resumes had been received for the position of International Student Minister, and that Scott Freese was the chosen candidate. He served with his wife and two sons in Brazil in student work with the International Mission Board. The Committee gave the green light to the proposed plan of restructuring the staff, with some suggestions to be considered at the following meeting.

A called joint meeting of the Committee and the International Student Minister Steering Committee was held on March 1. The candidate for the new position, Scott Freese, was present to give his personal testimony and state his calling to ministry with students. Questions from the floor were discussed and answered by Scott Freese. The Personnel Committee gave unanimous approval to the candidate and issued a recommendation for his employment at the next Congregational Council meeting. In a separate session, the Personnel Committee gave final approval to the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association's new staff design.

The April 14th meeting of the Committee dealt with Scott Freese's approved housing allowance (as an ordained individual) for the rest of 1999. Jim Hamblen was reminded to stick closely to his agreed-upon plans to reduce his work hours and workload each week, in keeping with health restrictions urged by medical personnel.

On June 9, 1999, the Committee was informed there would now be eight members rather than six on this Committee, with two rotating off and on each year. The matter of compensatory time off for support staff was discussed and carried forward to another meeting. Positive reports about the work of Scott Freese were forthcoming. Charles Fox introduced new evaluation forms for staff, and they were adopted for future use with staff, termed "Growth Reviews." Committee members were assigned to assist with individual staff members during their evaluation or growth review.

ASSOCIATIONAL MISSIONARY'S REPORT

Examining our Past... Interprets our Present and Directs our Future...

The above statement may not be a new truth to any of us. However, it is a simple truth that can become a guide for daily living and serving.

In any Annual Report an assessment of the past is a vital part of looking toward the future in order to live more faithfully, authentically and effectively in the present. For over sixteen years I have been sharing my view of the association as well as our life together in God's Kingdom Work here.

I have mentioned the successes we have experienced ...and...some of the pains and difficulties we have faced in the past. Many times I have wondered how much we learned and how our lives are different because of our common journey. This past year was filled with concerns and questions about the last year of the millennium.

Recognizing that this article, like these Annual Minutes, will become a part of our historical record, I offer you a different kind of view of the past...as well as...the future before us.

As your Associational Missionary I have a primary concern about following God's Will for His churches in the PMBA as well as elsewhere. We have grown as a family of churches, number eighty-nine.

- Some are healthier than others
- Some are growing faster than others
- Some seem to be happier than others

However, from my perspective, all of His congregations are important in His sight. I hope I have proven that is a guiding principle among the staff and the associational officers.

There are no insignificant or small churches in the heart and mind of God!

A second concern that motivates me focuses upon the individuals who fill leadership roles in the churches and in the association. These individuals, like you and me, have more to do than seems reasonable. However, the sacrifices of many leaders have made it possible for the PMBA to place missions and ministries as the top priority in all our efforts.

The works of many of the mission response teams, consultants, and committees have set a high mark for future comparison. But there is much to do in order for this association to respond appropriately to the needs, wants and expectations of the congregations we claim to serve. In light of all that has been accomplished...there is still room for you.

Consider joining a team serving the churches in the PMBA.

Some changes have taken place among your staff:

- For example, Charles Fox has assumed a larger role in the administration by helping to design our budget planning to comply with new accounting rules and guidelines as well as being the primary leader in the Cooperative Agreements with the BSC of NC...and... planning with other leaders in associations located in the Triad area.

- And Scott Freese, Minister to Internationals in the Academic Community is one of the brightest spots in the PMBA staff growth. He came to work with us during the early part of 1999 and has made an immediate impact on our work with different cultures and language groups on the campuses in the Winston-Salem and High Point communities. He brought a special joy to all with whom he worked. As a pilot project of the BSC/NC Campus Ministries, we are fortunate to provide a home base for Scott and Syndie (and their two sons) who formerly served as missionaries appointed by the SBC International Mission Board.

- Karen Taylor has assumed a new role as Administrative Assistant with primary responsibilities in all PMBA Communications as well as guiding the work flow in the office. A new accomplishment was the PMBA website [www.pmb.org] . People from all over the world have logged onto our site to observe our work here.
- Sandra Hall has assumed the added responsibilities of preparing and maintaining the calendar for PMBA events and staff assignments, appointments and commitments.
- Beverly Hamblen has accepted the tasks of maintaining the mailing lists; greet visitors to the Resource Center; and assisting Karen with the master files.

That's your PMBA staff...except me. This year has been fulfilling and rewarding in the area of spiritual growth and development. During the early part of the year...and with the permission and encouragement of the Personnel Committee...I was invited and accepted to become a member of The Academy for Spiritual Formations.

As I view the future of my ministry here in the PMBA, I feel a call and a passion in relating to younger ministers and other leaders in the area of spiritual directions and leadership development. There is a common saying that no church will rise much higher in God's Kingdom Work beyond the vision and the leadership abilities of the pastor.

I chose to spend the rest of my time with you in casting the vision and encouraging the implementation of my first vow to you [made in January of 1984] and that is..."to turn the control of this association to the churches who make up the family of Baptists called the PMBA.

In the coming years, will you join me in this quest?"

JAMES V. "JIM" HAMBLEN
Associational Missionary

MODERATOR'S REPORT

Pilot Mountain Baptist Association is family...a family whose members care for one another, hurts with one another and struggles with one another.

I feel blessed to have served in this family as your Moderator.

The past year has provided us opportunity for growth and for challenge. On the eve of the new millennium, the PMBA family has stayed in touch with the one who has called us, empowered us and is present with us. It has been a good year.

Thank you for giving me the opportunity to work alongside you in your journey with Christ. May we continue to keep our focus on the mission and ministry we have been given. As a famous song by Michael W. Smith states..."This is our time...This is our place."

SHEREE JONES, Moderator

VICE MODERATOR'S REPORT

As vice moderator for the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, I preside over the Coordinating Council meetings. The Coordinating Council consists of work unit leaders from our Mission Response Team and Administrative Service Committees as well as consultants. This council meets quarterly.

The most significant event each year is usually the Annual Planning Retreat. The retreat for 1999 was held at Ridgecrest Conference Center in Black Mountain, North Carolina, immediately following the BSC Key Leadership Conference. During the Planning Retreat, work unit leaders set dates for the upcoming calendar, discuss strategy and work on the new year's Basic Plan for Missions and Ministries (Associational Budget).

It is the responsibility of the Coordinating Council to submit an Annual Plan for Missions and Ministries to the Finance Committee. The Finance Committee will then submit a final proposed Plan for Missions and Ministries to the Congregational Council in December.

Please note: A member church may be dismissed from the Association ...if it fails to send an Annual church Profile and/or messengers for three (3) consecutive years. In such case, the Membership Committee shall make every effort to resolve the problem; but if that is not possible, it will recommend dismissal of the Church to the Congregational Council, which will, in turn, submit the matter for final action at the next Association-in-Session. A two-thirds majority vote of the Association in session shall be required for this action.

[Constitution: Article IV. Membership, Section D. Withdrawal and Dismissal, Item 2] To know whether or not your church file an ACP this year, please check the Statistical Tables Section in this book.

Michael C. Blackwell, President

Three rocks beside her trailer house warned four-year-old Mamie not to tell anyone of the way her father was abusing her.

If she ever told, her father said, those stones would mark her grave and the graves of her two best friends.

"He had already killed my dog," says Mamie, now 16. "So I believed him."

When authorities discovered Mamie's abuse at the hands of her father, she was taken from him, and he was charged, but released on bond. He came to the house where Mamie was staying to kill the people in the house...and her. But he was subdued. She heard him through the wall threaten her death while she cowered inside.

Mamie's mother, who left the family when Mamie was six weeks old, attended her father's trial, but only "to see if Mamie looked like me." Mamie never saw her.

George and Linda Hogan, believing "every child deserves a childhood," took Mamie in and raised her as their own. They met her while delivering communion elements to her grandmother.

"It's been a struggle, but you do the best you can," said Linda, who suffers with diabetic ulcers. After her 71-year-old husband had a second heart attack, Mamie became too much for the couple to handle.

She lives now at Moody Home, a structured value change home for girls in Franklin, one of 13 facilities operated by Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina.

Shredding the Safety Net

Mamie pressed the boundaries of love, and George and Linda weren't physically able to pull her back to safety.

"I tried to push the boundaries a little further and a little further, to see how far I could push before they snapped. Finally, they couldn't take it anymore," Mamie said.

Baptist Children's Homes serves families who "can't take it anymore," who have children or grandchildren whose behaviors are out of bounds.

In 1998-99 BCH served 1,646 children and their families through 13 facilities statewide. BCH operates residential campuses in Thomasville, Pembroke, Kinston and Clyde; a maternity home in Asheville; a teen mother/baby home in Lenoir; values change homes for girls in Franklin and Lenoir; therapeutic camping in Cameron; crisis cottages at the residential campuses and in Waynesville; and model day care in Thomasville.

Beginning with Easter 1999 and continuing through Thanksgiving 2000, BCH instituted a 20-month institutional emphasis of "Quality Service Through Quality Relationships." Michael C. Blackwell, president since 1983, is "committed to keeping our staff and our services fresh and vital to meet ever changing needs."

The emphasis places top priority on relationships to achieve the highest quality of service possible. The QSTQR operating theme will permeate every action, program and effort within the institution and without.

The word "quality" has been overused and under-realized, and it too often cloaks mediocrity with imagined value. There will be no such veneer at BCH.

Building and Renovating

BCH moved ahead its Odum Home campus in Pembroke to meet new challenges April 27, 1999 by dedicating two major campus renovations. Space for 10 boys was added to the old "main" building which was named Luther and Audrey Carter Hall, in honor of the donor couple who left their estate to BCH.

The former house used for a director's residence was renovated to serve five girls in transitional care and named for longtime trustee and supporters Abe and Jackie Elmore.

Total renovations increased capacity at Odum Home from 28 residents to 45. Additionally, 10 day students from Pembroke Middle School will be served at the Winifred Lindsay Education/Administrative Center. These students have issues to resolve that do not require them to be in residential care.

At Cameron Boys Camp May 4, two important staff lodges were dedicated: the A.J. Fletcher Lodge and the Hubert M. Craig Lodge. These lodges provide staff housing, a rare commodity in wilderness setting in which Cameron Boys Camp operates.

"North Carolina's largest family" is grateful to our North Carolina Baptist partners, as together, we help hurting children and heal broken families. To secure our new video about BCH, schedule a speaker or access services call (800) 476-3669.

1998-1999 Annual Report
North Carolina Baptist State Convention

In keeping with its mission of providing a supportive atmosphere where faith, knowledge and service are the cornerstones of a Christian higher education, Wingate University gave significant attention to conversation and collaboration on faith issues this year.

Wingate hosted the first annual Faith Doing Justice Conference -- a Protestant-Catholic dialog about social justice and its relation to personal faith. Headlined by evangelical, social activist Rev. Tony Campolo and Charlotte Catholic Diocese Bishop William Curlin, the event brought together more than two dozen community leaders as well as interested individuals from the Protestant and Catholic traditions.

Wingate was also the host site for the celebration of the 75th Anniversary of Baptist Student Unions in North Carolina. Wingate students joined their peers from around the state in service during their Spring Break. Some helped build a Habitat for Humanity home in Marshville, while others led vacation Bible clubs for youth in a nearby trailer park. Some chose to work with young Hispanic children in area elementary schools.

Wingate's annual Interpretation of Scripture Conference brought pastors and lay people from Lancaster, S.C., to Black Mountain, N.C., together to discuss the Book of Joshua. This conference helped prepare participants to teach the winter Bible study.

Another event well-attended by Baptist teachers, ministers and laity was Wingate's Panel Discussion on Evolution and Creation with Dr. Man Wah Tan, a geneticist from Harvard University, and Wingate professors Dr. Chris Dahm, Dr. Todd Lake and Dr. Jim Peterson.

G.A., R.A. and Youth Days were attended this year by hundreds of youth from six area associations. The day-long programs focused on missions and featured home and foreign missionaries as the major speakers.

Wingate students continued to be energized about outreach and involved in many meaningful service activities. Wingate Works and the University and Community Assistance Network were two organizations active in community service throughout the year. Group members helped build two Habitat homes for poor families, did yard work and home repairs for the elderly, and cleared trails at Union County's Cane Creek Park.

The Christian Student Union, Wingate's B.S.U., continued to be one of the largest organizations on campus with an ever-increasing attendance at weekly meetings. Small Bible study groups met weekly in the residence halls, providing students a venue for reflection on scripture, prayer and fellowship. Ten C.S.U. students spent two weeks in Honduras working with the Baptist Medical and Dental Mission in May. Sarah Anderson left for Honduras shortly after her graduation from Wingate. She has spent all but one of her Spring Break vacations in service to others as part of Wingate's C.S.U.

"It's neat to be in the mission field and telling people that Jesus loves them -- helping people who can't help themselves," she says. "You learn a lot about yourself too and your relationship with God."

During the year, students and faculty were enriched through a program of spiritual events which included lectures from prominent Christian leaders on significant academic, ethical and religious topics. Guests this year included Dr. Ben Witherington, author of thirteen books on Jesus and the New Testament; Sister Helen Prejean, social activist and author of Dead Man

Walking; Bruce Kuhn, Broadway actor who performed Acts of the Apostles; Millard Fuller, founder and president of Habitat for Humanity; Dr. William Edgar, who spoke on the Christian roots of jazz; and Rev. Al Cadenhead Jr., pastor of Providence Baptist Church in Charlotte.

Other events held on the Wingate campus affirmed the close ties between the University and the Baptist community. In Union County and surrounding areas, Wingate's cultural assets were a source of education and entertainment for both adults and children. Over 25,000 school children, teachers and parents attended cultural events on the University campus. More than a dozen Baptist organizations were among those in attendance.

A weekly television program on WUTV continued to strengthen the relationship between the University and area churches. Dr. Byrns Coleman hosted a program to prepare Sunday School teachers for their adult lessons. The program aired twice each week and frequently included local pastors and members of the Wingate faculty. Many members of the Wingate faculty, student development staff and adjunct instructors hold graduate degrees from Baptist seminaries. These members of the Wingate family are frequently called upon as resources for area churches.

Additionally, Wingate continued to provide direct financial benefits for its Baptist members. Partners in Education is a matching grant program available to North Carolina students in cooperation with their local Baptist churches. Through this program, many Baptist youth received the financial assistance that made attendance at Wingate possible. Ministers employed full-time by a Baptist church were eligible for tuition-free undergraduate courses through the Coy Muckle Scholarship fund. Other benefits included special scholarships for church youth leaders, dependents of ministers and dependents of foreign missionaries.

Of great significance this year was Dr. Keithen Tucker's work to enhance relationships between Wingate and Baptist churches across the state. As director of church relations, he traveled throughout the state visiting Baptist churches not only to share the good news of the University but also to confirm Wingate's commitment to serving their needs and welcoming with open arms Baptist youth who seek a quality education in a value-centered, Christian environment.

"N.C. Baptists have been involved in Christian higher education literally since the day the Baptist State Convention (BSC) was born," wrote Dr. Jim Royston, Executive Director-Treasurer, Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, for The Biblical Recorder.

Dr. Royston's correct. North Carolina Baptists have placed a high priority upon Christian higher education through the years. As a result, a large number of our pastors, staff ministers, and lay-leaders have been educated by one of our Baptist institutions, helping our churches develop as places where the Gospel is treasured and Christ is honored.

Maintaining close ties to our churches and associations is important to our institutions. This is one of the primary missions of the Council on Christian Higher Education. Founded in 1944, the Council seeks to foster good communications between our churches, associations, and institutions of higher education

Divinity schools and centers for congregational growth serve as positive demonstrations of our institutions' desire to enhance the life in our churches and associations. Current and future leaders are being trained through these facilities.

According to the Executive Director of the Council on Christian Higher Education, Dr. Wayne D. Wike, "North Carolina Baptists are fortunate to have administrators and faculty members who are committed to enriching the life of our Convention."

Gifts to the Cooperative Program assist in helping our institutions fulfill their missions. Members from cooperating churches are eligible, as a result, to be considered for scholarships to attend one of our colleges or universities. In addition, North Carolina Baptists who meet the admission requirements for the divinity schools at Campbell and Gardner-Webb Universities are eligible to receive $8,100 grants toward their theological education. Students who choose to attend another divinity school are eligible to receive $3,000 toward their educational expenses. All of these are made possible as a result of gifts presented to the Cooperative Program of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina.

As Dr. Royston wrote, "Baptist colleges are still a priority of our state Convention. It is my hope and dream that more and more students from our churches will attend our schools, and graduate as leaders for our state and nation, as well as for our churches."

Our colleges and universities share Dr. Royston's hope and dream. They, too, believe graduates from our campuses will make a difference in our state, nation, and Convention.

Biblical Recorder Associational Report
July 1, 1999

The Biblical Recorder is the official news journal of North Carolina Baptists. The earliest version of the Recorder was founded in 1833 by Thomas Meredith, who had also been influential in the birth of the Baptist State Convention in 1830. The Biblical Recorder was owned and operated as a private enterprise in support of Baptist work in North Carolina until 1938, when the paper was purchased by the Baptist State Convention and incorporated as an agency of the convention.

A number of able editors have served the Biblical Recorder, which is widely acknowledged to be in the top echelon of state Baptist papers. The current editor is Tony W. Cartledge, whose tenure began on January 1, 1999.

The Biblical Recorder plays a strategic role in promoting God's kingdom work through North Carolina Baptists. On April 22, 1999, the Board of Directors of the Biblical Recorder adopted the following mission statement: "Our Mission is to further Christ's kingdom by providing relevant news, insightful opinions and supportive resources to North Carolina Baptists in a timely and accessible fashion."

The Biblical Recorder belongs to all North Carolina Baptists, and appropriately reflects the geographical, ecclesiological, and theological diversity that is typical of the churches making up the Baptist State Convention. The editors and staff of the Recorder work diligently to offer a fair and balanced presentation of the news that most affects the life and ministry of North Carolina Baptists. Opinions advanced through editorials, letters, and analytical essays help to spark the thinking of North Carolina Baptists who want to make up their own minds about important issues. Feature stories about notable or innovative activities of churches and associations, regular reports on partnership missions efforts, and weekly commentaries on the most popular Sunday School lessons offer ideas, encouragement, and inspiration to readers of the Recorder.

To communicate more effectively and to present the most important news in a more timely fashion, the Biblical Recorder has developed a popular presence on the World Wide Web. The Recorder's website at hhtp://www.biblicalrecorder.org offers Internet users an opportunity to read much of each paper's content several days before printed versions arrive. This is particularly helpful during convention meetings and at other times when frequent updates are desirable. As time and resources allow, additional features will be added to make the website an even more valuable source of information for North Carolina Baptists.

The Biblical Recorder works in partnership with the Baptist State Convention, and receives annual support from Cooperative Program gifts as an agency of the Convention. This support makes it possible to offer the Recorder at very affordable subscription rates. Currently, the annual rates are:

- Church News Service (incorporates church newsletter into the Recorder) - $6.36
- Every Home Plan (20%+ of church families, paid through the church budget) - $7.42

- Club Plan (4 or more persons in a church subscribe together) - $8.48
- Individual Subscription - $10.60

Meeting the Challenges of Health Care

1999 Report to the Associations

"Touching Lives With Hope"

HOSPITAL CARRIES THE TRADITION

In May of 1999, The North Carolina Baptist Hospitals, Incorporated celebrated 76 years of service to the community and the region. During these years the Hospital has been faithful to the vision of the North Carolina Baptist State Convention. When the Hospital was birthed, the Convention stated the reason for doing so was: to extend the healing ministry which was demonstrated by Jesus Christ. Many challenges have been faced through these years, but the commitment to compassionately strive for innovative excellence has remained the same.

BAPTIST BENEVOLENT CARE FUND

Baptist churches from all across North Carolina joined us in mutual mission through the Mother's Day Offering. This annual ingathering of love was approved by the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina in 1924. In 1998 the MDO amounted to $530,874. It was used exclusively to help patients who had little or no health care insurance or no other financial means to pay their hospital bills. From the offering this past year, well over $200,000 was used to assist members of our Baptist churches in North Carolina. May God bless all those who supported us with prayers and gave so generously.

DIVISION OF PASTORAL CARE

During the year, the Department of Chaplaincy and Pastoral Education provided worship services in Davis Chapel on Monday, Wednesday, Friday and Sunday, as well as services in the J. Paul Sticht Center. Chaplain supervisors, residents and interns made more than 50,000 ministry contacts last year. Seventy-five students graduated from the Department's fully accredited Clinical Pastoral Education program. Maurice Briggs retired from the Department in February after 30 years of service. He was known throughout the Hospital for his pastoral presence and the depth of his sensitivity and care.

The Department of Pastoral Counseling/CareNet, Inc. continues to expand its ministries. There are now 13 Christian counseling centers located in strategic areas from Franklin to Wilmington. During the year these professionally staffed centers will provide over 26,000 hours of Christian counseling.

The Center for Congregational Health, Inc. continues to expand its mission of helping congregations become healthier communities of faith. Programs and assistance offered to churches include: Consultation, Intentional Interim Ministry, and Leadership Development. Resources for ministers include: Young Leaders Program, Leadership Development Group, Interim Ministry Training, and Intentional Interim Ministry training.

FACTS ABOUT WAKE FOREST UNIVERSITY BAPTIST MEDICAL CENTER

- With more than 11,000 employees, four restaurants, two banks and a post office that handles more mail than some towns, the Medical Center has been called a city-within-a-city. We are the largest employer in Forsyth and Guilford counties.
- The North Carolina Baptist Hospitals, Incorporated has opened BestHealth, a community health information center, at Hanes Mall in Winston-Salem. The center will provide a library of books, audio and videotapes, limited Internet access, computer software and a variety of on-site programs to help area residents become better informed about their health and how to remain well.
- Building strong relationships with the community is important to us. A recent survey indicates that Medical Center employees donate more than 30,000 hours of volunteer service a year to more than 300 different organizations in our area.

POINTS OF EMPHASIS AND PROGRESS

Gamma Knife – The North Carolina Baptist Hospitals, Incorporated will have the only one in the state by this fall. Patients with inoperable or inaccessible brain lesions benefit from the availability of this noninvasive procedure that gives the same results as surgery but with no need to open the skull or make an incision. This procedure has been found to be three times more effective in treating recurrent cancerous brain tumors than other radiosurgical tools. The Gamma Knife uses radiation to destroy tumors, vascular malformations and other benign brain lesions with pinpoint accuracy without destroying healthy, normal tissue.

Trauma Center – The Medical Center has the only designated Level I trauma center for northwest North Carolina. In the trauma center our goal is for the patient who needs surgery to be in an operating room 10 minutes after arriving at the Emergency Department. Surgeons, anesthesiologists and staff remain on duty 24 hours a day to handle such emergencies.

NASCAR – The North Carolina Baptist Hospitals, Incorporated is working with Motor Racing Outreach (MRO) to serve the fitness and rehabilitation needs of NASCAR Winston Cup Racing. A mobile fitness and rehabilitation unit is being provided for NASCAR Winston Cup Racing drivers, crews and families.

Ranked Among the Nation's Best – The North Carolina Baptist Hospitals, Incorporated is among the nation's best hospitals in ten of 16 specialties, according to rankings published in the July 1999 issue of U.S. News & World Report. These 10 areas are: cancer, cardiology and heart surgery, geriatrics, gynecology, neurology/neurosurgery, orthopaedics, otolaryngology, rheumatology, digestive tract, and urology.

Newest Treatment for Epilepsy – Wake Forest University Baptist Medical Center offers a new treatment for epilepsy - a "pacemaker for the brain" that can help control seizures in patients who are not helped by medication and are ineligible for surgery.

Information and Appointments – For more information and to make an appointment with a physician, contact HEALTH ON-CALL® at 1-800-446-2255.

A CLOSING WORD FROM THE PRESIDENT

From the beginning in 1923, The North Carolina Baptist Hospitals, Incorporated has dared to reach and grasp that which others thought was impossible. For many years we have been thought of as a referral hospital where we received the most severe medical cases. Over the years we have become one of the leading research centers in the Southeastern United States. Each role compliments the other. It is a great challenge to innovatively treat these extremely difficult cases and heartwarming to see our compassionate physicians and staff assist in the healing process. People have learned through the years to expect from us the very best in health care. We are committed to make sure that their highest expectations are always met or exceeded.

Respectfully submitted,

Len B. Preslar, Jr.

In 1996 Marjorie Turner was recognized for 20+ years of service as a volunteer for PMBA.

MARJORIE TURNER

Marjorie Turner has been my dear friend for over 30 years. The two of us (sometimes accompanied by our husbands) were compatible travelers to Ridgecrest, Caraway, Glorietta, Florida and Canada. Many folk will remember Marjorie for her involvement with the Associational WMU.

When the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association needed volunteer help in the Old North Point office, Marjorie Turner answered the call. For 25 years Marjorie served as a PMBA volunteer, ten of those years we served together on Thursdays at the PMBA office. I worked from 9 a.m. - 1 p.m.; Marjorie worked from 1 p.m. - 5p.m. What a team!

Marjorie also put in some “full time” when PMBA had a special need. Her expert fingers on the computer key pad kept the Association’s database system up-to-date with information from the Annual Church Profile (formerly known as the Uniform Church Letter). Many times Marjorie kept the office open while the associational staff was away at Key Leadership conference or the secretarial staff was away at the Secretaries Conference. She helped “train” many associational leaders and staff with her vast knowledge of the inner workings of the Association.

Marjorie was a highly valued team member and has been sorely missed since she “retired” from volunteering in 2000.

This is my loving tribute to my heart sister, Marjorie Turner.

GEORGIE KITCHEN, PMBA Office Volunteer
Thursday Afternoons

Colleagues often ask me how the PMBA is able to have so many “volunteers” to assist in missions and ministries through the PMBA. One of the primary reasons is Marjorie Turner and others like her who serve God at the PMBA Resource Center. Marjorie went beyond sacrifice and was an inspiration to me and all that came through the office while she was volunteering here at PMBA Resource Center.

If we were to calculate the amount of money that her time and energy has saved the PMBA in order to offer more opportunities for mission and ministry, I am sure that it would total in the hundred thousand dollars. I have enjoyed the many volunteer dinners where she “endured” my many compliments and encouragement that others might follow her example. Thank you, Marjorie. And, if you can tolerate one more compliment...”Thank you for all that you have done for me these past eighteen plus years. But most of all thank you for being my friend and my colleague in ministry. May God continue to bless you as He blesses us through you and other volunteers like you.

Calvary Baptist Church

A Brief History

The Reverend Mr. F.L. Fiddler of High Point, North Carolina, came to Winston-Salem and conducted a tent revival meeting of several week's duration during October 1919. The tent meeting was held across the street (Eighth and Buxton) in a vacant lot. As a result of this revival sixteen members presented their church letters from other churches, twenty joined by letter, and seven came forward for baptism on September 9, 1919. The presbytery consisted of Dr. J. B. Weatherspoon, moderator; Rev. J. F. Bynum, clerk; the Reverends F. L. Fiddler, T. C. Keaton, S. F. Morton, and Moses Myers, deacon. The 43 charter members elected the Reverend F. L. Fiddler as their first pastor. The church was named West Eight Street Baptist Church.

The congregation first worshiped in a house on the corner of West Eighth and Buxton Streets in downtown Winston-Salem. The congregation joined the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association in 1923. In May of the same year the church changed its name to Calvary. Services were conducted in the basement of the new church building frm 1923-1925., when the first sanctuary was completed. This church building is still in use as the "Lighthouse Ministry." God blessed the church, and in 1962 the church purchased property at Lewisville and Peace Haven Roads. Construction began and the church held their first service in May 1965.

The following have serve as pastors of Calvary Baptist Church: F. L. Fiddler, E. A. Cohn, J. A. Snow, M. M. Page, Fred Womack, A.R. Scott, Dewey Armstrong, Luther Matthews, Herbert Brown, George Colgin, Elmer Piper, Loyal T. Joner, and Dr. C. Mark Corts, current pastor.

Through the years the church has continued its growth and work in the name of the Lord. The church reported 113 members in 1923. In 1999 it reported 5,664 members.

PMBA FAMILY GATHERING

115th Annual Meeting
Sunday, July 23, 2000
Calvary Baptist Church, Winston-Salem, NC

"In all my prayers for all of you,
I always pray with joy because of your partnership in the Gospel
from the firsts day until now." Phil. 1:4-5

Pre-Session music was presented by Glenda Head, member of Oaklawn Baptist Church.

At 3:00 p.m. Moderator Glendora Epperson called the meeting to order. She thanked Calvary Baptist Church for hosting the Annual Meeting and the Annual Meeting Committee for all their hard work.

Steve Hardy, one of the assistant pastors at Calvary, brought greetings from their church and rendered a prayer for the meeting.

One Voice, a music ensemble from Calvary, blessed the congregation with a medley of songs.

Associational Missionary Jim Hamblen introduced Becky and Larry Doyle. He thanked Larry Doyle, the former pastor of Iglesia Bautista de Union Cross and presently serving with the International Mission Board on special assignment toHonduras, for his willingness to share from his experience and provide the message for the 115th Annual Meeting.

June Foss, newly ordained minister from Ardmore, read the scripture in preparation for Larry's message.

The following are excerpts from Larry Doyle's message:

We have been very busy; but it's been so very different for us this time. God has provided in many ways. I have heard the people's hearts and want to share regarding the work in Honduras.

God impressed on me the last chapter in the book of John. Why did John write this last chapter? Garden of Gesemene ...crucifixition ...resurrection...They why was there a need for this concluding chapter? John said, "I have written these things that you might know."
One thing I want you to remember, "Keep on following me!" What a word for this disciple. What a legacy! What an affirmation! He got 600 to follow him after he had failed. And he failed again.

"I have heard the Savior say to me as he has said to the disciples, "Larry, do you love me? Do you love me like you say you do?" I realized as the Savior did...I really don't... But I want to!

His fishing story is much like mine. He fished all night..and didn't catch a thing! I can relate to that!

Following is much like fishing. If we don't feel good about ourselves we fail. Our fishing area might be in a courtroom, a school room, a hospital, out there building houses, etc.... We know we are not the one with the final word.

When we listen to him, then it all comes together. I can be the best when I am listening to Him. Sounds like Simon Peter. He counted all the fish. 153 of them! Then he celebrated with the Lord.
Simon Peter always say himself before he saw the others. He always saw himself doing the job...He had an impulsiveness that we just have to like!

But there was a problem...Jesus knew this. "Simon, do you love me more than these?" three times he asked...Focus is the primary element to fellowship. We find here Simon Peter learning about fellowship.

As Baptists, we associate fellowship with eating! The disciples had a fish frye right there, early in the morning. This question helps me to really focus. It isn't true that I can love God if I don't love my brother. The focus of the fellowship is a question. But it is followed by a command.

I can see Jesus with that bowl and the towel. I can see the disciples shocked...dismayed.... embarrassed that Jesus had to do this. How do you treat each other? Inside the church? Outside the church? What am I doing to my brother?

As Jesus looked at Simon Peter he saw potential. He saw he needed one more thing. He needed to learn faithfulness

Simon are you ready to be faithful? Even unto death? Sometimes we are so busy comparing and competing with other churches, other ministries that we cannot focus on what God wants us to be about.

For as we follow Him, we will fill nets, we will fellowship with others, we will affect other peoples' lives.

A mission team traveled thousands of miles to our small country and rented a house for the time they were there. A man in the community had just recently died and the people in the community knocked on the door of the mission team. "We want the missionary to come out here tonight and pray for this family." No response. Again, a knock on the door. "We want the missionary to come out. We believe this man is dead! And we need the missionary to come out and pray for the family." Finally the mission team came out of the house. The leader conducted the service and gave his testimony As they traveled back he said, "Our team came thousands of miles to do mission work..when we could have been doing it all along in our very back yard! For all of us could have such people."

God has some unusual things for us to do.. But we have to be focused on Him. If we aren't on mission for God, what does all this mean?

At the close of the sermon by Larry Doye, the congregation sang, "Wherever He Leads I'll Go." Galo Maldonado, pastor of Igelesia Bautista El Camino, gave a prayer of commitment.

Ty Talton, associate pastor of Ardmore, gave tribute to all those who had passed away during the associational year. In his focus, he centered on Troy Hamrick, a member of Ardmore and strong Baptist leader throughout the state. He stated that Troy had been a member of Ardmore for over 50 years and was known as Mr. Baptist, Mr. Training Union, a loving father, a caring husband. He lived his faith...He was a statesman for Baptists..His memory inspires each of us. Grief has touched us all. We hold to the hope of one day being reunited with those we miss.

Joyce Love, member of the Missions Partnership Team and training consultant for the WMU, recognized the Belarussian children and their sponsor as well as the host families. A total of 31 children had come from Belarus.

Jack Hutchins, Missions Partnership director, spoke on behalf of the Alaskan Partnership. He reported that a team of three people (Jack Hutchins, Charles Freeman and Ed Evans) traveled to Alaska to investigate the work that was going on and what they really needed from people in our PMBA congre-gations. He said that there is a lot of opportunity in Alaska. There are five associations in the state of Alaska. The area covered by one of the associations is as large as the entire state of Texas! There is a lot we can do. Three million people live in Alaska. Three percent are Christian. We know the needs...we know the contacts...Go to Alaska. As you depart from these premises go and make disciples.

Dan Sellers, the pastor of Shiloh Baptist Church in the eastern part of North Carolina, came to express their gratitude to the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association for their commitment to the work with victims from Hurricane Floyd. He thanked everyone for the money, time, talent and furniture...and especially for the teams willing to travel to the east to rebuild homes...Rev. Sellers stated that he had personably worked for 10 months with the teams that have traveled from our association.

Rev. Sellers stated that over 240 homes have been completed in the last 10 months. When Jim Hamblen called to say the PMBA wanted to partner with the Warsaw Association in relief and recovery after Hurricane Floyd and the flooding, we were one happy association! He stated that he felt inadequate to express their deep felt gratitude for the sacrifices made on behalf of brothers and sisters in Christ in another part of the state.

Wes Morgan, member of College Park, gave a small slide presentation depicting all those who partici-pated in the Missions Blitz on Friday, July 31. There were approximately 63 churches involved in this event. He showed slides from an all day training session for disaster relief workers at Rural Hall FBC; workday at North Winston Baptist Church's Mission Outreach House; workday at Greater St. Matthews; workday at Pinnacle; Fun Day for Belarussian Children at Cornerstone; Toy Drive at the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association for the Baptist Toy Store; workday at the Second Harvest Food Bank; and a Quilting Bee at Clemmons FBC . There was absolutely something for everyone!

Ed Stines spoke on behalf of the James V. Hamblen Missions and Ministries Offering for the Local Missions and Ministries Endowment Fund. He stated that it had been Larrry Snyder's idea to establish a fund to help the Association do more missions and ministries. He expressed gratitude to al the churches for their support of this new offering. Eunice Maldonado gave the offertory prayer.

Charles Martin spoke on behalf of Discipleship Training. He stated that he hoped that as a result of discipling people within the churches, we are seeing more people equipped to witness and teach. Charles reminded those present of the upcoming training event on August 26 for Brotherhood and WMU leadership.

In parting, Charles Martin stated that we owe it to the Lord to give Him our best. We need to equip and train fellow Baptists for the Lord's work.

Ray Benfield, chair of the Personnel Committee, recognized the staff for their work in the PMBA: Jim Hamblen - 17 years as Associational Missionary; Charles Fox - 3 years as Missionary Associate; Karen Taylor - 9 years as office administrator; Beverly Hamblen - 5 years as associational secretary; Sandra Hall - 14 years as finance and properties secretary; and Scott Freese - 1 year as minister to internationals in the academic community.

Aside from the regular work of the Personnel Committee, their additional work began on February 15 when Charles Fox tendered his resignation in order to accept a position with the Baptist Foundation. Ray stated that he knew the work ahead would be difficult. They have already set priorities. Their first task was to obtain an interim associate. Two weeks after Charles' resignation, Ed Stines became the interim associate.

Ray reported that Mark Jackson, Ray, and Jim Hamblen wold be working together to further their search efforts. A listening session was held at Knollwood, which was very productive. The Personnel Committee has a total of 22 candidates. Thirteen of whom have been pastors; 7 who have experience in associational work; two ethnic language candidates; 1 female candidate; 21 male candidates; 4 out of state; and 18 living in North Carolina.

A questionnaire has been mailed to all candidates with instructions to return to the PMBA by August 15. They have not set a time table; however, the work will be done expediously.

David Coburn, chair of the Finance Committee and PMBA treasurer, reported on the financial status of the PMBA. He explained that our Plan for Missions and Ministries is not just a budget but an actual plan depicting what our churches have indicated that they will do. For funding we go to our churches. We ask, "What part of God's work will be done next year through the PMBA?"

We hope you will report back to your churches and tell the story of the work that is being accomplished for the Kingdom by your gifts to missons through the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. If your church is not increasing its giving, we hope that you will reconsider and recall the many opportunities you have to partner with other churches through the efforts of this association to do missions and ministries as far away as Belarus and as close as the community in your own backyard.

Ken Wilson, chair of the Constitution Committee expressed his gratitude to the members of the Constitution Committee for their fine work. He directed attention to the proposed changes to the Constitution and Bylaws as reflected in the materials in the packets. He stated that the revisions were not ready for vote. More work is being done and they will be presented, hopefully, at the next Association-in-Session.

Wilson Harmon, chair of the Membership Committee presented the Summit Community Church to the Association-in-Session and made the motion to accept them under watchcare of the Association. The motion carried.

Jim Hamblen, Associational Missionary presented the new slate of officers for the year 2000-2001. They are as follows: Paul Dean, moderator; Don Harvey, vice moderator; Karen Taylor, Clerk; David Coburn, Treasurer; Paul Edmond, assistant treasurer; John Woodard, historian; Bobby Stewart, vice moderator elect; Glendora Epperson, past moderator. The towel of servanthood was passed to each officer with the challenge to serve the Association well.

Mary Ella Barefoot presented the 2000-2001 Nominees for leadership positions in the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. She made the motion that the list of nominees be accepted as printed. The motion carried.

The Creative Ministries Team, Players of the Way, presented a special drama entitled, "New Shoes."

The meeting adjourned at 5:16 p.m. A time of refreshments and fellowship immediately followed the Association-in-Session in the fellowship hall of Calvary.

KAREN TAYLOR, Clerk

Associational Emphasis Week

July 23 - July 30, 2000

Our theme for this year's Annual Meeting is "Partners on Mission." It is our hope that the year 2000 will mark history as a time when the congregations of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association came together in partnership to accomplish God's Kingdom work!

The Jim Hamblen Local Missions and Ministries Offering was established three years ago to build an Endowment Fund whereby, we, as an Association of mission-minded congregations, might have the means to fulfill mission and ministry opportunities that come our way after the year's budget has already been set. Each year as the Mission Response Teams prayerfully consider budget needs, some opportunities for mission work has to be deferred until another year. Many times, as opportunities to minister and partner with our churches in new mission work comes our way, we find we do not have sufficient funds to encourage and assist our congregations in fulfilling their visions.

By making the Jim Hamblen Local Missions and Ministries Offering a priority for your congregation, we, as an association, can realize greater efforts to reach a lost and dying world for Jesus Christ. The majority of PMBA congregations systematically contribute to the Association, making it possible for us to meet the yearly budget needs. We want to encourage you to continue to be faithful in your designated giving to the Association. However, we also want to encourage you to stretch beyond your regular contributions and give to the Jim Hamblen Local Missions and Ministries Offering in order that the Endowment Fund might continue to grow and our Association can continue to make mission and ministry goals a reality.

BELARUSSIAN CHILDREN'S MINISTRY

This was the seventh summer to host BELARUSSIAN children in the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. The summer of 2000 proved to be another great experience for 31 children, 2 chaperones and their host families in our association. There were 26 families from 12 churches in the PMBA and two families from another association who served as hosts for our guests from Belarus.

Thank you for the hundreds and hundreds of vitamins, Tylenol, toothpaste, toothbrushes and the monetary assistance from churches and individuals.

Georgie Kitchen prepared Bibles for the Belarussian children to take back home with them. Each year these children are given Bibles to take back to Belarus. They are in the Russian language and are given to them along with Russian tracts.

Let me express my gratitude to: Jimmy Bowles, Jerry Reavis and Green Meadows and to Tommy Love and Clemmons FBC for driving and providing vans to transport the children from and to Washington, D.C.; to Jerry Cornatzer and Lewisville as well as Glendora Epperson and Ardmore for driving for local trips; to those that gave zoo tickets; for the tour and lunch at Vulcan materials, Warthogs games, fantastic Fun Day at Cornerstone, and the Super Supper Farewell provided by the PMBA WMU Leadership Team.

The monies needed for this project are partially funded through the PMBA budget with a large percentage coming from contributions from mission groups, VBS, Sunday school classes and individuals. All the vitamins, medicines, etc., are given in the same manner. "Thank you" is not adequate expression of gratitude for the love and care of the host families and each of you that provided generously for these special children.

BROTHERHOOD

In many ways, our theme at our Men's Rally at Pfafftown summed up the year: "Wise Men Head East...and Enter Phase Two." Our energies and efforts were expended in two areas: (1) meeting the needs in eastern North Carolina in Hurricane Floyd flood relief, and (2) implementing Phase Two, the plan devised by the PMBA Brotherhood Council at an annual retreat in November 1999.

The following occurred in 1999-2000:

(1) Council members visited the following churches: Antioch, Lewisville, Pfafftown, Red Bank, and Union Grove.

(2) In April we held our annual Men's Rally at Pfafftown Baptist Church, where we celebrated the labors of PMBA churches in eastern North Carolina, and unveiled Phase Two and its five components.

(1) We had our RA Racer Day/Missions Fair at Calvary Baptist Church. This was the first year RA leaders could register their chapters by the new PMBA Brotherhood website, www.pmbamissions.org.

(4) Our Royal Ambassadors sponsored a mission action project to assist the Patillo Elementary School in Tarboro, through the collection of General Foods boxtops to rebuild the main building which was razed because of damage from Hurricane Floyd.

(5) Our new DRT (Disaster Relief/Recovery Team) gave a more intense focus to relief efforts, including providing chain saw training through PMBA.

(6) The Brotherhood was involved in the missions blitz sponsored by PMBA in conjunction with the Annual Meeting. Baptist Men assisted in workdays at Greater Saint Matthews and Pinnacle. Our DRT led a chain saw training at Rural Hall FBC. New Team member, Charles McCullough, took a team for an overnight trip to Grifton.

(7) Our partnership with the Eastern Baptist Association in Hurricane Floyd relief produced tremendous success. By September 2000, one could ride down NC Highway 41 from Wallace to

Chinquapin and hardly spot evidence of the flood. Four churches: Germanton, Pfafftown, Union Grove, and Bethany represented PMBA at the Flood Relief Volunteers Appreciation Banquet held at Chinquapin Elementary School on September 6.

(8) Our DRT began concentrating recovery efforts to Grifton, a small town in southern Pitt county, which sustained devastating damage from Hurricane Floyd. As of this writing, only twenty percent of the homes have been rebuilt in Grifton.

(9) Our DRT has continued transporting relief supplies to the Volunteer Center in Grifton, including furniture from 1400 dorm rooms at Wake Forest University.

(10) In January 2000 we joined VOAD (Volunteer Organizations Active in Disasters), an adjunct of Emergency Management. This partnership would enable us to minister more effectively in disasters within PMBA. This partnership was tested when severe windstorms struck eastern Forsyth, Greensboro, and Burlington. At noon VOAD requested our chain saw unit to go to Walkertown and Kernersville. Two hours later NC Baptist Men asked us to respond to the Burlington disaster. Both needs were met as requested.

(11) 2000 saw our first Brotherhood Resource Guide unveiled at the WMU/Brotherhood training conference at Ardmore.

(12) Website, www.pmbamissions.org became a reality in 2000. Thanks to Greg Quinn, PMBA has the first associational Brotherhood website in North Carolina.

From the reconstruction of Chinquapin to the rapid recovery of Associate Brotherhood Director Bill Bates from a cerebral hemorrhage, God's presence has been ever present. Ask Him for another miracle as we work to refurbish Southside Baptist Church. And thank Him for what we have received.

CHURCH-MINISTER RELATIONS

Our group worked this past year on two levels:

(1) Responding to problems within PMBA churches when invited. (We have participated with three churches this year directly.)

(2) Proactive involvement by offering two conferences:

a) In the Spring we offered a conference at Ardmore Baptist on "triangles within the church." We offered a meal and more than 80 were in attendance.

b) This Fall we invited Dr. John Savage, a world-renowned consultant to lead us in a conference entitled "Role Renegotiation." Approximately 40 people attended this event at the PMBA Resource Center.

We plan to continue this same path for the coming year. We are hoping to bring Dr. Savage back to our association in some capacity in the near future.

COMMUNITY PARTNERSHIPS

There were several appeals for help during the Christmas holidays. PMBA churches participated in the Salvation Army's Angel Tree program; helped individual families in their own communities; provided health kits for the Forsyth Prison Ministry; and made Christmas possible for many families in the eastern part of North Carolina who were effected by the flooding from Hurricane Floyd. The list goes on and on. Even so, they did not disappoint the PMBA Toy Store this year. Although we were unable to provide toys for as many children as we have in past years, we did provide toys for approximately 300 children, representing 175 families.

One great bonus came in the form of 100 brand new bicycles provided by business people in Winston-Salem. The bicycles were delivered December 15th. Families came to pick up bikes and PMBA volunteers delivered bikes for over a week! What a blessing!

A hearty thank-you to the Community Partnerships Team. They spent hours making the Toy Store a great success as well as helping coordinate the bike distribution.

Thanks to the many volunteers and to the churches for their response to our need for toys and money. Without their help, the Baptist Toy Store could never have reached so many children.

The Community Partnerships Team is in the midst of transition. We are taking a serious look at how we do missions within the community. Our work with the Baptist Toy Store is taking on new dimensions, with a special emphasis to reach out to our Stokes County residents. In years past, most of our applicants have come from Forsyth County. This year we had great representation from both counties.

The Spring Celebration for the Developmentally Disabled did not take place this year; however, we hope to revamp the ministry for next year.

As a team, we are looking at the literacy needs within our Association as well as a ministry response to more community agencies in our region. The future involvement needs for Community Partnerships are growing and we are excited about where our Lord is leading us in His kingdom work.

CREATIVE MINISTRIES

The Creative Ministries Team presented a night of four mini-plays in November. The Players of the Way performed at the following locations in November:

Sunday, November 7 - Old Town
Thursday, November 11 - Forsyth Correctional Center
Sunday, November 14 - Pfafftown
Sunday, November 21 - Robinhood Road
Sunday, November 28 - Northwest

Growing interest in Creative Ministries is revealed by the number of churches that have developed drama teams of their own. Even so, the Creative Ministries Team is being asked to bring their drama team into more PMBA churches.

DEBBIE JOYNER, Director

CROSS CULTURAL MINISTRIES

The Cross Cultural Ministries Response Team is made up of persons representing the various forms of outreach to internationals in PMBA, including Korean, Japanese, Hispanic, Vietnamese Bible studies and worship services as well as other joint efforts.

The associational WMU has sponsored training sessions for the ethnic churches for the past two years that have been well-received.

All of these groups come together for the Celebration of Cultural Diversity in the summer. We enjoy sharing our faith through testimony and music as well as the fellowship and good food.

This year we brought the medical/dental van from Cary to assist in outreach in the Oak Grove Community.

Other activities in which we participated included the Lanterns of Hope Festival and the Winston-Salem Multi-Cultural Family Festival, both held in the summer.

The International Student work is encouraged by this Team with Scott Freese serving as a member of the Cross Cultural Ministries Response Team as well as being minister to internationals in the academic community. Reports are received from each of these entities on a regular basis for information and prayer.

DISCIPLESHIP TRAINING

Gene Mims, in his book Kingdom Principles of Church Growth, gives us insight into that question. He identified discipleship as one of the "five essential church functions."

As a pastor, a discipler and your associational discipleship supporter, I am convinced that the strength of any church is to be found in that congregation's commitment to the process of discipling its membership. Notice I said "process," not program, because discipleship is much more than a mere program to be "wedged into" the busy church activity calendar. It is a life long process of spiritual growth and maturity as a believer in Jesus Christ.

Discipleship is also a very diverse process encompassing a variety of experiences, ranging from basis Christian doctrinal studies, in-depth Bible studies, support groups, spiritual gifts discovery and application, to family life seminars. An effective discipleship ministry addresses the wide variety of spiritual growth needs of members of the church.

Is this happening in your church? It could, and it should. If you need assistance in initiating or improving the discipleship process in your church please contactl your PMBA Discipleship Team.

MISSION PARTNERSHIPS

The Missions Partnerships Team has helped PMBA churches connect with one another and with other associations in doing missions and ministries. The associational year for 1999-2000 was a year for disasters.

In August 1999, 644 boxes of food were sent from our region in response to the Hunger Relief drive for the people of Honduras. Scott Courtney, pastor of New Vision Fellowship and the Baptist Men's Mission Action Coordinator, secured two trucks and packed the boxes onto the trucks (with the help of some very fine volunteers). The weather was hot and the work was hard, but the faithful few were committed to making the project a success.

In October 1999, the churches of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association joined together to offer hope and assistance to the thousands whose lives have been changed by the devastation wrought by Hurricane Floyd. Churches throughout the PMBA responded to the call for help. Mission teams from several PMBA churches reached out to the victims of Hurricane Floyd and the flooding that followed the hurricane. The following churches responded by either adopting a church or family that found themselves homeless due to this natural disaster: Advance FBC, Ardmore, Beck's, Bethany, Brim's Grove, Brown Mountain, Calvary, Center Grove, Crestwood, Clemmons FBC, College Park, Cornerstone, Germanton, Glenn View, Goodwill, Green Meadows, Hillsdale, Konnoak, Main Street, Mineral Springs, Mount Olive, New Vision Fellowship, Northwest, Old Town, Olive Grove, Peace Haven, Peters Creek, Pfafftown, Pinnacle, Stanleyville FBC, Willow Oak, and Winston-Salem FBC. (After this writing, I am sure even more came forth to help with disaster relief and recovery!)

Ongoing collections took place throughout the fall and winter. Bethany, Cornerstone, Grace United, Griffith, Mineral Springs, Pinnacle and Willow Oak all served as collection points. WMU and Brotherhood joined efforts through Missions Partnerships to continue the relief and recovery work.

The highlight of the Missions Partnerships Team was our all-day Missions Blitz on Saturday, July 22, 2000.. Seventy-three churches in the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association participated in our first Missions Blitz. Churches were involved in the following projects:

1. Missionary Residence Workday: Churches helped with yard work and indoor spring cleaning at the PMBA Missionary Residence.
2. Cleanup and repair work at two churches: Greater St. Matthews and Pinnacle benefitted from the efforts of men and women from several churches. General repair, painting and cleaning took place.
3. Quilting Bee at Clemmons FBC: Men, women and youth gathered at Clemmons FBC to make twin-size quilts for the Baptist Children's Home. Their goal was to make enough quilts to take care of the needs at the Kennedy Children's Home, a Baptist Children's Home in the eastern part of North Carolina that was severely damaged by Hurricane Floyd. Over 300 quilts were taken east!
4. Disaster Relief/Recovery Team went East: A team of several men and women went to Grifton, North Carolina to help with disaster recovery. Charles McCollough, a member of the Brotherhood Team took a group to Grifton as part of the Missions Blitz.
5. Children's Fair at Cornerstone: Cornerstone hosted a "fun day" for the Belarussian children. Over 100 people attended. Games, food and fellowship were the highlight of the day for the Belarussian children and children from our PMBA churches who came to meet them.
6. Second Harvest Food Bank: Over 20 youth from two of our churches helped with sorting and boxing food for the Second Harvest Food Bank.
7. Christmas in July for Baptist Toy Store: 23 churches dropped off toys for the Baptist Toy Store. This was a great kickoff for the toy drive which usually begins in October

The Pilot Mountain Baptist Association entered into partnership with Alaska as part of the Mission Partnership "missions emphasis." Three members of the Missions Partnership Team: Ed Evans, Charles Freeman, and Jack Hutchins traveled to Alaska May 10-17, 2000, to assess the needs of the churches in Alaska. Several churches have already made plans to go to Alaska: Ardmore, Calvary, College Park, Green Meadows, Griffith, Oaklawn, and Stanleyville FBC. We look forward to an exciting Alaskan partnership in the work of the Kingdom.

ORDINATION ADVISORY

The Ordination Advisory Response Team met five times during the association year to interview candidates for ordination at the request of the ordaining church and make an appropriate recommendation to the church. All of these candidates were subsequently ordained as follows:

- Randy Storz was ordained to the Gospel Ministry at Antioch Baptist Church, where he serves on staff as Minister of Education/Youth
- Boyce Humphrey was ordained to the Gospel Ministry at Southside Baptist Church. Boyce serves as Interim Minister of Music.
- Robbie Stephens was ordained to the Gospel Ministry at Brim's Grove. Robbie serves as their pastor.
- Jane Foss was ordained to the Gospel Ministry at Ardmore Baptist Church. She serves on staff at Winston-Salem FBC.
- Bobby Reece was ordained to the Gospel Ministry at Bethany Baptist Church. He serves as pastor of Antioch Baptist Church.

SENIOR ADULT MINISTRIES TEAM

The Senior Adult Team held its first Candle Tea Service at Ardmore Baptist Church on December 9, 1999. Senior adults throughout the PMBA were invited to participate in a very special worship service with a tea immediately following in the fellowship hall. Approximately 178 senior adults participated.

The PMBA Senior Adult Ministries Team hosted their annual Senior Adult Luncheon on Thursday, May 25, at Old Town Baptist Church. Approximately 470 senior adults attended.

This was the first year that churches and their members were not asked to provide door prizes. Instead, over 200 door prizes were given out from gifts donated by local businesses. The most expensive gift was probably a brand new bowling ball with an estimated value of over $250. A sweet lady in her mid-seventies won the bowling ball and refused to trade with anyone! She was planning to take up bowling once again as a form of recreation.

The Senior Adult Ministries Team seeks new ways in which to involve seniors in ministry opportunities. If your church is too small to have a senior adult group, please contact PMBA and we will put you in contact with the nearest PMBA church in your area that has a senior adult ministry. Many of our churches open their senior adult ministry to other Baptist churches as well as other denominations.

WMU LEADERSHIP TEAM

The Woman's Missionary Union Auxiliary (WMU) was formed in May 1888 in Richmond, Virginia. There were 12states represented. Miss Fannie S. Heck from Raleigh, North Carolina, was present as representative of NC Missions. Heck was elected the second president of the national Women's Missionary Union in 1892 and served until 1894 when she and Miss Annie Armstrong had a disagreement.

The first Female Missionary Society was organized in Virginia in the spring of 1813 for the purpose to pray and give their contributions toward William Carey's ministry.Among the first receipts of North Carolina Baptist State Convention was nine cents from a "negro army."

Before the Southern Baptist Convention was organized in 1845 there were over 100 female societies already flourishing in the south.

The Pilot Mountain Baptist Association's WMU first reported on women's work at the 1914 annual session of the association, with 74 in attendance at the morning service and 69 attending the meeting at Forest Hill at the evening service. An offering of $425.31 was shared with the women around the world.

The year 2000 Salad Supper Annual Meeting was held at Old Town Baptist Church, with the largest attendance ever–540 people!

The theme for the 2000 Annual Meeting was, "Transformed, Take the Stand." The Healing Force shared their unique gift of ministry through African music and Elizabeth Jones Edwards, the State Director for Christian Women's Job Corp, shared ways to become more involved in helping women change their circumstances. Pamela Chavies share her personal testimony about how her life was changed through the Christian Women's Job Corp. Cindy Johnson, a member of Old Town, shared in song and the Suit Yourself Ministry was introduced.

The Pilot Mountain Baptist Association's WMU leadership team hosted a Belarussian Children's Picnic. Joyce Love and Georgie Kitchen serve as PMBA consultants for the Belarussian Children's Project each year. Their efforts are responsible for bringing these children from Belarus to the United States each year.

The emphasis, "Beyond Belief" is true in our association today with 89 churches doing missions and ministries together and separately. We had 60 churches to report some type of WMU work for 1999-2000. Seventy-four churches reported churchwide missions awareness (i.e., North American Missions Offering (Annie Armstrong) in March; State Missions offering in September; World Hunger Offering in October; the Children's Home Offering in November; and the International Missions Offering (Lottie Moon) in December. There were 6,574 participants reporting with each age level organization showing an increase of $2395.

In July the WMU promoted and supported the Mission Blitz by partnering with one another to do local missions and ministries on a designated Saturday in July.

The associational WMU showed cooperation and dedication while trying to reach the needs of all 89 churches.

GLENDORA EPPERSON, WMU Director

WMU Missions Fair

Five different area ethnic worship groups attended the PMBA WMU Missions Fair on Saturday, September 23. The affair was moved indoors at the Forsyth Park Baptist Church due to thee the inclement weather. The informational format was led by the Associational WMU Leadership Team.

Represented in the diverse language groups were leaders from two Hispanic churches with emerging WMU organizations. Dr. Frank Li, who works with Chinese in several Baptist chruches was present, as well as two young ladies from the Japanese fellowship group. Three representatives from a church which has an ethnic group meeting in is facilities attended.

The main feature was an address by Miss Linda Hicks, Language Coordinator with the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina.

EVELYN BENFIELD, Language/Ethnic Culture Consultant for WMU

YOUTH MINISTRIES

This year's Fall Youth Retreat was presented in two parts: Part One - Reaching Out (Extreme 1999) was held at the Greensboro War Memorial Stadium. Part Two - Reaching In was held at Ridgecrest Conference Center.

Extreme 99, at the Greensboro War Memorial Stadium, was a day filled with games, concerts and a special guest speaker. The games featured included the Bungee Run, Gladiator Joust, Big Glove Boxing, Velcro Wall, and the Giant Obstacle Course. Concerts began with the musical group, Squirt, at noon and concluded with the last musical group, Newsboys, at 9:15 p.m. The guest speaker for the event was Derrick Moore.

This event was attended by a large group of youth from the PMBA churches and already they are talking about Extreme 2000!

Part II of the Fall Retreat 1999, entitled Building Up the Body of Christ, was held at Ridgecrest Conference Center in Black Mountain. Over 400 youth and adult sponsors participated. Highlights for the Fall Retret was a concert on Friday night and a variety show on Saturday night.

The last great event for the PMBA Youth Leadership Team to plan was Spring Thing 2K Variety Revue and Cookout at College Park on Saturday, May 13. Several church youth groups participated in this evening of fun, entertainment, food and fellowship!

Plans are in the making for the Fall Retreat 2001. Again this year it will be held in two parts. Youth directors need to contact the PMBA Resource Center if they have not been participating in these association-wide events and would like more information !

CONSTITUTION

The admended Constitution and Bylaws were presented at the 2000 Annual Meeting at Calvary Baptist Church on July 23 for consideration, debate and referral back to the Work Unit for further action. Our aim is to have the Operations Manual, which contains the Constitution and Bylaws as well as the Policies and Procedures, presented at the 2001 Annual Meeting for approval.

The Policies and Procedures Guidelines, which covers all the operations of the Association, is currently in revision and will continue to be a "living document" in order to meet the ever evolving needs of the member churches.

Any Work Unit having additional matters requiring further consideration should report these to the Constitution Committee at the earliest convenience.

On behalf of the Constitution Committee, I want to thank each member of the Coordinating Council and the respective Work Units for their cooperation in the collective efforts required to produce working documents which will be meaningful to the churches of this Association for years to come.

KENNETH B. WILSON, Chair

FINANCE

The Finance Committee met regularly (usually once a month) during the past year. The committee members include pastors and lay people. Committee members bring expertise from their careers as entrepreneurs, accountants, bankers and other finance professionals.

In cooperation with the Coordinating Council and the Congregational Council, we developed the Plan for Missions and Ministries.

In order to achieve a higher rate of return on God's money, we moved most of the Association's designated funds out of low-yielding certificates of deposit into mutual funds managed by the North Carolina Baptist Foundation. These investments are very conservative fiscally, but are expected to generate significantly higher returns than the CD's in local banks. Even with the Stock Market's fluctuations this year, we continue to believe this was a good long-term decision.

The Finance Committee has established policies and procedures to protect your financial investment in God's Kingdom work here in PMBA. We review and discuss the monthly financial reports prepared by the staff. We publish summaries of the monthly financial information, and we invite any concerned PMBA person to see the details during regular office hours, or by appointment.

The Association's financial statements for 1999 were audited by the independent CPA firm of Gray, Callison and Company, PA. Their report was presented to the Finance Committee on October 16, 2000; it did not indicate any problems or suggestions for improvement in our financial procedures. The complete report is available at the Resource Center.

The Finance Committee is available to work with your church to fine-tune its financial matters. The committee includes bankers, accountants, and other professionals. We have no desire to tell your church what to do or how to do it, but we are ready, willing and able to offer insight and suggestions. We also can share information about IRS requirements that may help keep your church and its leaders out of trouble. We are here to serve God by serving you. You can contact us by calling the Resource Center and leaving a message.

MEMBERSHIP

The Membership Committee examined the following churches who were placed under watchcare in 1999:

- Faith Family Center, Lewisville, was received under watchcare at the 1999 Annual Meeting. It has now disbanded and was not received into full fellowship at the 2000 Annual Meeting.
- Grace Baptist Church, Winston-Salem, was received under watchcare at the 1999 Annual Meeting but was not recommended for full fellowship due to lack of evidence of an active organized church. The church will remain under watchcare until further examination can be done.
- Hillsdale Baptist Church, Advance, was approved for full fellowship at the 2000 Annual Meeting.

The following church was recommended to the Association-in-Session on Sunday, July 23, at Calvary Baptist Church for watchcare:

- Summit Community Church, Kernersville. If the church meets the criteria of examination, it will be presented for full fellowship at the 2000 Annual Meeting on Sunday, July 29.

PERSONNEL

The Personnel Committee meets bi-monthly, and has met every other month this year to conduct its regular, and (I might add) its irregular business.

Our six staff members celebrated their anniversaries with the Personnel Committee at regular meetings nearest to their anniversary month. At these meetings, the Committee conducted staff growth reviews of the respective individuals.

Jim Hamblen celebrated 17 years with the Association as our Missionary. Charles Fox, who resigned in February, celebrated three years with us as our Missionary Associate. Karen Taylor, in administration, completed nine years of service in the office and with the churches. Beverly Hamblen has been with us for five years as the general secretary and "catch all." Sandra Hall, has served with us for fourteen years as financial secretary and properties coordinator. And last but least in only one category, the staff member with the shortest number of years, Scott Freese has been with us for one year.

The major task thrust upon the the Personnel Committee this year was the resignation of Charles Fox on February 15. His last day with us, after three years and five months of distinguished service in some very technical matters in the Association and in some of our churches was March 15, 2000. Charles now serves with the North Carolina Baptist Foundation and continues to reside in Winston-Salem where he maintains a regional office.

Upon learning of this change in staff, as chair of the Personnel Committee, I met with the Associational Missionary and other staff members. The Committee began to set priorities for immediate replacement for this position. Our first task was to obtain an interim Missionary Associate to carry on the work with as little interruption as possible. With several individuals under consideration, the Committee was fortunate to find an ideal candidate who had previous experience in the Association, and in association work elsewhere. Not only was this person a desirable candidate, but he was available immediately.

The Committee engaged the services of Rev. Ed Stines effective March 1, with fifteen days of overlap time with Charles Fox in the office. The arrangement has worked out very well for all concerned, and has taken a lot of pressure off the Committee and staff, giving the Committee time to process the call of another permanent staff member to this position.

The chair asked the vice chair, Mark Jackson, to form a small sub-committee with the Associational Missionary between committee meetings. Much good ground has been done by both groups and the future looks bright for the work ahead. We began meetings in February, continued in March, and hosted a public Listening Session at Knollwood Baptist Church on April 25 for Associational leaders and church laity. This was a most productive gathering of about 35 individuals over lunch and two extra hours. Along with input from various individuals prior to this meeting, the Committee began to acquire a core idea of the person we should be looking for.

Our Committee has a total of 22 resumes from candidates for this task. A breakdown of these resumes, showing areas of major service or ministries led by these candidates, is as follows:

13	Church pastors
13	Other church staff positions
3	Convention-related ministries
7	Association-related (directors, associates, etc.)
4	Chaplain-counselor ministries
2	Ethnic/Language ministries
4	Missionary service
1	Female
21	Males
4	Out-of-state (at present)
18	In North Carolina (at present)

The Committee has just mailed out 22 Questionnaires to the candidates, including 12 very central and compelling questions for the candidates to complete by August 15.

After these have been returned, the Committee will begin the final phase of selecting several candidates for interviews and further inquiry with references.

No timetable for completion of our task has been made, but the work will be done as expeditiously as possible, and as thoroughly as the time required.

Thank you for your patience and support in this task which is important to all of us and others, including the candidates themselves, and for the Kingdom growth.

RAY BENFIELD, Chair

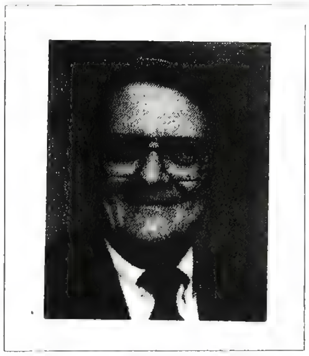
PMBA Staff & Officers Reports

As I see it...



As we reflect on our past achievements it is important to know, understand, and utilize the expectations we had...if we are to make an accurate evaluation of the work and service attempted. Such is the case in considering this past year in the life of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association from my personal perspective.

We should look to the written guidelines that describe and direct the work of the Associational Missionary. In general, I have operated within the "three-dimensional model" of

- Minister
- Leader
- Administrator

Using these as our frame of reference, please allow me to offer the following self-evaluation of the past year of service here in the PMBA.

As minister, the first priority is to work with churches and individuals within the context of their own unique situation. I have been called upon to:

- advise and counsel regarding the search process and "call" of new staff members...
- recommend appropriate processes for improved congregational organization related to incorporation, committee structures, etc...
- refer special concerns to appropriate and available resources...

among many other special requests which help them function better in God's Kingdom Work, as they understand it.

In some cases I have been more successful than I have been in others. Even with my failures to provide total satisfaction I am aware that churches and individual leaders look upon the PMBA as a first line of support in following God's Will where they serve. My sadness comes from the fact that there are some who don't know that we are available to serve them and therefore never contact us for assistance.

As leader, the primary responsibility is to - cast the vision...

- develop the strategies...
- motivate the leaders...

in order to implement our dreams in mission actio and ministry activities.

For almost seventeen years I have struggled to create an organization that was responsive to the needs and expectations of the congregations that make up the PMBA. All of the staff and elected leaders have attempted to follow the historic Baptist principles of local church autonomy and congregational authority.

We have attempted to create an organization that is flexible, dynamic and sensitive to the desires of the congregations. There is no preference given to size of congregation or contributions to missions through the association. We have made many changes over the past to accomplish these objectives...and...there will be other changes yet to come.

The greatest challenge that faces the PMBA at this time, as in other non-profit volunteer organizations, is the need for individuals who will accept the challenge of leadership in positions of service here in the PMBA.

As administrator, the basic function is to be the staff "team-leader" and to work with those administrative services committees which keep the associations' mission and ministries supported and functioning.

It is a challenging task regarding the finances and the many calendar activities in the PMBA. We are totally dependent upon the will of the congregations as directed by those church representatives who lead us.

The employed staff could not be as effective as we intended to be were it not for the volunteers who assist in their day to day affairs at the PMBA Resource Center.

We want to thank the more than sixty volunteers who have given hours of sacrificial service to the missions work through the PMBA.

As most of you know by now, Charles Fox resigned in February of this year in order to accept a position with the Baptist Foundation of North Carolina. We recognized his contributions to the PMBA and wish him well in a larger field of service.

In God's Divine Providence, Ed Stines accepted the responsibilities as Interim Associate while the search for a replacement took place. In more ways than I can mention, Ed has provided an outstanding service and was uniquely prepared for this role from his experience as a pastor of several congregations here in the PMBA. On a very personal note, Ed has offered counsel and advice to me from the depth of his wisdom and common sense. He assumed the responsibilities as my associate and has fulfilled every task beyond all expectations. Were it possible, I would like to keep him on staff as a consultant in areas of his giftedness.

Scott Freese, Minister to Internationals in the Academic Community, has completed his first year in this new mission ministry. As Baptists we have long supported missionaries who minister in countries all over the world. It is only recently that we have sought to work with those thousands of individuals who come to this country to study in our area.

The purpose of MIAC is "the intentional outreach through friendship, hospitality and missions to international students, faculty, administrators and employees who study, teach and serve in our communities' university [and college] campuses and institutions."

As a former foreign missionary to Brazil, Scott has brought a fresh new approach in the PMBA by his work in our ministry with international students. Many of our churches and leaders have benefitted from this new venture.

Karen Taylor, Administrative Assistant for Communications, accomplished much during the difficult time of transition. Of all the staff, she worked under great handicap until we could resolve the difficulties with the office computer network. She expanded her role by dealing with many congregational requests in the areas of her expertise. The Mission Partnerships Response Team, the Community Partnerships Response Team, the Senior Adult Ministries Response Team and other PMBA work units have benefitted from her efforts beyond what were normal expectations.

My personal congratulations to Sandra Hall on her election as president-elect of the NC Baptist Secretaries Association. Others have recognized her gifts that we have appreciated for a long time. Aside from me, Sandra has the longest term of service with the PMBA, and we will recognize her fifteen years of service at the next Association-in-Session. As Financial Secretary and Facilities Coordinator, she serves well in financial support, facilities coordination, keeping the calendar for associational activities, and other vital functions of our association.

As in many sports activities, Beverly Hamblen has served as that utility player that is called upon for many different tasks as the need arises. Her title, Associational Secretary, cannot fully describe or define the contribution she has made to the staff and many other leaders who have needs and requests for assistance from the association. She serves, primarily, as assistant to Karen Taylor in the workflow of the office. As you would well understand, her contributions far exceed the specifics of her job description because of her lengthy experience with the churches and the work units of the PMBA.

In summary, the past year has been one of the more difficult years in my ministry with all the transitions that are taking place within the congregations and throughout the larger Baptist family. The departure of Charles Fox and the ten-month search for his replacement have been draining. However, the future does look bright!

There will be a new staff member in place and the resulting new staff configuration...The new mission and ministry opportunities are a real challenge for all...The renewed interest in and emphasis upon Spiritual Formation, individually and within some congregations, has been one of the most exciting ventures that I have seen and experienced...

May God continue to guide us in these uncertain...yet exciting...days fo the new millennium!

JAMES V. "JIM" HAMBLEN,
Associational Missionary

Reflections of the past year...

I was really surprised in early March 2000 when Jim Hamblen asked me if I would be interested in becoming the Interim Missionary Associate because Charles Fox had submitted his resignation to assume a position with the Baptist Foundation.! But how thankful I am that I have had the opportunity to serve as a part of the staff of the PMBA. I have probably learned more than I have contributed. Being on the inside, I have come to appreciate our family of eighty-nine churches and the wide diversity of ministry represented among these.

Since March, I have been privileged to preach, worship, or teach in 46 of our churches. I have met with numerous other pastors and/or leaders to listen, counsel and fellowship. Many of our churches are healthy and growing. Some are experiencing pain and trying to find themselves in this rapidly changing world. Some are changing and others resist any suggestion of change. Some are in a state of flux and don't seem to know what they want. But we are all family, God's people, working together in God's Kingdom Work. I have tried to be open and available to our pastors and leaders and listen with a pastor/leader's heart and to offer encouragement to those who are hurting and direction to those seeking counsel.

During the year we have assisted Pfafftown Baptist Church as she embarked upon a new ministry in the Shattalon Oaks Mobile Home Park. It's refreshing to see new work started in the right way. The church's task force, along with the able guidance of their missions minded pastor, Craig Bowman, has laid the groundwork for an ongoing ministry among the residents. Your Association will be providing continued support in the year 2001 and beyond if needed.

Another highlight of this year has been working with the Personnel Committee interviewing and seeking God's will for the position vacated by Charles Fox. This committee took your input from last April very seriously as they embarked upon the search. The process was not easy because they had quality applicants for the position. I believe that the Association will be pleased and richly blessed by the Personnel Committee's recommendation. I have never worked with a committee more determined to surface the type candidate you profiled in the listening session.

During the year your Church-Minister Relations Response Team sponsored two workshops to help our churches. Their goal was to equip the pastors and laity in our churches be in a better position to recognize potential conflict situations early and then act instead of react to situations that would hinder the ongoing work of the church. The Matthew 18 principal was emphasized. In addition to the workshops, the Response Team eagerly assisted churches that sought their counsel. All of this was done with love and compassion.

Our Baptist Men's work is probably the strongest and best organized it has ever been in our Association. The leaders have worked diligently to strengthen the work in our churches and responded quickly when disaster struck the eastern part of our state. The disaster trailers have been well equipped and workers trained to respond as needs arise. Because of this, more churches, large and small, have been involved in hands-on mission work than ever before. The list of their work could go on and on.

Working with our Associational Missionary and the fine staff at the associational office has been so rewarding. This Association is blessed immeasurably with such quality people. They know the Association exists to assist churches in building Kingdom churches. It is God's and your Association! The staff will do whatever is necessary to keep it that way. Thank you for letting me be just a small part!

MIAC highlights and successes

With the Steering Committee: This first full year of Ministry to Internationals in the Academic Community (here following referred to as MIAC) has been very special in allowing me the opportunity to work with people whose commitment to ministry among Internationals is invigorating; as well as representing various areas of ministry amidst NC Baptists. Members of the Steering Committee are: Velma Ferrell, BSC; J.C. Bradley, Central Triad Association; Jim Hamblen, Calvin Knight, and Marj Bennett, PMBA, Wanda Dellinger, Green Street Baptist in Highpoint; and Paul Cao, pastor of the Vietnamese Baptist Church in Highpoint. Each person has given me tremendous insight, support and a vision for this ministry, and I am grateful to both God and them for this partnership effort of ministry to internationals in the western Triad.

With the Campuses: This has been a significant first year in being able to introduce myself and our ministry to the Campus leadership on all seven of our targeted campuses in High Point and Winston-Salem. While many of the campuses have been warmly receptive, there are two campuses that cannot give us permission to relate to their International Students through the campus offices. Even with this obstacle, there are persons on the campuses of the NC School of the Arts and Forsyth Tech Community College with whom I can nurture a relationship until the trust is built in order to connect with the students.

Our newest International Fellowship ministry influence has been with Bowman-Gray Medical School & Baptist Hospital internationals and their family members. The student Offices have been very cooperative and open to sharing our ministry events with the students. We have started a monthly International Fellowship at Ardmore Baptist Church, which is leading to the development of an international Sunday school class as well. There is a gigantic need to help spouses and other family members learn English.

At Salem College, we had an end of the school year reception in May, where we were able to meet all four of the newly elected officers of the International Club. This is significant since we have only recently gained influence on this campus. One of their officers joined us in our summer program and has been on at least one International Student Retreat at Ridgecrest in 1999. Along with her giving an influential word of support on behalf of this ministry, she is willing to promote our ministry outreach to the students at High Point University.

Salem College's International Student Club has been very responsive since May 2000 to our International Fellowship ministry, attending in good numbers each event we have offered on Campus and at our State and Regional (Eastern Slope) International Student Conferences. One of the Officers spoke to the whole BSC/NC Fall Convention at Ridgecrest in late September. Our first attempt at adopting a group of students from the same country has been with the Russian students at Salem.

At High Point University, the newly elected President of the International Club is a Christian from Liberia, and has been highly supportive and involved in our International Fellowship ministry, encouraging many of her peers to develop a trust and relationship with us. The Internationals from High Point University made up our largest contingency this past September to Hanging Rock State Park on a first-time Sunday afternoon field trip.

At NC School of the Arts, I am making in-roads through the United Campus Ministries team that has weekly Listening Post outreach on the campus. It is also helpful when our local churches hire the music students to assist in their worship ministries. Some of these have been participating in our MIAC programs (e.g., Thanksgiving Banquet and worship time at Ardmore Baptist Church). Last November we hosted over 125 people (at least 80 were internationals) for the evening.

At Forsyth Tech, we have made several important contacts with the Administration, but have not convinced the International Faculty Advisor that we are offering a meaningful opportunity for the students. Now we have a key Baptist who works through a Winston-Salem community agency who knows this man and is willing to help us bridge this gap of trust! God is providing the people in the right places with great timing. Currently the new International Faculty Advisor is sympathetic to our International Student Fellowship ministry, and has even promoted our events with the students on campus! The International Students at FTCC appreciated the Christmas Care Packages that we prepared for them in early December. We intend to begin a study group on campus this Spring semester of 2001.

At Guilford Tech on Main Street in High Point, we have been able to gain the terrific support of the dean's office, as well as the ESL and Basic Skills program coordinators. This has helped us greatly in beginning a strong relationship to this Campus. For our Welcome Back Cook-out in September, we had almost 100 international students join us for the first time. Our outreach to this campus has been dampened by the dismissal of the main ESL coordinator at the end of the fall semester, but we have still been able to share Christmas Care Packages with the internationals and help several families through the Association's Toy Store program.

At Wake Forest University, which has our highest population of internationals in the area, one of our Physics Major students from China, recently invited Jesus Christ into his life! Guanghui has been attending (along with his wife) our two statewide conferences as well as many other activities, events and Friday Night Bible Study at College Park Baptist Church, of where seeds have been planted and also taken root. Hopefully, more seeds will fall on fertile ground at Wake Forest University and each of the other campuses!

A large turnout for our annual Welcome Picnics has taken place at WFU, with many of our local churches participating. The WFU Internationals also enjoy the Student Conferences at Ridgecrest and Caswell, as well as the summer all-day hiking and picnic at Hanging Rock State Park. We will also offer the "What Christians Believe" group study and the "Book of James" study for the internationals this spring!

At Winston-Salem State University, the International Student Coordinator, Dr. Olasope Oyelaran, has been very supportive and appreciative of our commitment to provide special outreach and fellowship activities for the internationals. During their yearly International Week, we were invited to serve on the Planning Council. I have also been invited to serve on the United Christian Campus Ministry Council of the WSSU, perhaps as a result of the good relationships that has developed with the Campus Chaplain and her office and the Counseling Center Office of WSSU. Student Activities director and the vice-chancellor have also been supportive of our ministry to the Internationals at WSSU! Our largest campus representation for the first Christmas Open House for Internationals at our home was from WSSU, and one of the internationals attended the first Women in Ministry retreat at Camp Mundo Vista, led by Missionary Ann Neil of Wake Forest, North Carolina.

One of my greatest joys in this ministry is being able to be on the campuses with the students, just to informally meet them, have a soft drink or tea together, talk with them about their families and countries back home, and even to counsel and pray with them on occasion. I have found this to be one of the most important areas of my ministry among Internationals, and it shows them that we are willing to take them seriously as guests in our country and on our campuses!

With the Local Churches: Throughout the past year I have had great support from the churches in both Central Triad Baptist Association and the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. I have been able to visit several churches and speak.

Quite a number of our PMBA churches have invited me to share a word or message about MIAC. Without the opportunities to speak to groups of all sizes and interests and bring those most interested together , we would have only a one-way ministry among the internationals. One of the most significant ways that our churches and individuals have been involved with the students is through the Friendship Family Programs, where we match a student or student family unit with family units from our churches. This provides the student(s) with a family away from home and interaction with our Culture, Language and Christian Faith.

With the Associations: This year has rekindled an interest in our local Associations which has sparked a meaningful way of looking at our commission to make disciples of all the nations right here among us! Central Triad Baptist has even taken this to heart by giving it priority at the Associational Quarterly Meeting level, with a direct theme interpretation of The Pentecost Strategy: Sharing Christ with the Nations that have Come to Us! This also gave our Language Missions churches the opportunity to be recognized and celebrated at various levels, which has given significant enthusiasm and endorsement to furthering this important ministry of Baptists to our communities (especially Academic).

With the State: As I have had the opportunity to speak in other regions of NC in favor of this Ministry, it has been a way to share with other Baptists how one model is making a difference among our growing International populations of students, professors, and other non-students. As a member of the Campus Ministry Team of the Missions Growth and Evangelism Department, it has been my privilege to share with churches, associational colleagues, and BSUers from all over the state. One of the best BSU State Committees is the International Students Committee of which the BSU president of Wake Forest University is the chair. This has been a highlight and success story for me as we have the opportunity to shape and influence our BSU Campus Ministries all over North Carolina for reaching out to internationals in friendship, hospitality, faith and love.

Within the Community: It is significant that this ministry touches not only the local campuses and academic communities, but our cities as well. Local community agencies have called to ask about our commitment to internationals on the campuses, and to invite us to partner in outreach to our multi-ethnic communities of High Point and Winston-Salem. Through the Lanterns of Hope Annual Peace Gathering, and Multi-Cultural Family Festival, the

PMBA is recognized as a family of Baptists who are committed to being good neighbors and relational among the diverse cultures and races of people who form our communities. Our international students are more trusting of MIAC when they see how we partner with the campuses and community agencies to build on the relational efforts that our cities are trying to promote. It also demonstrates to the internationals how Americans (and Christians) can work together in the community to build constructive relationships and peace at the basic levels of community living.

The needs of many internationals, especially Hispanic people, to adapt and adjust to our local culture are growing, especially in the area of language skills. Many are taking Basic Skills classes, which include English classes, at our local community colleges.

Within my life: "Take my life, Lord, be glorified, be glorified," is a chorus that sticks with me almost every day. When we came back as a family from Brazil, after eight years of ministry among the university students in two different states, it was difficult for me. This ministry has given me the joy of continuing to make disciples of the nations right here in High Point and Winston-Salem. It has been fulfilling to my Calling from God, and for my desire to minister among the young adult population that we target as Students. It is my heartbeat for missions that I believe is in tune with God's heartbeat to share Christ with the Nations! MIAC is an answer to many peoples' prayers who have that same desire to see our Internationals not return to their countries without having been influenced or introduced to Jesus Christ, whom we serve! This has absolutely been the highlight of my ministry career, and I praise God for making me an instrument within this ministry and mission outreach.

SCOTT FREESE, Minister

PMBA Staff & Officers Reports

"I would like to encourage you to participate in your Association."

As moderator for the PMBA, I witnessed the birth and struggle of new congregations: Faith Family Center, Grace, and Hillsdale. I regret to report that Faith Family Center had to disband during their Watchcare year and Grace Baptist Church is still working on their organizational structure and looking for a permanent facility to conduct their worship services. I rejoice with Hillsdale Baptist Church, birthed by Advance FBC, Ardmore and Calvary along with the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. This church has taken strong roots and has been voted into the Association as a full and active member.

As moderator, my major responsibility was to preside over the Annual Meeting at Calvary Baptist Church on Sunday, July 23. It was an awesome responsibility and privilege. Another part of my duties included presiding over the Congregational Council meetings. I was saddened to realized that many of our churches are not actively involved in the Association and several do not even send representatives to the Congregational Council or messengers to the Annual Meeting. What is exciting, however, is how much is accomplish in missions and ministries with the churches that do choose to become involved.

I would like to encourage you to participate in your Association. What we can never hope to accomplish as a single church, we have an opportunity to do collectively as a body of believers from 89 congregations.

GLENDORA EPPERSON, Moderator

"The past year has provided us with opportunity for growth and challenge."

The past year has provided us with opportunity for growth and challenge. We have experienced the loss of our Missionary Associate but have gained the experience of a strong leader as interim. Ed Stines, known to many throughout the association for his very capable leadership as first a pastor and then as an interim pastor, also brought with him experience as a Director of Missions in the Wilmington area.

Jim Hamblen has certainly forged ahead as if nothing had happen to slow down the work. His leadership during this transition time has proven again how fortunate we are to have someone of his caliber leading this Association.

As vice moderator for the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, I have become involved in the inner workings of the association. Our annual planning retreat at Caraway proved to bring many benefits to the table as we searched for new ways to respond to the needs of the 89 PMBA congregations.

There is an excitement in the air. The Association is strong and ready for th 21st Century. With the new millenium just beginning, we are hopeful for our future. We continue to look for ways in which we, as a collective body of churches, can best utilize our gifts for the work of God's kingdom.

PAUL DEAN, Vice Moderator

(3) The Finance Committee reported that contributions are down over $10,000.

(4) The problems the Associational staff has been experiencing with Pomeroy and Associates, the computer company where we leased the associational computers, may soon be coming to a close. Pomeroy has not been in touch with PMBA since June 1999. We are currently in the process of trying to get out of the remaining lease time. So far, we have incurred approximately $1,000 in legal fees; however, our attorney does not believe that we will have to take this issue to court.

The Properties Committee is researching the best solution in supplying the PMBA Resource Center with equipment and networking solutions.

(5) The Church Minister Relations Team announced a coming event at Ardmore Baptist Church, scheduled for Thursday, March 25, dealing with issues of conflict within the church. The Team's intent is to equip churches with the means to avoid conflict in the future.

2000 Annual Reports to the Association

Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina

"Quality Service Through Quality Relationships" is not just a slogan. It is a foundational statement of philosophy. In our ministry, relationships are everything — relationships with children, with families, with placement agencies, with our own families and churches, and with each other. We are blessed by God in this work because we honor God in relationships.

During the QSTQR emphasis, all BCH staff at every ministry point have made extra efforts to strengthen relationships with the people we encounter. We have incorporated the terms quality, service and relationships into a plan of action. We have reflected our desire for quality relationships in everything we do in order to deliver quality services that change lives. QSTQR, celebrating the mission . . . the millennium . . . the ministry, was BCH's theme from Easter, 1999 through Thanksgiving, 2000.

Through Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina, hundreds of children and families are given new hope for their futures. . .

> Children like Linda and her two younger sisters. Linda feared for their well being. It was her responsibility to care for her sisters. Linda remembers moving to a shelter where she finally felt they were safe; there was enough food for the sisters and warm beds. The three children were later placed at BCH. Now, Linda is in a place where others care for her. Linda has discovered God cares for her, too.
> The McDonalds found the challenge of being a blended family difficult at times. Their son began to exhibit anger toward his parents. He would challenge their authority and began getting in trouble with some neighborhood kids. The situation was getting out of control. Corey's parents called BCH, where they a found a staff willing to embrace their family with hope. Today, Corey has begun to deal with his anger, mistrust and behavior issues. His parents are learning how to better communicate with each other and with Corey.

During the past year, BCH served 1800 children and families through 13 facilities statewide. BCH operates residential campuses in Thomasville, Pembroke, Kinston and Clyde; a maternity home in Asheville; a teen mother/baby home in Lenoir; values change homes for girls in Franklin and Lenoir; therapeutic camping for boys in Cameron; emergency care cottages at the residential campuses and in Waynesville and Asheville; and a model day care center in Thomasville.

In 2000, BCH began a new, innovative ministry caring for developmentally disabled adults and their families. Our Trustees unanimously approved a major undertaking this year by committing more than $3.5 million to replace, repair, construct and make-much needed improvements at every BCH location. Most of the work is complete. You are invited to visit our campuses and other facilities to see first hand the difference you are helping us to make.

The commitment to quality has been a cornerstone of this institution since its beginning. "Quality Service Through Quality Relationships" was a 20-month public demonstration of this cornerstone. The emphasis places top priority on relationships to achieve the highest quality of service possible. Significant growth has been realized during this period. BCH has dedicated new structures at Odum Home, Cameron Boys Camp, Kennedy Home, Broyhill and Mills Home campuses and added new work in Waynesville and Asheville as well as Moody Home, Care House, Noel Group Home. Several significant anniversaries have been observed: the 85th of Kennedy Home in Kinston, the 30th of Baptist Maternity Home in Asheville, the 20th of Cameron Boys Camp, the 40th annual Western Area Conference, and the 115th anniversary of Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina.

To help commemorate BCH's 115th anniversary and to celebrate the impact QSTQR has had on staff and children, approximately 600 children, administrators, childcare workers, social workers and staff were brought together June 28, 2000 from around the state for a day of inspiration, fellowship, food and fun. "The Family Gathering" was held at Mills Home where BCH began in 1885. This is the first time all the Baptist Children's Homes' "family" have been together at the same place and at the same time.

Baptist Children's Homes QSTQR emphasis will culminate at Thanksgiving. We invite you to attend BCH's 30 minute presentation at the 2000 annual meeting of the Baptist State Convention in Winston-Salem on Tuesday, November 14, 2000 at 2:10 pm. We encourage you to be part of our ambitious $1 million Thanksgiving Offering goal. That number may seem enormous, but there is also enormous need. For all the good North Carolina Baptists are doing to help children and families, there is still so much that needs to be done. We are confident our churches will help us meet this important goal!

The support of North Carolina Baptists through the Thanksgiving Offering, Cooperative Program, and individual gifts, memorials, honors, bequests and estate gifts help enable us fulfill our mission statement: "helping hurting children . . . healing broken families."

North Carolina's "largest family" is grateful to North Carolina Baptists for prayers and support. To secure a video or a speaker for your church, or for information about our services, please call (336) 474-1209.

Baptist Retirement Homes:
"A Half-Century of Service"

For almost 50 years, the front porch has been a favorite spot of residents and guests at The Taylor House in Albemarle. This residence is an assisted living community made possible by the gifts of North Carolina Baptists.

In March 2001, the Baptist Retirement Homes of North Carolina will celebrate 50 years of service to Older Adults. It has been a wonderful half-century, and the "Homes" is thankful for the privilege of sharing in the life journeys of thousands of "Aging Saints."

The quality of life the "Homes" has brought to these Older Adults has been its best measure of success as it has helped ensure that residents live out their lives with autonomy, dignity, and comfort. The "Homes'" dream is to make life for North Carolina Older Adults what God intended it to be... "The Best of Times."

The "Homes" corporation now owns and operates four retirement communities across the state: the Brookridge Retirement Community in Winston-Salem, a continuing care community offering independent living, assisted living and nursing care; the Western North Carolina Home in Asheville, a community that offers assisted living and nursing care; and the Hamilton Home in Hamilton and The Taylor House in Albemarle, communities that offer assisted living services. Later this year the "Homes" will begin construction on a new community — The Gardens of Taylor Glen, a continuing care community near Concord.

The generous support the "Homes" has received from North Carolina Baptists has enabled it to make a unique promise to its residents: whatever the future may hold, Baptist Retirement Homes will care for them for the rest of their lives. Keeping this promise means overcoming many challenges. By 2020 North Carolinians past retirement age will make up 20 percent of the population. While medical science has prolonged life, the effects of aging are often intensified and extended over many years. Many Older Adults exhaust their personal resources and look to the "Homes" for significant financial assistance.

Still Baptist Retirement Homes stands ready to make good its promise of ongoing compassionate and quality care.

Whatever the future may hold, Baptist Retirement Homes will care for its residents for the rest of their lives.

Biblical Recorder Associational Report
June, 2000

Since 1833, the Biblical Recorder has served North Carolina Baptists as the official news journal of the Baptist State Convention. Founded by Thomas Meredith, the Biblical Recorder was owned and operated as a private enterprise until 1938, when the paper was purchased by and incorporated as an agency of the Baptist State Convention.

The Biblical Recorder promotes God's kingdom work in accordance with its mission statement: "Our Mission is to further Christ's kingdom among North Carolina Baptists by providing relevant news, insightful opinions and supportive resources in a timely and accessible fashion."

As an agency belonging to all North Carolina Baptists, the Biblical Recorder provides balanced news coverage of Baptist news from throughout the state and reflects opinions representative of the diversity that is typical of our churches. The Recorder also includes periodic features designed to offer ideas, encouragement, and inspiration to readers.

In keeping with current needs, the Biblical Recorder maintains a frequently used site on the World Wide Web. This site (www.biblicalrecorder.org) offers Internet users an opportunity to read much of each paper's content several days before printed versions arrive. This is particularly helpful during convention meetings and at other times when frequent updates are desirable. As time and resources allow, additional features are being added to make the site an even more valuable source of information for North Carolina Baptists.

The Biblical Recorder works in partnership with the Baptist State Convention and receives annual support from Cooperative Program gifts as an agency of the Convention. This support makes it possible to offer the Recorder for just pennies per issue. The Biblical Recorder has not raised subscription rates in five years, but a string of steep postage hikes will almost certainly necessitate modest increases in subscription prices beginning in 2001.
Currently, the annual rates (including tax) are:

- Every Home Plan (20%+ of church families, paid through the church budget) - $7.42
- Club Plan (4 or more persons in a church subscribe together) - $8.48
- Individual Subscription - $10.60

Subscription packets and free sample issues are available. For more information, please contact:

2000

It is with humble gratitude that the Christian Action League of North Carolina serves the Lord Jesus Christ and the churches of this great state as a Beacon of light, guiding referendums and legislation through the murky waters of special-interest groups and educating God's people about the moral problems in our state and nation. Our goal is to encourage and organize the people of God so that our light will be seen brightly throughout our state; and when we speak, it will be in one accord and will resound loudly.

A. Christian Values

a. The Christian Action League again co-sponsored the Fifth Annual Christian Heritage Week of North Carolina held in March. It was our pleasure to provide awards for excellence to those high school students who won the essay contest on America's Christian background.
b. CAL has continued to promote and distribute copies of the Ten Commandments throughout North Carolina. To date, over 15,000 copies have been mailed.
c. Promoted awareness of worldwide persecution of Christians (particularly in Sudan) through email alerts and radio.
d. Participated with the American Family Association in distributing copies of our national motto posters "In God We Trust".
e. Joined with Family Life Ministries in promoting and distributing copies of the Marriage Covenant Certificates.
f. Participated in the National Day of Prayer.
g. Set up CAL exhibit at Baptist State Convention and the East and West Districts of the Wesleyan Church conferences.
h. Worked in the General Assembly to stop a bill that would allow physicians to take immediate custody of a child that they felt had been abused. The bill died in committee.

B. Radio

"Christians In Action", Station WAGO (88.7 FM) Snow Hill, started Monday, January 3, 2000. This broadcast consists of a five-minute commentary on issues that affect our lives today. We will begin airing this program on Aug. 7 on New Bern (WAAE, 91.9 FM). Our projection is to ultimately reach the whole state.

C. Gambling

a. Video Poker Machines - The Christian Action League worked round the clock to get video poker banned in this state. We failed getting the ban but were successful in getting SB 1542 to strengthen the law and restrict the operation and expansion of video gambling in the state. We will work vehemently next session in pushing for a ban.
b. Joined Christian Coalition in survey on how Gubernatorial candidates stood on lottery/released results in newsletter.
c. Next session the Christian Action League will be on the front line in the Legislature fighting a state-sponsored lottery.

D. Abortion

a. CAL has purchased the rights through donations of a surgical procedure on a 21-week old fetus that proves that partial-birth abortion is murder. We want to see this picture used extensively in making our case for the pro-life agenda.
b. CAL participated in the Right to Life Rally held in Raleigh.

E. Alcohol

a. Participated in four LBD campaigns since January 11, 2000, and there are three scheduled for a September referendum. We help with their organizational meetings, rallies and providing educational materials.
b. Worked in the General Assembly for passage of HB 1499-Interlock/Open Container law. This bill bans open alcohol containers in the passenger area of a motor vehicle on the highway or highway right-of-way. The bill was ratified on July 13.

E. Pornography

Have produced and aired several radio programs to inform the public of the internet pornography crisis. Educate communities on how they can rid their neighborhoods of adult establishments.

G. Homosexuality

CAL monitors and informs the Christian community of the current homosexual agenda through our email alert.

The Christian Action League of North Carolina produces a quarterly newsletter The Beacon that has a distribution of over 21,000. We also send out an email alert every Friday to over 150 members to keep them abreast of current moral, ethical and political issues that affect our state and nation. All services of the Christian Action League are provided at no charge. We depend on God's people to provide for His work.

THE NORTH CAROLINA BAPTIST FOUNDATION, INC.
2000 ANNUAL REPORT

The mission of the North Carolina Baptist Foundation since its inception in 1920 has been to assist the Convention and its institutions and agencies in increasing an awareness among North Carolina Baptists of Christian estate stewardship principles as a means of financially undergirding churches, institutions and mission endeavors on a permanent basis. The uniqueness of the ministries and services provided by the institutions and General Board staff merits increased financial support. The Foundation accomplishes these objectives by offering assistance in estate planning counsel, Will preparation, planned giving, charitable remainder trusts, endowment funds and church fund management.

During 2000, the Foundation provided assistance to individuals in establishing 30 endowment funds and 18 charitable remainder trusts totaling $1.9 million and received $3.6 million in contributions to existing endowments all of which will ultimately benefit countless Baptist causes on a permanent basis. Programs were provided for 164 churches and associations during the year to promote Make Your Will Month, Christian estate stewardship, and church fund management. Over $4.6 million from churches and institutions came under management to enhance numerous ministries including scholarships, building funds, cemetery funds, benevolence funds, general operating funds and other various mission causes. With a total of $10.1 million in contributions, it was the best year ever eclipsing the previous high of $9.3 million recorded in 1999.

The Foundation employs professional money managers to invest these funds according to an investment policy adopted by its Board. Four investment pools are offered: a growth fund, a balanced fund, an income fund and a fixed income fund. The Foundation uses the services of Salomon Smith Barney to help select top money managers and evaluate performance. As of December 31, 2000, the Foundation held $97.4 million under management. This is an increase of more than $4.1 million over 1999.

The Foundation also experienced a record year in distributions in 2000. The previous high in distributions was 1999, with $5.3 million distributed to charity and individuals. In the year 2000, our distribution totaled 9.1 million dollars, with charity receiving $6.7 million and individuals, through trusts, receiving $2.4 million. During the 81-year history of The North Carolina Baptist Foundation, Inc., $18.5 million has been distributed to individuals and $32.4 million to Baptist churches, institutions and mission causes for a grand historical total of $47.1 million.

2000 Report to the Associations

"Touching Lives With Hope"

HOSPITAL CONTINUES THE MISSION

In May of 2000 The North Carolina Baptist Hospitals, Inc. celebrated 77 years of regional, national, and international service. During these years the hospital has been faithful to the initial vision of the North Carolina Baptist State Convention. When the hospital opened the convention stated the reason for doing so was: to extend the healing ministry which was demonstrated by Jesus Christ. Many challenges have been faced through these years, but the commitment to compassionately strive for innovative excellence has remained the same.

BAPTIST BENEVOLENT CARE FUND

Baptist churches from all across North Carolina joined us in mutual mission through the Mother's Day Offering. This annual ingathering of love was approved by the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina in 1924. In 1999 the MDO amounted to $531,452. These funds were used exclusively to help patients who had minimal or no health care insurance and had no other financial means to pay their hospital bills. From the offering this past year, well over $200,000 was used to assist members of our Baptist churches in North Carolina.

SCHOOL OF PASTORAL CARE

During the year the Department of Chaplaincy and Pastoral Education provided worship services in Davis Chapel on Monday, Wednesday, Friday and Sunday as well as services in the J. Paul Sticht Center. Chaplain supervisors, residents and interns made more than 50,000 ministry contacts last year. The Department's fully accredited Clinical Pastoral Education program graduated 65 students.

The Department of Pastoral Counseling, CareNet, Inc., continues to develop its ministries. There are now 16 Christian counseling centers located across the state. The newest center is now open in Greenville and is the staging ground for serving northeast North Carolina. During the year these professionally staffed centers provided 27,293 hours of Christian counseling, making CareNet the largest pastoral counseling system in the United States.

The Center for Congregational Health, Inc. continues to develop its mission of helping congregations become healthier communities of faith. Programs and assistance offered to churches include Intentional Interim Ministry, strategic planning, staff and team development, and conflict management. Resources for ministers include: Young Leaders Program, Leadership Development Group, Interim Ministry Training, and Intentional Interim Ministry training. The Center has served an average of 21 North Carolina Baptist congregations a month during the past year.

ADDITIONAL POINTS OF EMPHASIS AND PROGRESS

New Dental Program For Indigent Children - Baptist Hospital has become a major participant in a community partnership to provide dental care for indigent children. NCBH opened a dental clinic on May 8, 2000, where three dentists are treating hundreds of children who previously had little or no access to dental services. Children who had known dental pain as a way of life, or who never had routine services because their parents could not afford it, are now being treated.

Physician Excellence - In 1999, 600 physicians in North Carolina were listed among "The Best Doctors in America"; 95 are WFUBMC physicians.

Nursing Excellence - Baptist Hospital was one of the first hospitals in the nation to receive Magnet Recognition for Excellence in Nursing, demonstrating exemplary nursing leadership and quality patient care from the American Nurses Credentialing Center, the nation's leading nursing credentialing organization.

Ranked Among The Nation's Best - North Carolina Baptist Hospitals, Inc., continues to be ranked among America's best hospitals in ten of 16 specialties, according to rankings published in the July, 2000 issue of U.S. News & World Report. This ranking reflects the reputation of specialists at NCBH as seen by their peers across the nation.

Newest Treatment For Epilepsy - Wake Forest University Baptist Medical Center offers a new treatment for epilepsy - a "pacemaker for the brain" that can help control seizures in patients who are not helped by medication and are ineligible for surgery.

A CLOSING WORD FROM THE PRESIDENT

From its dedication on May 28, 1923 to the present, North Carolina Baptist Hospital has been committed to our mission of providing the highest quality health care to our patients and their families in a compassionate, caring manner. This report reflects how our mission and values of excellence, compassion, innovation, and integrity are lived out every day. As a Medical Center we continue to be one of the leading research centers in the United States. We provide a wide array of comprehensive health care, across the spectrum of life, to people with the most severe medical conditions. Most importantly, this care is provided one person at a time in a way that reflects the Spirit of Christ, whose healing ministry forms our very foundation.

Respectfully submitted,

President
The North Carolina Baptist Hospitals, Incorporated

"The Wingate School is much concerned for the spiritual development of every student. We believe this to be the goal toward which all education should be directed. No matter what intellectual endowment a student may possess, nor how well trained he may be, unless he has spiritual training, he does not add any permanent asset to the world's good."
-- Wingate Catalog 1923

The millennial celebration brought renewed energy to Wingate University, which has been providing quality education within a spiritual context for over 100 years to North Carolina Baptist children. With a growing student body, considerable capital expansion on campus and the ever-changing dynamics of classroom curriculum, Wingate is at the forefront of progress. Its mission, however, remains the same, and its commitment to the Christian values set forth by its Baptist founders in 1896 has never been more evident.

One of the most active student organizations on campus, the Christian Student Union, involves students in dynamic discussions, youth ministry, mission work and community outreach. Attendance at the Thursday evening meetings this year averaged 85 students. Under the direction of Campus Minister Rev. Paul Baxley, CSU made a great impact on campus by hosting weekly Bible study groups, leading youth retreats and lock-ins through its revival teams ministry, and sponsoring mission trips throughout the year.

More students than ever before participated in mission trips this year. Nearly 40 students spent their Spring Break in Brunswick County, N.C., helping rebuild that community after Hurricane Floyd. In addition to disaster recovery work, the students led nightly worship services and ministries for children in partnership with Calvary Baptist Church in Shallotte and the Baptist Men's Disaster Relief Team of Brunswick County.

The Wingate campus community was enriched this year through a program of spiritual events which included lectures from prominent Christian leaders on significant academic, ethical and religious topics. Guest speakers this year included Dr. Michael Beaty, professor of philosophy at Baylor University and director of the Baylor Institute for Faith and Learning, Wingate: A Christian University; Dr. Ron Sider, founder and president of Evangelicals for Social Action, From Affluence to Generosity; David Beckman, president of Bread for the World, Ending Hunger in God's World; Bart Campolo, president of Mission Year, Kingdomworks: Letting God's Will Be Done on Earth; C.F. McDowell III ('85 alumnus), vice president of special ministries for the Baptist Children's Home of North Carolina, The Right Place; and Michael Cummings, president of Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, A Life Worth the Effort. Other significant events included Wingate's annual Gospel Music Festival, Black History Month Service, and Mahalia, a gospel musical about the life of Mahalia Jackson.

Wingate's fall Interpretation of Scripture Conference, which brings pastors and lay people from North and South Carolina together to examine God's word, focused this year on I Thessalonians. The conference was led by Dr. James Efird of Duke Divinity School and Dr. Richard Kremer of St. John's Baptist Church. In the spring, Rev. Emil D.E. Sam-Peale, executive director of the Baptist Convention of Liberia, led the Spring Missions Conference on the Wingate campus.

Service to God and neighbor is fundamental to a Wingate education. Students continued to be energized about outreach and involved in meaningful activities. Wingate Works and the University and Community Assistance Network (UCAN) had students volunteering in their local community throughout the year. Wingate athletes were actively involved in mentoring and tutoring Wingate Elementary school children through the Bulldog Buddies program. And Bulldogs Reaching Out had student-athletes talking with youth about the importance of education and hosting special sports clinics.

Wingate facilities, including the newly-constructed George A. Batte Jr. Fine Arts Center, were used extensively by Baptist organizations throughout the state. In Union County and surrounding areas, Wingate's cultural assets were a source of education and entertainment for both adults and children. An estimated 30,000, including many Baptist groups, attended these events on the University campus.

Also of significance this year was Rev. Keithen Tucker's work to enhance relationships between Wingate and Baptist churches across the state. As director of church relations, he attended more than 20 association meetings and met individually with scores of pastors and ministers to share the good news of the University and to confirm Wingate's commitment to serving the needs of Baptist youth across the state.

116th Annual Meeting
Sunday, July 29, 2001
Knollwood Baptist Church, Winston-Salem, NC
THEME: "In All Our Ways We Acknowledge Him"

Pre-Session music was presented by Susan Orgain, organist for Knollwood Baptist Church.

At 3:00 p.m. Moderator Paul Dean called the meeting to order. Rev. Dean opened the meeting by stating that the Annual Meeting has taken on a new term, "Kingdom Builders." He said that the Association of 89 congregations have come together to celebrate victory. The victory is to celebrate and worship God, our Father, Jesus, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. He convened the meeting by saying, "May God bless our work here today!"

Jeff Parker, association music director and minister of music at College Park, led the congregation in a medley of hymns.

The Players of the Way, a drama team of the Creative Ministries Team of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, presented an interpretive movement around the theme, "In All Our Ways We Acknowledge Him."

Jeff Parker and Cecil Cave sang a duet before Bobby Stewart, vice-moderator elect, read the scriptures taken from Proverbs 3:5 and 6.

At the close of the scripture reading the congregation was led in the song, "Trust In the Lord."

Dr. Chris Chapman, pastor of Knollwood, gave the theme interpretation. Dr. Chapman welcomed everyone, stating that Knollwood had been a part of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association since 1957. He said Knollwood is a different kind of Baptist Church. Bill Leonard, president of the Wake Forest Divinity School, has termed Knollwood as a "peculiar" type of people. Dr. Chapman stated that with this statement in mind, he is grateful that the Association continues to respond to the autonomy of the Baptist church.

There are many things we contribute to God that ultimately brings little honor to God. For God is the one who keeps our paths straight. Having lived faithfully in the arena of life we are simply called to acknowledge God in all our ways. General acknowledgement of God is an outward expression of trust. We place our trust in God. We seek God's guidance.....realizing we need the counsel of the One whose "thoughts are not our thoughts nor ways our ways."...Even if we want to acknowledge God and seek His guidance, there is no way to adequately acknowledge Him in all our ways.

Sister Dennis, of the Aids Care Service, said "In my times of trouble, I have come to the place of not my will but Thine be done. Yet I have not come to the place where I can say I always like it."

We don't have to argue concerning what is the will of God.. The question is, "Can we follow His will?" Agreement is not the issue. We live in a culture myth where we can compartmentalize our life. The matters of faith are constricted to how we act in the church. Our calling is to honor God in all our ways. It is often difficult to admit just how much faith shapes our lives.

Author David White states that the work place is fertile ground for the soul. A few topics that he explores suggest that we pay close attention to the places where we spend so much of our time ... In these places we should be acknowledging God ...

Dr. Chapman concluded his theme interpretation with a story about a man out riding around the countryside. He spotted a bumper sticker that said, "Honk if you love Jesus." Reading the bumper sticker, the man honked ... nearly causing an accident. The result? A not-so-nice reaction from the driver of the vehicle with the bumper sticker. The trouble with Christians is that we live with bumper sticker faith ... If we are truly going to make a difference in this world as Christians ... if we are truly going to impact the world for Christ ... then doesn't it really matter how we live? ... It is in life's experiences that we, as Christians, acknowledge God in all our ways.

At the conclusion of Dr. Chapman's remarks, the congregation was led in the hymn, "We Are Called to be God's People."

Scott Freese, director of the International Campus Ministries of the Triad, honored retired, furloughing and volunteer missionaries. He recognized them for their sacrifices and contribution to the Kingdom work. Rev. Freese offered a special prayer for the volunteers who served so faithfully over the year.

Steve Kiser, Brotherhood Team leader, reported in the recent disaster in West Virginia due to flooding. Over 3,000 homes were flooded. Baptist men of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association have helped 300 people, gutting and cleaning homes. It is a tremendous mission field right at our back door. West Virginia needs our prayers as well as our help. Normally, the state of West Virginia accumulates 52 inches of snow each year. Therefore, the homes damaged by flooding need to be repaired within the next few months before winter sets in.

J.D. Bottoms introduced a new ministry, Earth Angel, sponsored by Baptist men is Earth Angel, an offshoot of the Aviation Ministry. The Aviation Ministry consists of pilots who bring in people in need of medical attention from remote areas. Earth Angel then transports these people to and from the hospital.

Nolan Lawson, a member of the Brotherhood Team, discussed the Stokes County Missions Fellowship, a renewed ministry. This ministry gives opportunity for men and women to share the gospel with others through hands-on community projects. He reported an outpouring of people helping with community projects, reaching out to people who are hurting. Based upon the response of Baptist men and women, this ministry represents the willingness of churches in Stokes County to become involved in mission opportunities.

Jack Hutchins, leader of the Missions Partnerships Team, brought a report from their team regarding the mission partnerships among PMBA churches. His prayer ... his hope is that none of us are looking to heaven for Jesus' return. Instead, we should be going out and sharing Christ's love with all people ... reaching out to our communities, our state ... our country ... the world.

Sixty-three churches responded to the Mission Blitzes this summer. The Missions Partnerships Team planned three Saturdays for the Mission Blitzes. The response of churches working together in local mission and ministry opportunities was overwhelming. The Pilot Mountain Baptist Association is very proud of our churches. We are a praying Association ... we are a giving Association ... we are a going Association. PMBA would like to recognize all the churches that participated in the Mission Blitzes, in local, state, national and international mission opportunities. Mr. Hutchins asked all the churches to stand who had participated in some type of mission outreach. Before long, the entire congregation stood. He concluded by stating that we are indeed a "peculiar" type of people ... a Jesus loving, peculiar type of people!

Peggy Hall, a member of Pfafftown Baptist Church, brought a report from Pfafftown regarding their new outreach ministry to Shattalon Oaks Mobile Home Park. Last year their church voted to begin this new ministry. They conducted a Backyard Bible Club, partnered in a prayer walk, and helped several residents with financial needs and transportation. Just a few months ago, Pfafftown began negotiating with the owners of the mobile home park for the use of a house located in the park. The owner has agreed to allow Pfafftown to submit volunteer labor and help with the cost of renovating the house in lieu of rent. The house will be used to house the ministry of Pfafftown Baptist Church with the people of Shattalon Mobile Home Park.

Mrs. Hall reported that Ed Stines and Dale Harlan have met with Pfafftown Baptist Church and encouraged and supported them every step of the way. You can understand why Pfafftown Baptist Church supports the Jim Hamblen Local Missions and Ministries Offering. This enables churches to continue with the work of God's kingdom. Ed Stines, member of College Park and former interim Missionary Associate for the PMBA, led in a special prayer for the Jim Hamblen Local Missions and Ministries Offering.

Bradford Hale and Casey Norman, two young handbell students of Knollwood, accompanied Susan Orgain, organist, in "There Is a Balm in Gilead."

Luther Osment, chaplain for the Brookridge Baptist Retirement Home, presented the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association with a commemorative copy of the history of Brookridge Retirement Homes. He noted the contribution and endorsement of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association for the retirement home. The published history recognizes the fact that PMBA birth Brookridge Retirement Homes, Inc.

Beverly Landreth, member of Ardmore and member of the Ordination Advisory Team, brought words of remembrance for those who passed away during the last year. She quoted Robert Elsberg, "The lives of the Saints should be taken with all seriousness because they have proved through their lives that we can make a difference."

We know we cannot begin to remember all who have left us. As a symbol of all those who have gone before us this past year, let us remember Miriam Mitchell, who, along with her husband, Dr. Carlton Mitchell, has served our Lord so faithfully. Beverly Landreth stated, "Miriam Mitchell was a gentle Christian ... a sweet and loving person ... She taught us the real meaning of the word, "ministry." Mrs. Mitchell had a life long love for the WMU work in every church where she served. The testimony of her life and work lives on in the legacy she left us ... the choirs she began ... the WMU teams she organized ... the quiet steady way of someone we could count on."

Jim Hamblen, associational missionary, recognized the newest staff members of our PMBA congregations. He welcomed them and expressed his desire for them to look for ways where they can serve together with other churches.

Charles Martin, Discipleship Development Team, reported his excitement in seeing how God will use these new members. As we consider leaders in our association and our churches, our job is to equip those we bring ... The Lord Jesus challenged his disciples ... Just as the Son of Man came to serve and not be served. Oswald Chambers wrote about true leadership ... "A true leader aims to put more into life than he takes out."

The Leadership Development Team's main interest is to help our churches identify, equip, and train spiritual believers for the work of God's Kingdom. "There were times in my own life," said Mr. Martin, "when I was elected to a position but was not the mature spiritual leader that I professed to be. The challenge for every church is to provide the type of training, etc., that is needed to equip spiritual leaders in our churches. He concluded with a quote from Jesus on Leadership, "True followers of Jesus come to serve not to be served."

Mazie Bumgarner, chair of the PMBA Personnel Committee, recognized Sandra Hall, who has served the PMBA faithfully as Financial Secretary for 15 years. She stated that the Associational leaders appreciate Sandra's hard work and faithfulness. As an expression of their gratitude, Sandra Hall was presented with a monetary gift, commemorating her 15 years of service at the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association.

Mrs. Bumgarner commended the Personnel Committee for their dedication toward the staffing needs of the Association. Members of the Personnel Committee who have served so faithfully were: Ray Benfield, Eddie Moffitt, Helen Johnson, Billy Riggs, Ruth Lowe, and Bobby Stewart. New members who have since been added are Maurice Briggs, Shirley Fennel, and Bill Ireland.

Mrs. Bumgarner stated that we owe Ed Stines, interim missionary associate, a debt of gratitude for his work during the entire search process. He went way beyond the call of duty to partner with Jim Hamblen in meeting the needs of the Association and helping the Personnel Committee with the search process.

Mazie Bumgarner recognized Steve Kiser, who serves as a part-time ministry assistant in charge of records. Steve has worked for the association for a short time but has served for several years as a PMBA Brotherhood leader.

Mazie presented Dale Harlan to the Association-in-Session as the newest member of the PMBA staff. Dale Harlan came with both feet running, according to Mazie. The Personnel Committee knew of his past accomplishments; however, he has surpassed all our expectations.

Dale Harlan thanked those present for the warm reception that he and his wife, Carol, have received from the churches. Dale stated that he came from a church where he served as pastor for 10 years... He said he comes with some understanding... knowing the heart of pastors in general.

He asked everyone to join with him in building God's Kingdom. He stated there are over 61,000 Hispanics that have moved into our communities. He has a burden for this new people group to our area. He also has a burden to reach out and help Stokes County churches as well as the inner city churches in Forsyth County. Rev. Harlan concluded by stating that he was very glad indeed to be a part of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association

David Coburn gave the Financial Report for last year. He stated that he is very confident that Travis Rhodes will do an excellent job as the new treasurer and chair of the Finance Committee. Rev. Coburn thanked the churches for their continued support and involvement in the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association He stated that what we are about is ministry. There is still a lot of ministry for us to do. He promised the churches that the Association would be wise stewards of all that God has entrusted into their care. He promised that the Finance Committee would not allow expenditures to exceed monies on hand.

Rev. Coburn encouraged the churches to give to the local Jim Hamblen Local Missions and Ministries Offering. He stated that not one penny of that offering goes to the administrative area of the Association. The offerings enable the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association to partner with their churches in new ministry opportunities that might not otherwise get funded.

Don Harvey, chair of the Coordinating Council and vice moderator of the association, gave words of encouragement for the work of the PMBA in God's kingdom. He said that he was excited about being Baptist in these days. Many people are fearful due to the changes that are taking place... different cultures... less time... more demands upon us individually, but real excitement about all that is taking place within our congregations.

Rev. Harvey stated that leadership is not about controlling change but it is about surfacing change ... Rough waters are ahead for our churches... We want to create an Association that responds to the growing needs of our churches. The leaders of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association are fine tuning the organizational structure... The Coordinating Council has reorganized... Two major leadership groups now work hand in hand: Leadership Development Teams, which include such work units at Congregational Development, Pastoral Ministries and Church-Minister Relations. The Missions Development Teams include such work units as Creative Ministries Team, Brotherhood, WMU and Missions Partnerships.

There is a lot of dreaming going on at the PMBA Resource Center. PMBA leaders are looking for more ways to network churches with churches... There is a dream to finish off the third floor as a research facility with new and innovative ways for pastor and church leaders to explore new resources, etc. We are looking at a new era for mission and ministry opportunities for the 89 congregations that make of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association.

Moderator Paul Dean made the recommendation to extend the Annual Meeting by fifteen minutes. The recommendation was approved by consensus.

Nathan Parrish, chair of the Constitution Committee, presented the changes to the Constitution and Bylaws. He stated that adequate notification for these changes was met last year at the Annual meeting and also at the Congregational Council meeting of January 4, 2002. He thanked Jim Hamblen for his time and the Constitution Committee for its diligent work and time. He stated that the proposed document accurately reflects the changes as proposed and thanked Sandra Hall for her diligence in preparing the copies of the revised Constitution and Bylaws.

On behalf of the Constitution and Bylaws Committee, Nathan Parrish made the recommendation to accept the proposed changes as presented. The motion carried.

Wilson Harmon, chair of the Membership Committee, welcomed The Summit Community Church as the newest member of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. He reported that his committee has worked with this new church and they have met the criteria for membership. The Summit Community is like every Baptist church he knows, "They are a peculiar church!" This new work targets people not usually in church. This new work is sponsored by Kernersville/FBC, the PMBA, and the BSC.

On behalf of the Membership Committee, Wilson Harmon recommended that The Summit Community Church be accepted into full membership of the Association. The motion carried and the congregation was introduced to Pastor Joel Settle, and members, Steve and Becky Ware. Pastor Settle expressed their excitement and appreciation for the support of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association.

Mary Ella Barefoot, chair of the Enlistment Committee, thanked the Enlistment Committee as well as the work unit leaders for their hard work in filling the vacant positions. She made the motion to approve the leaders as submitted on the 2001-2002 Leadership List. The motion carried.

Jim Hamblen concluded the meeting with installation of the new officers: Paul Dean, past moderator; Don Harvey, moderator; Bobby Stewart, vice moderator; David Coburn vice-moderator elect; Karen Taylor, clerk; John Woodard, historian; Travis Rhodes, treasurer; and Ben Thomason, assistant treasurer.

Having encouraged everyone to attend the meal in the fellowship hall that immediately followed the Annual Meeting, Moderator Don Harvey closed in prayer. The meeting adjourned at 5:20 p.m.

Associational Emphasis Week

July 22 July 29, 2000

Our theme for this year's Annual Meeting is "In All Our Ways We Acknowledge Him." This year we have asked you to reflect upon the many needs that were met through mission work within your church and in cooperation with other churches in the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association.

As the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association seeks to understand the needs and concerns of our 89 congregations, we hope you will take time to let us know more specific ways in which we might minister to your congregation.

The Jim Hamblen Local Missions and Ministries Offering was established several years ago to build an Endowment Fund whereby, we, as an Association of mission-minded congregations, might have the means to fulfill mission and ministry opportunities that come our way after the year's budget has already been set. Each year as the Mission Response Teams prayerfully consider budget needs, some opportunities for mission work have to be deferred until another year. Many times, as opportunities to minister and partner with our churches in new mission work come our way, we find we do not have sufficient funds to encourage and assist our congregations in fulfilling their visions.

By making the Jim Hamblen Local Missions and Ministries Offering a priority for your congregation, we, as an association, can realize greater efforts to reach a lost and dying world for Jesus Christ. The majority of PMBA congregations systematically contribute to the Association, making it possible for us to meet the yearly budget needs. We want to encourage you to continue to be faithful in your designated giving to the Association. However, we also want to encourage you to stretch beyond your regular contributions and give to the Jim Hamblen Local Missions and Ministries Offering in order that the Endowment Fund might continue to grow and our Association can continue to make mission and ministry goals a reality.

Individual s can contribute to the Jim Hamblen Local Missions and Ministries Offering by sending the contribution to the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association and designating it for the Local Missions and Ministries Offering. Together, we can make a difference for God's Kingdom.

MISSIONS RESPONSE TEAMS

Baptist men and women came together this year as never before! Families upon families of people were wiped out by the floods that ravaged a large portion of the eastern section of North Carolina. Hardest hit were senior adults in most of these areas. Homes were literally wiped away and shelters had to be temporarily constructed to house and feed the homeless and the hundreds of Baptist men and women who responded to their call for help.

Hurricane Floyd gave us an opportunity to make the weak strong, and in doing so, we became great. Disaster Relief and Recovery work has become a pivotal ministry in the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. Teams of men and women have given of their time faithfully to help our brothers and sisters in the eastern part of our state. The Brotherhood Team has worked along side of WMU and Missions Partnership to ensure the best assistance to the many churches that look to us for opportunities and resources for ministry.

September 16, several Baptist men and women attended a special event honoring the flood relief volunteer workers who helped restore the Chinquapin community (and especially Shiloh Baptist Church) back to normalcy. At that celebration, I heard numerous homeowners testify to what the sacrifice of Baptist men and women across the state of North Carolina meant to them. Each first gave thanks to God, to their teams, and to Dan Sellars, pastor of Shiloh Baptist Church and community coordinator for the disaster relief efforts. To date, 67 churches in this Association have reached out in some way to the many victims of Hurricane Floyd. Even today, some new churches have gotten on board to help with this relief effort.

Several members of the PMBA Baptist Men's Mission Response Team—Bill Martin, J.D. Bottoms, Terry Griffin and I, along with Southside's Building Committee Chair, Bob Dillon, met at Southside to repair and re-roof Southside's picnic shelter. It had been damaged by vagrants and needed repairs. PMBA Baptist Men had entered into a partnership with Southside to assist this historic church in work they could no longer do because they are an aging congregation, predominantly female.

In July, I was one of 20 people who met in the fellowship hall of South Fork Baptist Church for the unveiling of a new ministry, Aviation Missions. J.D. Bottoms and Jeff Miller, from our association, shared their vision for an active aviation ministry. To make aviation missions a reality, we need pilots to assist in the transport of ambulatory patients. We need volunteer drivers to make Earth Angel a reality by driving patients from the airport to the hospital. Churches can contribute to a Fuel Fund to undergird the expenses of these two ministries. There is also a computer program that tracks flights and can update ground volunteers (Earth Angel) as to the status of a given flight.

Two other ministries that began during this Associational year were the Campground Ministry at Hanging Rock and the Stokes County Baptist Men's Fellowship. The PMBA hooked up with Hanging Rock Camp Ground officials for a summer of ministry. The PMBA was responsible for providing campground worship for a total of 12 Sundays. Church groups and individuals were asked to sign up for one of these Sundays. In reality, it was a great summer for this ministry and we look forward to expanding our outreach next summer.

The Stokes County Baptist Men's Fellowship was created to provide ministry opportunities and good Christian fellowship for our men that live in the northern part of Stokes County. The first meeting was successful, and the group is looking for more opportunities to worship, fellowship and partner in mission and ministry opportunities.

As you can determine by reading about all that has been going on through the Brotherhood Ministry Team, we are primed and ready for service. Baptist men and women are joining together as opportunities unfold to lend a hand to our neighbors. If your church does not have a Baptist Men or Baptist Women's Ministry, I hope you will give us the opportunity of helping you to connect in this vital ministry.

STEVE KISER, Team Leader

CHURCH-MINISTER RELATIONS

The Church-Minister Relations Team continues to reach out to PMBA congregations in conflict. The Team met with three of our congregations and helped them resolve issues and begin to heal from past issues.

Dr. John Savage led a seminar September 23, 2000, on Role Renegotiation. John Salvage, a world-renowned Conflict Resolution Consultant and author, lecturer and trainer, conducted the seminar at the PMBA Resource Center. He is the founder and president of Lead Consultants, Inc. The mission of Lead Consultants is to help individuals, churches and organizations achieve excellence and good health in relationships. The objective of this seminar was to help churches and individuals deal with conflict issues in a healthy manner before it becomes a problem.

The Church-Minister Relations Team continues to look for ways to help our churches on the road to good health. We are constantly looking for ways in which we can assist our churches in areas that produce strong congregational health. If your church needs assistance with a conflict or potential conflict, please contact a member of the Church-Minister Relations Team. We serve our congregations with the highest degree of confidentiality and Christian integrity.

GARY McCOLLOUGH, Team Leader

COMMUNITY PARTNERSHIPS

Our Community Partnerships Response Team is going through a transitional time. With the loss of team members, it was not feasible to hold the annual Spring Celebration for the Developmentally Disadvantaged. Hopefully, we will be back on board next year with a much more vital program.

The Baptist Toy Store is spreading its wings! New avenues of ministry are opening up for us as we seek new and better ways to minister to the people who apply for assistance at Christmas time.

The Community Partnerships Team works closely with the Salvation Army and the Christmas Clearing House in order to serve the most people possible, with almost no duplication. By sharing our list of applicants with other non-profit agencies, we can do a better job of reaching those with the greatest needs.

This year, the Toy Store was opened longer. We extended the hours to better accommodate our working poor. Special consideration was given to those who work but still cannot make enough to provide for their children at Christmas time. Approximately 590 children from 231 families were provided with new toys from our churches. In addition to providing toys, we were able to meet some of the more pressing financial needs (utilities, food, and clothing) for some of our more needy families. Eleven churches "adopted" a family this year in order to help them with their basic needs.

Through the Toy Store, our churches provided Bibles for each family, gospel tracts, Christian counseling, and referrals to churches within our communities.

More changes are coming to Community Partnerships as we meet together to determine more effective ways of challenging our churches to reach out to the community.

JIM NELSON, Team Leader

CREATIVE MINISTRIES

The Creative Ministries Response Team presented two drama events at local PMBA churches this year.

A Mountain Christmas Memory, a story about a poor coal mining family in Kentucky at the turn of the century and who discovers the source of joy at Christmas during times of hardship, was presented at five PMBA churches as well as the Forsyth Correctional Center: October 29—Northwest Baptist Church; November 5—Robinhood Road Baptist Church; November 9—Forsyth Correctional Center; November 12—Griffith Baptist Church; November 19—Germanton Baptist Church and November 26—Unity Baptist Church.

The Fool, a production of sketches that explains what it means to be "Christ fools" was the last drama performance given by the Players of the Way drama team of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. Performance dates were set for: May 6—Rural Hall/FBC; May 19—Fellowship Baptist Church; and May 20—Northwest Baptist Church

The Creative Ministries Team needs talented, creative people with an interest in forms of drama and music to serve on the team. Louise Noffsinger developed this ministry many years ago, with the hope of training and equipping lay leaders within our congregations in creative ministries. Hopefully, in the next year, there will be more opportunities for training as well as productions.

SCOTT ORR, Team Leader

DISCIPLESHIP DEVELOPMENT

"Therefore go and make disciples of all the nations..." (Matthew 28:19).

In striving to carry out our responsibility to assist local congregations in our association the Discipleship Team made direct contact with the churches. Through the association's Promo Pak and Pilot, we encouraged local church leaders to contact us when any need arose in their congregation relating to discipleship. We had the privilege of assisting some through one-on-one consultations. The Discipleship Team also has made available to the churches current discipleship resources located in our PMBA Resource Center. We led a "round table" discussion study of the new book, Transformational Discipleship (giving a complimentary copy to each participant).

The Discipleship Team also sponsored the Associational Children's Bible Drill last spring, featuring a number of Children from a few of our churches. Most of the boys and girls were eligible to go on to the state drills. As we look ahead to the future under the leadership of our new team director, David Wood, we anticipate continued effort in reaching out to and working alongside the churches of PMBA.

BIBLE DRILL- A sub committee of Discipleship Development

On Saturday morning March 31, the halls of the PMBA Resource Center were buzzing with the sound of a throng of children, reciting Books of the Bible, practicing memory verses and giving "tips" to one another in preparation for the Bible Drills that were about to start. This year we had three churches to participate: Robinhood Road, Germanton and Calvary., with a total of 28 children. Some of the children used the NIV version while others used the KJV. They all did well and are to be commended for their diligence in learning how to handle, memorize and apply God's Holy Word.

PMBA will have 26 children representing us in the State Bible Drill this year. Special thanks are extended to Ruther Craver, a member of Calvary and our Associational Bible Drill Coordinator and to the following individuals who assisted in various ways: Richard Powell, Germanton; Mary Hennessey, Robinhood Road; Eric Davis, Calvary; and Danny Wooten, Robinhood Road. Your Discipleship Training Team would like to encourage other churches to start a Bible Drill Team for next year. If you need assistance, please contact us!

CHARLES MARTIN, Team Leader

EVANGELISM TEAM

The PMBA Evangelism team brought two training sessions to the PMBA for equipping lay leaders in personal evangelism. These two training sessions were developed to (1) Encourage church members and leaders in Personal Evangelism; (2) Train Decision Counselors to work in church Spring Revivals; and (3) Prepare Children's workers on how to counsel children about salvation.

Session I, led by Royce Williams, targeted youth and adult workers in the techniques for personal evangelism. Session II, led by Lewis Smith, targeted children workers in the areas of childhood evangelism.

Another event the PMBA Evangelism Team sponsored was the Pioneer Evangelism Conference, at Pleasant Garden Baptist Church in Greensboro, North Carolina on September 16. This was a regional event sponsored by the Central Baptist Association, the Piedmont Baptist Association and the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association.

Pioneer Evangelism is a ministry of church planting utilizing mainly lay volunteers. The goal is to make disciples of Jesus Christ by planting self-supporting, self governing and self-propagating churches under the leadership of the Holy Spirit. The goal is not to start just one church but a church planting movement.

Dr. Wade Atkins, missionary of the International Mission Board, is the founder of Pioneer Evangelism. In the last 10 years he has trained over 13,000 laymen and women in Brazil to do Bible Studies to win the lost and to start churches. Over the last two years, thousands have been trained throughout South America, Asia, Africa, Europe, Central America and the Caribbean.

The Evangelism Team is looking forward to more opportunities to bring training to lay people as well as pastors in our area in the area of evangelism and outreach. If we can help equip your lay leaders or help in spring outreach emphasis, or other evangelism efforts in your church, please contact us.

MISSIONS RESPONSE TEAMS

MISSIONS PARTNERSHIPS

The Missions Partnerships Team was very actively involved in three partnerships last year: Alaska, Honduras, and Eastern North Carolina. Teams from various churches partnered together and traveled to these areas to help with mission and ministry opportunities.

A major event hosted by Missions Partnerships was the Mission Blitz. Approximately 55 of our churches participated in the Missions Blitz this year that covered three Saturdays during the month of June 2001. Projects for the Blitzes took place on June 2, June 16 and June 30. They included: collections for Baptist Toy Store, kitchen shower for PMBA, Crisis Control of Rural Hall/FBC, and King Outreach Center; yard work and interior cleaning of Prodigals Community; helping with serving lunch at Samaritan's Soup Kitchen; a Belarusian Children's Fun Day, and a Quilting Bee for the Baptist Children's Homes.

Sixteen PMBA churches sent teams last year to Alaska. Some of these teams worked on the construction of a Baptist church. Two church teams went to Alaska to help with remodeling and putting in a baptistry. Several teams taught Backyard Bible Clubs and Vacation Bible School. Evangelistic teams went to help share the gospel with the people of Alaska.

Nine of our churches sent teams to Honduras to help with their rebuilding after a natural disaster as well as to help with discipling the many converts from recent decisions for Christ. Although our official partnership as a state will soon be coming to a close, much work is still to be done and many churches are talking about possibilities for the upcoming year. Medical teams went to Honduras and several more will go again in the upcoming year.

Seventy-six PMBA congregations assisted with disaster relief and recovery work in the eastern part of North Carolina. Teams worked with mudouts, rebuilding and witnessing. The Association collected cleaning supplies, food and household items for the people in the eastern part of the state. The response to our collections was overwhelming. It amazes us to witness what has been taking place between the PMBA congregations and the people in the eastern part of North Carolina. Many homes have now been rebuilt. Our partnership with this area of our state will soon come to a close, but the Missions Partnership Team hopes that none of us will forget the pulling together and the many sacrifices of household items, food, and clothing nor the gifts of love that was shown in the work of our Baptist men and women who gave so unselfishly of their time and talents to help a devastated people.

It has been a wonderful opportunity for ministry through the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. We look forward to another year of partnering with our PMBA congregations and more ways to expand the work that do.

JACK HUTCHINS, Team Leader

BELARUSSIAN CHILDREN'S COMMITTEE

A sub committee of the Missions Partnerships Team

Twenty-one children from Belarus arrived on June 7, 2001 at Atlanta airport to come to the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association by means of vans from the First Baptist Church of Clemmons and Green Meadows Baptist Church. They were greeted by 17 families, representing 11 congregations.

During the six week stay many activities were enjoyed by the children, chaperone and families. Some of these were: tour of Winston-Salem Journal, a visit to Horne Creek Living Historical Farm, North Carolina Zoo, car racing at Bowman Gray Stadium, and a "Fun Day" at Cornerstone (which was part of the PMBA Missions Blitz).

An annual event was the Farewell Picnic at Old Town given by PMBA WMU. The fellowship hall was a beehive of activity. Host families were around tables reminiscing over the past six weeks. After the wonderful meal, it was time for expressions of gratitude. The children had gifts to present to some of those who had been so helpful to them. Each child was then given an army duffle bag and a gallon zip bag with a good assortment of vitamins and medications. The children continued down the line of tables where boxes were loaded with toothbrushes, toothpaste, more vitamins and medications, assorted shirts and Bibles. These had been generously donated by PMBA churches.

All Belarusian children were seen by dentists, optometrists, and medical doctors at Baptist Hospital. A big thank you to Paul Mullen, director of Church & Community Relations at Baptist Hospital, for all he did to help arrange and oversee these services.

The children left on Thursday, July 19, 2001 from PMBA for the long trip to Belarus. Ecclesiastes 2:26 says: "For God giveth to a man a (child) that is good in his sight wisdom, and knowledge, and JOY ..." Thank you for giving JOY and LOVE.

ORDINATION ADVISORY TEAM

The Ordination Advisory Team was asked to participate in the examination of several candidates for ordination over the past Associational Year:

1) Examination of Beverly Hatcher for ordination into the Gospel Ministry on September 12, 2000 at Pfafftown Baptist Church. Mrs. Hatcher was recommended by the Ordination Advisory Team for ordination and participated in her ordination at Pfafftown Baptist Church, where she serves as a minister of children.

2) Examination of Lisa Courtney for ordination into the Gospel Ministry on January 21, 2001at New Vision Fellowship. Mrs. Courtney was recommended by the Ordination Advisory Team for ordination and participated in her ordination service at New Vision Fellowship, where she currently serves as associate pastor/youth.

3) Examination of Daniel Terry for ordination into the Gospel Ministry on July 22, 2001. Mr. Terry was recommended by the Ordination Advisory Team for ordination and later participated in his ordination service.

The Ordination Advisory Team assists congregations with the examination of candidates into the Gospel Ministry. We have had numerous occasions to share in the joy of ordination within our PMBA congregations and stand ready to assist whenever called upon.

RECREATIONAL MINISTRIES - BASKETBALL

History & Purpose of PMBA Youth Basketball:

The PMBA Youth Basketball League started in the late 1950's in the gym at First Baptist Church in Winston-Salem and has been going strong ever since. From its beginnings as a league for the Royal Ambassadors, the PMBA Youth Basketball League has grown to include five different divisions: Junior Coed, Intermediate Boys, Girls, Senior High Boys-A, and Senior High Boys-B. This year we had a total of 40 teams representing 15 different churches. This gave us the opportunity to affect the lives of approximately 450 young people for the glory of God.

Although many things have changed about this league, the mission has not. As stated in the Rules and Regulations, PMBA Youth Basketball League exists for four main purposes (my commentary is listed below each point):

1. To provide an opportunity for the youth of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association and other invited Christian fellowships to grow in their physical, mental and spiritual maturity.

   The Bible tells us that God created us in His image. One of the most important aspects of being created in God's image is the fact that we are a trinity. We have a body, a soul, and a spirit. God's Word instructs us to treat our bodies as temples of the Holy Spirit, to renew our minds (i.e., the soul, which consists of the mind, the emotions, the conscience, and the will), and to grown in spiritual maturity.

The most important aspect of the PMBA Youth Basketball League is the development of Godly character in the lives of these young people by teaching them how to honor God in all three areas of their lives—physical, mental, and spiritual.

2. To maintain a high standard of sportsmanship, honesty, courtesy, and Christianity in athletic competition.

    The principle applies even if the referees are horrible; whether your team wins or loses; no matter what—we are to be Christ-like. Competition these days has denigrated to trash talking; players are more worried about looking good than being good; players expect success on the court without dedication and commitment in practice. This is true not just in sports, but also in life. These young people need Godly men and women to invest some TIME into their lives to show them "a more excellent way," a way that promises "life more abundantly."

    The kind of competition I like to see and I think is pleasing to God is when I begin the game by shaking my opponents hand saying, "Let's play hard, let's play fair,, and may the team most worthy of victory win." It's the kind of competition that drives me to be better and work harder so that I have earned the right to win. We must do better than the world at exemplifying sportsmanship and integrity in sports and in life!

3. To glorify and exalt Jesus Christ in every-thing that we do and to encourage each other with the love of Christ.

    We may be "adversaries" on the basketball court, but we must not forget that for those of us who have been born again, we are brothers and sisters in Christ. Christ should be at the center of every thought, guiding us into all righteousness. When the game is over and all is said and done, we must love each other. The Bible says, "If anyone says, "I love God" yet hates his brother he is a liar. For anyone who does not love his brother whom he has seen cannot love God whom he has not seen."

4. To have FUN!

    Anyone who knows me will tell you that I am one of the most competitive people around. I am intense on the court and in life. But sometimes we just need to lighten up! In this basketball league, our goal is to ensure that the young people have fun. We shouldn't be so tensed up and stressed out that we forget to just relax and praise God for the ability and freedom to be able to play basketball.

This Year's Highlights

This year's season concluded with a banquet at Old Town Baptist Church. The purpose of this banquet was to bring conclusion to the regular session, to usher in some excitement for Championship Saturday, which was the next day at Calvary Baptist Church, and to challenge these young people to truly commit their lives to Jesus Christ and to be led daily by the Holy Spirit. We had over 400 coaches, players and guests in attendance.

The event was catered by Pig Pickin's and was free to coaches, players, and scorekeepers. Guests had to pay to cover the cost of their food. We gave away some door prizes, presented trophies to the Regular Session Champions and Most Christ-like teams, reviewed events of the past season, and heard a challenging message from our keynote speaker Larry Grays.

Larry graduated from Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary in May of 1996 receiving his Master of Divinity Degree and the Bessie M. Sachet Award for preaching excellence. God continues to open doors of ministry for Larry. He currently lives n Atlanta, Georgia, serving as full time staff evangelist at Northstar Church. Larry is truly an incredible speaker. He captivated the audience for almost 45 minutes with one of the most powerful messages I have ever heard. He also gave an opportunity for people to make public commitments for Jesus Christ. As a result of his message at least ten people were convicted of their sin by the Holy Spirit and committed their lives to Jesus Christ.

It was an incredible night and an incredible season. The comments I have received are overwhelming. I am looking forward to next year and exploring new ways to impact the lives of these young people with the message of Jesus. We could always use more volunteers and more ideas...why not join us? SENIOR ADULTS MINISTRY

The annual Senior Adult Candle Tea service was held at Ardmore Baptist Church with College Park Senior Adult Choir presenting the main portion of the worship service. Over 250 senior adults attended the Candle Tea, which was only the second Candle Tea since its inception in 1999. Testimonies of a special Christmas time were given by Associational Missionary Jim Hamblen and Rev. David Wooten, pastor of Forest Hill Baptist Church. Immediately following the Candle Service, everyone was invited to attend the Candle Tea in the fellowship hall. We wish to personally thank everyone who participated in this year's Candle Tea and especially to LaVerna Clapp, the food services director at Ardmore and her workers for the delicious spiced tea and ginger snaps.

In case you didn't hear, the Senior Adult Luncheon this year was a great success! Of course, how could we miss when we had such great talent as the Sharps and Flats from Arbor Acres! The Sharps and Flats entertained the Senior Adults with music from home-made instruments and lovely voices.

The luncheon was held at Old Town Baptist Church mainly because the food is so good, and they can hold up to 600 people! There were 473 senior adults attending the luncheon, and according to the empty plates, the meal provided by Betty Huff and her kitchen crew was delicious as usual. To bring out the child in all of us, door prizes were in abundance! To name a few: there was a hot-air balloon ride, an overnight stay at the Ramada Inn for two, dinner for two at Vincenzo's, a complementary haircut from Great Clips, and the list goes on and on.

We assisted three churches with establishing a senior adult ministry within their congregations. We also provided resources for several senior adults seeking help with financial planning. This next year, we hope to present some intentional programs that will assist senior adults with such issues as long-term health care, establishing an endowment, etc. If we can be of assistance to your senior adult ministry or help you to establish a ministry, please contact Levy Goodrich, team leader or David Wooten, assistant team leader.

SPIRITUAL FORMATION

Spiritual Formation... Is this a term familiar or new to you or somewhere in between? A group has been gathering regularly since last year's Annual Meeting to work toward future spiritual formation events for our Association. A meeting to learn more about spiritual formation was scheduled for September 21 at the PMBA Resource Center. The purpose of that first meeting was to bring awareness to those interested individuals who are seeking to understand and/or participate in some form of spiritual formation for their own spiritual growth and development.

A wonderful evening of worship through the ministry of Forsyth Prison Chaplain, Rodney Stillwell was held in the Noffsinger Building at Knollwood Baptist Church on April 5. Rodney let us in a time of experiencing God through the work of a potter's wheel. Drawing on the imagery of Jeremiah, Rodney described the work of God the Creator, calling us into being, crafting us as useful vessels, uniquely formed according to the purposes of the One who does all things well. The words of Chaplain Stillwell were reinforced visually, as the audiences sat around the potter's wheel watching him work the clay.

Participants were invited to take a piece of clay and fashion it into anything they wanted to. During this tactile mediation, worshippers were asked to remember the coming of God the Son; the Creative Word through whom all things were made. The reminder was given that as followers of the Risen Christ, we bear a calling to be in the world as creative agents on mission, carrying the light that pushes back all darkness.

As people gathered back around the potter's wheel, they were invited to contemplate the work of God through the Holy Spirit, molding remaking and purifying the lives of all those who seek Him; much as the potter kneads the clay, working out the impurities, before shaping the vessel into it's final form. Chaplain Stillwell described the process of firing the pottery, noting that it is only in moving through the fire, that the clay is hardened into a form that serves the potter and others according to the Design given to the vessel when it was being created on the wheel.

The spoken message and the learning methods employed, served to lead participants ranging from children to adults, into a time of contemplation, prayer, play and worship. It was an evening that sounded a call for spiritual renewal. It was an evening that beckoned us to open our hearts and our senses to once again see, hear, feel, touch, and taste the Presence of the Potter among us.

The Spiritual Formation Team will be planning future events centered around worship and spiritual renewal. Please join us whenever you hear of an event.

BAPTIST WOMEN'S WORLD DAY OF PRAYER

Women around the world centered in on prayer Monday, November 6. As they looked at the world at large, they were reminded that, while we have made great strides in spreading the sense of hope in our communities, there is still much to be done. Monday, November 6, the WMU Leadership Team sponsored the Baptist Women's World Day of Prayer. Two sessions were held this year: 10:00 A.M. – Red Bank Baptist Church; 7:00 P.M. – Forest Hill Baptist Church. As in past years, there was a designated time for prayer and praise for all that God has done through the work of our congregations—through the lives of our people.

WMU MISSIONS FAIR

Five different area ethnic worship groups attended the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association's Missions Fair on Saturday, September 23. The affair was moved indoors at Forsyth Park Baptist Church to accommodate the inclement weather. The informational format was led by the Associational WMU Leadership Team.

Represented in the diverse language group were leaders from two Hispanic churches with emerging WMU organizations. Dr. Frank Li, who works with Chinese in several Baptist churches was present, as well as two young ladies from the Japanese fellowship group. Three representatives from a church which has an ethnic group meeting in its facilities attended.

The main feature was an address by Miss Linda Hicks, Language Coordinator with the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina.

EVELYN YORK BENFIELD, Language/Ethnic Culture Consultant

PRISON MINISTRY

You were invited to partner with us again this year in our ministry to the Forsyth Jail and Prison inmates. Over 250 Personal Care Packs were donated as Christmas gifts for each man that was incarcerated. These Personal Care Packs were donated by several of our PMBA congregations and we want to thank you for your faithfulness to this ministry.

Several WMU groups donated supplies for the Christmas party and even more attended the party, which directly follows the special Christmas service in the prison chapel.

Plans are now underway for next year's event, and we anticipate the response from our churches. We hope that you will put this event on your calendar, and not only provide items for the party and the gifts for the prisoners but also attend the WMU Christmas Party for the inmates. Many of these men have come to know Christ through the efforts of the Prison Ministry. We appreciate the wonderful work of Chaplain Director, Rodney Stilwell and all the chaplains who work so diligently in sharing the gospel with these men.

WMU ANNUAL SALAD SUPPER

The WMU Annual Salad Supper was held at Old Town Baptist Church on Thursday, March 8. Over 450 women (and some men!) attended this celebration and annual meeting. Women prepared delicious salads to share with others. The feature of the meeting was Mother-read/Father-read Literacy Program.

GIRLS-IN-ACTION CELEBRATION

One hundred and sixty-eight GA's, along with 50 GA leaders, converged on Bethany Baptist Church with all the enthusiasm of a cheerleading squad on Saturday, May 24. This event was the highlight of the GA year.
All GA's and their leaders were broken down into 7 different groups and traveled to 7 different stations throughout the day. Jack Hutchins, PMBA Missions Partnership Team director, shared in the closing hour about the PMBA partnership with Alaska. He left the group with a sobering thought: Only 3 out of 100 people in Alaska are Christians! Scott Freese, Minister to Internationals in the Academic Community, sang a beautiful song in Portuguese called, "We're Seekers of Your heart." Part of the song says, "Until we give You first place, until we let you begin to fill us with Your spirit, renew us from within ... Nothing matters, nothing is gained. Without Your Holy presence, our lives are lived in vain." This day was certainly special for all GA's and their leaders.

We were able to assist some GA leaders new to the work with their ministry in their churches. Opportunities for prayer walks, mission projects, training for GA leaders and this Mission Celebration event made this a pivotal year in the ministry of WMU/GA Leadership in the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association.

YOUTH MINISTRIES

The PMBA Youth Ministries Team developed a most successful Fall Retreat 2000 (in two parts) with over 500 youth attending the second part of the retreat. Part One: Extreme 2000 was held at War Memorial Stadium in Greensboro. It featured the X-Games and concerts by Third Day, Jennifer Knapp, Burlap to Cashmere and more. Special guest speakers were engaged for the event and several hundred from PMBA churches attended this rally.

Part Two: Retreat at Ridgecrest Conference Center was held November 17-19. The theme for this year's retreat was "There Is Hope". Over 500 youth from PMBA churches attended this retreat, and many decisions and recommitments were made. If your church youth group has yet to attend one of these retreats, please consider joining us in the fall next year. It is an awesome time when youth from all across the state come together to worship, study the Bible, discuss current issues and problems facing teens today, and fellowship with other teen believers.

Throughout the year there have been other opportunities for youth groups to gather together for special worship and fun events. If your church has a small youth group and needs assistance with expanding your ministry to youth, please contact the Youth Ministry Team and, most important, JOIN US for our annual Youth Retreat and other events. Your youth group will synergize beyond your expectations as God stretches them in their spiritual growth.

ANNUAL MEETING

The Annual Meeting Committee met 10 times during the year. At the second monthly meeting we decided on the theme for the 2001 Annual Meeting, "In All Our Ways We Acknowledge Him." The Annual Meeting was scheduled to be held at Knollwood Baptist Church on July 29.

Every phase of the program centered around the various ways we acknowledge God (in worship, in business, etc.) Pastor Chris Chapman was asked to bring the theme interpretation and several work units were given time on the program. A special recognition time was designated for those who had been involved in missions during the Associational year.

Instead of having people make meal reservations and engaging a caterer or asking the host church to provide this service, the Annual Meeting Committee members decided to ask churches for donations of food and not to require advance reservations. The menu would be a light summer meal complete with sandwiches, chips, vegetable and fruit trays and dessert. It was a great success.

The last meeting held by the Annual Meeting Committee members was the evaluation. Members who had rotated off and new members were asked to this meeting along with staff.

Another year of planning has already began taking shape. The Annual Meeting Committee members ask for your prayers and input regarding this important historical and required event each year.

TY TALTON, Chair

CONSTITUTION COMMITTEE

The principal responsibility of the Constitution Committee is to review and make recommendations with respect to the Constitution, Bylaws, and Policies and Procedures of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. These documents reflect our identity, aims, and methods as an Association. In a technical sense, these three documents state who we are, what we are about, and how we intend to achieve those ministry and mission goals that reflect our identity and commitments as an Association.

In 2000-2001, the Constitution Committee focused its attention on creating an Operations Manual that would contain the Constitution, Bylaws, and Policies and Procedures of the Association. The Constitution and Bylaws revisions were approved as presented at the Annual Meeting in July. The Committee is now in the process of revising the Operations Manual as a whole. There are no major changes anticipated, only fine-tuning. Each leader can bring recommendations for revisions of the Policies and Procedures Section of the Operations Manual directly to the Congregational Council meetings instead of having to wait until the Associational Annual Meeting. For this reason much of the organizational structure has been shifted to the Policies and Procedures Section.

Our aim and hope as a Committee is to maintain a Constitution that accurately reflects our character and commitment as an Association. We welcome the suggestions of others in this process.

FINANCE COMMITTEE

The 2000 Audit Report has been completed by Gray, Callison and Company, P.A. Certified Public Accountants and was presented to the Finance Committee. The Pilot Mountain Baptist Association received a favorable report. The records of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association are in a high quality condition, which the Finance Committee contributes to the outstanding work performed by the PMBA Financial Secretary, Sandra Hall and Staff.

The Finance Committee is responsible for securing the outside audit for the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association and recommends that Gray, Callison and Company, P.A. be secured for next year's audit. The Finance Committee would also like to thank the PMBA Staff for their outstanding work.

A copy of the Audit Report from Gray, Callison and Company, P.A., is on file in the PMBA Resource Center. The Audit Report is on file at the PMBA Resource Center.

MEMBERSHIP

The Membership Committee examined The Summit Community Church for membership into the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. The Summit Community of Kernersville, North Carolina, had gone under watchcare of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association at last year's Annual Meeting. After months of examination and the one year of required watchcare, it was determined by the Membership Committee that The Summit Community Church did meet all the criteria to make them eligible for full membership. They were presented at the 2001 Annual Meeting and the recommendation to make them a member was unanimously approved.

WILSON HARMON, Chair

PERSONNEL

The Personnel Committee enjoyed a successful and busy year, which brought significant transitions for the PMBA staff. One highlight was when Dale Harlan was selected as our new Congregational Missionary. He began his work on February 15, 2001. This addition made an immediate impact and we are grateful for Dale's ministry. As Dale came on staff, our interim Ed Stines continued on staff until March 15. Ed had the responsibility of giving Dale an orientation of the associational churches. We owe much to Ed and his ministry.

Other transitions include the retirement of Beverly Hamblen as our part-time staff member. Beverly ministered in many areas including secretarial support. She was a delightful and faithful servant. We are fortunate that Steve Kiser came on board January 16 as our part-time Ministry Support Assistant. Steve is providing a necessary ministry to the PMBA and the congregations.

The Personnel Committee normally meets six times a year with set agendas. Each staff member has a formal Growth Review. This Growth Review is a self-evaluation and a means to share this evaluation with the Personnel Committee. These reviews allow the committee to hear the growth areas and concerns of the staff.

PERSONNEL

Our Associational Missionary, Jim Hamblen, formed and facilitated a successful pilot of the Companions-in-Christ Formation Group. The group was well received and the member evaluations were rich with affirmations for the Formational Bible Study and for the wisdom and outstanding leadership provided by Jim. This formation came directly from Jim's involvement in the Academy of Spiritual Formation. Jim has been part of this Academy since 1999 and plans to continue with his ministry in spiritual leadership. Jim will facilitate another formation group during the late summer and fall of 2001.

Scott Freese, our Minister to Internationals in the Academic Community, has met many needs among the internationals enrolled in our local Universities and Colleges. We celebrate with Scott in the new direction of this ministry, which will operate under a non-profit board of directors. As of December 31, 2001, Scott will no longer be on the PMBA staff.

The Personnel Committee joins with the PMBA family in affirming both our executive and support staff ministers. They bring their gifts and dedication to this ministry. We are truly grateful for these committed servants. Working with the PMBA staff and volunteers has been a joy.

PROPERTIES COMMITTEE

With a sense of pride n the PMBA Resource Center, the Properties Committee has attempted to adequately care for the building and the property, while practicing good stewardship of our funds.

The many visible improvements this year are evidence that it has been a busy, productive one. Listed below is a summary of actions taken.

Equipment Purchases and Upgrades

- New conference room and office chairs were purchased, and old chairs were disposed via advertising their availability in the PILOT on a "highest bid", first-come-first serve basis.
- The computer system was upgraded with ACS Windows software.
- A new telephone system was installed by Teledata.
- A change in postal system regulations, which rendered our postal meter obsolete, necessitated the purchase of a new postal meter.

Repairs, Improvements and Other Actions

- Eroding columns at front entrance were repaired.
- The front door, front columns and the downstairs entrance area were painted
- An attic fan was installed and routine maintenance (including painting, plumbing and electrical work) was provided by Salemtowne, Inc., the Moravian Retirement Community, at no cost to the PMBA.
- Quotes were requested, a carrier was selected and approval was granted for repairing, repaving, and restriping areas in the upper parking lot. This work will be done in the near future.

AS I SEE IT...

For years I have written articles for The Pilot entitled "As I See It." This has been my attempt to share with you my thoughts and concerns about the current status of the association as well as the future directions of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. I hope and trust that this, my "Annual Report," will be received in the same spirit. My thanks goes to Karen Taylor, our Associational Clerk, who reminds me that Annual Minutes of any association are very significant as a historical record of the life and activity of that association during a given year.

I can remember the effort that Mac Goss offered as he wrote the history of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association for our Centennial Celebration in 1985. So, my remarks become more important to me as they will reflect a year in the life of our time together in this association. Maybe sometime in the future another writer will examine these minutes in order to determine the value of our intentions and our actions.

In the past, I have tried to keep you informed about the work of your staff by saying "Farewell" ... and "Thank you!" ... to Ed Stines, who served as our Interim Missionary Associate. He helped prepare the congregations, the associational leaders, and the associational staff for our newest staff member, Dale Harlan, who came in February of 2001 to serve as the Congregational Missionary for the PMBA.

During 2001 we also helped Scott Freese to continue his ministry with International Students through the establishment of a new nonprofit ministry called, The International Campus Ministry of the Triad [CMT]. Scott will continue to live and work in this area; but his ministry will extend beyond his work through the PMBA and the Central Triad Baptist Association.

Our association has experienced the impact of Dale Harlan's contagious positive "spirit" and his ongoing focus on "Kingdom" building. It has changed the atmosphere of the organization of the association and the Resource Center [office] as well. Karen Taylor and Sandra Hall continue to provide the support for all areas of our work through the churches of the PMBA.

The growing opportunities for mission and ministry service is found in the Mission Partnerships, which are expanding even as you read this. Always there are challenging opportunities that God is bringing to our attention. We seem to be faced with choices between that which is good ... that which is better ... and ... that which is best ... in terms of the investment of our time and energy.

During this past year, we have been challenged by our financial limitations. As with the Israelites in the wilderness, the widow at Zarephath, and others in the faith-journey, we met our financial obligations and commitments. Hopefully, we will continue to place our Missions and Ministry opportunities first for your consideration as a line that I borrowed from someone says: "We will do our best... and... let God do the rest!"

In 1998, Ty Talton, and the Transition Monitoring Team offered a new direction for our association. We approved this new sense of direction and we are still attempting to implement those ideals and values offered as our future direction and intentions. Since then, we have developed a more flexible and user-friendly organizational structure. We are far less rigid in our functions and our relationships. We have come a long way toward our hopes, our dreams, and our goals ... but we have not fully arrived ... We are still striving to be more responsive to the needs and expectations of the congregations we serve.

At the Annual Meeting [Association-in-Session] at Knollwood Baptist Church we felt the impact of so many opportunities for mission and ministry here in the PMBA. It was particularly meaningful to meet in a church that once had been a mission within this association.

In the years to come, may we be found "faithful" to the tasks and the opportunities set before us.

Grace and Peace,
JAMES V. "JIM" HAMBLEN, Associational Missionary

God...IS... up to something... can you see it?!?!

I cannot believe that it has been over a year since you called me as your Congregational Missionary to be a part of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association team. What a wonderful opportunity the Lord has given me to join you in building His kingdom here in our association and the Triad area. I saw that "God was up to something" when I followed His call to come here in February 2001 and my months of ministry with you have only continued to affirm that calling. It has been exciting and challenging to see what He is doing among our ministry partners of 89 churches.

Being able to visit many of your churches for worship, fellowship, and on a consultative basis has been a real blessing for me. There have also been many opportunities for me to be a "pastor to your pastor" as I listened to and prayed with the shepherd that God has given to your fellowship. These have been "holy ground" moments and I truly thank God for them.

It is obvious that some of our churches are healthy while others are in great need of renewal. I rejoice with those churches that are being effective in fulfilling their place of ministry in their community. But, I long for transformation for those churches that are struggling and dying.

With some 82% of Southern Baptist churches in North Carolina either plateaued or declining, there is an overwhelming need for many of our churches in the PMBA to "reframe" how they "do" church. The need for transformation is obvious for some while others languish in a state of fear and denial. My calling as your Congregational Missionary is to help your church more fully reach its kingdom potential.

During this past year, I have had the privilege to walk with many of you as we saw what God was doing and you had the courage to step out in faith to join Him in kingdom building. These are some of the ministries and opportunities in which I have assisted:

- Starting a new Vietnamese ministry at Calvary
- Taking a "Community Prayer Walk" with Friends, New Beginning and Northwest
- Establishing an Industrial Areas Foundation organization with the Winston-Salem community of faith
- Facilitating the creation of a partnership between New Beginning and Bethany
- Working with Pfafftown to create a "Good Neighbor Center" for ministry to the Shattalon Oaks and North Forsyth mobile home communities

...a blessing it has been!!! I understand even more vividly than ever the meaning of the promise of God in Jeremiah 29:11, "For I know the plans I have for you," declares the Lord, "plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future." This promise has become a reality in my life in this short, but very fruitful time. As you can see....this was a very busy year. If God has blessed us so much this past year, I cannot wait to see what He is going to do in the future!!! Can you???

A Fellow Servant
DALE R. HARLAN, Congregational Missionary

Dear Beloved in Christ,

As you read this, our new Congregational Missionary, Dale Harlan, has already begun his tenure of service for the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. I welcome him to this exciting new position. It has been a year since I began serving as your Interim Missionary Associate. It is now time to give thanks for the work we have shared together as a part of this great Association. With the call of Dale, it is also time for me to move on to the next chapter in my spiritual journey to wherever the Lord directs. Many have asked me about my plans. My reply is simply that I don't know right now. I am open to God's will and purpose within His time frame.

I am excited for the Association because I believe that God has been preparing it for a breakthrough to reach more and more people for Christ. Dale brings with him an excitement for ministry in today's world. I encourage you to support him and our other associational leaders in this time of transition and strategy planning. Our world is changing rapidly and the church must be willing to get outside its comfort zone. Dale will be challenging you to do this. He has the experience and brings with him a proven track record of what God will do when we are willing to follow. He is no superman, nor does he have all the answers, but he does have a compassion for Kingdom work through effective ministry.

My year in your midst has been very rewarding and memories of what we have shared together will always remain precious and meaningful to me. In a sense I am saying goodbye, but in another since I am not. Pilot Mountain Baptist Association has been a part of me since I came here in 1970 as pastor of King First Baptist Church. Most of my ministry has been in this Association, and I feel that we are vitally linked together. During this year I have been privileged to work with a top-notch staff that takes seriously our mission statement: " To serve in partnership with local congregations in doing missions and ministry." It is a staff which is never too busy to assist all that call upon them. I have learned from them during the year and have experienced much happiness.

I will never forget the many opportunities you have provided me to preach, teach, counsel, and encourage. I have become a great admirer of our able and knowledgeable Associational Missionary, Jim Hamblen. He is a tireless warrior who never quits dreaming and has a real love for every church in our Association. When you hurt, he hurts. I know because we have experienced some pain together. In my work with the churches I have tried to be open and sensitive to each one. I have been impressed with the desire of our churches to be on mission for God. Some need guidance, help and direction. My prayer is that some of our stronger churches will reach out and provide some help for our struggling churches. Dale has some experience in how this can be done. Call on him.

So, as I say goodbye and Dale says hello, I feel confident that God is going to continue to open challenging doors to involve more and more of our churches in creative missions and ministry. May God find us faithful as we labor together in His name. I will continue to be one of you in the days ahead. Thank you for letting me serve as your Interim Missionary Associate.

In the joys of Jesus,
ED STINES, Interim Missionary Associate

A Ministry in Transition...

"Give thanks with a grateful heart" is just a small expression of how I feel as your Minister to Internationals in the Academic Community. For over two years, the PMBA has been a significant partner (the actual host) in this beautiful ministry among internationals in our community. It is now time to make a transition that will expand our missions endeavor through a local community non-profit, incorporated ministry board. Thank you Congregations of the Pilot Mountain Baptist, members and friends, for praying and making this ministry possible during these past two years!

The purpose of this ministry is 'the intentional outreach through friendship, hospitality, and missions to international students, faculty, administrators and employees that study, teach and serve on our local university and college campuses and institutions." For two years and four months this has been the basic philosophy of Ministry to Internationals in the Academic Community and it will continue to be the mission statement of a new non profit board, International Campus Ministries of the Triad, Inc.

This outreach, the International Campus Ministries of the Triad, will continue to serve as a relational bridge between congregations (and their members) and International who have come to the area campuses from many different nations. At the same time, Internationals have opportunities to: (1) Meet the Great Commission Christians; (2) Experience our worshipping communities; and (3) Learn about our faith in Jesus Christ.

International students, faculty and staff come to our cities as foreigners in a strange land, giving us the unique opportunity to invite them to experience and share in our lives, our families, our homes and our faith! Strategies for this ministry include "establishing a Prayer base to seek and discern what God would want us to accomplish; establishing and developing professional relationships with the Administrations of each campus program; determining and identifying the evangelization needs of each campus, equipping, encouraging and discipling of Internationals who are Christians; strengthening and expanding the hospitality ministry of the Friendship Family Program; partnering in missions with local regional and state entities that share in this commitment to Internationals; and to convene with International Campus Ministry personnel to discuss missions, purpose, and strategies to improve our ministries among internationals in this part of the Triad.

This Ministry is currently offering Internationals on the local campuses an opportunity to participate in the Friendship Family program, annual statewide Fall and Spring International Student Conferences, English Bible Classes, "Welcome" and "Farewell" events that touch each campus, an annual Thanksgiving Banquet and Valentine's Day Party, same day trips to Hanging Rock and Pilot Mountain State Parks, as well as International Fellowship Nights! There are needs to start small groups of Conversational English on our campuses and International Wives' Fellowships throughout our churches and communities.

God has given us a great opportunity to relate to many people from many countries, right here in our own university communities. Our challenge is a great one, and it is a privilege to "welcome the strangers" and "show love to foreigners". Please pray for the changes that are taking place in this ministry which has been "birthed" in a partnership between the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, the Central Triad Baptist Association and our own Pilot Mountain Baptist Association.

Thank you for your part in praying, participating and partnering with us in this new transition of ministry called International Campus Ministries of the Triad!

With a thankful heart,
SCOTT FREESE, (formerly) Minister to Internationals in the Academic Community

Let God Continue to Bless our Association

It has been a great honor to be a part of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. I grew up here and have seen the course it has taken over the years. Since I have been at Red Bank Baptist Church, I have had the privilege of being more involved in the work of the Association, and I believe our Association to be blessed with great leadership.

Much has taken place over the past year. The Ministry to Internationals in the Academic Community is well on its way to becoming a self-sustaining board; new direction for the PMBA with special emphasis on helping churches that are struggling to exist as well as offering more proactive workshops on "how to make churches healthy" is evolving as we speak; more and more opportunities for churches to partner with one another through the PMBA are being offered and our Finance Committee continues to develop a faith-based mission and ministry plan for next year.

There is one great concern I have, and this is, that we are behind in our giving to the PMBA. The Association is here to serve us in any capacity. Through the PMBA, I have seen many great things done for the cause of Christ that just one church could not do alone. If we act collectively, more can be done. The great outpouring of people who responded to the call for help from our eastern brothers and sisters, is just one example of what a body of believers can do when they pool their resources and get "dirty" together! The sponsoring of the children from Belarus each summer reveals how many lives are changed here in our own backyards in an "international way" as we see host families from numerous churches open their homes and lives to children who have been contaminated by nuclear fallout from a tragic accident that will affect their lives and the lives of their families for generations to come! The Baptist Toy Store is another example of churches coming together to change the lives of people in our local communities. I witness first-hand as a counselor at the Toy Store the gratitude of parents who would not be able to provide for their children without the help of the Baptist Toy Store. Over 70 churches donated money for toys or purchased toys, provided volunteers to set up and work in the stores and help with additional needs after the Toy Store concluded. How could any one church provide toys for over 600 children? Through the PMBA this was a possibility for all of us.

I want to encourage you to give to our Association so that we can continue the Kingdom work that God has called us to do. I want to encourage you to get personally involved in the work that is going on through the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. Together we can make a difference!

Since the Association only has one Annual Meeting, the work units sections of the Bylaws has been moved to the Policies & Procedures section, which can be amended by the Congregational Council

  The Administrative Advisory Committee made the motion to approved the Overdraft Protection with a line of credit for the following checking accounts:

3) Office Depot ($1,300)
4) Sam's Club ($7,500)
5) Southern Lawn Mower & Parts
6) Visa ($12,000)

The motion to accept these lines of credit was approved as submitted.

- The Membership Committee announced it would recommend the approval of The Summit Community for full membership in the Association at the next association-in-session.

2001 Annual Reports to the Association

REPORT for 2001 BOOK of REPORTS

OFFICE of ANNUITY

The Annuity Office of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina in partnership with the Annuity Board of the Southern Baptist Convention provides services related to retirement planning, financial support of ministers and other church employees, life and health insurance, ministry to seminary/divinity students, and church/clergy tax issues. These services are provided in a variety of ways to churches and church employees.

As a result of an expanded mission statement and two new ministry assignments given to the Annuity Board in 2000, the year 2001 is proving to be one of transition. Specifically, much of the Board's work during 2001 has focused on preparing to offer personal investing and institutional investments with the accompanying need for all the investment funds to be registered during this year. Despite a disappointing year in the financial markets, ten of the fourteen Annuity Board investment funds out-performed their benchmark for the year. More specifically, all six equity funds and all four blended funds exceeded benchmark returns while all four fixed income select funds under-performed.

Insurance continues to be one of the greatest challenges as the Annuity Board continually seeks to maintain viable products for participants. New insurance products and services have been developed and plans outlined for implementation. Two new Medicare supplement plans were designed and implemented. The Annuity Board paid more than $139 million in insurance benefits last year.

The Endowment Ministry, designed to give support to retired ministers, denominational employees and their widows with special needs, enjoyed a banner year. The relief ministry reached a record monetary level as $5.3 million was distributed to needy retired ministers and widows. Guidelines for the Adopt An Annuitant ministry were revised to allow more applicants to qualify for the gift.

As of May 31, 2001, there were 4,842 active participants in the retirement plan with 62% of our North Carolina churches participating. The number of persons receiving retirement benefits has increased to 2,815 with another 361 being assisted through the Adopt An Annuitant ministry plan.

It is our strong desire to serve all of our churches, ministers, and church employees. For more information related to products or services, call the Baptist State Convention of NC at 1.800.395.5102 extension 174, visit our Web site at www.bscnc.org, or call the Annuity Board at 1.800.262.0511 or visit the Annuity Board Web site at www.absbc.org.

Meeting the Challenges of Health Care

Report to the Associations

"Touching Lives With Hope"

HOSPITAL FOCUSED ON PARTNERSHIPS IN HEALING

"We desire to build a hospital to bring the healing art more definitely under the dominion of the Great Healer." Baptist Hospital's founding commission penned these words in 1921, and this partnership in healing has been our defining purpose. Our Christian heritage remains the foundation of Baptist Hospital and undergirds our daily commitment to provide compassionate, state-of-the-art medical care to those we serve. The Christian faith is truly the "soul of our institution."

SCHOOL OF PASTORAL CARE

The mission of the School of Pastoral Care at Baptist Hospital is: To provide ministries of growth, hope, and healing in the Spirit of Christ. We are thankful that North Carolina Baptists are a significant partner in this mission, helping us bring hope to thousands of people each year.

The Department of Chaplaincy and Pastoral Education provided ministry during the past year through more than 61,000 pastoral visits, and worship services every Sunday, Monday, Wednesday, and Friday. The department's Clinical Pastoral Education (CPE) program received a 10-year accreditation from the Association of Clinical Pastoral Education site review team. Fifty-eight students received training in one of the largest and finest CPE programs in America.

The Department of Pastoral Counseling, CareNet, Inc. continues to develop its ministries. Rev. Steve Scoggin became the director of the system's newest center, the East Carolina Counseling Centers, Inc., in Greenville, N.C. CareNet's counseling centers provided more than 25,500 hours of compassionate pastoral counseling in 17 locations across the state during the year. It is the largest pastoral counseling system in the nation. Thanks to N.C. Baptists, free or reduced rate counseling is made available to lower income people.

The Center for Congregational Health, Inc. continues to assist churches in becoming healthier communities of faith. The Center provides consultation to 25 congregations a month. Over 600 church leaders received training in educational events conducted by the Center during the past year. These include the Young Leaders Program for ministers under age 40, and Intentional Interim Ministry training. Thanks to N.C. Baptists, the Center receives essential support for its ministries. This support pays for initial consultation for all Baptist churches, and provides subsidies for churches and ministers who need special financial assistance.

The Department of Church and Community Relations continues to serve as a liaison between the Hospital and churches of the Baptist State Convention. The department's director, Rev. Paul Mullen, provided ministry through 150 requests for assistance with obtaining medical care or concerns about medical bills. More than $65,000 was provided to N.C. Baptist ministers and their families by the 25% subsidy for their hospital bills. A variety of benevolent ministries was also coordinated, primarily the Baptist Benevolent Care Fund.

BAPTIST BENEVOLENT CARE FUND

North Carolina Baptists, through the Mother's Day Offering, opened their hearts to patients in financial need and gave $560,624 in 2000 for the compassionate mission of benevolent care at Baptist Hospital. All of these funds were used to pay the hospital bills of patients in financial need. The fund helps patients who "fall between the cracks," making too much for government assistance but not enough to pay for healthcare insurance. They are deeply thankful to N.C. Baptists for this gracious witness to God's love. As one recipient said, "God smiled on us through the Baptists of North Carolina." Her son is a 13-year-old cancer patient.

ADDITIONAL HIGHLIGHTS AT NORTH CAROLINA BAPTIST HOSPITAL

Ranked Among the Nation's Best – Baptist Hospital, part of the Wake Forest University Baptist Medical Center, ranks among the nation's top hospitals according to the July 2001 issue of U.S. News and World Report. One hundred eighty-eight of the nation's 6,299 hospitals appear on this list.

Comprehensive Cancer Center Recognized for Excellence – The Medical Center's Comprehensive Cancer Center received a 5-year renewal of its status from the National Cancer Institute. The Comprehensive Cancer Center is one of only 37 such centers in the nation, and is the only one in western North Carolina. It includes Prostate and Breast Cancer Centers of Excellence.

Medical Center Earns Recognition for Trauma Care – Baptist Hospital, a Level One Trauma Center, received verification in both adult and pediatric trauma services in February 2001 by the American College of Surgeons. It is the first Level One Trauma Center in North Carolina to receive such recognition.

Downtown Health Plaza Opens – The 47,000 square foot Downtown Health Plaza opened in 2001 to provide healthcare for underserved people in Forsyth and surrounding counties. Thousands of indigent children, adolescents, and adults have received compassionate and thorough medical care during the year.

Expansion of Brenner Children's Hospital – Construction of a 400,000 square foot, 11-story addition to the hospital's Ardmore Tower is moving toward completion. Six of the floors will provide space for Brenner Children's facilities, such as private patient rooms, family resource centers, and programs for children with disabilities. The Tower will also include new cardiac catheterization labs and operating rooms.

When it comes to colleges, "one size does not fit all." There is a difference.

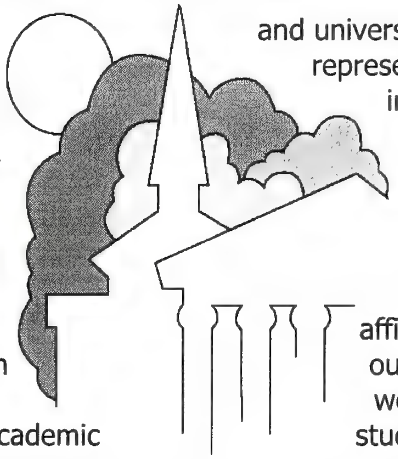
North Carolina has 117 post-secondary institutions. Some are classified as community or technical colleges. Others are public, while some are private. Some are Bible colleges. One is a seminary and one is a junior college.

Some have large campuses, while others have modest facilities. Some have major sports teams, while others offer intramural events. Some have significant endowments, while others struggle to stay open. Some have government support, while others depend upon private support.



North Carolina Baptist colleges and universities are unique. They are institutions we trust and support. They represent places that share our core belief that one's education should involve the heart, soul and mind. This belief is not shared by every institution in our state. Some are not allowed to invoke the name of God, neither are they allowed to worship God. North Carolina Baptist colleges, however, are different.

The colleges and universities associated with the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina affirm their faith in God and acknowledge their Baptist heritage. Students on our campuses are challenged to develop their faith through Bible study, worship, ministry and mission opportunities in addition to their academic studies.

When a professor on one of our campuses was asked, "Why have you chosen to be a part of this facility?" He responded, "Because I am free to mention the name of Jesus on this campus."

When it comes to colleges, "one size does not fit all."

Students in our churches struggle when they are deciding which college or university to attend. It is a decision that will follow them the rest of their lives. If they choose a school where faith is left out of their educational experience, they will graduate with degrees without the benefit of their faith being challenged.

Thank you North Carolina Baptists for your continued support of Christian higher education at Campbell, Chowan, Gardner-Webb, Mars Hill, Meredith, Wake Forest and Wingate.

A Time of Remembrance - Mac Goss

Every year we dedicate our Annual Minutes to someone who has been a model of service to God through the PMBA.This year we focus upon our friend, Mac Goss, as we dedicate the volume to his memory. Mac was a friend to many and served many churches in this area. You will read the remarks of Peggy Conrad below who was a cherished friend of Mac and brought the following appropriate remarks at our Annual Meeting last year.

> [The following excerpts on Mac Goss come from a "Time of Remembrance" given by Peggy Conrad at the 117th Annual Meeting of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association on Sunday, July 28, 2002, at Grace United Community Church.]

As an Association, we are very blessed that Rev. Mack Goss chose to move to Winston-Salem upon retirement, which you could in no way describe as a "slowing down" time. Rev. Goss was born in Cherokee County, Georgia. His academic achievements consisted of graduation from Mercer University, Andover Theological School, and post graduate work at Union Theological Seminary. He pastored churches in Walhalla, Summerville, and Hendersonville, North Carolina.

....He served as moderator for two associations, and on the boards of the Baptist Children's Homes in North Carolina and South Carolina. He also served as president of the NC Baptist Pastor's Association, vice-president of the NC Baptist State Convention, member of the Annuity Board and, member of the Executive Committee of the Southern Baptist Convention.

Rev. Goss was approached by Lewis Ludlum in 1984 with the task of writing the history of the first one-hundred years of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. Anyone who ever experienced Lewis Ludlum's powers of persuasion would not be surprised that Rev. Goss agreed to such an undertaking. It was with this same persuasive tactics that Lewis and Mac pressed upon me the need for assistance with this project...To this day, I strongly feel that any contribution I might have made was insignificant when compared to the honor I felt working alongside this spiritual giant.

I doubt anyone could estimate the number of hours of research it took to write this book...Many people could have written our one-hundred years of history but no one could have written it with the warmth and richness of character that Mac gave it. I believe him to be a lifetime student of the scriptures...Copies of his book, A History of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, 1885-1985 are available for purchase at the Lewis Ludlum Resource Center (PMBA). ....

Mack Goss served in several PMBA churches as interim pastor and was committed to the work and mission of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association...When his health failed, he moved to the Nursing Care Center at Brookridge. While there Chaplain Ray Benfield became a dear friend of Mac's. I share with you now some of Ray's comments about Rev. Goss:

> He was a man with a strong faith and character. He loved his wife and children deeply.He had great pride in his son, who is a scientist, and talked often of his achievements.He took great pains to let me know he loved his handicapped daughter with a special love and concern. He was an interesting man who loved life, lived it to the fullest, and made life more enjoyable and interesting on the nursing floor at Brookridge Retirement Community until the day of his homegoing!

No doubt, Mac is in heaven talking with Abraham, Moses, King David, Simon Peter and the Apostle Paul...suggesting some ways they might have improved their ministry! However, I am most confident that he is kneeling at the feet of Jesus, praising Him, giving Him all the glory for the pleasure of serving Him...I feel so blessed to have known Rev. Mack Goss and for him to call me "friend."

Pilot Mountain, a veritable rock of ages, calm and serene, standing as a beacon, appealed to the founding fathers as descriptive of what the Association should be. To Native Americans, the mountain was Jomeokee, The Great Guide. The name was adopted and is always a reminder of The Great Guide.

We give thanks

Let us take this opportunity to salute the fantastic volunteers who serve the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association so faithfully. We thank God for their generous gift of time and talents. They are the embodiment of what the Association really is--the people who make up our PMBA congregations!

With deepest sympathy we report the passing of "Mac" McManus, a volunteer, who served faithfully with the group of volunteers from Brookridge, preparing The Pilot for mailing. Mac was the husband of Coordinator Eloise McManus. His patience and quiet strength was noticed by all who came to know him.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE 117TH ANNUAL SESSION

Grace United Community Church
July 27, 2002

Sunday, July 27, 2002, the 117th Annual Session of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association began with an old-fashion picnic at 2:00 p.m. The 93 degree weather didn't seem to bother anyone too much. Approximately 200 people were fed that day. Thanks to the generosity of our PMBA churches, everyone enjoyed a menu of fried chicken, potato salad, coleslaw, baked beans, rolls and pound cake. As further enticement to eat, those present enjoyed homegrown tomatoes, cucumbers, and fresh fruit.

Moderator Don Harvey convened the 117th Annual Meeting at 3:01 p.m. at Grace United Community Church. Pastor Joe Parks welcomed everyone to the meeting, stating that many times the small can become great through the generosity of others.

Past Moderator, Paul Dean, associate pastor of Pfafftown Baptist Church, gave the theme interpretation, - Our Call to Faithfulness. He reminded everyone that through the partnership of other churches, even the smallest church can be faithful to God's call.

Paul recalled the magnitude of the crisis America faced on September 11, 2001. He stated that an over-whelming majority of people told him they were on their knees that day. For a brief time, church doors opened as prayers were rendered around the clock. Many renewed their personal relationship with Jesus Christ as a result of that day.

He quoted Ann Graham Lotts, "We pushed him (Jesus Christ) away and He stayed there. Paul said that we are to be faithful. By faith Abel brought a sacrifice that found favor with God. By faith Abraham became the father of many nations... We are called to be faithful in our worship, stewardship, and commitments."

Paul concluded by quoting from the Bible, "...God is our shield and our fortress; our very help in a time of trouble.". As a body of churches, we are committed to advancing God's Kingdom. We can do more as a group of churches than as one single church. Therefore, we must be committed to our Association so that God's Kingdom work will not suffer but grow and flourish as we seek to reach the unchurched for Jesus Christ.

Lauren Lott, minister of music at Union Grove, led the congregation in several hymns: "Faith Is the Victory", "Great Is Thy Faithfulness", and "Faith of Our Fathers".

Peggy Conrad, PMBA leader and member of Union Grove, reminded each of us of the sacrifice of those who have gone before us. Using Mac Goss as her focus, Peggy recalled his many gifts and accomplishments, his readiness to be used for the Lord's work, and his willingness to continue on, even as his health began to fail. A time of silent prayer was dedicated for those who had died during the last year.

Following the time of remembrance, the congregation focused on those who had sacrificed their time, their talents and some even their lives immediately following the September 11, 2001 tragedy. Representatives of Disaster Relief, Military, Police, Firefighters and Clergy stood at attention during the congregational singing of "God Bless America". Pastor Joe Parks led a memorial prayer for our nation, community leaders and volunteers in all categories.

Charles Martin, pastor of Cornerstone and leader of the Leadership Development Teams, and Joyce Love, member of Clemmons/FBC and leader of the Ministries Development Teams, shared the work going on in and through the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association with a slide presentation. Slides depicting the inner workings of the Association, the various mission projects which involved churches partnering with one another, as well as a large segment on the disaster relief and recovery work in West Virginia, reminded us that we are only a small part of God's Kingdom work.

Nolan Lawson, spokesman for the Upper Room Task Force, reported that a feasibility study was made on converting the third floor of the PMBA Resource Center into usable space. He encouraged church leaders to contact the Task Force with their suggestions.

Nathan Parrish, chair of the Constitution Committee, made the recommendations to accept the proposed amendments to the Constitution and Bylaws as submitted. Both motions carried.

Travis Rhodes, chair of the Finance Committee, brought a financial report. He stated that without the faithfulness of individuals and PMBA congregations we would not be able to further God's Kingdom work.

Congregational Missionary Dale Harlan passionately reminded us of the monetary needs to help develop new churches, assist struggling congregations, fund new community projects, provide more opportunities for mission work and help with such evangelistic outreach as the Harvest Crusade that is coming to Winston-Salem in September 2002. The offering was designated for the Jim Hamblen Local Missions and Ministries Fund, which was established to help with projects and mission opportunities that might not otherwise get funded. We are proud to announce that $1,415.70 was collected.

Marsha Cowart, Pam Harrell and Laura Chafee, members of Oaklawn, shared a beautiful song, "Redemption Complete", as the offertory.

Maize Bumgarner, chair of the Personnel Committee, introduced Vicky Hallenbeck (the newest PMBA staff member), who serves as Ministry Assistant for Communications. She announced the realignment of staff priorities with Sandra Hall now serving as Administrative Coordinator and Karen Taylor serving as Church and Community Ministries Coordinator. Karen Taylor was presented with a monetary gift of appreciation by Mazie Bumgarner for 10 years of faithful service as a staff member of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. Karen began her ministry at PMBA January 21, 1992.

Mary Ella Barefoot, chair of the Enlistment Committee, made the recommendation to accept the nominees for 2002-2003 Leadership List as presented. She made note that several positions have not been filled, but are being prayerfully considered. The PMBA Enlistment Committee is committed to filling positions with people that have a passion and spiritual gifts for where they are asked to serve. The motion carried.

Associational Missionary Jim Hamblen presented the new officers for 2002-2003: Don Harvey, past moderator; Bobby Stewart, moderator; David Coburn; vice moderator; Nathan Parrish, vice moderator elect; Karen Taylor, clerk; John Woodard, historian; Travis Rhodes, treasurer; and Ivan Price, assistant treasurer.

The meeting adjourned at 4:51 with the congregation singing "Have Faith in God."

KAREN TAYLOR, Associational Clerk

LEADERSHIP & MINISTRIES DEVELOPMENT TEAMS

BIBLE TEACHING/REACHING TEAM (Sunday School)

May 24, 2002, Dale Harlan, Karen Taylor, and I met to discuss plans for developing a program of study for Bible Teaching/Reaching (Sunday School) teachers. After a time of prayer, we decided that we should first seek to enlist conference leaders with expertise in leading various age groups.

By August we had a strong team in place: Keith Fortenberry, Phil Wagoner, Sam Sorrells, Janet Evans, Bill and Vivian Holbrooks, Karen Malek, Kathy Steen, and Sandy Stiles. Following several planning sessions the team first participated in a Sunday School rally at Quaker Gap on August 10. Approximately 35 people attended and responded with enthusiasm and gratitude to the team.

The Bible Teaching/Reaching Team (BTR Team) will conduct training clinics in different regions in 2003. The regions are: North Stokes, South Stokes, East Forsyth, Central Forsyth, and West Forsyth. Churches in each of these regions will be contacted regarding the possibility of hosting a training clinic in their region. We are excited about the possibilities before us to equip our PMBA congregations.

Our goal is to study to show ourselves approved workers who need not be ashamed as we rightly divide the Word of Truth, and, with the Holy Spirit's guidance, we hope to lead others to do the same.

DOT HARMON, Leader

BROTHERHOOD TEAM

The year 2001-2002 saw Baptist Men continue in active ministry. Our main focus was in the area of disaster recovery, particularly in the coalfields of southern West Virginia. This area, struck by two floods, already economically depressed, was in great need. Centering our work in the town of Pineville, PMBA Baptist men constructed Samaritan House, a bunkhouse able to sleep 32 volunteers. Teams from Brim's Grove and Center Grove built decks on the Samaritan House, and Pineville First Baptist Church, respectively. This ministry was the first ministry in partnership with Samaritan's Purse, whose stateside disaster volunteers were now being trained by the PMBA Disaster Response Team. Multiple homes in Wyoming County were repaired by the teams.

PMBA Baptist Men partnered with the Associational WMU and Missions Partnership Team in a collection effort of items to be transported to Pineville. Long-term rebuilding continued in Grifton, North Carolina, where there were still houses needing repair from Hurricane Floyd over a year ago. Teams also went to New York City and Washington, D.C., in response to needs from the attacks on September 11, 2001. Disaster Response Team led disaster recovery training at Hillsdale Baptist Church (our first training in Davie County) and one in Weston, West Virginia.

Royal Ambassador work continues to progress, with the RA Racer Day. PMBA was recognized for the number of RA's from our association using Camp Caraway.

I would like to express my appreciation to the men and women who serve on our Council, our workgroups, and those churches who responded to needs in our community, state, nation, and the world. May their tribe increase!

STEVE KISER, Leader

COMMUNITY PARTNERSHIPS TEAM

The Community Partnerships Team was formed by Mike Bradshaw in 1986. This ministry was originally called Church & Community Ministries. The team was formed with the concept of opening up opportunities for ministry participation by our churches throughout their communities.

The first ministry established was the Baptist Toy Store. The Baptist Toy Store is promoted each year in the PMBA churches. Individuals and churches are encouraged to purchase new toys for children ages birth - 12 years of age. We have made it possible for parents to provide toys for their children since 1986. The number of children who receive toys usually average over 500, representing 150 plus families. Our target group for the last four years has been the working poor. We have expanded hours to assist parents who work. We also encourage churches to shop for members of their congregations or community who are experiencing difficult times. This way confidentiality of church members is preserved.

All my life I have celebrated and enjoyed Christmas. What a glorious event is the birth of our Savior. This year the love for total strangers rang out loud and clear and very true through the ministry of the Baptist Toy Store. The Toy Store was a great success thanks to PMBA congregations and individuals who brought toys, gave money, and volunteered their time. We served 151 families representing over 275 children through the Toy Store. A total of 28 families were adopted and helped by PMBA congregations.

A very poignant story comes to mind as I write this report. A young mother came to the Baptist Toy Store to get toys for her children. While she was waiting to meet with a counselor she began talking with another lady that had come to get toys for her grandchild. She learned that this was a grandmother who had just recently had her grandchild dropped into her arms and her daughter took off with a boyfriend. The grandfather was still in the hospital recovering from open heart surgery. This grandmother said that due to his medical bills, they were struggling themselves and now this added responsibility was overwhelming! It so happened that the young mother was a member of one of the PMBA churches. She had not personally shared her needs with her church (out of embarrassment); however, learning of this grandmother's dilemma, the young mother contacted the PMBA office to ask how she might help with this need. This young mother went to her church family, personal family and friends with an appeal to help these grandparents with this little boy. They collected food, clothing and other items and took it to the other family. With the help of the PMBA office, they packed their station wagon as well as another vehicle and delivered the goods to a very grateful family.

New opportunities for ministry are opening up through Community Partnerships. Next year we will begin our first ministry outreach to workers of the Dixie Classic Fair. This ministry will reach over 500 people and will target the needs of a group of people that rarely see the love of Jesus Christ in action in such a compassionate way. Health kits, clothing and Bibles will be given out during the week we work with the Fair workers. The Fair workers will receive breakfast, lunch, and snacks from PMBA churches. Many of them will have the opportunity to see a dentist or doctor for the first time in a very long time. The NC Baptist Men's Medical/Dental van will be on site and doctors and dentists as well as other volunteers will be on hand to offer free services.

We are excited about the possibilities for ministry this next year as Paul Kennedy and Carol Harlan come on board to head up the Community Partnerships Team. I will continue to direct the Baptist Toy Store and assist them with other community ministry projects.

CATHY DEAL, Leader

DISCIPLESHIP DEVELOPMENT TEAM

2001-2002 was a learning year for new Team leader, David Wood. However, several important projects were completed by the Team:

In January twenty-six individuals from six different congregations participated in a workshop on spiritual gifts. In addition to some very helpful work with spiritual gift inventories, the group was given an informative overview of the Body Life Curriculum by Pastor Charlie Martin.

Similar presentations were made for the participants in the March meeting of the Ministers Fellowship and the Annual Planning Retreat held in May.

Ruth Craver (Calvary) did an outstanding job of leading the Associational Bible Drills in April. Twenty-six children representing four congregations demonstrated great skill in locating, reading, and reciting verses from the Scriptures.

DAVID WOOD, Leader

EVANGELISM TEAM

The Evangelism Team, formed early in the Spring of 2002, was delighted and grateful to see the commitment of the PMBA to evangelism as evident by an increased budget. The team made numerous phone calls to Pastors and church members to commend them in their efforts and to enlist team members.

During the course of the year the team held 4 group meetings and several phone conferences.

Activities included encouraging participation in associational, state, and national events. The team partnered with the BSCNC in promoting the Evangelism Response Call Center Training including a 9/11 campaign. Monies were spent on assisting local churches with a Flea Market outreach and a community wide evangelistic drama.

During the course of the year plans were made and churches enlisted to participate in the Harvest Crusade. The team co-sponsored prayer rallies, pray walks, and other support services. One of the greatest benefits of the Harvest Crusade will be the equipping and motivation of the laity.

The Evangelism Team is available and pleased to provide training, consulting or participation in and for our churches. The Evangelism Team consists of 4 active members, with onemember having resigned during the course of the year. We would be happy to have you join this vital team. "His Last Command - Our First Concern"

MISSIONS PARTNERSHIPS TEAM

The Missions Partnerships Team continued the associational partnership with Alaska. Several church mission teams have gone to Alaska and assisted in various mission projects (i.e., Backyard Bible Clubs, evangelistic meetings, training of laity, and construction work at two of the Alaskan churches. As the partnership continues, medical teams and evangelism teams will be embarking on Alaskan soil to do hands-on mission work in our own country.

Due to the severe flooding of West Virginia, the Missions Partnership Team announced a new partnership with West Virginia. Over 900 homes needed construction assistance from Disaster Recovery teams from the PMBA congregations. Seven tractor-trailer loads of furniture were sent to West Virginia, thanks to the generous donation of both tractor trailers and drivers by the Roadway Truck Lines. Another big thank you goes to the Hawthorne Inn (a subsidiary of Baptist Hospital) that donated over 150 box springs and mattresses. Two PMBA congregations contributed enough good used appliances to fill one trailer. The outpouring of furniture donations as well as food and cleaning supplies more than met the expectations of this team.

The Disaster Relief Teams continue with rebuilding efforts from the eastern part of North Carolina. Many people believe this partnership has been fulfilled; however, there is still some work that needs to be finished due to the floods from Hurricane Floyd. PMBA congregations continue with their faithful involvement in the lives of our sisters and brothers in the eastern part of the state.

The Missions Partnership Team continues to assess different areas of the United States and internationally for information relating to mission projects where mission teams are needed. We are grateful to all 89 churches of the PMBA and for the vast participation of our congregations in responding to the opportunities to assist other states and countries.

ED EVANS, Leader

BELARUSSIAN CHILDREN TEAM

A sub team of the Missions Partnerships Team

The arrival of 18 children in Charlotte was good for us this year. All of the 16 host families were excited. These families represent ten of our PMBA churches.

We had several activities during the six weeks: Touring Golding Farms Foods, touring Old Salem, spaghetti lunch at Oaklawn Baptist Church, touring Mrs.Hanes Cookie Factory, and a farewell supper at Old Town Baptist given by PMBA WMU.

All the children were seen at Baptist Hospital with extensive examinations for some who had medical problems. All the children were seen by private dentists with many return visits resulting for some. Dr. Van Teague examined many of the children=s eyes and some went home with new glasses.

This association is very generous with money and many items to send with the children to Belarus. Cornerstone and Germanton had suppers with the money going to the Belarusian children. We were fortunate to have a tour bus and two drivers donating their time to take the children to Atlanta for the return trip.

Bringing these children to PMBA, giving them health bags, providing them food bags for the trip home, giving them Bibles, etc., would not be possible without your prayers, generous hearts, and love. 1 John 3:11 says, "For this is the message that ye heard from the beginning, that we should love one another."

GEORGIE KITCHEN, Assistant Coordinator

ORDINATION ADVISORY TEAM

The Ordination Advisory Team was asked to participate in the examination of three candidates for ordination over the past Associational Year:

1. Martin Kastner, pastor of Advance/FBC, was examined for ordination on January 4, 2002.
2. David Upton, minister of youth at Fellowship Baptist Church, was examined for ordination on January 10, 2002.

The Ordination Advisory Team assists congregations with the examination of candidates into the Gospel Ministry. We have had numerous occasions to share in the joy of ordination within our PMBA congregations and stand ready to assist whenever called upon.

RECREATIONAL MINISTRIES TEAM (BASKETBALL REPORT)

History & Purpose of PMBA Youth Basketball:

The PMBA Youth Basketball League started in the late 1950's in the gym at First Baptist Church in Winston-Salem and has been going strong ever since. From its beginnings as a league for the Royal Ambassadors, the PMBA Youth Basketball League has grown to include five different divisions: Junior Coed, Intermediate Boys, Girls, Senior High Boys-A, and Senior High Boys-B. This year we had a total of 40 teams representing 15 different churches. This gave us the opportunity to affect the lives of approximately 450 young people for the glory of God.

This Year's Highlights:

This year's season concluded with a banquet at Old Town Baptist Church. The purpose of this banquet was to bring conclusion to the regular session, to usher in some excitement for Championship Saturday, which was the next day at Calvary Baptist Church, and to challenge these young people to truly commit their lives to Jesus Christ and to be led daily by the Holy Spirit. We had over 400 coaches, players and guests in attendance.

We gave away some door prizes, presented trophies to the Regular Session Champions and Most Christ-like teams, reviewed events of the past season, and heard a challenging message from our keynote speaker Larry Grays, a graduate from Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary in May of 1996, receiving his Master of Divinity Degree and the Bessie M. Sachet Award for preaching excellence. Larry is truly an incredible speaker. He captivated the audience for almost 45 minutes with one of the most powerful messages I have ever heard. He also gave an opportunity for people to make public commitments for Jesus Christ. As a result of his message at least ten people were convicted of their sin by the Holy Spirit and committed their lives to Jesus Christ.

It was an incredible night and an incredible season. The comments I have received are overwhelming. I am looking forward to next year and exploring new ways to impact the lives of these young people with the message of Jesus. We could always use more volunteers and more ideas. Why not join us? Call Jason Club at 785-0853 if you are interested!

SEMINARY EXTENSION TEAM

Three Seminary Extension courses were taught during this associational year:

- New Testament Survey II (Bobby Stewart) with six students

- Luke (Paul Dean) with three students

- Southern Baptist Heritage (Doug Jordan) with four students.

All three were ACE courses, having been reviewed by the American Council on Education and judged to qualify for college credit recommendations. Each course was taught by a highly qualified instructor.

Only one course, New Testament Survey II, had the minimum number of students desired. The reason for such low enrollment has not been determined.

None of the students are enrolled in a diploma program.

Doug Jordan, the team leader of the PMBA Seminary Extension, resigned the spring of 2002 for health reasons.

SENIOR ADULT MINISTRIES TEAM

The Senior Adult Ministries Team hosted their annual Senior Adult Luncheon at Old Town Baptist Church with 465 senior adults in attendance. "The Group", a musical ensemble of approximately 12 men performed at the luncheon. Cecil Cave, retired minister of Mineral Springs, is the ensemble leader. They sang several old favorites of the group and concluded their performance with "God Bless America."

Again this year, the highlight of the luncheon was the drawing for door prizes. Several local businesses provided wonderful prizes. Two grand prizes were given: (1) a trip for two in a hot air balloon; and (2) a bowling bowl, which was one by a lady 85 years young and ready to get back to bowling!!

The Senior Adult Candle Tea was canceled this year due to inclement weather. The Candle Tea was scheduled to be held at Pfaftown Baptist Church. Due to this unforeseen cancellation, Pfafftown will be the church to host next year's Senior Adult Candle Tea.

The team is planning some "learning" events for next year. Hopefully, we will be able to offer some much needed programs to let Senior Adults know what type of services are available throughout our city.

The Team stands ready to help any church that would like to begin a Senior Adult Ministry. If that is their directive, they can contact Karen Taylor (759-7622) at the PMBA office and she will assist the church in connecting with the Senior Adult Team.

SPIRITUAL FORMATIONS TEAM

This completes the second year that the Spiritual Formation Team has been a vital ministry of PMBA. The goal of the team is to offer many various events in the hope of reaching as many of our PMBA churches as possible with opportunities for spiritual growth. Also, it is our hope that many of these events would be carried back to individual churches for use in their ministry.

The offerings for this year were:

- Everyday Spirituality, led by Peggy Haymes, author of the book, Heart Prayers, and Reflections, a popular devotional guide - September 21 and September 22, 2001. The event was held at Knollwood Baptist Church Youth Building
- The Prayer of Jabez - Training/Study Group, led by Dale Harlan
  The group met for 5 Mondays in October at noon at PMBA
- Praying in Times of Crisis, led by Dan Koger of Compass Point Ministries. The group met at PMBA for four Mondays in April.

We ask for your prayers and suggestions as we meet to plan each month. Please contact one of the members: Peggy S. Conrad, Lynn Graham, Martha Jones and Don Harvey. Thank you for your support as we all strive to grow closer to Him each day.

PEGGY CONRAD, Co-Leader

STUDENT MINISTRIES TEAM

During the last year the Student Ministries Team has worked primarily with Baptist and other interested students at Salem College. Bible studies and fellowship events have been offered. The team has also worked with the Religious Life Council at the college. This group plans campus worship, mission projects, Bible studies and fellowship for all students.

The Team has continued to seek individuals and churches who are interested in ministry to college students. There are many opportunities at our area colleges. We would like to thank the church groups who have helped prepare meals for our Monday night Bible studies.

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION LEADERSHIP TEAM

Key Verse for 2001-2002 Associational Year - 'Now to him who is able to do immeasurably more than all we can ask or imagine. According to his power that is at work within us, to him be glory forever and ever." Ephesians 3:20-21

The International Mission Emphasis Theme: The Unfinished Task - Planting with Passion. Goal: $120,000,000.00.

North American Mission Theme: On Mission Together: Showing the Way.
Goal: $50,000.000.00.

Over eighty churches of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association have focused this year on missions, one way or another. They have supported missions in the same way that WMU did when it first started in 1888:

- Pray and give to missions
- Develop spiritually toward a mission lifestyle
- Do missions
- Learn about missions
- Participate in the work of the church, association and denomination

The leadership training for WMU and Brotherhood was held jointly at College Park in August 2002. Leaders from 24 churches received training the last Saturday in August. During the annual leadership training WMU promotes the NC State Missions Week of Prayer, and we stress the importance for each church to promote this special offering, which helps to cover the overall expenses for North Carolina WMU and Brotherhood.

Cathy Hayes, Frances McDaniel, and Katherine Teague, Baptist Women Consultants, organized the Annual Salad Supper at Old Town Baptist Church. This is one of the WMU highlights for discovering the joy of missions. Keynote speaker Paul Mullen, director of Church and Community Relations at Baptist Hospital, shared a message entitled, Being the Heart of God. Rev. Mullen told how the Mother's Day Offering helps cover the expenses of the people who receive treatment and have no insurance and no means of paying their bills. Helping relieve this financial burden allows people to recover more quickly. God is so very good in so many ways!

Let it be said that the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association WMU Leadership Team never turns anyone away! There is always more than enough to eat, and we often take some home from such events. We share our salads with our neighbors and have a time of fellowship with sister churches. It is not unusual to see several men throughout the audience, and men are always welcomed to the annual Salad Supper, especially pastors and Brotherhood leaders!

During 2002, the WMU promoted Children in Action Project Help Literacy and Youth on Mission, which can help youth understand God's unchanging nature and love and challenge them to be witnesses of God's faithfulness among their peers. Youth on Missions have so much to give to the world. God is calling them and using them when they participate on a mission project for their church. Their age is not a barrier but an opportunity to witness to God's power and love.

Adults on Mission, a future beyond our imagination, involves sons and daughters on mission for God. God has promised to go with us and bless our efforts for Him. He will allow us to witness a harvest of souls that is beyond our imagination. Several of our churches have sponsored Operation In As Much, where every member of the church family can come together in one day and do hands-on mission work right in their own community. It is a time of sharing and putting into action our prayers as well as a time for fellowship with one another. Adults on Mission have strengthened the whole family. Mom, dad, sisters, and brothers are sharing and witnessing to our neighbors in the communities around us.

The Belarusian children visiting our association for six weeks every summer is a highlight for all the host families as well as the coordinators, Joyce Love and Georgie Kitchen. Eighteen to twenty children from Belarus and their chaperon traveled to Winston-Salem to experience living in a stress free, uncontaminated environment, receiving free medical and dental treatments. When they do return home, they travel with as much over the counter medication and vitamins as they can carry. The WMU Leadership Team has started a tradition of sponsoring the farewell picnic for our Belarusian guests and their host families. Each child is given a duffle bag with clothing, toilet articles, vitamins, and school supplies. The day the vans pull out of the Associational parking lot, many tears are shed by both the Belarusian children and the host families.

Selwyn Matthews and Valerie Sands, Missions Involvement consultants, host a Christmas party for the Forsyth Jail and Prison Ministry. Each year the health kits provided by the associational churches are greatly appreciated. Over 1,000 health kits were distributed among the inmates this year after they had partaken of the delicious refreshments.

Evelyn Benfield, Ethnic Diversity consultant, spearheaded a project to assist six Hispanic girls to go to G.A. Camp at Camp Mundo Vista. Due to generous donations, scholarships were offered to the six Hispanic girls who had signed up. Evelyn, serving as missionary staff at Camp Mundo Vista for the week they were scheduled to go, helped make the girls feel more at home. The Girls In Action have held several workshops led by Debbie Stephens and Betty Lou Vontsolos.

The World Day of Prayer is held the first Monday in November. This is a time when Baptist men and women come together to pray for our nation, the different people groups and their specific needs. This year PMBA World Day of Prayer was held at College Park at 10 a.m. and at Hillsdale at 7 p.m. An offering was collected and sent to the Baptist World Alliance. 157 people attended.

God wants us to be fully available in any given circumstances to give our best.

GLENDORA EPPERSON, Team Leader

YOUTH MINISTRY

2001-2002 was another great year for Youth Ministry in our Association. Youth leaders in our churches have been helpful in letting the Team know how we can best help them, and hopefully we have responded in an appropriate way. We provided several opportunities for young people to have training, and fellowship, and offered new events to provide for specific needs.

2001 Associational Fall Youth Retreat

Once again we assembled on November 16-18, 2002, for an exciting weekend at Ridgecrest for over 500 youth and adult chaperones! The theme was Ready, Set, Go and our young people discovered ways that they could deepen their relationship with Christ. A concert on Friday night by the praise band from Old Town Baptist Church built a bridge to last year's retreat, when they had led us during our worship times. Paul Leigh, and the praise band from First Baptist Church, Kernersville, led our worship times this year, as we explored how to "Be Different; Be Real"; and "Be You." It was a great time together and many young people shared first time decisions to follow Christ, while others recommitted their lives to Him. As always, we also shared in a fantastic variety show on Saturday night, which gave everyone a chance to celebrate their talents, and have a great time!

This year we also did something a little bit different with our event T-shirts. Each participant was given their long-sleeve T-shirt with the theme design, but they were also given a sharpie to gather as many signatures from other participants as possible on their shirt. This was intended to help the young people interact better with youth from other churches. It worked great, and gave them a memory from the weekend that we think will be more meaningful. We'll do that again next year!

Nineteen different churches from our Association were represented at this retreat and their enthusiasm was infectious! All churches present also were given a chance to help sponsor an upcoming city-wide True Love Waits Rally, with Dawson McAllister and yoU-Turn. The support was overwhelming, and we are looking forward to this wonderful event in February, 2003.

ORGANIZATIONAL SUPPORT COMMITTEES

ANNUAL MEETING COMMITTEE

The Annual Meeting Committee of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association met 11 times during the year. The 117th Annual Session was held at Grace United Community Church on July 28, 2002. In an effort to become better acquainted with our host church and offer them our full support, we held three committee meetings at Grace United on October 2001, June 2002, and July 2002. Other meetings were held at the PMBA Resource Center.

At our November meeting, the committee selected the theme for the 117th Annual Session as "Our Call to Faithfulness" based on Hebrews 11:1-2. In light of the tragedies which our nation experienced on September 11, 2001, the committee felt a theme was needed that celebrated the blessings of God's faithfulness to us, remembered the blessings found in faithful service to Jesus Christ, and provided assurance that our faithfulness to God would bring hope in the uncertainties of the present and future. The theme was developed during the session through focus on the ways we were and are to be faithful in Worship, in Service, in Stewardship, and in Commitment.

In an effort to build fellowship among our churches, the Annual Session began with dinner on the grounds. The fried chicken meal was provided by the churches of the PMBA and was coordinated by the PMBA Women's Missionary Union, PMBA staff and volunteers. In an effort to better communicate the missions and ministry of the PMBA, a multi-media presentation using slides, music and narration by PMBA Leadership Team leaders was used to celebrate the work of the past year. Paul Dean, past moderator of the PMBA, brought the theme interpretation. In addition to reports from various work units, a time was set aside to recognize those who offered themselves in service to the community, in remembrance of the events of September 11, 2001.

Our evaluation of the 117th Annual Session in August included PMBA staff, Annual Session participants and committee members. Our evaluation was positive, citing both blessings and lessons learned and to be applied before the next Annual Session. Planning for the 118th Annual Session has already begun. Please keep our committee in your prayers as we plan for another time of worship and celebration of the PMBA and its ministries.

CONSTITUTION COMMITTEE

The Constitution Committee is pleased to report a major revision of our governing documents in the last year. The changes were adopted at the Annual Meeting of the Association in July 2002. Following the direction of the Association and in an effort to empower team ministry, we simplified our constitution and by-laws. At the same time, we expanded the policies and procedures section of our operations manual. Taken together, the intentions of the constitution committee were to (1) bring our documents into harmony with current and/or desired procedures within the Association, (2) accurately reflect the current organizational structure of the PMBA, (3) create maximum flexibility and permission for work groups within the Association, and (4) produce a document that provides for the majority of future revisions to occur through the ongoing work of the Congregational Council rather than at the Annual Meeting.

We encourage the various ministry teams and committees in the PMBA to continually review those portions of the Operations Manual pertaining to their work. Please submit any proposed revisions to the Constitution Committee for review and subsequent referral to the Congregational Council for action. We are glad to serve the churches of the PMBA and look forward to a good year of ministry as we seek to fulfill the mission of the PMBA - to build up the Kingdom of God in partnership with local congregations.

NATHAN PARRISH, Chair

ENLISTMENT COMMITTEE

The Enlistment Committee has met monthly this past year. We evaluated the work of each committee and team in the Association, with the purpose of placing the most capable person in the vacant positions. The majority of positions were filled and approved at our Annual Meeting in July at Grace United Community Church

Each member of the Enlistment Committee has taken our obligation very seriously. We will strive, with God's guidance, to place the individuals we believe to be most capable into the various positions to carry out the work of the Kingdom through the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association for this upcoming year.

We would like to ask should anyone feel led to serve on a particular committee or team, to please contact a member of the Enlistment Committee.

MARY ELLA BAREFOOT, Chair

FINANCE COMMITTEE

The 2002 Audit Report has been completed by Gray, Callison and Company, P.A. Certified Public Accountants and was presented to the Finance Committee. The Pilot Mountain Baptist Association received a favorable report. The records of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association are in a high quality condition, which the Finance Committee contributes to the outstanding work performed by Sandra Hall, PMBA Administrative Coordinator, and Staff.

The Finance Committee is responsible for securing the outside audit for the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association and recommends that Gray, Callison and Company, P.A. be secured for next year=s audit. The Finance Committee would also like to thank the PMBA Staff for their outstanding work.

A copy of the Audit Report from Gray, Callison and Company, P.A., is on file in the PMBA Resource Center. The Audit Report is on file at the PMBA Resource Center.

TRAVIS RHODES, Chair

MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE

Jim Hamblen, Ed Stines, and I met with Pastor Joel Settle and the Steering Committee of The Summit. The decision was to recommend to the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association that this new work be accepted under watchcare for one year.

During the year I met with the pastor on several occasions to discuss subjects covering full membership into the Association. The Membership Committee then met with the pastor and members of The Summit. It was at that meeting that the motion was made to present The Summit into the Association as a full participating member church.

The motion was made at the annual associational meeting and was unanimously received. The hand of fellowship was extended to the pastor and other representatives present.

PERSONNEL COMMITTEE

This has been an enjoyable and exciting year. There were sufficient changes to keep us on our toes and transition enough to keep the office staff fresh and excited about their work.

One exciting change was the realignment of the staff positions of Sandra Hall and Karen Taylor. Karen, whom you knew as the person who was always there to guide you and who functioned as the Administrative Assistant: Communications, became the Church & Community Ministries Coordinator. Karen will assist the churches in connecting to community resources and partnerships. She is also available to help churches with their special committees (i.e., personnel and search). Karen is passionate about her new work.

Sandra Hall, whom you know as the Financial Secretary, has the new title of Administrative Coordinator. Sandra will continue to function as the very capable person over the financial duties. Her added responsibilities involved the coordination of the administrative duties of the PMBA. These changes are more in keeping with the Spiritual Gifts of Karen and Sandra.

As chair, I was privileged to facilitate a staff retreat, which was planned for assessing the proposed staff realignment. Spiritual gifts, job priorities, as well as changes in present job descriptions were assessed. One focus of the retreat was to look at possible difficulties and pitfalls during and after the realignment process. The retreat was very productive and a follow-up mini-retreat is planned.

Before any of the staff realignments could take place, a part-time staff person had to be secured. We believe God sent us Vicky Hallenbeck. Vicky's gifts, background and desire for a part-time position seemed a perfect fit. Vicky's work is excellent. Look at the Pilot and observe how interesting and readable it is. Vicky's title is Ministry Assistant for Communications.

The work of Jim Hamblen, Dale Harlan, and Steve Kiser had to be realigned to some degree to ensure an optimal transition. The realignment was truly a team effort.

Karen Taylor was presented with a gift at the Annual Meeting for ten productive years with the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. Karen has touched many lives through her dedicated and faithful work as well as through her Christian witness. We are thankful for her servant heart.

The dedicated servant leadership of Jim Hamblen and Dale Harlan is known across the nation. The other staff members: Karen Taylor, Sandra Hall, Vicky Hallenbeck, and Steve Kiser are essential members of the PMBA team. These servants have a heart for KINGDOM BUILDING.

I appreciate the dedication and faithfulness of the Personnel Committee this year. Our excellent committee functions as a team:

As I See It...

any examination of the experiences of this past year will reveal some victories and some defeats that will affirm the fact that we are a "people of faith/commitment on a journey" attempting to know and understand the Will of God for our lives and our work.

When we attempt to envision the future we are influenced by the events from our past and the situation of the present.

Regarding our common past experiences

- There are many spiritual intersections where we may have learned more from our "set-backs" than we did from our successes. During this past year we have been in a period of adjustment in several areas
- We have been adjusting to new assignments for Karen Taylor and Sandra Hall
- New ministry opportunities have been addressed under Karen's leadership and churches have become more involved through those activities such as: the Fair Ministry, Seams Ministry, the Baptist Toy Store
- Sandra has assumed new responsibilities in coordinating the "work-flow" throughout the office and the organization, in general.
- We have been adjusting to new financial realities. Many of the congregations are hurting due to the economic downturn while others are growing and contributing much to missions and ministries through the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association.
- We need to provide additional help and resources to congregations who need assistance.
- We need to discover additional sources of income.
- We need to support the ministries and missions of the association through percentage giving as we do through the Cooperative Missions Program.
- We have been adjusting to the changes in our organizational structures that were implemented as a result of the 1998 report.
- The new leaders in the PMBA function at a high level of commitment and service. Their effectiveness and their efficiency should be commended by the association at large.

Regarding our present situation

No one seems to be able to interpret, with any degree of certainty, how all of the changes will impact congregational life.

We are reminded of the words of Loren Mead when he said "The 21st Century will look more like the 1st Century as far as the spiritual climate is concerned than it will look like the 20th Century."

The longer we live in this post-modern era the more we are convinced that he may be right on target.

We may have the greatest opportunity to exhibit authentic Faith, genuine Hope, and real Love than we have had in our lifetimes.

Regarding our future direction

In a manner of speaking...

"We have packed our bags!" [That is, "We have enough resources to do the task in front of us"]

"We have been trained for the job!" [That is, we already know 'how to do' the Work of the Kingdom more than we are actually doing]

"We have our orders!" [That is, we are directed by the Love of God and the example of Jesus to be His 'witnesses' where we are day by day]

The question remains ever before us:

Will we be faithful to the Cause of Christ and obedient to the Will of God in our time?

JIM HAMBLEN, Associational Missionary

What A Challenging and Exciting Ministry Opportunity!

As your Congregational Missionary, I am a missionary to YOU, the churches of the PMBA. I want to thank you for the opportunity that God has given me to walk with you these past two years. Being able to visit many of the congregations for worship, fellowship, preaching, and teaching opportunities has been such a blessing for me. I look forward to this next year as we continue to grow in our understanding of the kingdom plan that God has for all of us.

God has richly blessed our association with leaders who have a kingdom vision for this association of churches. How thankful I am to minister with them as we together discern God's direction for this family of churches and have the faith to walk with God on the journey that He has for us. It is a rich experience to be a part of PMBA staff that has such a positive and passionate spirit and attitude. Jim, Karen, Sandra, Steve, and Vicky are a wonderful team. I am indeed, of all people, blessed to have them as friends and co-ministers!

This has been a very exciting and challenging year to be a part of the family of PMBA churches! Exciting in that I have seen congregations make strategic decisions to change and make some shifts to become more effective in reaching their kingdom potential.in that we have been given so many open doors for ministry this year. Challenging in that there are some great opportunities ahead for other congregations to make these same types of decisions, if they have the faith and courage to do so. We have a number of churches that have lost their vision and passion and must make some difficult changes, if they are to continue to exist. I have been able to help churches through the process of making shifts and changes through coaching, training and consulting with many congregations. It is not an easy task to change the old paradigms by rethinking and reframing the way we do church.

During this past year, I have had the God given privilege to walk with many of you as we joined our Lord in kingdom building. These are some of the ministries and opportunities in which I have assisted:

- Assisting Ardmore and Calvary in beginning a new Chinese ministry
- Seeing the Industrial Areas Foundation organization become a reality in the Winston-Salem area
- Helping New Beginning close its doors so that a new thing might be birthed
- Participating with the Good Neighbor Center at Shattalon Oaks as it opened its doors for ministry through the faithfulness of Pfafftown Baptist Church
- Facilitating the growth of Learning Communities (ministers groups) in the PMBA
- Continuing to receive training in Christian Coaching
- Facilitating several Church Council and Deacon retreats in our churches
- Working with our Church Development Team and Nolan Lawson as the leader
- Continuing to facilitate the Pursuing Vital Ministry process in some of our churches
- Realizing the vision of a functioning Bible Teaching and Reaching Team (Sunday School) with Dot Harmon as the team leader

As you can imagine, this was a very busy year, but what a blessing!

Perhaps, Paul said it best in Ephesians 3:20-21, Now to him who is able to do immeasurably more than we ask or imagine, according to his power that is at work in us, to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations for ever and ever! Amen. God has been allowed to do immeasurable more than any of us could have through during this past year. Just think, what could happen this next year if we truly seek him and his kingdom and choose to be obedient servants as individuals, congregations and as an association!

Help Congregations Surf the Rough Waters of Change And Find Their Way to Their God-Given Destination

Tom Bandy, in his book Christian Chaos: Revolutionizing the Congregation, says that the world in which we live is a world of chaos. Culture is changing so quickly, with such diversity, in so many simultaneous directions that church groups organized around traditional principles can't keep up. They find themselves spending more and more energy lamenting change, resisting change, struggling with change, expressing anger about change, desperately trying to manage change, or just plain surviving change. Change, he says, will not go away. It is relentless and accelerating.

The leadership of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association is committed to creating an organization that will help congregations surf the rough waters of change and find their way to their God-given destination. We want to create an organization that will be more responsive to the needs of local congregations. We want to encourage local congregations to do more than survive, but to thrive to remain healthy and focused on doing everything possible to realize their full potential. For that reason, we have spent considerable time over the last few months as a Coordinating Council examining our organization and fine-tuning the process that was begun by the Transition Monitoring Team, under the direction of Ty Talton.

The end result has been an organization that is stream-lined toward what I believe is a more user-friendly, consultative, team approach. Now we have leadership development teams and ministries development teams. The Administrative Advisory Council is now the Associational Leadership Team. Of course, central to the organizational chart is the Brotherhood and WMU, and that is appropriate, since missions is the heartbeat of our associational life. It goes without saying that the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association would not be functioning as effectively as it is without the capable leadership of Jim Hamblen and Dale Harlan.

I'm excited about the renewed emphasis on Congregational Development. Not only is there a need for new work in our area, but there is a need for development of existing congregations that may be plateaued or declining. Strong efforts are being made to resource them, and I heartily endorse this. I'm also excited about the Task Force report on the development of the Upper Room (the unfinished area on the upper level of our Resource Center that has the potential for becoming just that -- a resource center. In addition to all of this, I am struck by the potential that we have in our new Ministry Assistant for Communications, Vicky Hallenbeck, to bring some creativity and clarity in associational communication. Best of all, I'm gratified by the number of informal partnerships between churches that I see developing all over our association. Churches are moving away from the competitive turf of building their own kingdoms to partnering with other churches in building up the Kingdom of God. They recognize that the kingdom venture belongs to others as well; and that more can be done together than singularly.

I'm deeply appreciative of the cooperative spirit among our churches and the absence of rancor that is so prevalent in other associations. We are unique in that respect; Pilot Mountain Baptist churches respect and love each other as autonomous bodies who have voluntarily chosen to join together in the Kingdom venture. We are a diverse group. There have been increasing numbers of African-Americans and Hispanics in our fellowship. There is a healthy, mutual respect for brethren from different sides of the theological aisle. Worship styles range from the formal and liturgical to contemporary and everything traditional between. Big churches, small churches, urban, suburban, and rural churches. We are diverse. And that is our strength. We have not allowed our diversity to divide us, but we have allowed our love for God and each other to drive us.

My encouragement to all of us is to continue to let Kingdom-building be our primary focus, and to cultivate the kind of partnership that has historically characterized us as freedom-loving Baptists. There's room under the Baptist umbrella for all of us! Let the love of Christ reign! And let His Spirit empower us to go and do what He has called us to do--to touch the world with His redeeming love and to push back the boundaries of His Kingdom to the farthest edges of the earth.

And may He, who is the same yesterday, today, and forever, continue to receive all the honor and glory for the great things He is doing through the fine people who count themselves a part of the best association of Baptists anywhere, Pilot Mountain. I count it a privilege to have served such a fine organization as moderator, and truly believe that the best days are ahead for us!

My Mind Lingers With the Sustaining Intense Passion And Love for the Lord

As I seek to contemplate on the accomplishments of 2001-02, my mind does not linger long with the financial goals met, the promotional growth programs and ministries or seminary classes attended, churches who may have left and/or joined the Association, but with the sustaining intense passion and love for the Lord that has remained constant within the PMBA Family. People may do "good" for recognition and for unknown motives. But when a united people do for others from the motive of love, it becomes the Light of Jesus Christ in a sometimes dark and troubled world.

Being embraced by the PMBA as Vice Moderator has led to a personal crusade among other General Baptist Convention Churches to become affiliated with the PMBA. I do believe the sharing of ministries would benefit both groups since the missions are identical.

As we move to a new year, we may seek to do greater work in Kingdom building for God; however, we must not underestimate the accomplishment of love among the Christian Family.

BOBBY STEWART, Vice-Moderator

A Time of Orientation And Implementation

This year has been both a time of orientation and implementation for the newly formed Leadership Development Team of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. As a result of our association's bold initiatives to improve its organizational structure, the Discipleship, Bible Study, Church Development, Evangelism, Music and Worship, Ordination, Pastoral Care, Seminary Extension, Senior Adult, Spiritual Formation, Youth Ministries and Fellowship teams were grouped together to become the Leadership Development Team.

During the Associational Coordinating Council meetings the Leadership Development Team has met and on one occasion held a separate meeting for the purpose of enhancing better communication and cooperation between the respective work units on this team. It has been both informative and inspiring to witness the team leaders becoming more familiar with the particular activities of each team and gaining greater appreciation for the common goals they share in the area of developing qualified leaders in the local churches making up our association. We have managed to coordinate calendared activities, explore possible opportunities to work together, discuss common goals and challenges, resulting in a sense of cohesiveness and cooperation.

In our last team meeting we developed our Mission Statement for the purpose of guiding future planning and activities. It reads as follows: Our mission is to serve as a catalyst through encouraging and equipping churches to participate in a Christ-centered process resulting in the development of qualified, effective and committed Christian leaders

As we look toward the year ahead of us we anticipate, with the Lord's help, establishing meaningful ongoing relationships with the various leaders of our local churches. Through these relationships we hope to assist them in identifying, calling and equipping qualified leaders. We firmly believe that when we assist churches in meeting their leadership needs, as new or established congregations, we are doing our part in empowering them for God's Kingdom Growth.

Be More Effective in Kingdom Building

The Ministries Development Team of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association during our birth year has been informational and a time to grow. Through our growing and learning from each other, we can be more effective in Kingdom Building through Brotherhood, Church-Minister Relations, Community Partnerships, Creative Ministries, Mission Partnerships, Recreational Ministries, Student (Campus) Ministries, and WMU Leadership, that comprise the Ministries Development Team.

We have a clearer understanding of each team and with more dialogue comes a greater appreciation of each teams individual responsibility and how we can cooperate by including each individual in each congregation of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. We see our main objective to assist the local church in various areas of ministry from Recreational Ministries (Hoops for Him) to Mission trips to Alaska or West Virginia.

JOYCE LOVE, Congregational Ministries Development Team Leader

HISTORY OF

Grace United Community Church

This African-American Baptist Church was the result of God's blessing on two churches that united in the cause of religion. Pastor Oscar B. Cook, under the guidance of the Holy Spirit and with a small band of the faithful, founded Zion Hill Missionary Baptist Church in 1979. They shared quarters with another church. Their wish and dream was for a separate facility of their own. The church changed its name to Zion Hill Community Baptist Church in 1996. This reinforced their position of being mission-minded within the city and community.

The Rev. Daryl R. Hairston founded St. Andrew Community Baptist Church in 1994. It was Pastor Hairston's dream to establish a multi-cultural ministry. They established a relationship with Ardmore Baptist Church, then under the ministry of Rev. J. L. Wilson. St. Andrews Community Baptist Church purchased Temple Baptist Church at 245 Melody Lane in 1996.When Reverend Hairston was called from the work in 1997 the church called Reverend Joseph B. Parks as pastor.

Reverend Parks at this time was also pastor of Zion Hill. Under his leadership these two churches merged in 1997 as Zion Hill-St. Andrew Community Baptist Church. One congregation was Southern Baptist and the other was independent Baptist. The congregation wanted a new name to more accurately reflect the new identify of its people. "The congregation also wanted to look beyond racial and cultural externals and touch the heart of people"

February 8, 1998, the congregation chose a new name and became Grace United Community Church, "a non-traditional missionary Baptist church seeking to reach all people." This was an important year in the history of the church as they began a Prison Ministry (March), had a Dedication Service (March), and a Consecration and Installation Service (August).

The church was admitted to the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association under watchcare as St. Andrews Community Baptist Church on October 1, 1996, and admitted fully to the association at the Fall 1997 association meeting. St. Andrews Community Church reported a total of 15 members with 10 enrolled in Sunday School.

In 2002 the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association met in their annual meeting and enjoyed the hospitality of Grace United Community Baptist Church, truly - a non-traditional Baptist Church seeking to reach all in the name of God.

HIGHLIGHTS OF CONGREGATIONAL COUNCIL MEETINGS

OCTOBER 9, 2001

Community Partnerships Team reported that the Baptist Toy Store applications will be taken on October 22, 2002. Again this year, there will be an added focus on helping the working poor. Congregations are encouraged to submit names of families in need.

Administrative Advisory Team reported that Scott Freese has made much progress in establishing a non-profit board for the ministry to internationals in the academic community.

Annual Meeting Committee reported that the Annual Meeting will be held at Grace United Community Church on Sunday, July 28, 2002, beginning with a meal at 2 p.m.

The Finance Committee reported that the Association is behind in actual contributions from churches. The actual budget reflects $24,000 below the Basic Plan.

Properties Committee reported that the associational parking lot will be resurfaced soon. The PMBA Resource Center has a new phone system.

JANUARY 8, 2002

- Brotherhood Team reported a new partnership with West Virginia due to the extreme flooding that our brothers and sisters in West Virginia are experiencing. The Brotherhood Team entered into a partnership with Samaritan's Purse in order to offer more disaster relief and recovery efforts. The Congregational Council went on record to announce support of both partnerships.

- Finance Committee reported a 3% increase in contributions for 2001. PMBA actually borrowed $10,000 from unrestricted designated funds in January 2001, and repaid ourselves in December 2001. The 2002 Basic Plan was approved as presented by the Finance Committee.

- Associational Missionary's Report - Jim Hamblen reported that the budget will reflect no raises for any staff member. Instead, the proposed 3% increase in personnel costs will be placed in a Staff Contingency Fund with plans of realigning responsibilities of staff.

APRIL 9, 2002

- Discipleship Development Team reported a Small group Facilitator Training event scheduled for Saturday, April 27, 2002, from 9 a.m. until 4 p.m. at the PMBA Resource Center.

- Church-Minister Relations Team will conduct a seminar entitled, Dealing With Difficult Situations in Churches at Ardmore Baptist Church. People will be able to choose two modules from the following: Power Struggles, led by George Bullard; Confronting With Love, led by Dale Harlan; Setting Boundaries, led by Laurel Link; and Church-Staff Relations, led by Wayne Oakes. There is no charge for this event.

- Evangelism Team reported the upcoming Harvest Crusade with Greg Laurie at the Lawrence Joel Veterans Memorial Coliseum September 13-15, 2002.

- Spiritual Formations Team reported a weekly class led by Dan Koger entitled, Praying In times of Crisis. This event is open to everyone.

- Missions Partnerships Team reported great response to the new partnership with West Virginia. Churches were encouraged to send mission teams to help with the relief and recovery efforts as well as participate in collecting household items, furniture, etc.

- Belarussian Childrens Project Team reported that 18 children plus one chaperon will be coming to Winston-Salem from Belarus. 15 families representing 9 churches will serve as host families.

- WMU Team reported that the Mission Action Booklet will be a joint effort between WMU and Brotherhood, offering more mission opportunities. The Brotherhood/WMU Leadership Training will be held on August 24, 2002, at Clemmons First Baptist Church.

- Recreation Ministries Team reported a very successful basketball league this year. 550 people attended the Basketball Banquet, which was held at Old Town Baptist Church. The keynote speaker challenged the youth to develop an intimate relationship with Jesus Christ.

- Student Ministries Team announced a farewell picnic for students on May 4, and a hiking event at Hanging Rock in June.

- Leadership Team (formerly Administrative Advisory) reported that a Feasibility Study was underway to determine the possibility of converting the third floor space in the associational building into working space.

- Finance Committee reported $4,000 below budget. Association actually spent more than we took in. Our budget continues to reflect the pains of this economy.

- Personnel Committee reported staff realignment according to specific gifts.

- Properties Committee reported the purchase of a new Dell computer, monitor and keyboard. Damages caused by a water leak resulted in the repair of a downstairs wall. Properties Committee reported that there is no reason or motive to consider selling this property at this time. They acknowledged First Assembly of God's desire to acquire the PMBA Resource Center property; however, the Association's position has not changed.

SBC BOARDS & AGENCIES

2002 ANNUAL REPORTS

REPORT for 2002 BOOK of REPORTS

OFFICE of ANNUITY

The Annuity Office of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina continues to enjoy a close working relationship with the Annuity Board of the Southern Baptist Convention in providing services related to retirement planning, financial support of ministers and other church employees, life and health insurance, church/clergy tax issues, and ministry to retirees and seminary/divinity students.

Despite national and international market volatility, national grief, and a wartime political climate during this past year new opportunities and services were launched in an ongoing effort to fulfill the guiding principle of Serving Those Who Serve the Lord. To be specific, all the investment funds were successfully restructured to a registered mutual fund environment, called AB Funds Trust. As a result, new retail investment products, under the theme "New Investment Opportunities...Absolutely!," were introduced. For the first time ministers, church employees, and annuitants may now open IRA and Personal Investment Accounts. With the passage of the Economic Growth and Tax Reconciliation Act (EGTRRA) retirement options have been enhanced dramatically including the ability to roll over other retirement funds from a secular employer.

Furthermore, new medical and disability insurance products were rolled out with the commitment to provide several options to meet increasingly different needs of our populace. Endorsed carriers, such as long-term care and property/casualty, continued to attract interest from our churches and church employees.

The Endowment and Relief Ministry was restructured to provide enhanced financial assistance to the needy, retired ministers and their widows. Funds available to assist these persons increased as well as the number of people who applied for this assistance.

The 2002 SBC Compensation Study with 35 state conventions participating has been conducted and the results are now accessible on the internet. For the first time church leaders are now able to do a customized study on the web. We are very excited about this useful tool as one valuable resource in assisting churches leaders as they study to determine what is a fair and equitable compensation for those who serve the Lord in our churches.

As of June 30, 2002, 61% (2,314) of our NC churches were actively participating in the retirement plan. A record number of 2,851 were receiving benefits and 388 being assisted through the Adopt An Annuitant ministry.

In closing, we remain committed to serve all of our churches, ministers, and other church employees. For more information related to products or services, call the Baptist State Convention of NC at 1.800.395.5102 extension 174, visit our Web site at www.bscnc.org or call the Annuity Board at 1.800.262.0511, or visit the Annuity Board Web site at www.absbc.org.

Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina

Jason and Lacey know real hope after facing hopeless times. Jason and Lacey lived with their mother in Hilo, Hawaii. It sounds wonderful, but for the brother and sister it was far from paradise. Their mother's lifestyle constantly placed the two children in danger. Jason was given the blame by his mother for many of the things that had gone wrong in her life.

"She didn't care about anything," Jason recalls now. "I was just there. She didn't care for me."

Jason drew violent pictures. He had difficulty relating to people and was diagnosed with attention deficit disorder. Soon his secrets were exposed. He had suffered severe physical and emotional abuse by his mother. Drugs had been a pervasive part of his life. He had begun using drugs when he was six years old.

Once Jason's grandparents discovered the truth about Jason's life, they sought immediate help for their grandson and found the help they desperately needed from Baptist Children's Homes. In August 1996, he began his new life at Broyhill Home in Clyde.

Lacey still lived with her mother. The two moved to Arizona. Lacey spent her days in the cab of her mother's boyfriend's semi-truck. She was not attending school. After Jason left, Lacey became the focus of her mother's abuse.

Again, the siblings' grandparents intervened. The couple began to think about bringing Lacey to live at Broyhill Home. In 1997, 14 months after Jason, she was safe. Lacey and Jason's grandparents credit Baptist Children's Homes for giving their grandchildren real hope.

Lacey says she plans to be a lawyer. She likes fighting for the underdog. Jason has plans for a career in broadcast journalism. Since coming to Broyhill Home, both children have accepted Christ as their Savior.

"Things began to turn around for me when I became a Christian. I began to read my Bible," Jason says. "I learned a lot of the answers to my questions. I felt like I could be more open."

"Jason might be in an institution, in prison or dead. We try not to even think of what Lacey's life would be like today," the grandparents say. "They've been saved!"

Jason and Lacey are two of the 1,855 children cared for by BCH last year.

Baptist Children's Homes grieves with Nation after September 11th attack – BCH president calls for acts of kindness. In the wake of the tragic events of September 11, BCH president Dr. Michael C. Blackwell stepped to the forefront to calm and encourage children and families. As the nation reeled from the attack, Blackwell immediately offered words of comfort to families through news media from Louisiana, Arizona, Alabama and across North Carolina. He urged Americans to "show kindness" to one another and exhibit "acts of goodness" toward their communities in response to the violence exhibited against our country. BCH children and staff united to provide needed items for those serving at Ground Zero and gave blood for the victims. Despite the physical and emotional effects of September 11, BCH's mission has remained unwavering. "America's spirit has not been lost, and our spirit of helping and healing is stronger than ever," said Blackwell.

BCH faces financial shortfalls due to 9/11, North Carolina Baptists rise to meet financial challenges. As charities across America began to feel the financial effects of 9/11, Baptist Children's Homes also faced shortfalls. Experiencing nearly a 60 percent drop in annual fund giving, President Michael C. Blackwell made an urgent plea to friends and supporters. After an intense effort including personal letters and phone calls, North Carolina Baptists responded, rallying to close the gap by year-end. "I knew North Carolina Baptists would not forget their children," said Blackwell. North Carolina Baptists also stepped forward by meeting the 2001 Thanksgiving Offering Goal. Today, the effects of 9/11 are still being felt. "It is important for North Carolina Baptists to not grow weary in their efforts to help our boys and girls," said Blackwell. "Our churches are our lifeline. It is because of them we are able to touch the lives of so many."

New BCH strategic plan unveiled. Quest: A Journey of Excellence is the title of the new strategic plan that will guide Baptist Children's Homes through 2004. The major goals of the new plan include recruiting and retaining competent qualified staff; training staff; and maintaining and enhancing BCH facilities.

BCH Trustees approve allocation for Information Technology. Trustees made way for sweeping technological improvements throughout BCH. A new Information Technology Center was created and work began to connect all ministry sites digitally. "Every step we take is designed to enable us to better serve children and families… today and in the future," said Dr. Michael C. Blackwell.

Gastonia couple honored at Nolen Building dedication. William "Red" and Mabel Nolen were recognized for their contribution at the dedication of the newly renovated and renamed Nolen Administration building at Mills Home on January 22, 2002. A gift from the Gastonia couple, who have long-time ties to BCH, made the necessary renovations possible.

BCH's Developmental Disabilities Ministry dedicates two new group homes. More than 200 Baptist leaders, Baptist Children's Homes administrators, staff, and guests were in attendance for the historic dedication of BCH's first, new group homes for developmentally disabled adults on March 26, 2002. The two homes, Davis House and Hinkle House, joined Baptist House at Bethabara located in Winston-Salem. Plans to break ground on the next DDM group home to be located in Sanford are scheduled for 2003. Baptist State Convention President Dr. Jerry Pereira, who spoke at the dedication, predicted "the Lord is going to do great and mighty things" through this ministry.

A Place for Miracles* published. In March 2002, BCH president Michael C. Blackwell introduced his second book. More than three years in the making, A Place for Miracles is a mixture of history, autobiography, inspiration, and vision. The book received the 2002 Baptist Communicators Association Design Award for Best Book Design.

New Millennium Families: A Study Guide* introduced to North Carolina Baptists. In September 2001, the study guide to BCH president Michael C. Blackwell's book New Millennium Families was introduced at the first of two statewide Deacon-Spouse Training Events in Bryson City. A total of more than 200 deacons and their spouses attended the two conferences. Blackwell and study guide creator Gaylin Huff led group sessions regarding the changing make-up of families as discussed in the book and its effects on the church in North Carolina. A Study Guide, to be used with New Millennium Families, helps teachers prepare for and guide groups of adults using four different formats: 7 Week Study, Youth Parent Study, Single Parent Study, and Family Ministry Study.

Baptists called to join "Chain of Prayer" for North Carolina's children and families. BCH president Michael C. Blackwell has asked for all North Carolina Baptists to participate in the "Chain of Prayer." Begun in February 2002 at the annual Baptist Men's conference in Charlotte, this physical chain is made up of thin strips of paper containing the handwritten prayers of NC Baptist men, women and children. Throughout the year, these strips are being gathered by BCH representatives and formed together into a chain that will be displayed at this year's Baptist State Convention in November. With children and families facing many different sources of crisis in today's world, Dr. Blackwell believes this statewide unification of prayers for children and families in our state will yield great results.

The support of North Carolina Baptists through the Thanksgiving Offering, Cooperative Program, church and individual gifts, memorials, honors, and estate gifts enables us to fulfill our mission statement – "helping hurting children….healing broken families" – through 14 locations throughout the state. Thank you, North Carolina Baptists, for your continued prayers and support.

Biblical Recorder

2002 Associational Report

The world is changing rapidly, and Baptists are changing right along with it. Gone are the days of a simple denominational life or a single way to be Baptist. Never has it been more important for North Carolina Baptists to be informed of the many issues affecting Baptist life, mission work and mutual cooperation.

The Biblical Recorder exists to provide this needed service to Baptists in North Carolina and beyond. The Recorder staff works diligently to comb through many sources of information and distill them into a trustworthy resource that offers regular, dependable and balanced news coverage and analysis of the most significant matters relating to Baptist life. In addition, the Biblical Recorder includes a variety of supportive resources and feature articles designed to encourage and inspire as well as to inform.

The Biblical Recorder's strategic role in promoting God's kingdom work through North Carolina Baptists grows from its mission statement: "to further Christ's kingdom by providing relevant news, insightful opinions and supportive resources to North Carolina Baptists in a timely and accessible fashion."

As the official news journal of the BSCNC, the Biblical Recorder has functioned faithfully since its establishment in 1833 by Thomas Meredith. The Recorder was privately owned and operated in support of Baptist work in North Carolina until 1938, when the paper was purchased by the Baptist State Convention and incorporated as an agency of the convention.

The Biblical Recorder is widely acknowledged to be in the top echelon of state Baptist papers, winning national honors from the Baptist Communicator's Association for news and editorial writing in 2000, and taking the association's top prize for news writing in 2001.

The Biblical Recorder offers a special service that makes it possible for churches to combine a regular newsletter and the Biblical Recorder in a single package, offering significant financial savings.

In addition to its printed form, the Biblical Recorder maintains a popular presence on the World Wide Web at www.biblicalrecorder.org. This Web site offers Internet users an opportunity to read much of each paper's content online, as well as to access classified ads, online Bible study resources and a news/weather portal. Thousands of interested readers around the world consult the online version regularly.

As a BSCNC agency, the Biblical Recorder receives annual support from Cooperative Program gifts, making it possible to offer the Recorder at very affordable subscription rates. Subscription packets and free sample issues are available. For more information, please contact:

It is a joy for the Christian Action League of North Carolina to serve the churches of this great state. We continue to work to inform the Christian community about the moral issues that face our state and nation. Our goal is to address these issues with the principles of God's Word, the cornerstone of all truth.

A. Christian Values

- CAL has continued to promote and distribute copies of the Ten Commandments throughout North Carolina. Over 18,000 have been distributed state-wide.

- The Executive Director of the Christian Action League has written numerous editorials that have appeared in major newspapers across the state; two have appeared in the Raleigh News and Observer and one in the Charlotte Observer. Reverend Creech is published regularly in The Charlotte World, The Raleigh World and the Triad World newspapers.

- CAL publishes once a week an Issues Alert that keeps over 1,000 people updated on the most significant events in the cultural war. Many times the Issues Alert advocates some action that Christians can take to make an impact for Christ on our legislators and U. S. Congressmen.

- Reverend Creech has taken a bold stand in favor of U.S. Rep. Walter B. Jones' bill "House of Worship Political Speech Protection Act - HR 2357" which would permit churches and other houses of worship to engage in political campaigns. Rep. Jones said: "If this nation is going to remain free and strong, I think churches have an obligation to talk about issues." This bill would restore the free speech rights of pastors and ministers to speak openly about moral and religious issues during political campaigns without fear of IRS reprisal. Rev. Creech appeared on NBC 17 to debate the North Carolina head of Americans United for the Separation of Church and State on this issue.

- The Christian Action League actively promoted the "Shield a Badge with Prayer" program started by Reverend Michael Taylor, President of the North Carolina Sheriffs' Chaplains Association. The program pairs law enforcement officers with Christian people who commit to pray for them. Rev. Creech's promotion of the program on radio and in editorials resulted in Agape Press (a national Christian news agency) picking up the story and elevating it to national prominence.

- For the second consecutive year, Reverend Mark Creech has been asked to participate in the Christian World View Institute for Students. The Institute combines a balanced mix of courses that include training in the Christian World View and the opposing world views, apologetics, logic, intelligent design, government, journalism, America's Christian heritage and leadership.

B. Gambling

- Reverend Mark H. Creech has been an active member of Citizens United Against the Lottery which includes such distinguished members as William Friday (former Chancellor of the University of North Carolina system); Billy Graham (Evangelist); former Governor Robert Scott; former U. S. Senator Lauch Faircloth and Chuck Neely (2000 Gubernatorial candidate).

- The Christian Action League of North Carolina focused most of its energy this year in keeping a state-operated lottery out of North Carolina. Our efforts have been effective.

Chuck Neely, President of Citizens United Against the Lottery, recently said: "Mark Creech and the Christian Action League have played a pivotal role in holding off the gambling forces .. Mark - who speaks with the powerful, impassioned voice of truth - has helped to organize hundreds and hundreds of the faithful to call their legislators and let them know of their opposition to the lottery. Without the leadership of CAL, it is doubtful that we could have prevailed so long. The battle goes on, but Mark and CAL are always to be found where the fight is thickest. On behalf of Citizens United Against the Lottery, I am proud to acknowledge the leadership and effective effort of Mark Creech and the Christian Action League."

- In order to equip pastors and lay persons with information about the harmful effects of a lottery, the Christian Action League held workshops called "A Christian Looks at Gambling" in strategic areas across our state. CAL also furnished hundreds of packets of lottery materials (Gambling: A Bad Bet for North Carolina) to pastors.

- The League has lobbied for the passage of the Video Poker Ban bill (SB 1008). The bill currently remains in the House Rules Committee. The Department of Revenue says there are 10,094 video poker machines in the state.

C. Sex Education

- In March, 2002, the Wake County school board voted to teach comprehensive sex education. Reverend Mark Creech and CAL fought vigorously to keep comprehensive sex ed out of Wake County schools. Creech said in an editorial which appeared in the Raleigh News and Observer "protected promiscuity has no part in God's plan. Only sex in the context for which it was intended-lifelong, monogamous marriage-is safe."

D. Education

- Reverend Mark Creech appeared on NBC 17 to debate a professor of history from the University of North Carolina about the University's requirement that freshmen and transfer students read "Approaching the Qu'ran: The Early Revelations." Anchorman Monty Knight said the television station's ratings on that particular program were higher than even the national networks. They had never received such high ratings for a news broadcast before. Rev. Creech also wrote an editorial entitled "UNC's Doctrine" that appeared in newspapers across the state. Joe Glover, President of the Family Policy Network (the Virginia-based organization that brought the lawsuit against UNC-Chapel Hill), said he believed Rev. Creech's editorial had a significant impact on the decision by legislators in the North Carolina House to vote to defund the summer reading program at UNC-Chapel Hill.

E. Alcohol

- During the last session of the General Assembly, SB 166 (2001 Studies Act) established the Legislative Alcohol Beverage Control Study Commission. The Commission was established to consider the significant impact of the privatization of the State's present system of alcohol beverage control. If privatization was approved, it will exacerbate alcohol-related problems in our beloved State. The Christian Action League of North Carolina is the major enemy of the proliferation of alcohol and we are on the front line in the General Assembly trying to defeat this legislation.

- CAL has assisted 13 townships and counties in preparing and executing strategy to defeat alcohol referendums since January, 2002. We provided free materials and counsel that were critical in minimizing the proliferation of alcohol in North Carolina.

F. Homosexuality

- Rev. Creech wrote an editorial that appeared in the nationwide Agape Press entitled "Thanks Be to God that Anne Graham Lotz Stood Up for Truth." During a recent address to about 500 women, Lotz called homosexuality one of several sins from which man needs to repent. She was ridiculed for this remark and Rev. Creech vigorously defended her position .

"Shaping Lives for... a Life" is the mission of North Carolina Baptist colleges and universities.

Students come to the campuses of Campbell, Chowan, Gardner-Webb, Mars Hill and Wingate expecting to receive an education. What they may not expect is an experience that will shape the rest of their lives.

Like the artist who carefully and methodically sculpts wet clay, giving it form and function, the faculty and staff of North Carolina Baptist colleges and universities shape the lives of students through their dedicated teaching and mentoring.

The graduates of these campuses emerge as people who become our future ministers, doctors, lawyers, artists, teachers, businesspeople, and church and community leaders.

It has been shown that graduates of church related institutions invest themselves in their churches and communities in greater numbers than graduates of public institutions of higher education. As a result of the support of North Carolina Baptists, the future looks bright for our churches and communities.

Gifts to the Cooperative Missions Budget of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina last year made it possible for six hundred twelve (612) members from four hundred forty-five (445) convention related churches to receive special scholarship assistance to attend our five affiliated institutions of Christian higher education. Seventy-four (74) out of eighty (80) associations were represented in this group.

Some of the recipients would not have been able to pursue their dream of a degree from an accredited college or university without the financial assistance provided by generous North Carolina Baptists. One of those recipients lost his father unexpectedly during his freshman year in college. Scholarship assistance from North Carolina Baptists made it possible for him to continue with his studies. He graduated this year.

Another scholarship recipient is the mother of six children. In spite of the pressures to be a good mother, she pursued her studies while holding down a full-time job. She, too, graduated this year with a perfect 4.0 grade point average. She is employed by a North Carolina Baptist institution.

These are a few of those who are benefiting from your generous support of our Baptist State Convention. In the coming years, we will benefit from their contributions to our life as North Carolina Baptists.

Gardner-Webb University - 2001- 2002 Academic Year Summary

As Gardner-Webb officially enters into a countdown to its centennial in 2005, the institution is experiencing success in all phases of campus life. Despite a progressive move into the 21st century, however, the University's mission remains the same as it has been since its founding in 1905 -- to provide learning of distinction within a caring Christian environment.

The 2001-2002 year at Gardner-Webb will be noted in the annals of the University's history as one of extreme significance. Programs and facilities, affiliations, personnel and student body all were enhanced further to continue the institution's rise to regional and national prominence.

Programs such as the M. Christopher White School of Divinity have continued to offer new and dynamic courses of study under the leadership of highly respected faculty members. In Fall 2001 Gardner-Webb began offering its first-ever doctoral program, the Doctor of Ministry (D.Min.) degree, with the maximum number of students enrolled.

The School of Divinity is prepared to enter this new realm with strong administrative and faculty leadership, and challenging curriculum and auxiliary offerings as well. A hallmark of the GWU divinity experience continues to be the annual Holy Land and Paul's Missionary Journeys Study Tours. The trips, now underwritten by GWU for divinity students, is led by GWU President Dr. Chris White, a noted authority in biblical studies, and Dr. Wayne Stacy, Dean of the School of Divinity.

The School of Divinity also welcomed the addition of two newly established endowed chairs in 2001-2002. The Bob D. Shepherd Chair of New Testament Interpretation was the first endowed chair to ever be formed at GWU, and Dr. Todd D. Still was named at opening divinity convocation to occupy the esteemed position. In the spring, the Randall Lolley Chair of Pastoral Studies was completed in honor of Dr. Lolley's tremendous impact on Baptist life.

The Center for Congregational Enrichment, a function of the School of Divinity, this past year was the beneficiary of GWU's largest-ever grant, a $1.25 million gift from the Lilly Foundation to begin a program for youth that nurtures the call to Christian ministry. Hired this year to direct the Center and the new Lilly program was Dr. Danny West, a noted Baptist leader who will administrate the innovative new Lilly venture while continuing the Center's work to provide seminars and workshops to laypersons and church leaders on timely topics that range from teaching Sunday School to effective church administration.

The same sense of excitement and progress that has marked the past year in the School of Divinity has permeated the entire institution as well. Other areas of the University that were lauded this past year include the GWU School of Education, which had its teacher education program ranked for the third year in a row among the top programs of its kind in a recent study produced by the State Board of Education. The School of Education is recognized for quality in all its departments with accreditation from the National Council for the Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE), the most prestigious status that can be achieved in teacher education.

Further indication of Gardner-Webb's commitment to the highest level quality of instruction is Dr. Gail Price, winner of the 2001-2002 Fleming-White Excellence in Teaching Award that honors the University's most outstanding faculty member. Price, professor of English and past chair of the GWU Department of English Language and Literature, has brought her Christian influence and integrity to the classroom for more than a decade, and her honor was voted upon by not only students, but fellow faculty and staff as well. Dr. Price is a widely respected authority in her field and regularly participates in innovative efforts locally, regionally and nationally to continually raise the standard of excellence in English and writing instruction.

Furthering its mission to provide world-class education in a Christian setting, Gardner-Webb has refined and expanded many of its 17 off-campus locations this year as well, including the new "Gardner-Webb University at Statesville" operation. Providing the only four-year opportunity to that region of North Carolina, GWU at Statesville is settling into a new, state-of-the-art facility in Iredell County that spans over 11,000 square feet. In April, a new facility was unveiled in Mecklenburg County as well, officially named "Gardner-Webb University at Charlotte." The institution's evening school offerings for working adults are offered at the site along with multiple graduate level programs for the citizens of that area also.

The quality of the student body continued in 2001-2002 to set new standards of excellence at GWU. The average GPA for incoming students was over 3.4 and the average SAT was 1100. A newly completed strategic plan for the University identifies this quality of student as being key to the growth and progress of GWU's next decade. In addition, the strategic plan and accompanying master plan have set forth ambitious and exciting goals for the university in the next decade, including expansion of the physical campus and academic programs, among others.

The new 2001-2002 year also meant the completion of GWU's transition phase to NCAA Division I status. Fall 2002 marks the beginning of a new era in athletics, as well as academics and recognition, as Gardner-Webb has begun competing in the Atlantic Sun Conference (formerly the TAAC). This move to Division I and conference affiliation opens new doors institutionally for Gardner-Webb as new markets and opportunities for exposure are tapped in member cities such as Miami/Ft.Lauderdale, Orlando, Jacksonville, Birmingham, Nashville and Atlanta.

Students at Gardner-Webb also enjoyed another eventful year full of opportunities to grow in all areas of their well-being. Notably, many students again participated in Ministerial Education (M.E.) Days, which allow undergraduate and graduate ministerial students the chance to preach in Baptist churches in area associations through a cooperative arrangement with the GWU Office of Campus Ministries. That office continues also to offer the weekly DIMENSIONS program to students, which features prominent speakers and performers who bring positive messages of their Christian faith each Tuesday throughout the academic year.

As a leader in the Baptist community, Gardner-Webb takes seriously its responsibility as a beacon of quality Christian higher education to the state, region and the nation. The decisions made by the Board of Trustees and the administration will continue to reflect that philosophy as the University charts a course for the 21st century.

Staying true to its affiliation with the Christian faith, Gardner-Webb remains appreciative for the generous support it receives from the Cooperative Program and feels that the school is more effective as a result of offerings that are enhanced with these funds.

BAPTIST HOSPITAL AND NORTH CAROLINA BAPTISTS: PARTNERS IN MISSIONS

The Baptist Hospital mission began in 1921 when our North Carolina Baptist founders stated, "We desire to build a hospital to bring the healing art more definitely under the dominion of the Great Healer." Gold crosses that adorn the exterior of the hospital symbolize our historic and daily commitment to bring medical excellence and Christian compassion to those we are privileged to serve. This report will highlight our partnership with North Carolina Baptists in continuing the mission of healing.

SCHOOL OF PASTORAL CARE

Our mission at the School of Pastoral Care is "to provide ministries of growth, hope, and healing in the Spirit of Christ." This defines the spiritual essence of who we are and the meaning of what we do in caring for hurting people. We are very thankful to North Carolina Baptists for their gifts to the School through the Cooperative Missions Program. You are making a tremendous difference as our partner in life-changing ministries.

CareNet, Inc., our Department of Pastoral Counseling, is the largest faith-based counseling system in the nation. We continue to expand our services across North Carolina. The scope of this ministry is astounding: 27,000 hours of counseling per year at 21 locations. These include 4 regional centers (Winston-Salem, Greenville, Fayetteville, and Wilmington) and 17 strategically located satellites. The individual stories of emotional and spiritual healing, of broken families being restored, are even more telling.

The Center for Congregational Health celebrates its 10th Anniversary in 2002. Dr. David Odom has been the Center's visionary leader from its beginning. The initial mission continues to guide this ministry of helping churches become healthier communities of faith. The Center is providing consultation to approximately 25 churches per month, and training to over 600 church leaders per year. The financial support of N.C. Baptists allows Baptist churches to receive initial consultation at no cost, and provides subsidies for churches and ministers needing financial assistance. Please call the Center for more information (336-716-0459).

The Department of Chaplaincy and Pastoral Education provided ministry through more than 61,000 pastoral contacts in the past year. Every day chaplains can be found comforting bereaved families, praying for seriously ill patients, reading Scriptures to those who are afraid, offering comfort and extending hope in the name of Jesus Christ. Fifty-three students received supervision and training in 2001.

The Department of Church and Community Relations continues to serve its mission as a liaison between the Hospital and North Carolina Baptist churches. We welcome you to call Rev. Paul Mullen if you need assistance (336-716-3027). Many pastors call on behalf of church members who need a referral to the Medical Center or have concerns about medical bills because of financial need. Speakers can be requested to provide an overview of the Hospital and its ministries to church groups.

BAPTIST BENEVOLENT CARE FUND

It is a difficult burden to be physically sick and worried about how to pay for needed medical care. North Carolina Baptists extend the compassionate reach of missions to patients in financial need at Baptist Hospital through their gifts to the Mother's Day Offering. Those you have helped are deeply thankful for this gracious witness to the love of Jesus Christ, and they are drawn closer to Him. All of the funds are used for this purpose. Thank you, North Carolina Baptists, for giving $568,808 to this ministry in 2001!

ADDITIONAL HIGHLIGHTS AT NORTH CAROLINA BAPTIST HOSPITAL

Number 1 in Patient Satisfaction - Baptist Hospital was ranked #1 in the nation in patient satisfaction, according to Press Ganey patient satisfaction scores for the spring quarter of 2002. Press Ganey, the health care industry's top satisfaction measurement firm, ranked Baptist Hospital first among its peers.

New Brenner Children's Hospital Opens - The 11-story addition to the Hospital opened in April 2002. Six of the floors provide private rooms for all pediatric patients, state-of-the-art technology, family resource centers, a prayer room, and an enclosed playground on the roof. The tower also includes additional operating rooms and a spacious surgical family waiting room.

New Substance Abuse Treatment Center for Older Adults - Wake Forest University Baptist Behavioral Health, a subsidiary of Baptist Hospital and WFU Health Sciences, has opened the first residential program in the region devoted exclusively to treating chemical dependency problems among adults 55 and older. The comprehensive treatment program focuses on treating the whole person, encompassing physical, emotional, social, and spiritual health.

Ranked Among the Nation's Best - The North Carolina Baptist Hospitals, Inc. ranks among "America's Best Hospitals" according to the July 2002 issue of U.S. News and World Report.

WFUBMC: What's in a Name? The North Carolina Baptist Hospitals, Inc. is one of two component institutions of Wake Forest University Baptist Medical Center. The partnership also includes Wake Forest University Health Sciences (WFUHS), consisting of WFU Physicians, the School of Medicine, and other entities. Baptist Hospital and WFUHS are separate but interdependent institutions, each with its own Board of Trustees. The combined institutions,WFUBMC, are overseen by a joint Board of Trustees which facilitates the effective and collaborative pursuit of its mission: excellent patient care, medical education and research, and community service.

CLOSING WORDS FROM THE PRESIDENT

We at Baptist Hospital are very thankful to be partners in the mission of healing with North Carolina Baptists. Our roots are in this partnership, beginning as a mission enterprise of the Baptist State Convention in 1921. This report also highlights the ongoing nature of the relationship with the School of Pastoral Care. We have a sacred privilege and responsibility to serve Jesus Christ by serving people in need at Baptist Hospital. We thank you for being our partner in these "ministries of growth, hope, and healing." We ask that you pray for our patients, their families, and our staff as we seek to serve our Lord each day at the Medical Center.

The 2003 Annual Minutes is dedicated in remembrance of Herman Kitchen, former pastor, teacher and associational leader. Herman poured himself into the lives of those whom God placed in his path, and we are a better people for knowing and loving him.—Karen Taylor

A Time of Remembrance

Albert Einstein once said, "A hundred times every day I remind myself that my inner and outer life depend on the labors of other men, living and dead, and that I must exert myself in order to give in the same measure as I have received."

At some point, as we mature, we realize our youthful self-image as a self-made person is flawed. We realize we are a broken vessel, covered with the fingerprints of the saints. Two sets of fingerprints on this broken vessel belonged to Herman Kitchen, who was recently called Home, and his wife, Georgie, who is with us tonight. They were my Aquilla and Priscilla.

It's customary to recall the impact the deceased had on the lives of PMBA churches, and Herman served at Bethany, Stoney Ridge, West Side, and College Park. Herman served in various leadership roles in our association, the last in a crucible that tried our souls. But I choose to remember Herman as his life intersected mine.

Some of my WMU counterparts have heard me fondly call Georgie my "Missions Mama." Well, Herman Kitchen was my "Discipling Daddy". When I was a child at Bethany, we had a Boy Scout troop that put a priority on every Scout earning the God and Country award. Herman taught some rambunctious boys some basic Biblical truths, and I hope Herman gets extra helpings of manna for putting up with us.

As a youth, more than once, I stayed at the Kitchens' Salter Path beach cottage on numerous Scout and youth retreats. From these experiences I learned the gift of hospitality and a spirit of generosity.

As a young adult, trying to find my place in the Kingdom venture, Herman asked me to help him and Georgie as they co-taught a foreign mission study. I read a part, moved some tables in the fellowship hall, and helped set up some displays. From that they planted a seed of interest in missions. I hadn't caught the bug yet, but they made sure I was in an infected area.

When Herman served as Bethany's interim pastor while we were between pastors, I was asked to speak at the evening worship on Baptist Men's Day. To be honest, my effort left a lot to be desired, and it is painful to look at my notes now. But two days later, I received a letter from Herman telling me how proud he was of me, and how much I meant to the church. From Herman I learned the importance of encouragement.

As I was reflecting on what to say on this occasion, I realized that, without any awareness of it, I had subconsciously copied Herman. He was an adult Sunday school teacher. I became an adult Sunday school teacher. He was a Brotherhood Director; so was I. We were both ordained. He ministered in Stokes County, as I now do. Herman was an associational leader, and so am I.

And I am not alone. Many of my generational peers, taught by Herman and Georgie, are pastors, youth ministers, music ministers, deacon chairman, deacons, Sunday school teachers, and children's workers. Herman may be gone, but his influence remains.

For years, Georgie brought her sons to church alone, for Herman accepted Christ later in life. But of all the souls I have known, no one went from new believer to focused disciple more quickly than Herman Kitchen. He truly believed he should be about his Father's business. I think we gain an insight when we look at the words of his favorite hymn:

"I am resolved no longer to linger,
Charmed by the world's delight,
Things that are higher, things that are nobler,
These have allured my sight.

I will hasten to Him, hasten so glad and free:
Jesus, greatest, highest, I will come to Thee....

Embracing His Precious Promises

His divine power has given us everything we need for life and godliness through our knowledge of him who called us by his own glory and goodness. Through these he has given us his very great and precious promises, so that through them you may participate in the divine nature and escape the corruption in the world caused by evil desires.
2 Peter 1:3-4 (NIV).

The 118th Annual Meeting of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association was called to order on July 26 at 6:32 p.m. at Oak Ridge Baptist Church by Bobby Stewart, moderator. Melvin Shelton, pastor of Oak Ridge Baptist Church offered greetings and opened the session with prayer.

The hymn, "Standing On the Promises" was sung by the Congregation. Lauren Lott served as the associational music director.

David Coburn, pastor of Red Bank Baptist Church and vice moderator of the PMBA, read the scripture from 2 Peter 1:3-4.

Don Harvey, pastor of Bethany Baptist Church and past moderator for the Association gave the theme interpretation, "Embracing of His Precious Promises." [Below is a synopsis of his message.]

> ...When I read the paper every morning I turn to the intellectual section...which, of course, is the comics! One of my favorite is "Peanuts." You would think that Charlie Brown would learn a lesson finally. Lucy always says, "Charlie Brown, Why don't you let me hold the ball for you to kick?" Charlie Brown invariably replies, "I believe that people who want to can change"...Lucy responds, "Your faith in human nature is commendable." Lucy's promise doesn't mean much though, does it? She invariably lets go of the ball, and Charlie Brown is proven wrong once again! Many of our promises don't mean much either...a friend learns that another friend breaks her confidence...when a couple finds themselves with a marriage on the rocks...
> We are not always able to keep those promises. However, God always does. God is not only a "promise keeper"...God told Abraham, "I will make you a father of many nations"... A lot of time past...Abraham said, "O, Sovereign Lord, what will you give me?" God took him outside and told him to count all the stars. Time passes...Sarah began to wonder...took things into their own hands...We see the consequences of Abraham's lack of belief...Eventually God's promise was fulfilled...He kept promises to Moses and to Israel...promised a land flowing with milk and honey...Time passes...Israel questions Mosses and Aaron...Moses cried out to God...God said over and over again, "I have made a promise..." Moses sent out 12 spies...People were powerful and strong. The majority of the spies came back and reported, "No way! We seem like grasshoppers next to these people." However, the majority is not always right. Two spies came back and said, "Yes, we can take it!"
> The people did not trust them enough...did not trust God enough...and as a result, they wandered for forty years. God did not break his promise...just postponed it. The key is trust ...trust in a God who keeps his promises...dare to trust in God and become a blessing to those around you. All those promises...fulfilled in God's time through his son, Jesus Christ.
> I think that is what 2 Peter is saying to us. God will fulfill His promises to us. I love the way Eugene Peterson paraphrases 2 Peter in The Message, "We are given special promises by > God." Promises of God's are ours for the taking...ours to embrace...to fully partake of through the Kingdom of Heaven...the promise of His presence...love...peace...all promises will be kept. To the Lord a day is like one thousand years and one thousand years are as one day...we stand on the threshold...let us stretch forward to allow God to do what He wants to do in and through us as Baptist congregations of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association...

Lauren Lott led the congregation in Hymn, "A Mighty Fortress Is Our God."

Janie Hooker, member of Fellowship and member of the Annual Meeting Committee, read the scriptures.

Steve Kiser, member of Bethany and Brotherhood team leader, reflected on Herman Kitchen, during the time of remembrance of those who had gone on before us. Steve related how Herman and Georgie Kitchen had influenced him and others at Bethany while they were young boys and girls in the area of Missions involvement. As others who had lost loved ones had a moment of silence, special prayer was offered for their lives and testimonies.

Lauren Lott led the congregation in the hymn, "How Firm A Foundation."

James Hamblen, associational Missionary, recognized all new clergy: Stephen Norris, Quaker Gap; David Coburn, Red Bank; and Nathan Parrish of Peace Haven.

Ty Talton, associate pastor of Ardmore Baptist Church and chair of the PMBA Membership Committee, brought two announcements and one motion to the floor:

(1) Grace Baptist Church, under watchcare, has disbanded and needs to be removed from the PMBA rolls

(2) Lakewood Baptist Church withdrew from the association.

(3) A motion was brought by the Membership Committee to accept East Davie Baptist Church under watchcare of the association. Max Furr and two members of East Davie were presented. Ty Talton stated that after one full year, East Davie will be recommended for full vote.

A power point presentation was shown the Association-in-Session. Joyce Love stated that we will see first-hand the many ways PMBA congregations partnered with one another in missions and ministries projects.

At the end of the power point presentation, Charles Martin, pastor of Cornerstone and team leader for the Leadership Development Teams, commended Vicky Hallenbeck, ministry assistant for communications in the PMBA office, for a job superbly done. He stated that each church could pick up a copy of the c.d. at the close of the meeting.

Charles Martin stated that Henry Blackaby said God is at work. God has been busy right here locally and across the country. He asked all who had been involved in Mission work to please stand. By the time that he had finished, all the congregations stood.

Ann Shelton, wife of Pastor Melvin Shelton of Oak Ridge, gave the scripture reading.

Nathan Parrish of Unity Baptist Church and chair of the PMBA Constitution Committee, referred to the list of amendments to the Policies and Procedures Section of the PMBA Operations Manual. On behalf of the Constitution Committee, Nathan made the motion to approve the amendments as presented. The motion carried.

After the vote, Rev. Parrish thanked those who served with him for the last year, working diligently on the Policies, Procedures, and Guidelines

Mr. Travis Rhodes, a member of Stanleyville First Baptist Church and chair of the PMBA Finance Committee said, “Even in the darkest of times, God is in control. As treasurer of this Association, I cannot honestly report much good news.” He stated that from a financial perspective he is a banker...but he is also a co-youth director at his church. So, he looks at the financial situation of the churches in the PMBA and the financial situation of the PMBA and he realizes that we do not have a money problem. Ultimately, it all belongs to God. It is His money. He can do with it whatever He wants. In fact, He has every thing He needs or wants. He does not need us. But He gives us the opportunity to join Him in His work and give back to Him from our storehouses.

Travis asked, “What does PMBA mean to your congregation?” He said that if they did not have an answer, then the PMBA leadership has not done a very good job! “Second,” he asked, “What are you doing for your congregation?” He reminded everyone that their contribution goes to their church and the church then makes a contribution to the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. “Third,” he asked, “What does your church contribute to the support of the ministries through the PMBA?” He stated that together we can do so much more to advance God’s Kingdom.

Travis Rhodes called attention to the June Financial Report. General church contributions have been slow for the first half of 2003. We are actually spending more than is coming in. The Association has only 1 ½ months to pay staff and keep the doors open at this point. Due to the shortfall in contributions, Travis brought a recommendation of behalf of the Finance Committee, for the Association-in-Session to empower the Finance Committee along with the PMBA Leadership Team to make necessary adjustments to the 2003 Basic Plan for Missions and Ministries.

Don Harvey asked why the Finance Committee would need approval of this body. Travis Rhodes responded that the Plan for Missions and Ministries (budget) is always approved by the Congregational Council. The Committee asked Jim Hamblen and the rest of the staff to look at areas where we might consolidate and cut. He stated that the Finance Committee is very concerned to keep a balanced budget but also a budget of “faith.” He thanked the Finance Committee and Travis Rhodes for their diligence and servant leadership. The motion carried.

Music Director Lauren Lott led the congregation in the hymn, “Take My Life and Let It Be.”

Rev. Nolan Lawson, member of Oak Ridge Baptist Church and team leader for the PMBA Church Development Team, spoke on behalf of the Jim Hamblen Local Missions and Ministries Offering. Nolan Lawson stated that God does not necessarily desire our money but our hearts. He stated that what we give today...what we do today...impacts our legacy to future generations. Whether we like it or not this is a fact. He asked, “Can you see the dirty face of a child...do you sense the loneliness of an elderly woman or man. The legacy of Christ is not bricks nor mortar...Give out of the sense of Christ.”

Will Watson, minister of music and youth at Walnut Cove/FBC offered both song and music as the special offertory.

Mazie Bumgarner, member of Beck’s and chair of the Personnel Committee, gave an update on the realignment of the staff. Mazie introduced Rev. Paul Wonders, who gave a brief ooverview of the historical service Jim Hamblen has given as Associational Missionary. A special power point presentation was shown during Paul Wonder’s report.

Paul. stated that in 1982 the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association was in the midst of a search for a new Director of Missions. He said that the Association told the Search Committee that they only wanted someone better than any president our nation has ever had...someone better than any business man ever known.

Resumes had come in from all across the United States. Eighteen people served on this Search Committee. He told that he had never seen such a large committee!

The Committee did their homework...and they searched...through the International Mission Board...through the seminaries...through the Baptist State Convention...across the Southern Baptist Convention. After a year, they had accumulated 50 resumes...and still they were not satisfied. Then a name was given to Paul Wonders. In the summer of 1983, Rev. Wonders talked with Jim Hamblen for a very long time. When he got off the phone, he looked at his wife, Carolyn and said, "I just feel God is calling that man here...Just hope we can get him to come so our churches can meet him."

Eighteen members on a Search Committee...all in agreement and all Baptists...what a record! In the Fall of 1983, the Association-in-Session voted to call Rev. Jim Hamblen as the Director of Missions. Years later Jim Hamblen asked that his title be changed back to what Directors of Missions were first called, "Associational Missionary."

In Jim Hamblen's report the very next year, he gave the Association back to the churches. Embedded in this was all the good that has come our way. Paul Wonders thanked Jim and Beverly Hamblen for coming our way...for being here through such situations as we are now experiencing. He concluded by asking the Lord to bless Jim and Beverly Hamblen for their faithfulness and commitment to God first, and to the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association.

Jim Hamblen thanked Rev. Wonders for his kind remarks and stated that at his call to the PMBA, he made a promise to turn the association over to the churches. He said, "In twenty years after I am gone, it will not make one bit of difference if you can remember my name, but it will make an eternal significance if just one of you can recall that when I served as the associational Missionary, we served the Lord!"

Richard Thomas, pastor of Willow Oak and assistant chair of the Annual Meeting Committee, read the scriptures.

Keith Snow, member of Germanton and chair of the Enlistment Committee brought a motion from the Enlistment Committee that the 2003-2004 Leadership of the PMBA be approved as listed. The motion carried.

David Benton, pastor of Friends Baptist Church and chair of the Annual Meeting Committee announced that Glenn View Baptist Church would be the host church for the 119th Annual Meeting on Saturday, July 24, beginning at 6:30 p.m. The theme will continue: Embracing His Precious Promises.

David Benton thanked Melvin Shelton and the congregation of Oak Ridge Baptist Church for their contribution to making the 118th Session a blessing to all who attended.

Jim Hamblen installed the 2003-2004 officers: Bobby Stewart, past moderator; David Coburn, moderator; Nathan Parrish, vice moderator; David Benton, vice moderator-elect; Travis Rhodes, treasurer; Ivan Price, assistant treasurer; Karen Taylor, clerk; and John Woodard, historian.

The meeting adjourned at 8:40 p.m., with the congregation singing "Blessed Assurance, Jesus Is Mine."

Brotherhood Team

This year saw an expansion of Baptist Men's involvement in disaster relief beyond the traditional natural disasters Baptist Men have responded in the past. Of course many responded to this as Hurricane Isabel struck our state, as our Disaster Response Team worked in northeastern North Carolina. We now have four tow-able vehicles: a chain saw unit, a Handyman's unit, a mud out unit, and an open trailer to transport needed equipment.

The hostilities in Iraq forced us to examine responses to man-made disasters. At the prompting of the North American Mission Board, we initiated the HAVEN (Helping and Aiding Victims in Extreme Need) where PMBA churches offered the use of their facilities to victims of natural disasters, terrorist attacks, and school shootings. We have been heartened by the response of our churches, and we welcome the participation of more churches.

We have also interacted with the Stokes county government as they have reassessed their disaster planning. Steve Kiser spoke to government officials in Danbury, and Jim Oakley of the Disaster Response Team took the chain saw unit for officials to see.

The Baptist Men also led, with the cooperation of the WMU, in the collection of food boxes to Iraq. North Carolina led the Southern Baptist Convention, and the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, in partnership with Calvary Baptist Church, collected the most food boxes in our state. Calvary also had the privilege of sending a team to Iraq to deliver these food boxes in that war-torn nation.

As the old gospel hymn says, "troublesome times are near", but Baptist Men see this as an opportunity to share the Gospel. But as the hymn continues, "Jesus is coming soon." Let Him find us busy in His vineyard.

Church-Minister Relations Team

Our workgroup continues to be available to help churches when called upon and asked to do so. We assisted three churches last year with special needs that occurred in those churches.

If anyone needs some direction during times of transition or conflict, please feel free to contact us and we will gladly assist. We ask for a letter to be signed by the pastor (or staff, if there is no pastor) and the chairman of the deacons inviting us to come.

Community Partnerships Team

The principle function of the Community Partnerships Team is to facilitate the involvement of PMBA congregations in the community at large in the name of Christ. As the year comes to a close, the Team members have begun to open new doors of opportunity for PMBA congregations to make a difference in the lives of people in our communities.

The Community Partnerships Team has added two new areas of ministries where congregational involvement is vital:

(1) C.H.A.N.G.E. — a grassroots organization that has emerged as a voice for the common person to make a difference in the lives of people in our communities. This new organization offers direct ways for congregations to get involved in assessing community needs. The Community Partnerships Team will be offering more information on how congregations can become involved in the months ahead.

(2) "Train the Trainers" — a faith based initiative to encourage and equip clergy to recognize domestic violence issues within the families of each congregation. The Faith in Action Group, a faith-based initiative organization, offers resources to help churches develop ministries to the communities. These ministries are to help prevent domestic violence and to offer refuge for those who are victims. The Community Partnerships Team offered a workshop (facilitated by trained clergy and laity who work directly with domestic violence problems in our communities) to equip clergy and lay leaders to effectively and lovingly handle issues of domestic violence within the church family and the surrounding community. Twenty-eight people were trained during these workshops held in August and September.

The Baptist Toy Store continues to reach beyond its boundaries as the Team seeks new and better ways to minister to the people who apply for assistance at Christmas time. For the second year, The Associational Baptist Toy Store partnered with Pilot Mountain Outreach Center to reach more families in the southern part of Surry and Stokes Counties. Although most of our applicants come from Forsyth and Stokes counties, we do have some from Davie County and Surry County.

Once again we extended our hours to better accommodate our working poor. Special consideration was given to those who work but still cannot make enough to provide for their children at Christmas time. Between the two organizations, approximately 700 children from over 325 families were provided with new toys from our churches. In addition to providing toys, we were able to meet some of the more pressing financial needs (utilities, food and clothing) for some of our more struggling families. Twenty-six families were "adopted" by PMBA congregations, individuals, or local businesses.

Each year there seems to be a struggle in providing enough toys for all the children; however, our congregations and individuals always come through, praise God! We are indeed grateful for the commitment of PMBA congregations for without their help, this ministry could not exist. Through the Toy Store, our congregations provided Bibles for each family, gospel tracts, Christian counseling and referrals to churches within our communities.

More changes are coming to Community Partnerships as we labor together with PMBA congregations to determine more effective ways to reach out to the communities around us.

Discipleship Development Team

The Discipleship Development Team met monthly during the period to discuss and implement events which would support local churches in their efforts to make disciples. From time to time associational staff members and chairpersons of other Leadership Development units were invited to our meetings to help ensure the most informed, effective, and relevant ministry possible. Highlights from the year include:

- A Bible Drill Orientation meeting was held on September 26, 2002, at the PMBA Resource Center to equip church leaders to develop a Bible Drill program in their churches; a representative of the Baptist State Convention led this orientation.

- A Deacon Training Workshop was conducted on Friday and Saturday, November 1- 2, 2002 at Crestwood Baptist Church. Thirty-eight deacons representing 12 churches took advantage of the event. Training was directed toward "new" as well as experienced deacons.

- A Discipleship Dialogue Luncheon was held at the PMBA ResourceCenter on Wednesday, March 12, 2003; pastors and discipleship leaders from 15 congregations attended. Feedback from church leaders proved very helpful to our Discipleship Development Team.

- Associational Bible Drills were held on Saturday, April 5, 2003. Ruth Craver (Calvary Baptist) led a very successful program. Thirty-one children from our association participated in the Bible Drills and each one successfully advanced to the state-level drills held at Calvary Baptist on April 26, 2003.

- An inventory of all discipleship resources held at the PMBA center was placed on the Association's website. Individuals and churches are invited to peruse the list to determine if any of our resources would benefit their discipleship efforts. Discipleship materials may be checked out from the PMBA resource library.

Our team always welcomes input from any congregation or individual within the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. Also, we always have room on the team for additional members that are excited about the importance of making disciples for the honor of our Lord, Jesus Christ. Please contact any regular member of our committee for information about how to become a part of the PMBA Discipleship Development ministry.

Missions Partnerships Team

The Missions Partnerships Team was very actively involved in several partnerships last year: Alaska, Honduras, West Virginia, and Haiti. Teams from various churches partnered together and traveled to these areas to help with mission and ministry opportunities.

Although the Honduras Partnership has come to a close for many congregations, five PMBA congregations continue to send mission teams. Eleven PMBA congregations have, to date, participated in the Alaskan Partnership, and approximately 15 PMBA congregations continue to work with families in the West Virginia area. At the close of last summer 150 homes were either completely rebuilt or remodeled by mission teams from North Carolina, South Carolina and Tennessee. Through the early state of our partnership with West Virginia over nine tractor-trailer loads of furniture left Winston-Salem to be eagerly received by families in West Virginia. Since that partnership began two summers ago, mission teams continue to travel and help with damage caused by flooding.

Our newest partnership venture has been with New Directions International to minister and reach people of Haiti for Jesus Christ. PMBA Congregational Missionary Dale Harlan has traveled to Haiti on two occasions and several other individuals are also involved in the great mission work. A youth mission team from Stanleyville/FBC traveled to Haiti, ministering to the people and experiencing first-hand the power of the Holy Spirit at work as over 70 professions of faith were made while they were there. The Haiti Christians are committed to reclaiming their country for Christ—a country that was dedicated to Satan over 200 years ago by Voodoo worshippers.

This has been a wonderful year for congregations to partner with one another. We look forward to another year of advancing God's Kingdom through Missions Partnerships!

Belarussian Children Project [a sub-team of Missions Partnerships Team]

Nineteen children and one chaperon arrived at Dulles Airport inn Washington, D.C., and were transported by vans to the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association in Winston-Salem, NC. It was a very busy six weeks, filled with dental appointments, physical exams, opportunities to visit and worship in various congregations, and several outings.

Comments have been made about how the children looked on July 14 as compared to June 2 (the date they arrived). They had more color in their complexion, were a bit heavier, and certainly healthier. Some of the children had made professions of faith; two were baptized while here.

The consensus of the Team is that there is a definite need for better communication with the congregations in the PMBA. Too many of them are not even aware of this ministry because the Pilot newsletter and the Promo Pak fliers are not freely shared in the congregations.

There is not much "seed" money left for 2004. When visits were made to a church (upon invitation), there was an immediate response to help. There is little hope of ever getting this project back into the PMBA budget because of the economy and too many congregations reducing their contributions to the Association. Fund raising needs to start early in the year. One suggestion was a flier being handed out at the WMU/Brotherhood Leadership Conference on August 30, 2003. Some hosts offered to speak in churches that send in an inquiry. Svetlana, the Belarus interpreter, has been very effective when speaking in congregations.

Each year we gain new host families. By sharing the information regarding this mission project with our congregations more effectively, the Team believes we have a chance to increase the number of children we will host as well as see an increase in contributions, both individually and corporately. We must remember the impact this ministry has on the lives of Belarussians, not just the Belarussian children who come to our country. When these children go home, they carry with them Russian Bibles and the Word is imprinted in their hearts as we share the love of Christ in tangible ways.

Joyce Love & Georgie Kitchen
Belarussian Project Leaders

Music & Worship Team

On March 28-29, 2003, the music and worship team hosted a Youth and Children's Choir Retreat. Participants included approximately 40 children, 16 youth, and at least 10 adults, representing six churches from the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. Choral Clinicians were Clark and Karen Sorrells from First Baptist Church, Asheville, NC. The retreat began with supper at Camp Hanes in King on Friday, March 28, and ended with a concert at College Park Baptist Church in Winston-Salem on Saturday, March 29, at 6:00 PM. Children, youth, and adults benefited from the musical/choral expertise of Clark and Karen Sorrells in a fun and relaxed atmosphere where they learned and learned about quality music and singing.

Ordination Advisory Team

The Ordination Advisory Team was asked to participate in the examination of several candidates for ordination over the past Associational Year:

1) Examination of Charles Edward Hauser at Cornerstone Baptist Church on September 24, 2002. Eddie Hauser was approved as a candidate for ordination.

2) Examination of Ted Dougherty, III at Knollwood Baptist Church on July 23, 2003. Ted Dougherty was approved as a candidate for ordination.

The Ordination Advisory Team assists congregations with the examination of candidates into the Gospel Ministry. We have had numerous occasions to share in the joy of ordination within our PMBA congregations and stand ready to assist whenever called upon.

Pastoral Ministries Report

The Ministers Fellowship of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association met monthly throughout the year. There were times of fellowship and programs of information, inspiration and worship. Two meetings were held jointly with the Ministers Conference of Winston-Salem and Vicinity with each association hosting one meeting.

Meetings are conducted at the PMBA resource center unless otherwise noted. Each summer a golf outing is held as a time of fellowship. Friendly competition is enjoyed by those participating. The meetings are open to all ministry staff persons, retirees, and those with interest in ministry. Visitors from within and outside the PMBA are welcome to attend.

Mervin Garrison, Leader

Seminary Extension Team

Our fall 2003 Seminary Extension class was on Contempary World Religions, led by Dr. Ray Benfield. This was the largest attended class we have had in at least 13 years. We had 24 students. Dr. George Braswell, the author of both of our textbooks, was a guest speaker for one of our classes. As far as I know, this was the first time we have had the writer of the material which we were studying to be personally involved in one of our classes. Several other guests shared their experiences with other religions and groups. Dr. Benfield did a fantastic job of guiding the class through their studies.

We have three new classes scheduled to start in Feb. '04, in three different locations: (1) Biblical Backgrounds, (2) Pastoral Ministry, and (3) Leading a Music Ministry in a Small Church. The times, dates and locations of these three new classes will be determined at a later date.

Senior Adult Ministries Team

The annual Senior Adult Candle Tea was canceled due to inclement weather. This was indeed a disappointment to team members who had worked so diligently on the program. Our special thanks must extend to Pfafftown Baptist Church for agreeing to host the event and to the Senior Adult Choir of Kernersville/FBC who were committed to lead the congregation in a time of worship and celebration of Christ's birth! We look forward to next year's Candle Tea, which will be at the same location.

Senior Adults packed the Family Life Center of Old Town Baptist Church once again. Whether it was due to the marvelous program presented by Nina Cooper, a ventriloquist, or the delicious salad lunch provided by Betty Huff and her crew, we may never know. Four hundred eighty-seven senior adults attended the luncheon. Door prizes were in abundance and many happy seniors went home with such prizes as: a hot-air balloon ride, an overnight stay at the Ramada Inn for two, dinner for two at Appelbees, complementary haircuts from Great Clips and Fantastic Sams!

For the first time, the PMBA Senior Adult Team presented a "Lunch and Learn" program at Ardmore Baptist Church. Approximately 80 senior adults enjoy a delightful meal and a very informative program. This event was so well received, that the team plans to present another "Lunch and Learn" program next year.

Congregations who need assistance in developing a senior adult ministry should contact David Wooten, team leader, at 759-2150 or Christa Warise, assistant team leader, at 724-8767.

Spiritual Formation Team

The Spiritual Formation Team of PMBA continues to work at planning and offering events that will give participants opportunities to nurture a closer walk with God.

The Team had a planning retreat at Hollifield Training Center May 15 – 16, 2003, with all members participating. A great deal of time was spent defining our purpose and exploring the diverse opportunities that we can use in serving the Association.

November 16, 2002 "Spirit, Art, and Healing" , a one day conference at Reynolda House Museum, was offered, with the emphasis on "Seeking to grow in sensitivity to the Word of God through the medium of paintings, especially Rembrandt's "Storm on the Sea", a depiction of Jesus and the Disciples in a storm on Lake Galilee. We discussed the many ways God reveals himself to us, especially in the storms of our lives.

The event was led by Jeff Coppage, Spiritual and Family Care Coordinator for Older Recovery Services of Wake Forest University Baptist Medical Center and Marjorie Northrup, devout Christian and retired Program Director of Reynolda House Museum.

We would like to remind you that ALL events sponsored by the Spiritual Formation Team are open to anyone in any of our churches and the community at large.

Peggy Conrad, Leader

WMU Leadership Team

The WMU Watchword for the year came from 2 Timothy 1:8-9:

> "So do not be ashamed to testify about our Lord, or ashamed of me his prisoner. But join with me in suffering for the gospel, by the power of God, who has saved us and called us to a holy life; not because of anything we have done but of his own purpose and grace. This grace was given us in Christ Jesus before the beginning of time."

That all peoples might know Him was the theme for the Week of Prayer for International Missions. The Lottie Moon Christmas Offering Goal was $133,000,000.

The world at our doorstep was the theme for the Week of Prayer for North American Missions. The goal for the Annie Armstrong Offering was $54,000,000.

New Beginnings was the theme for the North Carolina Missions Offering week. The goal was $2.6 million.

All of these offerings and emphasis are an important focus of the WMU and their work in the churches, associations, state, and throughout the world.

Joint Leadership Training for the WMU and Brotherhood leaders in the PMBA was held in August at Southside Baptist Church. Leaders from approximately twenty different churches attended the training. The Baptist Men had the Disaster Relief chainsaw trailer at the training. This was a good time to see one of the resources which the Disaster Relief team uses to minister with throughout the east coast.

The WMU Salad Supper was held in March at Old Town Baptist Church. Cathy Hayes, Frances McDaniel, and Katherine Teague did an excellent job of coordinating this event. This annual event is an enjoyable time of renewing old acquaintances, finding new friends, and seeing what is going on at other churches in the PMBA. It is great to see approximately 500 ladies and a few "brave" men fellowshipping together at this event. Cindy Johnson of Stage 2 Ministries blessed the attendees with her musical ability. Chaplain Rodney Stilwell gave a very motivating message on Reconciliation based upon the theme of Project Help-Restorative Justice.

Many of the Associational Leadership Team attended State WMU Training at Camp Mundo Vista in July. This is a good time of fellowship and learning with other associational leaders from various areas of North Carolina. Camp Mundo Vista continues to be a growing place. The WMU Team encourages all churches to help enable their G.A. and Acteens group to attend a camp session during the summer months. It can be a life changing experience. Evelyn Benfield, Ethnic Diversity Consultant, coordinated assistance to send several international girls to attend camp.

Joyce Love coordinated the Belarussian children's visit to the PMBA. Though it can be very challenging coordinating the travel schedules, host families, farewell picnic and many other activities, the rewards outweigh the difficulties by a large margin. (For a complete report see the Belarussian children's under Missions Partnership Team section).

Baptist World Day of Prayer was held at Friendship Baptist in Germanton and Peace Haven Baptist in Winston-Salem on Monday, November 3rd. This a time when many hearts are united in prayer for the city, state, and the world.

PMBA Kids Missions Day was developed and coordinated by Betty Lou Vontsolos and Debbie Stephens.

If you have questions or issues concerning Missions Friends Sandra West is the one to ask. She continues to be an excellent resource and consultant for this area.

Selwyn Matthews took Missions to the streets by coordinating the Forsyth Jail & Prison Ministry Christmas Party.

The WMU spearheaded and assisted in many other areas such as the GA Day, Dixie Classic Fair Ministry, Baptist Toy Store, Cultural Diversity Day, International Campus Ministries, Missions Extravaganza at Ridgecrest and Operation Christmas Child.

If you or someone you know is interested in helping with any of these projects please contact the associational office.

ORGANIZATIONAL SUPPORT COMMITTEES:

Annual Meeting Committee

The Annual Meeting Committee of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association met ten times during the year. The 118th Annual Meeting was held at Oak Ridge Baptist Church, located in Sandy Ridge in Stokes County, on Saturday, July 26, 2003. With the exception of our July meeting, the committee met at the PMBA Resource Center.

At our February meeting the committee selected the theme for the 118th Annual Session as "Embracing His Precious Promises" based on 2 Peter 1:3-4. The theme was developed during the meeting through the celebration of the way we experience God's promises in Worship, in Service, in Stewardship, and in Commitment.

In an effort to strengthen fellowship among our churches, the Annual Meeting began with a fellowship meal 5 p.m., prior to the meeting. A barbecue dinner was provided by Artist Way Creations in Danbury, and served by the members of Oak Ridge Baptist Church. During the meal and before the Annual Meeting began, local groups provided special music.

During the Annual Meeting itself, Don Harvey, past moderator, brought the theme interpretation. A Power Point presentation, prepared by the PMBA staff and Communications Task Force, celebrated the past year's missions and ministries of our association. In addition to reports from various work units, special recognition was given to Jim Hamblen for his 20th Anniversary as Associational Missionary for the PMBA.

Our evaluation of the 118th Annual Meeting in August included PMBA staff, Annual Meeting participants and committee members. We cited our blessings and the challenges from the annual meeting and made notes of lessons learned to be applied before the next Annual Meeting.

Planning of the 119th Annual Meeting has already begun. Please keep our committee in your prayers as we plan for another time of worship and celebration of the PMBA and its ministries.

David Benton, Chair

Constitution Committee

Following the major revisions of our governing documents – constitution, by-laws, policies & procedures - in 2002, the constitution committee presented relatively few changes at the 2003 annual meeting. All proposed changes were adopted without opposition. The Constitution Committee is pleased to follow the direction of the Association and ensure that our documents reflect the will of the body. We continue to encourage all teams, committees, and fellowships to review those portions of our documents that touch your ministry and submit proposed changes to the Constitution Committee for consideration and review. Thanks to the members of the Committee for their service and to the Association for its cooperation in our work.

Nathan Parrish, Chair

Enlistment Committee

The Enlistment Team met monthly during the 2002-2003 Associational Year. The majority of positions were filled and approved at the Annual Meeting at Oak Ridge Baptist Church on July 26, 2003 (See 2003 Associational Directory, Page 5). Please contact the Associational office if you feel led to serve on a particular team or committee.

Keith Snow, Chair

Finance Committee

God is so incredibly awesome! Another year has passed and God has provided for the needs of the Association. As I am sure you all are aware we experienced a downturn in the economy. As a result charitable giving was down. This was evident in the income that we received at PMBA. As a result we did have to cut our projected budget for Year 2003. In doing this we were able to ensure that our income met our expenses. God provided and the ministry of the Association continued. As we look to the future we must look to where God is leading and appropriately allocate resources. Please be in prayer for our Association and the member churches that it represents.

Travis Rhodes, Chair

Membership Committee

The Membership Committee met several times to consider additions and deletions to our Association. We considered requests from East Davie Baptist Church and Rock Hill Baptist Church for membership in the PMBA. As conversation progressed, it was determined that only East Davie Baptist was ready for application and therefore was recommended for "watchcare" at the annual session in July. We also reviewed inactivity of two congregations, which after several attempts to contact, were released from their membership in PMBA. Those congregations were: Grace Baptist Church and Lakewood Baptist Church.

The committee also drafted some procedures to clarify the membership process and provide better information to the interested congregations. These procedures are to be tested and refined in the coming year.

Ty Talton, Chair

Personnel Committee

As a follow-up to last year's report, I am pleased to report that the realignment of the staff positions of Sandra Hall and Karen Taylor has allowed these ladies to more fully use their Spiritual gifts. Karen and Sandra have grown in their Spiritual gifts and the PMBA has benefited as they have used these gifts in their ministries.

Our annual meeting was a joy as we celebrated the 20 years of Jim Hamblen as our Associational Missionary. Paul Wonders, who was Personnel Chair when Jim was called, was asked to speak on some of his experiences with Jim. This was enlightening and enjoyable. Vickie Hallenbeck used Power Point to show selected pictures depicting special highlights in Jim's life. Jim's children sent meaningful and delightful letters of congratulation for his twenty years with the PMBA. As chair, I was privileged to read selected lines from these letters, which were full of love and humor. I was also privileged to present Jim with a gift for his twenty years of servant leadership. Jim has led with wisdom and grace.

The leadership of the PMBA is appreciated throughout the community. Jim Hamblen, Dale Harlan, Karen Taylor, Sandra Hall, Vicki Hallenbeck, and Steve Kiser are to be commended for all the ministries they provide to the local congregations and the community.

Thanks and appreciation for the faithfulness and support of the Personnel Committee this past year.

Mazie Bumgarner, Chair

Charles McDaniel, Chair

Life is filled with swift transitions...

The hymnologist coined the phase "life is filled with swift transitions ...Hold to God's unchanging hand". It appears that as each year, each 365 days goes by, we recall how swiftly it passed but also how uncertain and impermanent life can be. Many Christians find themselves with losses: jobs, homes, economic stability, health and loved ones.

During the year 2002-03, we have seen the effects of these changes in many of the congregations of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. As a Body of Believers, we have gathered in prayer for the personal and collective pains experienced by those affected.

I have observed throughout this year, as never before, the PMBA is a Body of hopeful Christians, who "hold to God's unchanging hand" and have embraced God's love with a passionate trust.

As we face the New Year, may we always be passionate about the love of God, which can only be found in Christ Jesus.

Bobby S. Stewart, Moderator

We must be sure that it really is God who is calling...

During my year as Vice-Moderator, it was my privilege to lead the Coordinating Council's quarterly meetings. During these gatherings of the Association's work-group leaders, we formulated plans and strategies for advancing the Kingdom of God in our midst. The Coordinating Council is responsible for coordinating the use of resources such as time (calendaring) and money (budgeting). During one meeting, I shared a visual reminder that we must focus on the most important things first – just as large rocks cannot be added to a jar that is already full. During another meeting, the caller-id on my cellular phone provided a reminder that we had better answer when God calls – and we must be sure that it really is God who is calling.

There are many people who work together as volunteers in Kingdom work as a part of PMBA. To each of you, I express my thanks. To those who are not working at the associational level, I offer this invitation to prayerfully consider whether God wants to use what He has invested in you to benefit not only your local church but also our association.

As PMBA moves into the future, we do so with a healthy sense of fellowship, harmony, purpose and diversity. May it always be so!

David Coburn, Vice-Moderator

- Lauren Lott reported a Music Camp at Camp Hanes March 28-29. The Music & Worship Team plans to provide ongoing training for children and youth as well as youth leaders in the areas of music and worship. The Team hopes to develop an annual Youth Chorale through the PMBA.
- David Benton reported that the Annual Meeting Committee is planning a multi-media presentation for next year. The meeting will be held Saturday, July 26, at Oak Ridge Baptist Church beginning with a meal at 5:30 p.m.
- On behalf of the Finance Committee, Travis Rhodes reported that the PMBA is over $11,000 behind in budget. He appealed the Congregational Council members to report the tremendous work that is being carried out through the PMBA for God's Kingdom.
- Mazie Bumgarner reported that the Personnel Committee is taking a close look at the rising costs of insurance and will be meeting with the PMBA staff to determine effective means to provide health benefits to the full time staff.

- Charles McDaniel reported that there will be an increase in property insurance held by the PMBA to cover the disaster relief trailers. He reported that the Properties Committee has completed the video taping and filing of pictures of all contents of the building as well as the building structure.

- Congregational Missionary, Dale Harlan, reported that the PMBA joined with Piedmont and Central Triad Associations to co-sponsor a regional Sunday School training event in August. Several PMBA congregations sent leaders to this event. To be more effective with our dollars, the associations in the triad area will partner to offer larger training events in the areas of Sunday School, Discipleship Training, and Missions Partnerships.

January 7, 2003

- Minutes of the October 2002 meeting were approved by consensus.

- On behalf of the Congregational Development Team, Nolan Lawson reported that New Beginning Baptist Church had disbanded and will offer the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association first option to take over their property. A task force was established to examine the situation and to bring to the Congregational a proposal recommending the disposition of the property.

- As guidelines for the New Beginning Task Force the following six recommendations were made and approved:

    (1) That the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association is not responsible for the property of New Beginning until and unless we vote to accept this property. Giving the Task Force time to investigate this situation by assuming the initial expenses during this interval in no way makes the PMBA legally responsible for this property.

    (2) For the Association to assume responsibility for the monthly payment in the initial stages. The monthly payment is $508.08 and the deed of trust is held by First Citizens Trust.

    (3) To leave all utilities on for insurance purposes.

    (4) To request funds to pay current expenses. Bethany has agreed to pay $100 per month until the Task Force brings a proposal.

    (5) To give the Task Force the responsibility to determine whether or not it is profitable to take over this property from a financial and spiritual perspective.

    (6) Officers will have to sign off according to the Bylaws of the PMBA, with the initial work done in harmony as if we are assuming responsibility for the property, although nothing will be determined until the Task Force brings a proposal to this Council.

- Associational Missionary Jim Hamblen reported that East Davie Baptist Church will officially organize Easter Sunday. Trying to be sensitive to surrounding congregations, the Church Development Team will call a special meeting inviting all surrounding congregations to discuss this new church start and its implications on the community.

- Joyce Love reported that 500 plus health kits were provided by PMBA congregations for the WMU Christmas Party for the inmates at Forsyth County Jail and Prison.

- Jason Clubb reported that 580 youth are involved in the Basketball ministry this year. The banquet will be held at Old Town Baptist Church on March 7, 2003.

- Gary McCullough reported that the Church-Minister Relations Team is planning event entitled, "The Cost of Conflict," which is designed to offer preventive care for congregations regarding the financial cost when churches go through conflict. More information will be forthcoming.

- Don Harvey reported that the Upper Room Task Force has completed its study regarding the feasibility of completing the third floor. They do not have a solid recommendation at this time but believe the project to be necessary,

- Travis Rhodes, treasurer, reported that general church contributions were below the budget through November 30, 2002. As of December 31, 2002, the Association made budget for the first time since 1998.

- The 2004 Plan for Missions and Ministries was approved as submitted. Travis reported that the Association is in a tight financial situation. He stated that in these times we need to look at the complete picture regarding budget needs. The staff is one of the best resources of the Association, assisting churches with everything from training leaders to help in writing Constitution and Bylaws to counseling with the ministerial staff and lay leaders of the church.

- Mazie Bumgarner made the motion to allow the PMBA staff to participate in ProBenefits salary reduction plan. Each staff person who elects to participate in this program can set aside non taxable dollars for anticipated medical costs beyond their insurance coverage. According to the federal guidelines, what money is not used will be lost by the employee but will revert back to the association. The recommendation was approved by vote.

April 8, 2003

- The January 2003 minutes were approved as submitted.

- Nolan Lawson reported that New Beginning Baptist Church has withdrawn their consideration of offering their property to the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. After much prayer and deliberation, the remaining members of New Beginning Baptist Church announced that Hope Pregnancy Care Center will purchase the property at an agreed upon price.

- David Wooten announced the annual Senior Adult Luncheon will be held at Old Town Baptist Church again this year. This annual event is always held the first Thursday in May.

- Ed Evans announced the Missions Partnerships Team and the Community Partnerships Team have joined forces and are planning the next Fair Ministry Project for the week prior to the opening of the Dixie Classic Fair. He asked all congregations to respond positively when contacted by members of the Team regarding special needs for this ministry opportunity.

- Ed Evans reported that the West Virginia Partnership continues to be viable, with PMBA congregations continuing the partnership with the Mountain State Association of West Virginia. He asked for prayer as the Spring season usually means much rain for West Virginia. If they receive as much rain as they have in the past three years, many more homes will be lost to flooding conditions.

- Joyce Love reported the plans for the upcoming Belarussian Children's Project. She stated that she anticipates many requests for children by potential host families. Joyce reminded the members of the Congregational Council that this ministry is not budgeted. Instead, the contributions of individuals and congregations for this ministry is necessary if the work is to continue.

- David Benton reported that the upcoming Annual Meeting will be held at Oak Ridge Baptist Church on July 26, beginning with a meal at 5:30 p.m. Meal tickets have been printed and can be picked up at the PMBA office. The cost is $7 per person.

- Travis Rhodes reported that the economy is still very fragile, which is reflected in the decrease in contributions. He encouraged the PMBA congregations to support their association and to envision the impact on surrounding communities when we partner together to help advance God's Kingdom.

History of Oak Ridge Baptist Church

Oak Ridge Baptist Church was organized during December 1866, and according to the church history, included both white and black members. There were 17 charter members who met some two miles form the present site. The original church building burned between October 1872 and February 1873. The church met under brush arbors and in members' homes until "the old log church" was ready for services in May 1875.

The church joined the Beulah Baptist Association in 1867 when it met with Mount Olive Baptist Church (also in Stokes County). The organization of the church was noted in the associational minutes. J. M. Martin was Oak Ridge's messenger and Pinkney Oliver served as pastor. The church membership was 19.

The log church was sold to a nearby farmer in 1943 for $20 and moved. The new church building was complete and ready for service in a new location by September 1946. The church met in the Sandy Ridge school auditorium until the completion of their building. Expansion of the church buildings, as well as renovations, have occurred throughout the years. In 1966 the church had the original logs from the "old log church" returned to the church site where a memorial log hut was built for use by the congregation in honor of their 100th anniversary. The parsonage was completed in July 1958.

The church met twice a month on the third Saturday and Sunday for many years until 1954 when Saturday services were discontinued. In 1958 a full time pastor was called.

In 1885 Oak Ridge Baptist Church became a charter member (from the Beulah Baptist Assoiation) of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, where it continues to serve.

Pastors include: A. H. Barnes (1866); Pinkney Oliver (1867-1971); Henry A. Brown (1871); R. W. Crews (1873-1877); Robert Gourley (1878); James T. Vernon (1879); R. B. Moore (1880-1882); R. W. "Spiritual Leadership is not an occupation: it is a calling."
[Dr. Henry Blackaby, "Spiritual Leadership]

Our Mission Statement: "Our Mission is to serve as a catalyst through encouraging and equipping churches to participate in a Christ-centered process resulting in the development of qualified, effective and committed Christian leaders." (Adopted December 10, 2002)

During the course of the 2002 -2003 associational year the Congregational Leadership Team continually met prior to the quarterly Associational Coordinating Council meetings Their purpose, as reflected in the above-mentioned mission statement, is to allow directors from the Bible Teaching/Reaching, Discipleship Development, Church Development, Evangelism, Music & Worship, Ordination, Pastoral Ministries, Seminary Extension, Senior Adult, Spiritual Formation, and Youth Ministries teams to come together to discuss, pray about and plan towards ways that they may develop qualified leaders in the churches making up our association.

"The twenty-first century is the most advanced age in history, but effective biblical leadership has never been more needed. Holding a leadership position in a Christian organization does not make one a spiritual leader. Spiritual leadership is not an occupation: it is a calling." (Dr. Henry Blackaby, "Spiritual Leadership", Broadman and Holman Publishers). Those challenging words by Dr. Blackaby, captures the heart of the driving motivation behind our Congregational Leadership Team, because they recognize that any organization is only as strong and effective as its leaders. This certainly applies to the church and the association, especially in the challenging spiritual condition of the American culture of which we are a part. It is this team's desire to work together in assisting the local churches in identifying, enlisting and equipping those members that God has "called" to various positions of leadership. It is imperative that we move beyond the old fatalistic attitude of "putting warm-willing bodies" into positions of leadership, just to "cover the bases" and get by another year. It is time that we invest our resources to help "called" leaders to serve with competence and confidence. No doubt this will enhance the quality of our Discipleship, Deacons, Missions, Bible Teaching, Worship, Children's and Youth Ministries, while glorifying the One Who is the Head of the Body of Christ, Our Lord Jesus.

The Congregational Leadership Team is committed to doing its part in communicating with the churches and coordinating leadership training opportunities that will result in strong leaders, serving in strong churches, proud to be a part of a strong association.

Charles Martin, Leadership Development Teams Leader

How do we measure success?

The missions and ministries opportunities for the 85 congregations in the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association are endless. As the Ministries Development Teams leader for the PMBA, I can tell you that the Association is constantly seeking ways to be more effective in Kingdom work. As you read the reports from the various team leaders, a picture develops of reaching people for Christ through:

(1) Brotherhood — Disaster Relief Teams traveling to Eastern North Carolina, West Virginia, Washington, New York, and Alabama

(2) Community Partnerships — Baptist Toy Store, Domestic Violence Prevention Workshops, Fair Ministry, Pilot Mountain Outreach Center, Outreach to Local Schools, etc.

(3) Missions Partnerships — Belarussian Children's Project, West Virginia Partnership, Haiti Partnership, Honduras Partnership and Alaska Partnership

(4) Recreational Ministries — Basketball leagues involving over 400 young people and churches Across denominational lines; softball leagues involving numerous congregations across denominational lines)

(5) WMU — SOS Clothing Closet, Prison Ministries Christmas Project, National Day of Prayer, sending Ethnic girls to GA Camp, and the WMU Salad Super

(6) Youth Ministries — Fall Retreat involving over 600 children; Spring Fling, and mission partnerships among various youth groups

Paul tells us in Hebrews 11:12 "to prepare God's people for works of service, so that the body of Christ may be built up until we all reach unity in the faith and in the knowledge of the Son of God and become mature, attaining to the whole measure of the fullness of Christ." As we join together as 85 congregations of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association we can utilize more resources and involve more people in sharing the love of Jesus Christ here at home and across the oceans in other land. We can be come a faithful and obedient people who love God and look for ways to serve Him. How can we, as Christians, measure "success." Perhaps, in part, by our commitment...our faith...our love...and our willingness to "go."

Joyce Love, Ministries Development Teams Leader

AS I SEE IT...

For several years I have written a column in The Pilot entitled "As I See It." And I have also shared my annual report under the same title. This gives me the opportunity to be as personal as I can with you, the reader, in an attempt to give you my perspective on the life and work within this association.

During the past year [from October, 2002 through September, 2003] the staff has worked diligently to face the harsh realities that we were moving into an uncertain future with limited financial resources in the face of growing mission and ministry opportunities. There was an intentional effort to practice careful stewardship as we adjusted to the new staff responsibilities and functions.

- One of the greatest challenges we all face is:

  > "How do we maintain that healthy balance between very competent employed staff and very committed elected leaders?"

- Another serious challenge that should be addressed is:

  > "How do we encourage and provide opportunity for other congregational leaders to make decisions and contributions to the life and direction of this association?"

These are ongoing challenges that are faced by all associations that intend to respond to the expectations and needs of their affiliated congregations. With several years of effort in attempting to apply the recommendations of the Transitional Monitoring Team [approved in 1998], we are now poised on the threshold of becoming that effective instrument in God's Kingdom Work that we determined to become in relationship to the congregations within the PMBA.

During this past year we have taken a new look at Church Development in order to discern where and what are our best efforts in helping congregations to become all that God intends for them to become. Also, there have been outstanding efforts by our leaders to offer Discipleship emphases which are the foundation to healthy church growth.

The ministry areas have flourished. The people in this area have responded well to the "calls" for resources in the face of several emergency needs. You will note that the Iraqi Food Drive, the Dixie Classic Fair ministry, the Baptist Toy Store and many other projects are one of the criteria of the spiritual health and well being of our association. There are many other examples of how the volunteer workers have exhibited sacrificial service in a time of declining resources.

The question remains.

> "How can we become more faithful, effective, and efficient in the Work of the Kingdom?

Jim Hamblen, Associational Missionary

Did WE Meet the Challenge???

It is hard to believe that another associational year has come and gone!!! There were so many opportunities and challenges that were met...but...so many that are yet to become a reality. The longer that I am your Congregational Missionary...it seems that God places many, many more challenges ahead of me. It is encouraging to look back at the last year to see what...with God's help...we together have accomplished for the Kingdom. But...this evaluation process only focuses my thoughts on the tremendous ministry opportunities that God is opening up in the future for us.

My question for ALL of us for the past year is..."Did WE meet the challenge?" Did we reach more people for Christ? Did we duplicate who we are as followers of Christ in others? Did our congregations catch a new Kingdom vision? Have more of our congregations intentionally shifted from being plateaued or dying to being transformed to reach their full kingdom potential?

There is one great challenge that faces each and every congregation in the PMBA and in America today. It is the challenge of becoming the authentic Body of Christ in the unique culture and location in which God has planted them. If each one of us and the congregations of which we are members look at the Gospels and simply ask ourselves two questions..."What are the characteristics of the life of Christ that are so evident in the Bible?"...and..."Am I, or my local congregation, living out these characteristics in the world?"

As I look back at this past year and then anticipate the future...I have had the great privilege to walk with you as we joined our Lord in advancing his Kingdom and attempting to meet the challenge. These are some of the exciting ministries and opportunities in which I have assisted:

- Working with congregations of many denominations in the Winston-Salem area to sign a "Marriage Savers Covenant" to do premarital counseling
- Helping establish an Arabic congregation in Kernersville, collaborating with the Piedmont Baptist Association and the Central Triad Association
- Coaching of congregations through the process of Core Value Discovery and Visioning
- Facilitating several congregational leadership and deacon's retreats
- Conducting Bible Teaching and Reaching training events with Dot Harmon as the associational BTR Director
- Visioning with the Church Development Team and Nolan Lawson team leader about the future of church development in the PMBA
- Working with the Triad associations in collaborative VBS and Sunday School training events
- Visiting and/or preaching in many of the PMBA congregations
- Coordinating a three year Mission partnership between the PMBA and New Direction International with ministry partners in Haiti
- Participating collaboratively with other Triad associations in visioning and Mission strategy
- Facilitating Learning Communities for pastors and ministers

Even with my participating in these exciting ministry happenings...I still ask the question..."Did WE meet the challenge?" If the challenge is to live out the Incarnation of Christ in the world so that others might come to know him as Savior and Lord and that the Body of Christ might reach its full kingdom potential... "We have NOT even come close to meeting the challenge!"

Because 80 – 85% of our congregations are still plateaued or dying. More and more people from around the world are moving into the Triad and we are not reaching them with the Gospel by starting new congregations. The number of lost, un-churched and de-churched people in our community has grown to 70% of our population. There are still issues of injustice that we have not confronted and abolished in our community. There is still a great racial, economic, educational, geographic and religious division in our community.

If we are honest with ourselves and with God ... "We have failed to live obedient and faithful lives... we have NOT met the challenge!!!" Will you join me as we covenant together to meet the challenge of living like Christ and therefore transforming our community and world in the coming year???

Dale Harlan, Congregational Missionary

I want that passion that burns like fire to refine me for God's Kingdom work

During my ministry with the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association I have worn many hats. I have had the privilege to serve as the Ministry Assistant for Communications, the Executive Secretary, the Administrative Assistant: Communications, and in 2003 I embraced the opportunity to serve as your Church and Community Ministries Coordinator.

As I live in to this new full time ministry position, I have tried to listen and engage congregational leaders and ministry staff in missions and ministries opportunities. As I seek to define my role, I want to be certain that I remain true to God's call for me to serve the congregations through the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association.

Today, we are faced with awesome challenges...challenges that open the doors of change. Since 1992, I have witnessed our congregations search for the sense of "community"... in worship ...training...service...missions. During the last several years I have tried to be a catalyst that sparks that sense of community...through the formation of the Pilot Mountain Outreach Center in Pilot Mountain, the Eastern North Carolina Partnership, the West Virginia Partnership, the Haiti Partnership, the Fair Ministry, the Baptist Toy Store, etc. As an association of 85 congregations, we have sought ways to cross boundaries that divide us...denominational lines...doctrines of belief...core values...gender...race. I believe we are on the threshold of a new day where we can join as brothers and sisters in Christ to share and experience missional service that advances God's Kingdom, if we have the courage to accept God's call.

Dale Harlan and I have joined together to discover ways in which our congregations can discover greater spiritual health. The Family Ministries Team was born in 2003 from a desire to offer hope and assistance regarding such issues as marriage saver covenants, which encourages pastors to offer pre-marital counseling prior to performing wedding ceremonies. In the coming year, the Family Ministries Team hopes to provide training and counseling in areas concerning domestic violence, teen violence, and the breakdown of the family unit.

Through Community Partnerships, we offer our congregations opportunities for involvement in such organizations as the Industrial Areas Foundation (IAF) and Communities Helping All Neighbors Gain Empowerment (CHANGE), which offers opportunities for individuals and faith communities to become aware and involved in their surrounding area. We have offered ways of involvement within our schools (providing basic supplies and volunteer assistants). Even so, as a people or faith, we need to ask ourselves if we have recognized and responded adequately to the issues of poverty in our own communities. Have we fought acts of racial injustice? Have we met the challenges and taken the given opportunities to minister to multiple people groups in our communities? As congregations, have we opened our doors to the very communities where our church buildings reside?

I have taken this year to build a network of resources and volunteers willing to assist congregations with special needs and share with those who are interested, how they can become a "community congregation."

I see my role as Community Ministries Coordinator evolving into a servant leader whose purpose is to help congregations envision the future of their community once the congregations become actively involved in changing lives and loving people to Christ in their very own neighborhoods.

Tom Billings, Director of Missions for the Union Baptist Association of Houston, Texas, says that change is inevitable...change is fearful...change is painful...change requires a price. If our Association of 85 congregations hopes to exist and be fruitful for God's Kingdom 5 to 10 years from now, we must be willing to see the mission field before us. We must be willing to sacrifice and open our hearts to new people groups springing up all around us. We must be missional in our response to God's bringing the mission field to our very doors! My course has been set by the Holy Spirit. I am eager to join each congregation—individually and collectively—in the discovery of where God is working and how we can join Him.

In a poem by Amy Carmichael, the last verse reads:

Give me the love that leads the way,

The faith that nothing can dismay,

The hope no disappointments tire,

The passion that burns like fire.

Let me not sink to be a clod;

Make me Thy fuel, Flame of God.

I don't know about you, but I want that passion that burns like fire to refine me for this very time in my Spiritual Journey towards Home. If you, too, are hearing God's call to this vast mission field we call "community" please give me a call and I will gladly walk with you in the discovery of your congregation's vision and mission in the community where your are located.

Ask yourself, "If my congregation ceased to exist, would the community notice?"

2003 ANNUAL REPORTS

Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina

(July 2003-July 2004)

Above and beyond -- these words best describe what North Carolina Baptists did last year!... Churches around the state came mightily to the aid of Baptist Children's Homes in 2003-04 as their beloved institution faced one of its most critical financial times. Prayers, money, and gifts of food, towels, sheets, school supplies, and clothes flooded in. These showers of blessings softened the blow of a nearly four million-dollar budget cut. Thank you.

History was made as churches from all 80 Baptist Associations gave food to BCH's first-ever statewide food roundup. Nearly 500,000 pounds of food were collected filling every available space on our campuses. Directors of Missions graciously opened their offices as collection points for the food. Churches delivered food filling their offices, halls and storage rooms. Trucking companies picked up the food from the Association offices and delivered this great expression of your love and concern. Thank you.

(The next Food Roundup is slated for April 2005.)

Last year, nearly 2000 videos of Jennifer's Story were distributed to churches. The video told how North Carolina Baptists made a difference in the life of Jennifer Shore. Jennifer found hope and healing at Baptist Children's Homes. As an adult she and her husband returned to become child care workers. More than 600 churches invited BCH representatives to share how the lives of children, children like Jennifer, are being changed every day. United together, North Carolina Baptists not only met the 2003 Thanksgiving Offering goal, but exceeded it! Thank you.

Baptist Children's Homes is at the center of North Carolina Baptists' hearts. Their actions prove it! Jesus challenged us all when he said, "In the same way, let your light shine before men, that they may see your good deeds and praise your Father in heaven." Our children and staff, the people in your communities, and the citizens of North Carolina saw Jesus in action and our Heavenly Father was glorified! Thank you.

Blackwell marks 20th year as president... On July 1, 1983, Michael C. Blackwell became president of BCH. Trustees honored his twenty years of ministry during their September 2003 board meeting with "A Celebration of Ministry."

BCH begins strategic planning process... BCH president Michael C. Blackwell initiated an agency year-long strategic planning effort. Blackwell says this is the most comprehensive effort since he became president. All areas of the agency are involved in the development of the plan. Recommendations will be presented to the Trustees at their September meeting. The plan will debut in January 2005.

Shine your light!... Inspired by North Carolina Baptists, this year's Thanksgiving Offering theme is "Shine your light." Although blessings flowed freely in 2003 helping to avert more difficult hardships, our need remains great. Children and families continue to pour out their hurt on our doorsteps. Alone and suffering, children need to know that in their journey of darkness there is a light shining, guiding them to a better day. You help keep the light on and shining bright as we, day-to-day, offer help in Jesus' name. Our statewide Thanksgiving Offering goal this year is $1,300,000. This represents a $75,000 increase over last year's offering goal. An increase demanded by necessity. Challenge your church to participate in the 2004 Thanksgiving Offering. Our success depends on you.

BCH…Focused on the Future. Despite the trying times, Baptist Children's Homes continues to be committed to providing only the highest quality of service. Children who come through BCH's doors continue to receive an abundance of love, care and healing. A dedicated staff serves and gives of themselves sacrificially. The lives of children and families are worth every effort. BCH holds true to its mission of "helping hurting children… healing broken families."

The support of North Carolina Baptists through the Thanksgiving Offering, Cooperative Missions giving, church and individual gifts, memorials, honors, and estate gifts enables BCH to provide care for more than 2000 children through our locations across the state. Thank you, North Carolina Baptists, for your continued prayers and support. We could not do what we do without you.

BAPTIST HOSPITAL AND NORTH CAROLINA BAPTISTS: EXTENDNG THE HEALING TOUCH OF JESUS CHRIST..

North Carolina Baptist Hospital admitted its first patient on May 30, 1923, culminating a vision of the Baptist State Convention to extend the healing ministry of Jesus Christ. Eighty years later, in 2003, we remain firmly committed to the original mission of providing the highest quality medical care marked by excellence, integrity, innovation, and compassion consistent with the teachings of Christ. This report highlights our partnership in missions with North Carolina Baptists.

BAPTISTS BENEVOLENT CARE FUND

The Convention established the annual Mother's Day Offering in 1924 to help patients in financial need pay their hospital bills, to lift heavy burdens in the name of Jesus Christ and His love. Since that time every dollar of every gift has been used for that purpose—caring for children like Haleigh in her battle with cancer, and adults like Wade and Vickie. You have made a tremendous difference in their lives and many others just like them. Please read their inspiring stories of thankfulness in the new Mother's Day Offering website (www.ncbhmothersday.org). Thank you, North Carolina Baptists, for giving $600,372 to this ministry in 2002!

SCHOOL OF PASTORAL CARE

The fruits of Cooperative Giving by North Carolina Baptists are evidenced in life-changing ministries of the School of Pastoral Care. Our mission is "to provide ministries of growth, hope, and healing in the Spirit of Christ." Thank you, North Carolina Baptists, for extending the healing reach of Christ to thousands of hurting people through our ministries.

Baptist Hospital CareNet Counseling Centers, our Department of Pastoral Counseling, annually provides over 24, 500 hours of counseling at 22 locations across our state. This ministry brings emotional and spiritual healing, consistent wit the compassion of Christ, to those who have been broken. Our counselors are licensed professionals with deeply held personal faith. They extend the ministry of churches, receiving many referrals from Baptist pastors on behalf of church members who re hurting. Approximately 40% of our counseling hours are provided to Baptists.

The Center for Congregational Health has continued to develop vital ministries. Nearly 600 church leaders received training in the past year through the Center's programs of leadership development. "The Pastor as Spiritual Guide" and "Young Leaders" programs have proven to be highly beneficial for NC Baptist ministers, deepening their faith as spiritual leaders do for their churches. Approximately 25 churches per month have benefited from the Center's consulting ministry. Initial, expert consultations are provided free to NC Baptist Churches thanks to Cooperative giving. Intentional Interim ministers trained by the Center continue to serve churches in our state, across the nation, and Australia. Mentoring programs for young ministers are also being provided.

The Department of Chaplaincy and Pastoral Education provides ministry to patients, families, and staff through more than 61,000 pastoral contacts each year, extending great compassion and hope in the name of Jesus Christ. Specialized training in hospital ministry was provided to 63 students in the past year, making our Clinical Pastoral Education program one of the largest in the nation.

The Department of Church and Community Relations receives no Cooperative Program Funds, but serves as a vital liaison to N.C. Baptist churches. The department ministers to over 150 Baptists per year by facilitating physician appointments or helping others with concerns about medical bills. Many of those who are helped have no health insurance and are burdened by financial need.

CLOSING WORDS FROM THE PRESIDENT

The initial vision of North Carolina Baptists to extend the healing touch of Christ has unfolded in remarkable ways at Baptist Hospital over the past 80 years. As Christ ministered to those who were broken in body, mind, or spirit and made them whole, we continually strive to follow his example. We consider it a sacred responsibility and profound privilege to serve him in this mission of healing. We are thankful to you, North Carolina Baptists, for being our partners in ministry.

Biblical Recorder

2004 Report to the Associations

After celebrating its 170th anniversary in 2003, the Biblical Recorder remains true to its founding mission of publishing relevant news and fostering healthy dialogue among members of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina.

Today's North Carolina Baptists face a constantly changing landscape as population shifts, cultural trends and denominational debates each leave their mark. As always, Baptists find a variety of ways to express their identity. North Carolina Baptists have a clear need to be informed of the many issues affecting Baptist life, mission work and mutual cooperation.

The Biblical Recorder exists to provide this needed service to Baptists in North Carolina and beyond. The Recorder staff works diligently to provide regular, dependable and balanced news coverage and analysis of the most significant matters relating to Baptist life. In addition, the Biblical Recorder includes a variety of supportive resources and feature articles designed to encourage and inspire as well as to inform.

The Recorder was privately owned and operated in support of Baptist work in North Carolina until 1938, when the paper was purchased by the Baptist State Convention and incorporated as an agency of the convention. It serves as the official news publication of the Convention, and seeks to serve the full spectrum of its churches.

The Biblical Recorder is widely acknowledged to be in the top echelon of state Baptist papers, winning national honors from the Baptist Communicator's Association every year since 2000, including the prestigious Burkhalter Award for news writing in 2001, and several first place awards for news and editorial writing, including two in 2003.

As readers have shifted in their preference for electronic media over traditional print formats, the Biblical Recorder has developed and maintains a popular and rapidly growing presence on the World Wide Web. Our Website, at www.biblicalrecorder.org, provides much of each paper's content online, as well as to access classified ads, online Bible study resources and a portal to other news services. The site is frequently updated with breaking news items and other articles of interest.

The Biblical Recorder was one of the first state papers to create a website, and it remains a leader in the field. Google.com's prestigious page-rank feature lists www.biblicalrecorder.org as the number one site for Baptist news on the Internet. Web users in North Carolina and around the world now rival the number of those who read the Recorder's print edition, as an average of more than 40,000 unique visitors come to the site each month.

As a BSCNC agency, the Biblical Recorder receives annual support from Cooperative Missions Giving contributions, making it possible to offer the Recorder at subscription rates below the actual cost. Subscription packets and free sample issues are available. For more information, please contact:

2003 ANNUAL REPORT

"Christian involvement in the moral life of our nation is a crucial imperative, not an option. While many very fine ministries recognize this necessity, I believe the Christian Action League is one of the most effective local organizations in the country bringing Judeo-Christian values to bear on our nation's life. I am impressed continually by the breadth of involvement of this fine organization and by the astute and godly manner in which Rev. Mark Creech directs it. Without reservation, I can say that the call of Jesus to His disciples to be salt and light in their society is admirably fulfilled by Rev. Creech and this superb ministry."

Dr. Richard Land
Ethics and Religious Liberty Commission of the Southern Baptist Convention

There is no question that North Carolina is a safer more wholesome place to live because of the work of the Christian Action League of North Carolina. Under the leadership of Rev. Mark Creech, this organization is having a profound effect for family values.

Don Wildemon
Founder and President of the American Family Association

I applaud Rev. Mark Creech for his courageous and influential work for America as the leader of North Carolina's Christian Action League. Mark has refused to sit silently as America's moral foundations are steadily chipped away. By consistently taking his leadership and involvement one step further, Mark is making a powerful difference for Christ in America!"

Dr. D. James Kennedy, Ph. D.
Founder and President of Coral Ridge Ministries

The Christian Action League of North Carolina, Inc. continues to work vigorously to address public policy and legislative matters from a Christian worldview. Our purpose is to assist the church in its mission to fulfill the Cultural Mandate. It is a joy to serve in this capacity. This report contains highlights from this year's efforts.

A. Promotion of Christian Values

- CAL continues to promote and distribute copies of the Ten Commandments across North Carolina. Over 18,000 have been distributed statewide. CAL has just created a new print of the Ten Commandments and the very first edition of God's Covenant With America; both of which will be ready for distribution in the near future. God's Covenant With America features an American paraphrase of Deuteronomy 8:7-20 written by CAL's Director. The new Ten Commandments print and God's Covenant with America can be purchased separately or together, simply as a print, or framed. Both can be beautifully displayed in a church, home or business.

- CAL has a new interactive website www.christianactionleague.net. The website not only provides information about CAL, but is designed to keep the church abreast of the latest developments in the General Assembly of North Carolina and the U.S. Congress. The website includes weekly editorials by its Executive Director, Rev. Mark Creech, as well as guest commentaries. Also included is a National Christian newswire that is updated daily, feature stories of Christians making a difference in the culture war and various other Christian resources.

- CAL continues to publish a weekly email "Issues Alert" that keeps approximately 1500 people on the frontlines of Christian activism. The weekly email Issues Alert is designed not only to inform, but also to stir God's people to take action via legislative contacts, etc. Those interested in receiving the weekly email Issues Alert should go to CAL's website at www.christianactionleague.net and click on "Be A Beacon of Light."

- The Executive Director of the Christian Action League, Rev. Mark Creech, has written numerous editorials this year that have appeared in some of North Carolina's largest and most respected newspapers; three editorials by Rev. Creech appeared in the Raleigh News and Observer and one in the Charlotte Observer. Rev. Creech is regularly published in The Charlotte World, the Raleigh World and the Triad World newspapers. His writing ministry has now taken on national prominence with publications of his editorials in Christian newspapers across the country. He also writes a regular column titled, The Right Frame of Mind, which appears nationally on the American Family Association's website and Agape Press.

- Because Pornography has become a pervasive problem in the church as well as society, the Christian Action League now offers a Seminar to help pastors deal with its influence. The very first seminar, The Pastor and Pornography, was held this year in Lexington for the North Carolina Sheriff's Association. The seminar was so successful the same group has requested it be held for them a second time in October. Associational Pastors' Conferences or other groups interested in having the two-hour seminar should contact the Christian Action League.

- This year Christian values have been advocated by CAL's Executive Director on a wide variety of issues taken up on radio and television interviews, both local and outside of North Carolina. Rev. Mark Creech has spoken in numerous worship services, revival meetings, rallies, associational meetings, legislative chapel services, press conferences, conventions, and seminars. This year Rev. Creech is scheduled to speak at the 2003 Reclaiming America for Christ Conference in Fort Lauderdale, Florida. The conference features such national speakers as Dr. Richard Land of the Ethics and Religious Liberty

Commission of the Southern Baptist Convention, Dr. D. James Kennedy of the Center for Reclaiming America for Christ and Matt Staver of Liberty Counsel.

- CAL's quarterly newsletter, The Beacon, was distributed only once this year. The newsletter is sent to approximately 23,000 people, but could not be sent for the 2nd and 3rd quarters. The expenditure was unjustifiable because of a lack of funds. Pay for staff and critical legislative matters demanded all the financial resources available. CAL's objective is to revive the newsletter in the future in a way that will make it self-supporting.

B. Lobbying the Legislature

- This year most of CAL's lobbying was preoccupied with the numerous pieces of alcohol legislation that were introduced. Although CAL was unable to stop three alcohol bills that lowered the alcohol-to-food ratio in restaurants, broadened the scope of local option alcohol referenda, and allowed in-state and out-of-state wineries to deliver their products via the mail, we were able to stop five other serious alcohol measures. These measures were even more critical in their implications because they would have either ended local option alcohol referenda, made local option obsolete, bypassed local option, completely bypassed North Carolina's three-tiered system of alcohol control, or privatized alcohol sales in our State. We were able to help get SB 996-ABC Sexually Explicit Conduct Banned passed – a bill that bans sexually explicit conduct on ABC Licenses' premises.

- SB 972 - Execution Delay Study would have authorized a two-year moratorium on the death penalty while officials studied the application of the death penalty in North Carolina. CAL not only lobbied lawmakers to reject the measure, but Rev. Mark Creech spoke out against the legislation at a public hearing before the House Rules Committee. The legislation passed the Senate, but was never considered by the House.

- It is no small accomplishment that CAL, working closely with other public policy organizations from both a conservative and liberal perspective, were able to turn back the lottery. While the public saw little of the lottery debate that was very visible in previous sessions, there were periods this year when pro-lottery forces from the mega-million dollar gambling industry, legislative leadership and the Governor's office were feverishly working behind the scenes to pass a lottery referendum. But CAL stayed vigilant. Of course, the most furious push for a lottery will come in next year's 2004 legislative short session when the lottery referendum will be a key component in a big election year.

- CAL also lobbied in favor of "sin taxes" on alcohol and tobacco, as well as a ban on video poker.

- This year, CAL's name or the name of its Director were mentioned during debate on the House floor three different times as a means of clarifying, promoting or opposing a position on some piece of legislation. This is the first time anything of this nature has ever happened in CAL's history. It clearly demonstrates CAL's growing influence on North Carolina lawmakers.

- CAL presented the book, It's Who You Know, by Franklin Graham, to North Carolina lawmakers to show the importance of having a personal relationship with Christ and to say thank you for their service. While the Christian Action League lobbies on several public policy issues during the legislative session, Rev. Creech felt the Gospel of Christ was the most important issue he could share with the legislators.

C. Local Option Alcohol Referenda

- This year CAL assisted with five local option alcohol referendums. The results of those referendums include: 1 postponement, 1 defeat (referendum succeeded), and 3 victories (referendum did not succeed).

Spreading Good News

Charles L. Fox
Central Area Manager

All of us have heard the expression, "That's just too good to be true." Most things in life, if they sound exceptionally good, have some hidden and unpleasant strings attached. But there really are a few things that, although seemingly too good to be true, actually are good and true.

One of these is a method of making money by giving it away. This might sound a little crazy, but it really can be done. Establishing a charitable remainder trust (CRT) allows just such a scenario.

The facts are that with a CRT you can actually lower current income taxes, avoid capital gains tax, and maintain or even increase your current income for as long as you live. You can also donate large sums to charity and still leave as much, or more, than you planned to your children and grandchildren.
Too good to be true? No, not at all A CRT can be established with some of your existing assets: cash, stocks, bonds, real estate, or any other appreciable asset that can readily be turned into cash. One or more of these assets are transferred to the trust. You name a favorite charity as future beneficiary. You get an immediate partial income tax deduction because the gift is irrevocable, and capital gains taxes are also avoided because the trust doesn't pay any taxes. If you had sold the appreciated asset yourself, you would have lost substantial value to taxes.

The trustee converts the donated assets into incomeproducing investments, which become the basis for the donor's receipt of income. You decide who gets the income and for how long. You and your spouse can take the income for as long as either of you live. The charity you named in the trust agreement would then receive endowment income in perpetuity.

But what about the inheritance you wanted to leave to your children or grandchildren since their intended inheritance is now going to charity? A couple of options are available to replace that inheritance. One option is to name your children and/or grandchildren as term beneficiaries. This means that the income stream can continue for up to twenty years beyond the second to die (you or your spouse). Certain restrictions do apply, so call your area manager to see if you qualify.

A second option is to purchase an insurance policy on you and your spouse equal to the size of your gift, naming your children/grandchildren as beneficiaries. Premiums can be paid from the income produced by the trust's assets and, upon the last death, they will receive the policy's death benefit, which is just as much as they would have received had you left them the original assets. If properly structured, this second option can create an additional benefit. A separate trust can permit your family to receive their inheritance from insurance, not your estate, causing the cash to pass to them free of income taxes, estate taxes, and probate expenses.

All have heard the expression, "That's just too good to be true."

Many people assume that a CRT only makes sense when giving away millions of dollars. But that is not true. The North Carolina Baptist Foundation can assist in establishing a CRT at little cost or effort and for gifts as small as $30,000. We encourage you to take a close look at your appreciated assets. They may be just the treasure to not only help yourself, but your family and your favorite charity as well.

Proceedings of the 119th Annual Meeting

Embracing His Precious Promises Through Our Relationship with Jesus Christ

The 119th Annual Session of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association was called to order by David Coburn at 6:30 p.m. Moderator David Coburn moved that we adopt the agenda as presented. Hearing no objections, the motion carried.

Bill Coleman, pastor of Glenn View, welcomed those present. He stated that he was looking forward to an evening of celebration and worship. He said, "We can do many more things together than we can as individual churches. We are brothers and sisters in Christ."

Music Director Lauren Lott led the congregation in Hymn No. 3, "Worthy of Worship."

Nathan Parrish, vice moderator and pastor of Peace Haven, read the scripture, II Peter 1:3-4.

Past Moderator Bobby Stewart gave the theme interpretation for the Annual Session. The following are excerpts from her interpretation of Embracing His Precious Promises Through Our Relationship with Jesus Christ."

Many take likely things taken as celebratory events. Last year was, "Embracing His Precious Promises." This year we have added, "...through our Relationship with Jesus Christ." The writer of Peter warned that we must develop steadfastness. The letters of Peter are full of warnings of this that might draw away from Jesus Christ. We, too, must be alert to passions of the world.

The gift of His power and presence have been given to us fully, but like many gifts they are often overlooked. These are assurances not insurances – We cannot pay a price for them. They are viable; they are living. But they are also assurances. As they were for the First Century Church, so they are for us.

Last year's theme , "Embracing His Special Promises" did not mean that we should stop with the promise. Many times we look back at that which is due us...We have stuff and more stuff...We build bigger barns. "Do not labor for food that perishes but for food that leads to eternal life." If we are in tune with our creator, we will remember this.

The writer of Peter begins in verse 5, "Hold firmly to a relationship with Jesus Christ. " When we tend to embrace, we sometimes close commitment and communication. We cannot embrace from a distance. To embrace God is to bring us closer to the truth. We say yes to all that He embraces. When we embrace, we communicate. We may be saying, "I love you." God is most visibly present in silence.

Several Sundays ago, my pastor made a point : "Bring God into the human experience." When I permit God tgo be in my experiences, I embrace Him. His divine power brings all promises to us. We become partakers through our relationship with Him.

Music Director Laurent Lott led the congregation in Hymn No. 405, "Have Faith in God."

Frank Johnson, member of Knollwood Baptist Church, read from the scriptures

Christa Warise, Senior Adult Minister for Ardmore, led the congregation in a time of memoriam for those who have gone before us. Since last year many have left earthily journeys to being their Heavenly lives. Truly this has be one of the great special promises acclaimed in II Peter 1:3-4. We have all had to say "goodbye" to many who have meant so much to us...There have been many in our church families who have begun their Heavenly lives. When remembering them, let us think of that strong prayer warrior we knew...or that sweet soul who showed up at each service. They have gone home but will not be forgotten.

Christa concluded by asking the congregation to bow for a moment of silence in remembrance of those who have gone before us. After a few moments Christa Warise led the congregation in prayer for those who had died during 2004.

The Glenn View Men's Quarter led the congregation in a time of worship in song.

Nolan Lawson, Church Development Team Leader, reported that King Cowboy Church had asked to become a part of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. He stated that they are holding services on Thursday evenings in King, North Carolina. Sheila Jackson, a member of the King Cowboy Church, stated that they wanted to eventually become a participating member of the PMBA. She said that they are currently looking for a sponsoring church. They are looking for pastors who might relate to people who like horses.

Ms. Jackson stated that their vision is to go out into the community to share Christ and to meet needs. She said that they are an outreach ministry, holding services every Thursday evening. They need good solid Southern Baptist preachers to be willing to preach on occasion. She closed by asking for our prayers.

Ty Talton, chair of the Membership Committee, reported that last year the PMBA welcomed East Davie under watchcare of the Association. They come tonight to be presented for full membership into the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, seeking our prayers and support. They stated that they need to be shepherd as they go through the process of seeking a new pastor.

Jim Hamblen stated that Max Furr, the former pastor of East Davie, resigned to help with work in Honduras. However, due to unforeseen health problems for Max's wife, Joan, there has been a delay. East Davie embraces and celebrates with them over their decision to return to the mission field; however, they feel that as a church, they are ready to proceed with membership into the PMBA.

A motion was brought by the Membership Committee to accept East Davie Baptist Church as a full member of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. The motion carried. Bill Harrison and Bob Browder, representatives of the church, were recognized.

Lauren Lott, Music Director, led the congregation in Hymn NO. 567, "Share His Love."

Joyce Love, Ministries Development Director spoke on behalf of partners in missions and ministries through the PMBA. She stated that the basic definition of a partner is "one who shares." God does not call us to do everything, but He does calls to do something.

A power point presentation by Brenda Dean was shown at this time.

Joyce Love continued, "God gives each of us different expressions of our gifts...different passions...Each of us have a way to share our past experiences. Some volunteer for the Fair Ministry Week, others for the Baptist Toy Store. Some work through the S.O.S. Closet. Some target their energies on the Prison Ministry; still others focus on the Belarussian Children's Project. Regardless of where your passion is, you need to exercise your privilege and opportunity to join in missions and ministry work. Next year we have wonderful opportunity as an association of 85 churches to participate in a MissionFEST/FamilyFEST. People will be coming from across the United States to work along side our volunteers in making a difference in the lives of people in our communities. You do not want to miss this opportunity.

Michael Thomas spoke on behalf of Brotherhood and the Disaster Response Team. He stated that the Disaster Response Division of Brotherhood was organized in 1999. Since that time the Disaster Response Team has trained over 100 people in Disaster Relief and Recovery and have sent teams to Florida, Georgia, South Carolina, Tennessee, West Virginia and North Carolina. Teams have helped with such projects as cutting down trees, mudouts, rebuilding homes. Many times, a church or associational team is the first to respond to the call. Due to the recent floods in North Carolina and West Virginia, we have had to do more mudout work than anything else; however, we are ready to put the construction process into full swing.

David Benton, pastor of Friends Baptist Church, led the congregation in scripture reading.

Lauren Lott led the congregation in Hymn No. 604, "Come All Christians and Be Committed."

Bill Coleman, pastor of Glenn View and chair of the Constitution Committee, made the motion on behalf of the Constitution Committee to accept the proposed changes to the Policies and Procedures Section of the Operations Manual. The motion was approved. Copies of the Operations Manual can be picked up at the PMBA Resource Center.

Travis Rhodes, Finance Committee chairperson and treasurer for the Association, reported on the finances. He stressed the fact that God has provided for the needs of the Association, even with a downturn in the economy. Charitable giving was down this year. This was evident in the income that we received at PMBA. As a result we had to cut the projected budget for 2003 and will have to take a very prayerful approach to the 2004 budget. As we look to the future we must look to where God is leading and appropriately allocate resources. Please be in prayer for our Association and the member churches that it represents.

Lauren Lott led the congregation in Hymn No. 395, "God of Grace and God of Glory."

Charles Edwards spoke on behalf of the Jim Hamblen Local Missions and Ministries Offering. He encouraged the PMBA congregations to give toward this special endowment fund, stating that the monies would build up and interest would be used to fund special mission and ministry projects that otherwise would never be funded. Galo Maldonado led the congregation in prayer before the offering was taken. The Glenn View Voices of Praise gave the offertory.

Richard Thomas, pastor of Willow Oak Baptist Church, read the scriptures from Acts 2:9.

Bill Ireland, pastor of Ardmore and chair of the PMBA Personnel Committee, reported the resignation of Sandra Hall and the hiring of Brenda Dean as administrative assistant and David Coburn to handle the finances for PMBA. He expressed the Personnel Committee's gratitude for the hard work and commitment of the staff.

Keith Snow, chair of the Enlistment Committee, presented a motion to approved the 2004-2005 PMBA Leadership as presented. The motion carried.

David Benton, chair of the Annual Meeting Committee, expressed his appreciation for the work of the Annual Meeting Committee members. He praised them for their collaborative effort to make this year' s Annual Meeting so special. On Behalf of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, David thanked Glenn View for hosting the Annual Meeting and thanked the many churches that participated in the Missions Fair that took place before and during the meal.

Mack Kiser, a local artist and member of Bethany, presented the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association with a picture of Red Bank Baptist Church, depicting the time when PMBA congregations met together to give birth to the Association and to give the Association the name of Pilot Mountain Baptist Association.

Associational Missionary Jim Hamblen installed the 2004-2005 Officers for the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. He offered praise for Bobby Stewart in her roll as past moderator and chair of the Leadership Team. 2004-2005 Officers are: David Coburn, past moderator; Nathan Parrish, moderator; David Benton, vice moderator; Nolan Lawson, vice moderator elect; Sandra Sewell, clerk; Karen Taylor, assistant clerk; Travis Rhodes, treasurer; Ivan Price, assistant treasurer; and John Woodard, historian.

Lauren Lott led the congregation in Hymn No. 486, "Lord, Hear Am I".

Nathan Parrish offered the closing benediction as the meeting adjourned.

Organist Sharon Bryan closed with a postlude.

Leadership and Ministries Development Team Reports

Bible Teaching/Reaching Team

The Bible Teaching Reaching Team held several planning meetings and conferences during the past year.

September 23 – Planning Meeting
October 9 – Conference at Northwest
October 16 – Conference at Mt. Olive
October 23 – Conference at Edgewood
November 4 – Evaluations and updates
April 15 – Planning Meeting
May 17 – Curriculum Fair at Bethany Baptist Church; eight publishers were represented. Books, kits, and many supplementary Bible Study materials were displayed and reviewed.

The team has changed focus to a new approach: We offer our services to ANY church who would like to have our team come for a customized training session. Each team member who is needed will confer with the individual church leaders and teachers to assist them in enriching their teaching procedures. We will try to answer questions which relates to their individual classes or to their church program as a whole. We begin 2004-2005 with a workshop at Willow Oak on September 30.

Brotherhood Team

This year saw an expansion of Baptist Men's involvement in disaster relief beyond the traditional natural disasters Baptist Men have responded in the past. Of course many responded to this as Hurricane Isabel struck our state, as our Disaster Response Team worked in northeastern North Carolina. We now have four tow-able vehicles: a chain saw unit, a Handyman's unit, a mud out unit, and an open trailer to transport needed equipment.

The hostilities in Iraq forced us to examine responses to man-made disasters. At the prompting of the North American Mission Board, we initiated the HAVEN (Helping and Aiding Victims in Extreme Need) where PMBA churches offered the use of their facilities to victims of natural disasters, terrorist attacks, and school shootings. We have been heartened by the response of our churches, and we welcome the participation of more churches.

We have also interacted with the Stokes county government as they have reassessed their disaster planning. Steve Kiser spoke to government officials in Danbury, and Jim Oakley of the Disaster Response Team took the chain saw unit for officials to see.

The Baptist Men also led, with the cooperation of the WMU, in the collection of food boxes to Iraq. North Carolina led our Convention, and the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, in partnership with Calvary Baptist Church, collected the most food boxes in our state. Calvary also had the privilege of sending a team to Iraq to deliver these food boxes in that war-torn nation.

As the old gospel hymn says, troublesome times are near, but Baptist Men see this as an opportunity to share the Gospel. But as the hymn continues, Jesus is coming soon. Let Him find us busy in His vineyard.

Community Partnerships Team

The Community Partnerships Team reaches across counties to provide assistance in several areas:

Baptist Toy Store – December 2003 we were able to provide toys for 387 children representing 192 families. We also provided additional help to 46 families (i.e., food baskets, clothing, help with utilities, rent, medicines, etc.). We assisted 11 PMBA congregations with toys for families within their churches this year. Leftover toys went to the Pilot Mountain Outreach Center for their Toy Store along with a check for $500, since we partner with them to provide toys and food boxes for applicants in northern Stokes and southern Surry counties. Approximately 125 families were helped at the Pilot Mountain Outreach Center's Toy Store this year.

Overall, this was a wonderful year with 73 churches participating; 41 children and 9 adults representing 8 churches helping us to bring the toys down from the attic; 11 volunteers helping to set up the Toy Store; 53 volunteers working in the Toy Store; and 9 volunteers boxing up the left over toys. Numerous individuals also made monetary and toy donations to the PMBA Toy Store this year. Most important, 14 professions of faith were made to accept Christ as Savior!

Without the gift of time from numerous volunteers, the donations of toys and monetary contributions, many families would have faced a very bleak Christmas. In every possible way we shared the love of Jesus Christ with those who came to us for assistance. We are most grateful for those who took part in this mission endeavor. Time and again, God proved to us that He was in control and He was the provider. Let us rejoice in all that He has done!

C.H.A.N.G.E. – The Community Partnerships Team has become involved in C.H.A.N.G.E. a grass roots organization that encourages partnerships between communities, churches and businesses. We have provided money to help fund this organization and have begun attending special meetings where our voice can count toward making positive changes within our communities.

Fair Ministry Week – We served 400+ fair employees each day through our Canteen. Many of these people visited the Canteen 2 or 3 times. Many of our volunteers went around to individual work sites to offer bottle water, soft drinks and tracts. Bag meals were provided for the fair workers each evening. We served approximately 400 bag meals each night

This was our first year to have chaplains working in our Canteen and going out purposely to greet and talk with fair workers as opportunity arose. We have a total of 13 chaplains this year with three chaplains who could converse in Spanish. PMBA congregations donated 400+ Bibles, 1800 religious tracts, 400+ devotional materials. Each Fair worker received a gift bag (containing hygiene kit, sweatshirt, t-shirt, blanket, Bible and devotional material). 161 patients were seen by either doctors or dentists. There was a steady stream of patients to see the dentists and doctors each day.

Public School Outreach - Every year there are hundreds of children in the local schools who come to school empty handed...They do not have the necessary school supplies needed to do their studies. The Community Partnerships Team asked PMBA congregations to help meet these needs. Eighteen congregations responded by adopting certain schools within their community.

Discipleship Development Team

The Discipleship Development Team met often during the period to discuss and implement plans to support local churches in their efforts to make disciples. From time to time associational staff members and chairpersons of other Leadership Development teams were invited to our meetings to help ensure the most informed, effective, and relevant ministry possible. Highlights from the year include:

- A Bible Drill Orientation meeting held on October 28, 2003 at the PMBA Resource Center to equip church leaders to develop a Bible Drill program in their churches. Three churches were represented.
- A Deacon Training Workshop was conducted on Friday and Saturday, November 7 and 8, 2003, at Crestwood Baptist Church. Twenty-four deacons representing seven churches took advantage of the event. In addition to the more "typical" deacon training topics, a session on "How Deacons Can Promote Revival in their Churches" was conducted. A hunger for genuine renewal was indicated by the deacons present.
- A "Friendly Church" conference was held at the PMBA Resource Center on Thursday, November 20, 2003; pastors and members from 6 congregations attended. The purpose of the conference was to offer suggestions as to how churches can make a warm first impression on visitors. Pastor Charles Martin presented materials gleamed from several excellent resources. Attendees shared several helpful ideas.

- Associational Bible Drills were held on Saturday, April 3, 2004. Ruth Craver, member of Calvary Baptist Church, led a very successful program. Children from Association churches did an outstanding job demonstrating their familiarity with God's Word. The State Convention drills were held at Green Street Baptist Church of High Point on April 24th.

- Throughout the year the Team spent much time in careful planning for a Spring Discipleship Rally. The Rally, set for April 22, 2004, at College Park Baptist Church was cancelled due to a very low number of registrations.

Our team always welcomes input form any congregation or individual within the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. Also, we always have room on the team for additional members that are excited about the importance of making disciples for the honor of the Lord Jesus Christ. Please contact any regular member of our committee for information about how to become a part of the PMBA Discipleship Development ministry.

David Wood, Leader

Family Ministries Team

The Family Ministries Team sponsored two Domestic Violence Workshops at the PMBA Resource Center. Clergy were especially encouraged to attend these training events. Approximately 26 new people were trained at the workshops.

The Team joined other denominations throughout the city of Winston-Salem to make people more aware of the increase in incidents relating to domestic violence. Incidences of domestic violence have increased rapidly over the last five years. The enormous stress that families encounter from unemployment, drug/alcohol abuse, health issues, etc., can often lead to domestic violence. Many times the very families that must cope with such issues attend our congregations. They come for answers...for hope...for comfort...for strength. As Christian clergy and lay leaders we need the necessary training to identify situations that could culminate in violence and we need to know how to respond to those in our communities and our pews that are hurting and in trouble. For too long, Baptist leaders have kept silent about the turmoil within our families. Now is our time to reach out with love and grace and offer hope in troubling situations.

In upcoming months, the Family Ministries Team hopes to discuss other areas that impact the family unit. We hope to offer workshops with gifted speakers on such topics as Marriage Covenants, Parenting, and Aging Parents. Please contact the PMBA Resource Center if you would like the team to provide special training for your leadership in specific areas dealing with family issues.

Jo Bjorling, Leader

Missions Partnerships Team

The Missions Partnership with Haiti is in its second year. Several churches within the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association have sent teams to Haiti to do work among the orphanages and to begin new church cell-groups. Mission teams will be going to Haiti throughout the year. Much work is now being done in the areas of church planting, discipleship development and evangelism.

As a part of these efforts, we have begun a new project entitled, "Operations Edu-Pak." PMBA congregations are being asked to provide educational materials for a book pack for all children. The book bag will contain basic school supplies. The book bags cost $10 each with an additional $10 being spent on school supplies. We hope to see many book bags collected for the Haiti children.

It is the purpose of the Missions Partnership Team to encourage congregations to participate in national and international missions as well as missions at home. According to our records, 64 congregations were involved in missions on either a national or international scale. Seventy-one churches reported involvement on a local level. This is encouraging news...and we hope that if your church was not involved in mission work that you will contact PMBA to see how you might partner with another congregation in volunteer mission work!

Ed Evans, Leader

We had 18 children for the summer of 2004 with half of these children coming for the first time. There were seven new host families representing 12 of the churches in the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association.

The activities were quite varied this year: bowling, skating, racing at Bowman Gray Stadium, High Rock Lake, baseball at Ernie Shore, a birthday party at Bethany Baptist Church (A success by all the happy faces seen!), and a Farewell Picnic hosted by Stanleyville/FBC. It was attended by the largest group (74 in all). Each child was given an Army duffle bag, a care bag, shirts, a cross necklace, and other items. Each child was also given a travel food bag for the trip home.

All the children were seen at Brenner Children's Hospital. Many dentists gave their time and Dr. Van Teague examined the eyes of the children.

Because of individuals, mission groups, Sunday school classes, and churches giving money, medicine, activities and much more, we have been able to bring these children for eleven years.

Thank you PMBA congregations and thank you host families for sharing the Love of God here and for these children to take that love home to Belarus.

Seminary Extension Team

In the Fall 2003 the Seminary Extension Team offered Contemporary World Religions, led by Ray Benfield at Northwest Baptist Church. Over 20 students attended. Textbooks author, George Braswell, was a guest lecturer at one of the sessions.

Spring 2004 a Pastoral Ministries Class was held at Walnut Cove/FBC, led by Rev. David Wood, pastor of Crestwood. Seven students participated in this study.

Paul Hooker, Leader

Senior Adult Ministries Team

The Senior Adult Candle Tea was once again canceled due to inclement weather. This was the second year that we were unable to have the Candle Tea due to the weather conditions. Much planning had gone into this annual event. Even so, the Senior Adult Ministries Team is already planning for next year's Candle Tea, which will be held at Kernersville/FBC.

The Senior Adult Luncheon was held the first Thursday in May, 2004. Seniors were entertained by The Parsons, a quartet consisting of retired ministers. To everyone's delight, many of the very old gospel songs were song.

Again this year, we need to thank the many local businesses that donated items for door prizes. We had stated that we would only have 20 – 25 gifts to give away; however, due to the generosity of local businesses, we had approximately 40 door prizes to give away.

We especially thank Betty Huff and the kitchen staff of Old Town Baptist Church for hosting this event and making the meal so special! From year to year, the food just seems to improve! We are very fortunate to have so many great Food Service Coordinators in our churches.

The Senior Adult Ministries Team invites PMBA congregations to contact us personally, if you want assistance in starting your own Senior Adult Ministries. If you are a large church with an established senior adult ministries program and would like to invite smaller churches to partner with you, please contact a member of the Senior Adult Ministries Team and we will get the word out!

Our hope for next year is to provide more learning experiencing, continued times for fellowship, and perhaps even a trip or two!

WMU Leadership Team

God's Plan – My Part: The Joy of Mission

The Pilot Mountain Baptist Association Woman's Missionary Union Objectives was applied by our former WMU Director, Carol Wilkinson: (1) To challenge members to go beyond the ordinary in their relationship with God and others; and (2) To lead churches to anticipate and participate in the awesome words of God in their community and around the world.

Carol Wilkinson left for Mozambique, as a career missionary for the International Mission Board, on December 24, 2004. We ask that you keep her in your prayers daily!

The Annual Cherry Street Prison Christmas Party and program was held on December 17 with over 200 people attending. Valerie Sands and Selwyn Matthews work towards bringing this party about each year. A special thanks go to our many churches who provided numerous health kits as well as items for the Christmas Party. There is nothing that is more heart-warming than to see volunteers from our PMBA congregations participating in this ministry to local prisoners. We are certainly fulfilling scripture according to the book of Matthew!. Of the 85 different congregations in our association, each congregation has participated in missions on a local, state, national, or international level by praying, giving, and sharing of themselves to reach the lost of the world for Jesus Christ.

Women On Mission, led by Cathy Hayes, held their traditional Annual Meeting and Salad Supper at Clemmons First Baptist Church in the new Christian Life Center on March 4, 2004 with 475 attending. For the past two years Domestic Violence has been the Awareness Focus for the Baptist Women. The speakers for the Salad Supper were: Sharee Fowler on Domestic Violence; Rev. Linda Beal on Our Churches Response, and Pat Dean McCray on Our Personal Response.

The 8th Annual Cultural Diversity Celebration was held August 8 at Northwest Baptist Church. The Japanese Fellowship, which meets at Northwest, hosted the event. This year's theme was "Color our World." Pastor Tony Brown was the keynote speaker. Five of our ethnic congregations gave reports on their ministry. 150 people attended, enjoying a covered dish multi-ethnic meal. A love offering of $331.29 was taken for the North Carolina State Missions Offering.

In August 2004 the WMU Leadership Team and the Brotherhood Leadership Team held a joint training session at Mineral Springs Baptist Church. We are always looking for new ways and methods to reach, teach, and involve others regarding missions.

On Tuesday, November 30, children from various churches across the PMBA, formed a human chain to pass the gifts from the attic to the basement at the PMBA Resource Center. Afterwards, everyone who participated were treated by the PMBA to a pizza party.

The Girls In Action and Children in Action, under the leadership of Debbie Stephens and Betty Lou Vontsolos have been very busy with different Children Mission Events within our Association. Over 90 children with 7 new churches represented attended an event to assemble shoe boxes for the Samaritan Purse Ministry.

The PMBA WMU Leadership Team are willing to be Christ Followers to serve the churches in this association for mission involvement. The WMU Watchword is taken from Luke 9:23, "Then Jesus said to all the people: If any of you want to be my followers, you must forget about yourself. You must take up your cross each day and follow me."

Annual Meeting Committee

Time/Place Report
120th Annual Meeting of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association
(Given at Glenn View Baptist Church on July 24, 2004)

As the chair of the Annual Meeting Committee of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, I am pleased to announce the time and place of our next Annual Meeting. The 120th Annual Meeting of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association is currently scheduled for Saturday, July 23, 2005, at Clemmons First Baptist Church. We will begin with a fellowship meal at 5PM, followed by the Annual Meeting at 6:30PM.

I would like to thank Glenn View Baptist Church, the members of the Annual Meeting Committee, the PMBA Staff, Officers, and Leaders, our vocalists and instrumentalists, and you, the messengers and guests, for making the 119th Annual Meeting a blessing to all. We're looking forward to meeting again next year.

David Benton, Chair

Constitution Committee

Following the major revisions of our governing documents – constitution, by-laws, policies and procedures – in 2002, the Constitution Committee presented relatively few changes at the 2003 Annual Meeting. All proposed changes were adopted without opposition. The Constitution Committee is pleased to follow the direction of the Association and ensure that our documents reflect the will of the body. We continue to encourage all teams, committees, and fellowships to review those portions of our documents that touch your ministry and submit proposed changes to the Constitution Committee for consideration and review. Thanks to the members of the Committee for their service and to the Association for its cooperation in our work.

Nathan Parrish, Chair

Finance Committee

God is so incredibly awesome! Another year has past and God has provided for the needs of the Association. As I am sure you all are aware we experienced a downturn in the economy. As a result charitable giving was down. This was evident in the income that we received at PMBA. As a result we did have to cut our projected budget for YE 12/31/2003. In doing this we were able to ensure that our income met our expenses. God provided and the ministry of the Association continued. As we look to the future we must look to where God is leading and appropriately allocate resources. Please be in prayer for our Association and the member churches that it represents.

Travis Rhodes, Chair

Membership Committee

The Membership Committee met three times during the year. Procedures were adopted to assist the Membership Committee in recommending churches for Watchcare and full membership into the Association.

East Davie Baptist Church was recommended by the Membership Committee for full membership into the Association at the Annual Meeting. The recommendation was approved.

Two new church starts are meeting on a regular basis, but have not submitted application into the association as of yet. Follow up by the Church Development Team should take place throughout the year and any recommendation to Membership for consideration should be made form the Church Development Team.

Ty Talton, Chair

Personnel Committee

During the associational year 2003-2004, the Personnel Committee met bi-monthly and faithfully discharged its responsibilities. The Committee conducted annual personnel reviews, attended to health insurance and benefit matters, and recommended the annual personnel budget. The Committee accepted the resignation of Sandra Hall, recognizing her for 17 years of faithful service. The PMBA welcomed to new employees: Brenda Dean and David Coburn.

William J. Ireland, Chair

Properties Committee

The year began with Irvin Grigg having been elected to this committee at the 2003 PMBA Annual Meeting with Pat Triplette and Barry West rotating off. Brenda Dean became the new staff liaison in January 2004 due to her position as Administrative Assistant due to Sandra Hall resigning December 31, 2003.

The Properties Committee has the responsibility of maintaining the PMBA Resource Center Building in the best possible physical condition with budget approved by the Finance Committee.

The Committee had the condition of the carpet: Approximately 5,000 square feet, and the roof shingles: approximately 55 squares, surveyed by professionals who estimated that each has approximately five (5) years left before needing to be replaced. These items were questioned due to the tight budget, the age of the building, and the facts that the carpet and roof shingles are the originals. The Properties Committee has money in a designated account which it has asked the Finance Committee to retain for the possibility of replacing one or both of these items within the next five years. Another concern of the Properties Committee was that for 2004, the Committee had cut the operating budget and was asked to cut it even more.

Due to the landscape company operating under an old contract and comments being made that the grounds needed work, the Properties Committee sought proposals for the yard work and decided to change landscape companies. This added approximately $100 per month to the budget but in time will be beneficial to the grounds.

In January 2004, the first floor gas furnace was replaced due to a malfunctioning of the furnace on December 24, 2003. With a contribution of $550 and a budget expense of $4,350, the Treasurer approved the installation of the furnace under proper procedures.

With the approval of the Properties Committee and Davis Nurseries and Landscaping, the Baptist Men's Disaster Relief Team cut, trimmed and chipped trees around the Resource Center.

Due to the heat build up in the third floor storage area, thermostatic controlled exhaust fans with dampers were installed in the gable windows on each end of the building, without affecting the operating budget.

Many other smaller items were handled by the Properties Committee. The Committee desires to keep the Resource Center as usable and as functional for the PMBA Staff and volunteers to work in and for the associational congregations to use to the Glory of God.

Missionary Staff Reports

Associational Missionary's Report

As I See It...

This will probably be the last Annual Report that I will share with you. As most of you know, I will retire on July 31, 2005. The past two decades have been the most significant part of my ministry. I have been blessed by being in other places and situations before our coming to this area which were exciting and challenging. However, serving as your Associational Missionary since November 15, 1983 has been the most fruitful part of my life's journey.

During the past year (from October 2003 through September 2004] we have experienced many changes, both in the employed staff and in the elected leadership. In November 2003, Sandra Hall offered her resignation as Administrative Assistant. After revising some of the job descriptions, we added David Coburn as Missions Money Manager and Brenda Dean as Administrative Assistant: Communications. The rest of the staff team continues to function well.

Dale Harlan, Congregational Missionary, has been able to assist many of the PMBA congregations in establishing their core values as well as developing a functional vision statement for the future. During these times of great transitions, the churches are seeking to discover their own unique identity as well as their target for ministry.

Karen Taylor, Community Missionary, continues to find additional resources to support the many different new ministries she has discovered throughout the community. Karen is blessed by a special gift of enlisting many new people to become involved in those many projects of helping others. The Dixie Classic Fair Ministry and the Baptist Toy Store are only two of the many ministries she has helped to coordinate.

Steve Kiser, Ministry Assistant: Records, works faithfully behind the scenes and out of the spotlight of attention to get our data base useful and effective for the many different requests that come to us.

It has been a challenge to lead these very different individuals as they formed themselves into a very effective team for ministry in and through the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association.

Another significant challenge to me over the past year has been to attempt to serve the officers of the PMBA in such a way as not to detract from their leadership and yet perform the many tasks of preparation for them as the fulfilled the responsibilities given to them by the Association.

As I reflect on the past two decades...I should have done some things differently....I should have left some things alone...but, all things considered, I enjoyed serving here more than I can say. As I look to the future I know the best days for this association may be just ahead. The Search Committee will work hard to present their recommendations regarding the leader who will fill this role. I will remember many things about the PMBA as I move to the next phase of my life and ministry.

When I was installed here in January 1984, I offered my conviction as follows:

> After I have been gone for several years, it will not matter if no one can remember my name.
> But, I hope that it can be said by some, 'That when old what's-his-name was here...we served the Lord!'

That will be the test of my ministry and service with you.

To God be the Glory...Great things He has done!

Jim Hamblen, Associational Missionary

Congregational Missionary's Report

Did WE Meet the Challenge???

It is hard to believe that another associational year has come and gone!!! There were so many opportunities and challenges that were met...but...so many that are yet to become a reality. The longer that I am your Congregational Missionary...it seems that God places many, many more challenges ahead of me. It is encouraging to look back at the last year to see what...with God's help...we together have accomplished for the Kingdom. But...this evaluation process only focuses my thoughts on the tremendous ministry opportunities that God is opening up in the future for us.

My question for ALL of us for the past year is..."Did WE meet the challenge?" Did we reach more people for Christ? Did we duplicate who we are as followers of Christ in others? Did our congregations catch a new Kingdom vision? Have more of our congregations intentionally shifted from being plateaued or dying to being transformed to reach their full kingdom potential?

As I look back at this past year and then anticipate the future...I have had the great privilege to walk with you as we joined our Lord in advancing his Kingdom and attempting to meet the challenge. These are some of the exciting ministries and opportunities in which I have assisted:

- Working with congregations of many denominations in the Winston-Salem area to sign a "Marriage Savers Covenant" to do premarital counseling
- Helping establish an Arabic congregation in Kernersville, collaborating with the Piedmont Baptist Association and the Central Triad Association
- Coaching of congregations through the process of Core Value Discovery and Visioning
- Facilitating several congregational leadership and deacon's retreats
- Conducting Bible Teaching and Reaching training events with Dot Harmon as the associational BTR Director
- Visioning with the Church Development Team and Nolan Lawson team leader about the future of church development in the PMBA
- Working with the Triad associations in collaborative VBS and Sunday School training events
- Visiting and/or preaching in many of the PMBA congregations
- Coordinating a three year mission partnership between the PMBA and New Direction International with ministry partners in Haiti
- Participating collaboratively with other Triad associations in visioning and mission strategy
- Facilitating Learning Communities for pastors and ministers

Even with my participating in these exciting ministry happenings...I still ask the question..."Did WE meet the challenge?" If the challenge is to live out the Incarnation of Christ in the world so that others might come to know him as Savior and Lord and that the Body of Christ might reach its full kingdom potential..."We have NOT even come close to meeting the challenge!"

If we are honest with ourselves and with God ..."We have failed to live obedient and faithful lives...we have NOT met the challenge!!!" Will you join me as we covenant together to meet the challenge of living like Christ and therefore transforming our community and world in the coming year???

We Are Not of the World but In the World...

Dale Harlan, Congregational Missionary

Community Missionary's Report

This is our Jerusalem...

As Community Missionary for the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, my mission is to help PMBA congregations discover ways to open their doors and impact their communities for Jesus Christ.

The year 2004 gave way to numerous opportunities for PMBA congregations to partner with one another in corporate mission work as well as to venture into new areas of ministry in their own "backyards." We can celebrate together as an association of 85 congregations in our efforts to make a difference in the lives of people in the name of Jesus Christ.

Through partnerships...

- Several congregations have joined efforts to alleviate hunger by establishing local food pantries, collecting canned goods and staple items for the Pilot Mountain Outreach Center, the King Outreach Center, Crisis Control and the Northwest Food Bank; collecting food for the Baptist Children's Homes; providing food baskets for the most needy families shopping at our Baptist Toy Store; and helping to provide assistance for several Kids Cafes across Forsyth and Stokes Counties.
- Bethany Baptist Church and El Camino Baptist Church partnered with Novant Health to alleviate suffering by providing a free medical clinic on the second Saturday of each month. Nurses and doctors in several of our congregations have donated their time at the clinic on a regular basis.
- Over 75 percent of the PMBA congregations joined efforts to make a difference in the lives of the employees of Straits Fair the week prior to the Dixie Classic Fair. Over 250 volunteers worked in the canteens, with the medical/dental bus, served as chaplains, and shared in the joy of ministering to a most-often forgotten people group.
- 42 people representing 18 congregations were trained in Domestic Violence Prevention Workshops for clergy and lay leaders.
- 80 percent of the PMBA congregations participated in the Baptist Toy Store, providing toys for over 600 children in Stokes, Forsyth and parts of Davie Counties and providing food boxes, clothing and help with heating bills for 48 families in extreme need during the month of December.
- PMBA congregations have partnered together through block parties, prayer walking and acts of kindness as an evangelistic tool to share the Gospel in communities.
- Several larger congregations have assisted small, struggling congregations to provide Backyard Bible Clubs, Vacation Bible School and Bible Studies.
- 60 percent of PMBA congregations responded to disaster situations by sending money, collecting specific items, and sending mission teams to work in West Virginia, eastern North Carolina, Florida and Alabama.

There is much to do and together our witness can touch many more lives than we can as only one congregation. Think of the impact of healthy congregations partnering with congregations needing help! Together we can make an impact on communities as never before. Christ told us to be witnesses in Jerusalem...Judea...and the uttermost parts of the earth. We begin at home...in Jerusalem...and our Jerusalem covers Winston-Salem and surrounding towns.

Karen Taylor, Community Missionary

Report of the Moderator

During my year as Moderator, it was my privilege to lead the Congregational Council's three quarterly meetings as well as the Annual Meeting in July. During these gatherings of the churches' representatives, we made decisions and heard reports about advancing the Kingdom of God in our midst.

There are many people who work together as volunteers in Kingdom work as a part of PMBA. To each of you, I express my thanks. To those who are not working at the associational level, I offer this invitation to prayerfully consider whether God wants to use what He has invested in you to benefit not only your local church but also our association.

As PMBA moves into the future, we do so with a healthy sense of fellowship, harmony, purpose and diversity. May it always be so!

David Coburn, Moderator

Report of the Ministries Development Teams Leader

Beautiful Feet

"How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news." Romans 10:15

We seldom notice feet because everyone wears shoes. In Bible days, however, people either went barefoot or wore sandals. We don't think of having beautiful feet but we have so many ways as an association to have the beautiful feet in Romans.

In Community Partnerships with the Fair Ministry and the Toy Store, so many steps and what beautiful feet bringing good news. That good news going to Belarus with children that knew first hand about the beautiful feet of so many people in the PMBA!

In Brotherhood the beautiful feet have gone to Florida, West Virginia, all over North Carolina, bringing good news and showing God's love.

In WMU the beautiful feet went to the Prison for a Christmas Party, gave clothes for the SOS Clothing Closet, prayed and gave to the National Day of Prayer, and the WMU Annual Meeting and Salad Supper. Our feet and hands are needed for the MissionFEST/FamilyFEST in July of next year!

In Church Minister Relations beautiful feet have gone into churches to help in healing and loving pastors and congregations.

This sounds funny, but the Bible gives us a serious formula for making our feet beautiful. Our feet can be beautiful if we use them to go tell others about the Good News of Jesus. No matter how big, or flat, or strange our feet may look, they can be beautiful. May we go and tell more about this God of Love.

Joyce Love, Ministries Development Team Leader

Report from the Historian

GLENN VIEW BAPTIST CHURCH

It was the year 1910 when a Union Church was organized in a small white frame building in Forsyth County. A year later the church was reorganized as Oak Grove Missionary Baptist Church, named for the road it faced.. In 1912 the church joined the Liberty Baptist Association, with a membership of 8 - three males and five females. No pastor was listed in the Liberty minutes. The church was dismissed from the Liberty Baptist Association and admitted to the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association in 1924 as Oak Grove Baptist Church #2. B. R. Crowder was their pastor and Ashe Johnson was Clerk. They reported 97 members.

The church completed a new building during the summer of l959, and changed their name to Glenn View Baptist Church to reflect the road that the new church faced - Glenn High Road. On September 30. 2001, the congregation dedicated a new brick 13,000 square foot multi-purpose building.

These new hours will give staff much needed time to organize their day and return calls. Jim Hamblen reminded the Council that Dale Harlan and Karen Taylor will continue to serve as needed during the evenings and on weekends.

- The Finance Committee reported that the Association had to readjust the 2003 budget due to a slower economic recovery. There is less money available for program areas and very little, if any, available to compensate staff.

- Properties Committee reported emergency measures would be needed to repair the upstairs furnace. A motion was made and carried to give the Properties Committee and the Finance Committee authority to repair or replace the upstairs furnace.

- The Communications Support Committee reported that the Pilot has gone from a bi-monthly to a quarterly magazine with a focus on feature articles instead of a standard newsletter focus on upcoming events.

- The Enlistment Committee made a motion to fill to leadership positions: Paul Leigh was called as Team Leader for Youth Ministries and Paul Dean was called as Chair of the Communications Support Committee.

- Discipleship Development Team reported that Dean Michael Cogdill will be the keynote speaker at the Discipleship Celebration at College Park on April 22.

- The Spiritual Formation Team reported that the special Thanksgiving Service, Bed, Board and Hearth was well attended and a very uplifting service.

- The Family Ministries has been newly formed and Jo Bjorling will serve as the team leader. Additional members are: Lori Carter, Mazie Bumgardner, and Rick Speas.

- Brotherhood Team voted to partner with Mataoka, West Virginia for one year, assisting them with recovery work from previous disasters.

- Missions Partnership Team reported an upcoming trip to begin at St. Marc and end in Port A Prince, Haiti. Dale Harlan is to lead the mission team. As part of the Haiti Partnership, Stanleyville/FBC will be sending 60 to 70 young people to help at a Youth Camp this summer.

- The Seminary Extension Team will offer three classes for the Winter Quarter: Biblical Background, Pastoral Ministries, and Music Ministry.

Annual Reports

REPORT for 2004 BOOK of REPORTS
OFFICE of ANNUITY

After a tumultuous three year period resulting in a dramatic economic downturn which adversely affected retirement accounts of millions of Americans a dramatic rebound occurred during the last year. As a result, the asset base of the Annuity Board gained over 1 billion dollars in one year for the first time since the Annuity Board was established in 1918 to serve ministers and employees of Southern Baptist churches. Concurrently, many participant retirement accounts recouped much of the funds which evaporated during the downturn. The downturn presented a serious challenge to our office in assisting participants with meaningful educational materials and resources to make wise investment decisions.

Secondly, the ongoing national health care crisis continues to present serious challenges to our churches who strive to be responsible employers by providing adequate medical insurance in a rapidly escalating cost environment. To assist in this effort, the Annuity Board responded this year by offering new medical insurance plans. These new plans offer more flexibility with varying levels of deductibles and monthly rates. Along with the new plans, the Board emphasized a three-step approach to address the rising cost of health care. First, the Annuity Board is aggressively managing costs and continuing to create plans that provide more options for participants. Second, participants are encouraged to develop healthy habits related to eating and exercise. And, third, churches need to take the initiative, if at all possible, to provide medical coverage as a benefit for their ministers and staff rather than as a part of the salary package. Those church employees who live within the constraints of an antiquated "pay package" approach have seen a dramatic decline in disposable income if they have tried to maintain adequate medical insurance for themselves and their families.

Thirdly, as a result of actions taken by messengers at the annual meeting of the Southern Baptist Convention in Indianapolis, the Annuity Board gained permission to serve evangelical ministry organizations outside the SBC and to change the official name of the Annuity Board to GuideStone Financial Resources of the Southern Baptist Convention. The name change will become official with an affirmative vote at next year's annual convention in Nashville, Tennessee.

Fourthly, the Endowment ministry of the Annuity Board continued its work to make Southern Baptists aware of the tragic plight of retired ministers and their widows who were unable to plan adequately for retirement. Individuals and churches responded with open hearts and open hands as they helped to underwrite the financial assistance given to those who are in desperate need. More than 3,000 persons in our convention presently receive financial assistance with 335 residing in North Carolina.

As of May 31, 2004, North Carolina participants in the retirement plan moved above 5,200 in 2,332 (61%) of our churches. Our goal is to have all of our churches actively participating in the retirement plan provided by the Annuity Board of the SBC.

In closing, we remain committed to serve all of our churches, ministers, and other church employees. Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina

(July 2003-July 2004)

Above and beyond – these words best describe what North Carolina Baptists did last year!... Churches around the state came mightily to the aid of Baptist Children's Homes in 2003-04 as their beloved institution faced one of its most critical financial times. Prayers, money, and gifts of food, towels, sheets, school supplies, and clothes flooded in. These showers of blessings softened the blow of a nearly four million-dollar budget cut. Thank you.

History was made as churches from all 80 Baptist Associations gave food to BCH's first-ever statewide food roundup. Nearly 500,000 pounds of food were collected filling every available space on our campuses. Directors of Missions graciously opened their offices as collection points for the food. Churches delivered food filling their offices, halls and storage rooms. Trucking companies picked up the food from the Association offices and delivered this great expression of your love and concern. Thank you.

(The next Food Roundup is slated for April 2005.)

Last year, nearly 2000 videos of Jennifer's Story were distributed to churches. The video told how North Carolina Baptists made a difference in the life of Jennifer Shore. Jennifer found hope and healing at Baptist Children's Homes. As an adult she and her husband returned to become child care workers. More than 600 churches invited BCH representatives to share how the lives of children, children like Jennifer, are being changed every day. United together, North Carolina Baptists not only met the 2003 Thanksgiving Offering goal, but exceeded it! Thank you.

Baptist Children's Homes is at the center of North Carolina Baptists' hearts. Their actions prove it! Jesus challenged us all when he said, "In the same way, let your light shine before men, that they may see your good deeds and praise your Father in heaven." Our children and staff, the people in your communities, and the citizens of North Carolina saw Jesus in action and our Heavenly Father was glorified! Thank you.

Blackwell marks 20th year as president... On July 1, 1983, Michael C. Blackwell became president of BCH. Trustees honored his twenty years of ministry during their September 2003 board meeting with "A Celebration of Ministry."

BCH begins strategic planning process... BCH president Michael C. Blackwell initiated an agency year-long strategic planning effort. Blackwell says this is the most comprehensive effort since he became president. All areas of the agency are involved in the development of the plan. Recommendations will be presented to the Trustees at their September meeting. The plan will debut in January 2005.

Shine your light!... Inspired by North Carolina Baptists, this year's Thanksgiving Offering theme is "Shine your light." Although blessings flowed freely in 2003 helping to avert more difficult hardships, our need remains great. Children and families continue to pour out their hurt on our doorsteps. Alone and suffering, children need to know that in their journey of darkness there is a light shining, guiding them to a better day. You help keep the light on and shining bright as we, day-to-day, offer help in Jesus' name. Our statewide Thanksgiving Offering goal this year is $1,300,000. This represents a $75,000 increase over last year's offering goal. An increase demanded by necessity. Challenge your church to participate in the 2004 Thanksgiving Offering. Our success depends on you.

BCH...Focused on the Future. Despite the trying times, Baptist Children's Homes continues to be committed to providing only the highest quality of service. Children who come through BCH's doors continue to receive an abundance of love, care and healing. A dedicated staff serves and gives of themselves sacrificially. The lives of children and families are worth every effort. BCH holds true to its mission of "helping hurting children... healing broken families."

The support of North Carolina Baptists through the Thanksgiving Offering, Cooperative Missions giving, church and individual gifts, memorials, honors, and estate gifts enables BCH to provide care for more than 2000 children through our locations across the state. Thank you, North Carolina Baptists, for your continued prayers and support. We could not do what we do without you.

Biblical Recorder

2004 Report to the Associations

After celebrating its 170th anniversary in 2003, the Biblical Recorder remains true to its founding mission of publishing relevant news and fostering healthy dialogue among members of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina.

Today's North Carolina Baptists face a constantly changing landscape as population shifts, cultural trends and denominational debates each leave their mark. As always, Baptists find a variety of ways to express their identity. North Carolina Baptists have a clear need to be informed of the many issues affecting Baptist life, mission work and mutual cooperation.

The Biblical Recorder exists to provide this needed service to Baptists in North Carolina and beyond. The Recorder staff works diligently to provide regular, dependable and balanced news coverage and analysis of the most significant matters relating to Baptist life. In addition, the Biblical Recorder includes a variety of supportive resources and feature articles designed to encourage and inspire as well as to inform.

The Recorder was privately owned and operated in support of Baptist work in North Carolina until 1938, when the paper was purchased by the Baptist State Convention and incorporated as an agency of the convention. It serves as the official news publication of the Convention, and seeks to serve the full spectrum of its churches.

The Biblical Recorder is widely acknowledged to be in the top echelon of state Baptist papers, winning national honors from the Baptist Communicator's Association every year since 2000, including the prestigious Burkhalter Award for news writing in 2001, and several first place awards for news and editorial writing, including two in 2003.

As readers have shifted in their preference for electronic media over traditional print formats, the Biblical Recorder has developed and maintains a popular and rapidly growing presence on the World Wide Web. Our Website, at www.biblicalrecorder.org, provides much of each paper's content online, as well as to access classified ads, online Bible study resources and a portal to other news services. The site is frequently updated with breaking news items and other articles of interest.

The Biblical Recorder was one of the first state papers to create a website, and it remains a leader in the field. Google.com's prestigious page-rank feature lists www.biblicalrecorder.org as the number one site for Baptist news on the Internet. Web users in North Carolina and around the world now rival the number of those who read the Recorder's print edition, as an average of more than 40,000 unique visitors come to the site each month.

As a BSCNC agency, the Biblical Recorder receives annual support from Cooperative Missions Giving contributions, making it possible to offer the Recorder at subscription rates below the actual cost. Subscription packets and free sample issues are available. For more information, please contact:

2004 ANNUAL REPORT

The Christian Action League of North Carolina, Inc. continues to work vigorously to address public policy and legislative matters from a Christian worldview. Our purpose is to assist the church in its mission to fulfill the Cultural Mandate. It is a joy to serve in this capacity. This following report contains highlights from this year's efforts.

Promotion of Christian Values

- This year the North Carolina General Assembly passed a bill to allow the National Motto, "In God We Trust," and a yellow ribbon with the phrase, "Support Our Troops", on a specialty license plate. Revenues garnered from the plates will aide families of deployed North Carolina National Guard troops. The Christian Action League is pledged to helping launch the new plates by getting the first 300 persons to make application. The plates can't be issued until at least 300 persons have requested them. Pastors, key Lay Leaders, Christian groups and others are encouraged to pass along the word. Rev. Mark H. Creech, Executive Director of the CAL, has said: "Let's witness to our faith in God and show our support for our troops in Iraq by signing up for these new specialty plates." For an application for these license plates simply go to: http://www.nc.ngb.army.mil/inGodwetrust.asp

- This year the Christian Action League will host a new website North Carolina Candidates Forum: A Service of the Christian Action League of North Carolina at www.nccandidatesforum.com. The website will list all of North Carolina's candidates for U.S. Senate and House of Representatives, N.C. State offices, N.C. Senate and House of Representatives, plus N.C. judiciary. It's objective will be to post the responses of these candidates to a questionnaire sent by CAL that expresses the candidates' position on abortion, homosexuality, separation of church and state, gambling, pornography/obscenity, education, capital punishment, alcohol policy, and the war on Iraq. The information posted on this website should be an invaluable resource for Christians who desire to vote their Christian worldview.

- CAL has helped several communities battle evil influences in their midst. One such effort has been to help concerned citizens in Orange County turn back a domestic partners benefit package for county employees. This project is currently on the ground level. Another situation where CAL had a powerful influence was when the Roanoke Rapids School Board considered whether to send a resolution to the North Carolina General Assembly that would have endorsed a lottery for education. Because CAL was able to mobilize a massive grassroots effort in Roanoke Rapids, the resolution was defeated. Residents of Cleveland, North Carolina, have expressed their deep appreciation for CAL's help in keeping a proposed Liquor store out of their area, even though the approval of a previously held local option election allowed for it. CAL has also sought to help Watauga County Commissioners in overturning an unconstitutional alcohol bill which was approved by the General Assembly last session and allows for alcohol permits in an area of that county where voters have clearly stated by local option elections they do not want alcohol sales.

- CAL continues to provide critical information regarding public policy and legislative issues via it's interactive website www.christianactionleague.net. The website keeps the church abreast of the latest developments in the U.S. Congress and the North Carolina General Assembly. It also includes weekly editorials by CAL's Executive Director, Rev. Mark H. Creech, guest commentaries from some of the best Christian columnists in North Carolina, a daily national Christian newswire, feature stories of Christians making a difference, and other various Christian resources. Since June of 2003, CAL has had nearly 17,500 hits on its website. Over 12,000 of those hits were first time visitors to the site.

- CAL continues to promote and distribute copies of the Ten Commandments across North Carolina. Nearly 20,000 have been distributed statewide. CAL has just created a new print of the Ten Commandments and the very first edition of God's Covenant With America; which are now ready for distribution. God's Covenant With America features an American paraphrase of Deuteronomy 8:7-20 written by CAL's Director. The new Ten Commandments print and God's Covenant with America can be purchased separately or together, simply as a print, or framed. Both can be beautifully displayed in a church, home or business. Those interested in purchasing either one or both of these prints should call CAL at 919.787.0606. You can also email CAL at calact@aol.com.

- CAL continues to publish a weekly email "Issues Alert" that keeps approximately 2000 people on the frontlines of Christian activism. The weekly email Issues Alert is designed not only to inform, but also to stir God's people to take action via legislative contacts, etc. Those interested in receiving the weekly email Issues Alert should go to CAL's website at www.christianactionleague.net and click on " Sign Up To Be A Beacon of Light."

- The writing ministry of CAL's Executive Director has reached national prominence. Rev. Mark H. Creech's column, The Right Frame of Mind, appears weekly on the National Christian newswire of the American Family Association, www.agapepress.org, former Ambassador and Presidential candidate Alan Keyes' website, www.renrewamerica.us, three North Carolina newspapers and numerous Christian periodicals and websites across the country.

- Because Pornography has become a pervasive problem in the church as well as society, the Christian Action League offers a Seminar to help pastors deal with its influence. The seminar, The Pastor and Pornography, was held for a second time in Lexington for the North Carolina Sheriff Chaplain's Association. Associational Pastors' Conferences or other groups interested in having the two-hour seminar should contact CAL at 919.787.0606. You can also email CAL at calact@aol.com.

- This year Christian values have been advocated by CAL's Executive Director on a wide variety of issues taken up on radio and television interviews, both local and outside of North Carolina. Rev. Mark Creech has spoken in numerous worship services, revival meetings, rallies, associational meetings, legislative chapel services, press conferences, conventions, and seminars. He is highly sought after as a speaker.

Lobbying Activities

- This year a House Select Committee met twice to consider revisions and a possible overhaul to North Carolina's ABC policies. Several speakers spoke before the Committee and each advocated that special provisions to allow for alcohol sales without alcohol elections had significantly complicated North Carolina's alcohol control policies. One suggestion put forth by Rep. Ronnie Sutton (D-Robeson) for correcting the problem was to revise current local option policy from on opt-in system to an opt-out system that could be implemented by County commissioners. CAL's Executive Director, Rev. Mark Creech briefly spoke before the Committee, advocating it was the North Carolina General Assembly that had complicated North Carolina's current alcohol policy. He said these problems were created because lawmakers failed to show respect for the will of the people in local option elections. He said problems were created in the system because of an elitist group of people, specifically lawmakers in Raleigh. Enacting Rep. Sutton's legislation, said Creech, would simply turn the matter over to another elitist group of people. "The question of whether or how alcohol sales are carried out in this State," said Rev Creech, "is best left to the people." The Committee took no action this year. Nevertheless, there are still concerns that next year an effort will be made to either do away with local option or privitize liquor sales.

- The Christian Action League worked tirelessly during the last session of the State Legislature to get lawmakers to approve legislation that would provide for a Constitutional amendment to North Carolina's Constitution banning same sex marriage. Two measures to this end were introduced – one in the House and one in the Senate. Nevertheless, the Democratic leadership in both the House and Senate blocked these bills from being heard. Before the session ended, pressure was so intense to get the Senate bill on a Constitutional amendment out of Committee, that a discharge petition was circulated among Senate members. A discharge petition, which must be signed by at least 3/5ths of Senate members (translates into 30 signatures), would have recalled the legislation out of Committee, taken it away from the Democratic Senate leadership, and placed it directly on the Senate floor for consideration. Unfortunately, the petition fell two signatures short of the 3/5ths requirement - (a total of 28). This matter continues to be a priority with CAL. Without a State Constitutional Amendment clarifying marriage is between one man and one woman, North Carolina is vulnerable to litigation by gay activists and rogue judges that could knock down our State's current prohibitions against same sex marriage.

- CAL has also been at the forefront of a push for a Federal Marriage Amendment to the U.S. Constitution by North Carolinians.

- This year CAL continued its opposition to a two-year moratorium on executions while officials study the application of the death penalty. The N.C. Senate passed the legislation for the moratorium in 2003. The N.C. House failed to take up the measure in the General Assembly's last session, making it necessary for moratorium proponents to have to reintroduce it in both chambers next year. CAL's position is that the moratorium is a disingenuous effort by Death-penalty opponents to abolish capital punishment in North Carolina. With all the pretrial, trial, appeals, writ and clemency procedures to minimize the chance of an innocent person being convicted, sentenced to death and executed today, there isn't enough compelling evidence to warrant a death penalty moratorium. And the religious opposition to the death penalty isn't really based on our nation's rich Judeo-Christian heritage, but on the vague philosophical notion that the taking of human life is wrong in every circumstance -- a philosophy that fails to distinguish adequately between killing and murder, punishment and crime.

- In 2004, CAL vigorously lobbied for a ban on video poker. Legislation that was approved by the Senate in the 2003 session was eligible, but the Democratic leadership in the North Carolina House would not allow the legislation to be heard in that chamber.

- CAL is currently seeking to mobilize North Carolinians to put pressure on North Carolina's U.S. Congressional delegation to approve a tobacco buy out for North Carolina tobacco farmers that would include giving the Food and Drug Administration authority to regulate tobacco products. CAL contends that it is incredible that the FDA can ensure the safety of every day items like macaroni and cheese, but has no authority over tobacco, a product that kills nearly a half million people in America every year.

- It is also no small ac complishment that CAL, working closely with other public policy organizations from both a conservative and liberal perspective, were able to turn back the Governor's pro-lottery forces for a fourth year in a row.

Local Option Alcohol Referenda

- In 2004 CAL assisted with seven local option alcohol referendums. The results of those referendums included: 4 victories (referendums did not succeed) and 3 losses (referendums succeeded).

LINKING TOGETHER TO IMPACT THE WORLD

Like all institutions of higher learning, your Baptist colleges and universities - Campbell, Chowan, Gardner-Webb, Mars Hill and Wingate provide education for their students. But what makes our Baptist colleges and universities unique is their mission.

Education with a mission is training and developing knowledge, skill, mind and character with a special purpose. This special purpose is to encourage and enable students to use expanded knowledge, enhanced skills, improved minds and enriched character to impact the world for good in keeping with their faith commitment to God through Jesus Christ.

Thanks to your support for Christian Higher Education the Baptist State Convention provided financial aid to 550 North Carolina Baptist students in the amount of $1,174,922 in 2004. These students received an average of $2,136. From Pilot Mountain Association 12 students received scholarship aid. These students came from the following churches: Calvary, College Park, Danbury, Kernersville First, Parkway and Pfafftown.

Without your assistance many of these deserving students would not have been able to attend a Baptist college or university. Thank you Campbell, Chowan, Gardner-Webb, Mars Hill and Wingate for providing education with a Christian mission. And thank you Baptist churches for supporting North Carolina Baptist students. Together you are impacting the world for good and for God.

ANNUAL REPORT
Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute
July, 2003 – June, 2004

Our mission at Fruitland is to provide quality training for Christian ministry that balances academic, devotional, and practical emphases. Academically, we aim to lay a foundation for any further study that the student may undertake. Our graduates have demonstrated the academic quality of our program by doing well in a number of schools across the country to which they have transferred. The devotional atmosphere which we seek to maintain in our classrooms and on our campus challenges students to grow spiritually. Worship in chapel is a daily part of our campus life. The fact that most of our faculty members are involved in some regular ministry enhances our practical emphasis and helps prepare our graduates to enter various positions of Christian ministry.

Our student body is diverse in ages and backgrounds. Several international students have been enrolled. Several of our students are involved in regular ministries during their studies. Student family housing and dormitory housing provide for resident students and we have many commuting students. Our cumulative, non-duplicated enrollment for the past year was 257. In consultation with Hispanic church leaders and Larry Phillips of the State Convention staff, we began classes in Spanish in the Spring of 2004.

On September 9, 2003, administration, faculty, staff, students, and alumni joined in the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of Dr. John Rymer as a faculty member. Although Dr. Rymer has taught several different subjects during the years, he continues to teach Old Testament which he has taught during his entire tenure. Joe Stoneham is the newest faculty member. He teaches Computer Science. He is a native of Dallas, Texas, where his parents were married by Dr. George W. Truett, noted pastor of the First Baptist Church. He is a graduate of Old Dominion University, Norfolk, Virginia, with a B. S. degree in Electrical Engineering Technology. He is married to Judy Bates Stoneham who is a staff member at Blue Ridge Community College. They are active in the First Baptist Church of Hendersonville, NC. In the Fall Quarter of 2003 we had Dr. D. L. Lowrie of Lubbock, Texas, as visiting professor of Old Testament and Pastoral Ministries. Dr. Lowrie is scheduled to return for the Fall Quarter of 2004.

A number of special events are held on our campus annually. In October we observed Alumni Day and Preaching Week. Visiting speakers were Joe Brown of Charlotte, NC, and D. L. Lowrie of Lubbock, Texas. On Founders' Days in May our guest speakers were Dr. Gray Allison of Memphis, Tennessee and Dr. Elmer Towns of Lynchburg, Virginia. Alice Lowrie was the guest leader for the Women's Retreat held in October. Sunday School Seminars were conducted by the staff of the Baptist State Convention in November.

Preliminary plans have been made to renovate the Crouch Building which houses our chapel and eight classrooms. This would include the enlargement of the chapel to provide better for graduations and special events and the equipping of the classrooms for the use of the latest technology in multi-media presentations.

Fruitland continues to adapt to changing needs and opportunities while endeavoring always to remain "true to God's Word and loyal to His purpose." We are grateful for the continuing support of the Baptist State Convention in providing for us the opportunity to participate as partners moving toward the fulfillment of the Great Commission. Our alumni continue to assist us in the fulfillment of our mission by praying, recommending the school to prospective students, and giving. Visiting groups and individuals are welcome to visit our beautiful campus. Our offices are open except for holidays. For a tour of the campus contact Todd Edmiston, our Campus Services Director by telephone at 828-685-8886 or by E-mail at fruitland@mchsi.com.
